MARIETTA CAR HOURS. The several passenger trains will leave the "Upper-station Depot" as follows: Morning train, East, at 7:15 minutes before 8; Mail train, West, 12:11; Harrisburg Accommodation train, East, at 6:39 and the evening train West, at 7:02.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 30, 1864.

An essay was read before the Farmer's and Gardener's Society of East Donegal on Thursday evening last, by Mr. Henry M. Engle, in a very slim house; this we regret, for its vicinity should have crowded Temperance Hall to have heard anything practical from a practical and intelligent citizen of our midst; quite a spirited discussion followed the essay, participated in by Messrs. John J. Libhart, Daniel Engle, Henry Wolfe, A. N. Cassel, C. C. P. Groh and others. A meeting of the society will again take place on Thursday evening, February 18th.

The Directors of the Poor met on Monday last for the purpose of organizing and electing officers for the ensuing year. Messrs. John W. Clark and John K. Reed, the lately elected Directors were present, qualified, and took their seats.

The Board then proceeded to an election of officers for the Poor House and Hospital with the following result: Steward of Poor House—Sam'l Spiehl, man, Strasburg.

Clerk and Superintendent of Hospital—Jacob O. Steinbover.

Solicitor—R. W. Shenk.

Physicians—Dr. John L. Atlee, Jr., A. M. Miller, (East Lampeter,) John B. Leverage, J. Aug. Elber.

Treasurer—Amos S. Henderson.

Preparations have been commenced by the ladies of the Patriotic Circle of Marietta to aid in the Soldiers' Fair, to be held at Lancaster, commencing on the 22d of February. As all are interested in this effort to benefit the sick and wounded soldiers, they call upon the citizens to assist them by contributing money, articles to produce money, and their services at the weekly meetings of the Circle. These meetings will be held, as usual, every Friday evening, and all who are willing to do something now are requested to attend. Gentlemen are invited to meet with the ladies.

The Prison Inspectors, on Monday last, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Keeper—William S. Shirk.

Under-Keepers—Henry Shubert, Rudolph Christ.

Solicitor—Daniel G. Baker.

Physician—Dr. Wm. Compton.

Watchman—Henry Wernitz.

For Clerk there was a tie between S. H. Brubaker, the present incumbent, and Jacob L. Hoffmeier. Seven ballots were had without coming to a decision when the Board adjourned.

Communicated.

MR. BAKER:—Permit me, through The Mariettian, to render thanks to the people, the sabbath school and the church for their untiring zeal and successful efforts to raise the required sum for the purchase of a Melodeon for the M. B. Church of this place. The instrument has come to hand—it is a five octave Melodeon, and pronounced a very superior toned one. Mr. Gregg will now realize that his efforts have been crowned with success. On behalf of the trustees I would thank every one for their donations, and I can now say with pride that the instrument is now paid for in full—having a receipt to that effect in my possession, showing that it is paid for and that it cost just every cent that was collected. When it is introduced into Divine service the congregation will then only realize how much addition it is to church music.

Respectfully, G. W. WORRELL.

The Union League of this borough, on Monday evening last, unanimously and with much enthusiasm, endorsed the course of our Legislature in recommending the re-nomination of President Lincoln.

The Gardener's Monthly, one of the oldest and best magazines published, is advertised in our columns this week. This old favorite is much improved and should be in the farm house of every intelligent farmer.

The weather has been so exceedingly mild during the past week that the roads have been hardly passable. The ice bridge over the Susquehanna has had a deep cut down the centre and everything looks summer-like.

Read the adv. of the Farmer and Gardener in another column. This is an excellent magazine and should be in the hands of every farmer and gardener.

John Fondersmith is the Union candidate for Mayor of Lancaster. Geo. Sanderson is the Democratic.

An interesting letter from Sergt. Major Wisner will be found in this week's paper.

Godley for February is out. It is a beautiful No.

Don't forget to contribute to the Ladies Fair of Lancaster.

From a Mariettian at Chattanooga.

CAMP OF THE 79TH PENN. VOLTS. Chattanooga, Tenn., January 18, 1864.

Being successful in running a furlough through the military mill, and getting the approval of General Thomas, I started in December to spend Christmas and the holidays with friends and relatives in the loyal north. The steamboats being uncertain and the bridges on the railroad destroyed between Chattanooga and Bridgeport, I determined to walk fourteen miles to Whiteside, a station on the N. & C. R. R., to get on the cars. After a few delays and disappointments, I arrived at Nashville, where I felt positive of having surmounted all the difficulties of the trip. When I arrived within sixty miles of Louisville I began to notice fences and the out-buildings of farm houses; south of this point they are rarely to be seen. The contrast after crossing the Ohio river is strikingly great. The towns and villages are bright and active. The farm-houses, orchards and fences give evidence of prosperity and thriftiness. How different in Tennessee! The iron heel of war is visible throughout the State, while devastation marks its progress everywhere in the south. It has justly been said "the north knows little about war." The people apparently are becoming wealthy, while an apathy seems to pervade this community in regard to its suppression.

