

The Mariettian

F. L. Baker, Editor.

MARIETTA, PA.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1864.

IN WANT OF MONEY: We are very much in need of money, just now; more than half of the present volume has expired and yet but very few have paid for volume ten. We will be compelled to adhere strictly to our terms—found on the first page—to charge $1.50 for subscriptions remaining unpaid until the expiration of the year.

The Lochiel Iron Works, with which General Simon Cameron is connected, are about to put up very extensive works at Harrisburg, which are to be completed by the first of July next. Five hundred men will be employed in them, and the works, it is expected, will produce seventy tons of railroad iron per day. The facilities for reaching the coal and iron regions at Harrisburg are very great, and the location of the works where so many railroads connect cannot but prove an advantage.

Dr. H. A. Sheldon, a traveling dentist, administered what is known as laughing gas to several persons at a public exhibition at Swanton Falls, Vt., a few evenings since. Among the number was a daughter of Mr. W. H. Bell, a young lady of about seventeen years of age. The next day Miss Bell was taken sick, and died on the 3d instant, from the effects of the gas. She was a strong, robust girl, and was in apparently good health when she inhaled the gas.

John T. Winslow, a prominent business man of Westbrook, Maine, forged it is alleged, to the amount of five thousand dollars last week, and made his escape. He was found by the officers, at a party with his wife. He was arrested, but obtained permission to drive his wife home. During the drive he managed to get slightly ahead of the officers, and slipped from the sleigh, leaving his wife to drive home, while he departed to parts unknown.

The rebel Government has established a horse infantry for broken down stock in the army. It is situated in Laurens county, Georgia, twelve miles from Oconee Station, on the Central Railroad. Three thousand acres of land are employed for the purpose. The stables are adapted to peculiar diseases. Fifty negroes and eight white men are employed, and two professional veterinary surgeons.

The Montreal Transcript says that George Armstrong, a private of the 30th British regiment, who took advantage of his leave of absence to cross the American side, enlist there, receive the bounty, and then return to his regiment boasting of his rascality, has been tried by court martial, and sentenced to be drummed out of service, and afterwards imprisoned for two years.

A letter from Natchez, Miss., says the town is showing signs of returning vigor. Planters who hitherto held aloof are returning to their allegiance and receiving back their landed property. No less than ten have taken the President's oath within a few days. Deserters are coming in daily.

On the first of February there were 4940 patients in the army hospitals in and about Washington. The total number of sick in all the hospitals of the country to the date above mentioned is 42,786; number of beds, 30,913; vacant beds, 37,456.

A merchant of Philadelphia, who a few years ago was reported to be wealthy, and making annually from five to ten thousand dollars, is now a driver on a passenger railroad car, at $9 per week.

The Maryland Senate has appointed a special Committee relative to the purchase of the Antietam battle ground, and the erection of a monument to the memory of those who fell there.

George W. Curtis, heretofore an editorial contributor, has now become editor of Harper's Weekly. He is a very able writer.

The surgeons examined Thackeray's brain after his death. It was found to weigh 58 1/2 ounces—far above the average of that of ordinary men.

The First National Bank of New Orleans has gone into operation. It received over $600,000 in deposits on the first day.

The third servant of Jeff Davis has run away, so says the Richmond Examiner of the 4th instant.

A FEAT OF PENMANSHIP.—The late Mr. Thackeray was an accomplished penman, and used to pride himself on the neatness and dexterity with which he could cram the greatest possible number of words into the smallest possible space. A few weeks before his death he was present at the usual Saturday dinner, at which the contributors to Punch are accustomed to meet and arrange the programme for the next week's number. The copywriter turning upon Mr. Thackeray's skill in this way, he was challenged to give an illustration, whereupon he produced a four-penny piece, and having marked the circle of the coin with a pen on a piece of paper, he drew in the centre a crown, and filled up the remaining space with the Lord's Prayer, which he transcribed without a single contraction except in the case of the word "which," spelling it "wh." Singular to relate, too, the pen used was an ordinary goose-quill which happened to be in the room.

The editor of the Richmond Examiner, like Mark Tapley, is jolly under very adverse circumstances. He proposes that since the repeal of the substitute law has forced into the army both fat and lean, that the very heavy men, whose size incapacitates them for the infantry and artillery exercises, and whose weight would prove fatal to their horses should they join the cavalry, should raise a company, consisting of men weighing 250 pounds and over, to take the field in iron-clad omnibuses, and to be called the Omnibusters. He argues that the size, alone, of these warriors, would have a very demoralizing effect upon the "Yankees," who have been taught to believe that the rebels are near the point of starvation.

Caleb Mercer and his wife Ann died at Kennett Square, Chester county, a few days since. He was in the 79th year of his age, and she in her 76th.—They died within forty-eight hours of each other—and were buried at the same time—on Wednesday of last week—having made the journey of life together, for more than half a century.—They were married in April, 1811.—They were pleasant and lovely in their lives and in death they were not divided.

The Chattanooga Rebel says:—Gen. Humphrey Marshall is a candidate for Congress from the State of Kentucky. As he weighs about five hundred pounds, the presumption is, that if elected he will be able to fill his seat. He is much better qualified for Congress than for light infantry.

The workmen on the Pacific Railroad, eastern division, on New Year's day, got up an agreement, which has been numerously signed, pledging that for every profane word uttered during the year 1864, they would pay one dollar for the benefit of the Soldiers' Aid Fund.

