CRITTENDEN'S

COLLEGE, N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut Sts.

PHILADELPHIA.

This Institution, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchafts and Business Men in our Country.

The Object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparations for business.

The Branches taught are, Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade; Pennmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, Mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

The System of Instruction is peculiar; no classes of set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain A DIPLOMA, which will prove a recom-mendation for them to any Mercautile House. Crittenden's Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.