While passing through the States of Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, and my own native State, Pennsylvania, the cars were crowded with hale, hearty and muscular young men on their way to the Provost Marshals of the different districts, seeking exemption on the most trivial pretex. Imagine the feelings of a soldier who has been in the service for two years and a half, enduring all the hardships and privations incident to camp life, deprived of the luxuries and happiness of civil life, meeting the young men of his native State cowardly seeking exemption. Where are those young men of Marietta who but a few years ago, while at school, entertained their school mates by reading essays on such glorious subjects as "Patriotism," "Love of Country," "Our beloved Institutions" and the "American Flag"? Are they in the army defending the cause they so earnestly advocated? I am sorry to say but few of them are. Although Marietta is sparsely represented in the three-year service, she nevertheless can boast of a representative or two in almost every department. In Tennessee, Missouri, Virginia, and the Carolinas, are Mariettians bravely battling for our Union. You may ask, has not Marietta done as well as her neighboring towns? I presume she has; but have they done their duty? Has the State? Should a draft be necessary to raise the quota of so wealthy a State as Pennsylvania? And if necessary in the State, should it be in Lancaster county, the garden of the Keystone? Were the three-year troops, whose term of service will soon expire, encouraged by volunteer enlistments at home, there would be little difficulty in inducing the greater portion of them to enter the veteran service. The condition of affairs is otherwise; the people seem to be patiently awaiting the draft, none expecting to be the fortunate one called upon to shoulder his musket. The soldiers in the field view the war in the light that all have an equal share in it; and as they have had a three-year investment, it now becomes the home-guards to turn out en masse and crush the rebellion. When this is manifested the old troops will rally to their assistance.

After a pleasant stay of two weeks, I bid farewell to Marietta and its surroundings and started to rejoin our regiment. The cold spell in the beginning of the month interrupted travel so much that it was impossible to make connections. Sleighing seemed to be the chief employment of the citizens of the cities of Pittsburg, Indianapolis, Louisville and Nashville; at the latter city all the condemned government horses were brought into requisition to fill the great demand. The prices were moderate: only four dollars an hour. Between Louisville and Nashville there was seven or eight inches of snow; south of Nashville the snow gradually began to disappear until at Chattanooga I found none at all. I found the army as I left it: on three-quarter rations with not a sutler within thirty miles, while the animals receive about one day's forage in three. The Potomac troops that are with us, think this rather a rough department. The skies are beginning to grow bright. There are fine steamboats on the river, and on the afternoon of the 14th instant the first train of cars came through from Nashville; the bridges are all being repaired and the road in tact. This is the first train that has arrived at Chattanooga since it has been in our possession. The boys cheered lustily as they saw the train come around Lookout Point. They said it seemed as though civilization had again dawned. The army at Knoxville is mostly supplied by boat up the Tennessee river. The army of the Cumberland is, for the first time, snugly in winter quarters. Col. Hambricht is in command of the brigade, General Starkweather being ordered to Washington. Major Locher is president of a court-martial convened at Division Headquarters.

The boys of the 79th are jubilant over the exchange of arms which is about to take place. The whole of the army of the Cumberland will, in a short time, be armed with the Enfield or improved Springfield rifle, with the exception of the mounted men, who will receive the Spencer rifle; the intention being to arm the infantry with arms of the same calibre.

Captain John S. McBride, of Company D, is in command of the Regiment; he is a brave officer and efficient commander. S. E. W.

Friends and Relatives OF THE BRAVE SOLDIERS & SAILORS.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT.

ALL WHO HAVE FRIENDS AND RELATIVES in the Army or Navy, should take special care, that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

Coughs and Colds affecting Troops

Will be speedily relieved and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box. Sick Headache and want of Appetite Incident to Soldiers!

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or anxiety, which excites the respiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to do well.—The Pills, taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

Weakness and Debility induced by OVER FATIGUE.

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Debility and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the causes of the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the bowels, or the other symptoms of Debility.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION!

Sores and Ulcers, Blotches and Swellings can with certainty be radically cured. The Pills are taken night and morning, and the Ointment is freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part or break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a LASTING CURE.

For Wounds cured occasioned by the Bayonet Sabre or the Bullet, Scars or Bruises.

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills at the rate of one penny per box; and the Soldier or Sailor who is wounded and almost dying might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then cover it with a piece of linen from his knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief.—Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflammation.

Every Soldier's Knapsack and Seaman's Chest should be provided with these invaluable Remedies.

IMPORTANT CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK and LONDON," are discernible as a contravention in every leaf of the book of Directions, around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light.—A handsome reward will be given to any person rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties who counterfeit the medicines or vend the same, knowing them to be spurious.

* * * Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the civilized world, at 25c. 62c. and $1 each.

N.B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in the use of these articles, are affixed to each Pot. Dealers in my well known medicines can have SHOW CARTS, CIRCULARS, &c., sent them, FREE OF EXPENSE, by addressing THOMAS HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New-York.

There is a considerable saving in buying the larger sizes. [Dec 25-63]