A Western paper records the presentation of a beautiful silk dress by fifty-five citizens of Burlington, Wis., to Miss Isabella Crawford, who demonstrated her pluck and patriotism by knocking down one John Russell, of Dover, for having insulted the memory of her brave brother, who fell at the battle of Chickamauga.

The hero of Gettysburg, who fought during the July battles "on his own account," has been reported favorably in the Senate. It grants a pension of eight dollars a month.

A company of Frenchmen has been formed in Chicago for the purpose of catching rats, curing their skins, and exporting them to Paris, where they are made up into the finest quality of "kid" gloves.

It would seem to be settled that the seat of the rebel government is to be removed to Columbia, S. C. Indeed some of the rebel papers say that Richmond itself is to be abandoned and Lee's army is to go South.

Madame Succa, of the Berlin opera, is such a favorite there that she has been engaged for life at an enormous salary, with a six months' vacation annually to rest herself.

In Nevada, artesian wells are bored horizontally into mountain sides, instead of perpendicularly into the ground. Several valuable "veins" have been struck.

Artificial marble has been obtained both by Sir James Hall, of England, and Professor Rose, of Prussia, by subjecting chalk to a high heat in a close vessel.

The rebels write their secret letters with sulphuric acid freely diluted with spring water, and held before the fire, the letters turn black. A quill pen must be used.

Raw cotton and castor oil have restored frost-bitten limbs when amputation was thought to be necessary.—The cure is said to be infallible.

Some pathologists claim that diptheria has been occasioned by the introduction and use of kerosene oil.

The law of Pekin, China, ordains that if a man is not married at twenty he shall be drummed out of town!

It has been discovered that a great deal of whisky is sent to Newbern, N. C., in barrels purporting to contain cider. These barrels are furnished with false heads, one corresponding to each head (outside), the compartment formed by which contained cider as also did the compartment corresponding to the bung. This, of course, left two compartments, which were filled with whisky. So when the barrels were broached by the custom-house officer, they contained cider. The quantity of whisky would be small, but amply sufficient to pay a handsome profit, when $100 could be made on a whole barrel of whisky, as has been done often.

On Monday, in the House of Representatives, Dr. Bowman, representative from this county, read in place an act authorizing the School Directors of Manheim township, to levy a special tax for the payment of bounties to volunteers to fill the quota of that township, and on his motion the orders were suspended, and the bill considered, and passed finally.

Professor Johnson says that a pound of cheese is equal in nutritive value to two pounds of flesh. The Europeans seem to be better acquainted with this fact than our own people.—With us, cheese is regarded rather as a luxury, while in England it is considered one of the substantial articles of food, and it is not uncommon for workmen there to make a full meal on bread and cheese alone.

An acutely-sensible lady of New York observes that of the births taking place in that city, those which occur in families whose attachments to the union is decided and zealous, are mostly boys, while in families where there is a decided sympathy for the secession cause, they are girls. It has often been said that in countries wasted by long wars, which carry off the male population, the male births largely predominate.

An English photographer, Mr. Warren, lately took a photograph of the eye of an ox, a few hours after death, and on examining the impression through the microscope, distinctly perceived depicted on the retina, the exact delineation of the stones with which the slaughter-house was paved, being the last object which affected the vision of the animal on bending down its head to receive the fatal blow.

Prof. Agassiz, whilst in Pittsburg received an autograph letter, dated January 4th, 1864, from Louis Napoleon, Emperor of the French, inviting his return to the country which gave him birth and with whose language and institutions he was so well acquainted and identified. The Professor, however, will decline the offer, preferring to live in the United States.

California raisins are the greatest novelty. They are equal to the best imported and do not cost near as much.—Very few have appeared in the Atlantic states, but in course of time they will drive the foreign fruit from our markets.

Merchants and others are invited to read the card of Howell & Bourke, manufacturers of Wall Papers, &c., &c., 4th & Market Sts., Philadelphia—in this issue. This is a reliable firm, and worthy of public patronage.

The Pennsylvania Farmer and Gardener for February is out. This is an excellent magazine; only $1 a year. W. S. Young & Co., publishers, 52 N. 6th st., Philadelphia.

DR. TOBIAS' Venetian Liniment.—DIED OF CROUP. What a pretty and interesting child I saw last week! But now, alas! it is no more. Such was the conversation of two gentlemen riding down town in the cars. Died of croup! how strange! when Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment is a certain cure, if taken in time. Now, Mothers, we appeal to you.—It is not for the paltry gain and profit we make but for the sake of your infant child that now lies playing at your feet. Croup is a dangerous disease; but use Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment in time, and it is robbed of its terrors. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

A PURE AND POWERFUL TONIC. Corrective and alternative of wonderful efficacy in disease of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels; cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Plethoric States, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex, arising from bodily weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical elements, no fiery excitant, but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and so far as the human system can be protected by means against malarial diseases engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventative and irresistible as a remedy, and it is the only remedy to resort to in apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being pined with quinine for months in vain, until nearly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed cases of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and pleasant aperient, as well as upon the liver, it invariably relieves the constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretory organs. Persons of feeble habit, habit to nervous attacks, lowness of spirits and fits of languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agency of Bittins Tonic is immediately assumed by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

Last, but not least, it is the Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day. No family medicine has ever so universally, and it may be truly said, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pa. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers every where.
