MARIETTA, PA.

SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 1864.

The habit of generalizing from a single statement, sometimes causes ludicrous misrepresentations. Thus it was stated in the newspapers, some time ago, as a good joke that an old lady refused to touch a newspaper containing the President's message because he had the small-pox. This story went to France, whereupon Galignani's (Paris) Messenger solemnly announces that "so stupid are the lower orders of the United States that they hesitated to take the journals containing the President's message from the post-office, fearing that they might catch the small-pox, under which the writer of the message was reported to be suffering."

Towards the close of last week, a raft was discovered on fire, while passing down the Susquehanna river in the vicinity of Northumberland. Some persons from shore reached the raft as soon as possible, when they found three men on board, the one buried to a crisp, and the other two insensible. Being thus far gone, they could give no account of themselves, their names, nor anything concerning the disaster. It is supposed that the straw and inflammable materials lying loosely about in the cabin took fire while they were asleep, or, what is more lamentable, intoxicated. The two men living were not expected to recover at latest accounts.—Lewisburg Chronicle.

A lady, who having recently visited the Army of the Potomac, thus briefly describes the generals she saw there: "I saw General Meade, who is tall and slender, has a full iron-grey beard, wears eye-glasses, and did not strike me as more formidable or ferocious than other men. I saw General Knappe, who, instead of being the tall, dashing, flashing-eyed hero of our imagination, is small and slight, with light hair, and laughs incessantly. I saw General Sedgwick, who is merry-looking, and not at all the austere patriot he has been represented."

Hon. C. J. Faulkner, ex-Minister to France, came as far as Winchester, with a view to coming within our lines and taking the oath. At Winchester he was met by his brother-in-law, who persuaded him from his purpose. The brother-in-law is strongly opposed to the Union Government authorities, because he was arrested a short time since and held as a hostage for the safe and speedy return of a loyal citizen carried off by the rebels, named Dooley.

Hon. Owen Lovejoy, member of Congress from Illinois, died in Brooklyn, N. Y., on the 25th ultimo. Mr. Lovejoy was a clergyman, and was elected to Congress ten years ago, and has held his seat ever since. He was a man of decided and extreme anti-slavery views, and was always bold in giving expression to them. He had been ill for some time before his death, with an affection of the liver and kidneys.

By common consent, the Hon. Josiah B. Grinnell, of Iowa, a clergyman, an anti-slavery lecturer, a shepherd, with a flock of six thousand fine-wooled merino sheep, and the owner of a village in which not one drop of intoxicating drink has ever been sold, has been indicated to Speaker Colfax as the fittest member in the House to take Owen Lovejoy's place in the Committee on Territories.

The rebel General Pemberton says, in his official report, that he selected the 4th of July for the surrender of Vicksburg, because he knew that the "Yankees" would attach great importance to the entrance on that day. He says he was willing to gratify the vanity of the enemy in order to obtain better terms for his army than could be extorted at any other time.

It is stated that Gen. Rosecrans' senior aide-de-camp arrived in Washington on Saturday, from St. Louis, Miss., to protest against the action of the Senate Military Committee in the case of Col. Sanderson. The Secretary of War at once ordered him under arrest, for violation of the rules of the Department, in being absent from his post of duty without leave from Washington.

An unpleasant development was made in Cincinnati, the other day, concerning Catawba brandy—responsible vintners declaring that the pure article would cost from five to eight dollars a gallon; adding that there was no genuine article of the kind in the market—the quality generally sold consisting of pomace, whisky, and fuel oil.

Printers are scarce in Chicago. Many of the craft have taken up another sort of "shooting stick" and gone to the war.

Colonel C. D. Miller and Greene Smith, (son-in-law and son of Gerritt Smith,) assisted by a number of ladies and gentlemen, lately gave three entertainments in Peterboro, New York, for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission. The church, says a correspondent of the Tribune, was well filled by the citizens of the place on the first two evenings, to witness the charades and beautiful tableaux which had been prepared. Buckstone's comedy, "The Irish Lion," was finely performed each evening. On the third evening, March 22d, the crowd filled every nook and corner, for, in addition to the other attractions, the Hon. Gerritt Smith appeared in Moorish costume—and declaimed, in fine style, Othello's address to the Senate, &c.—His daughter, Mrs. Miller, appeared as Desdemona. So grand a personation of the brave but jealous Moor, says the correspondent, is seldom seen.

Senator Hicks, of Maryland, has so far recovered from his recent severe illness, and from the surgical operation which he lately underwent, in an amputation of one of his feet, as to admit of his removal to his home in Maryland; whither he proceeded last week. "Such is the vigor of his constitution," and so favorable are the present symptoms of his convalescence that he hopes to resume his official duties in the Senate before the adjournment of the present session of Congress.

Captain Speake, in his "Journal," mentions the Wakidi, an African tribe of stark naked people, who live up in trees, have small stools fixed on behind, always ready for sitting; wear their hair hanging down the back, all covered with cowrie shells; suspend beads from wire attached to their ears and lower lips, and wear strong iron collars and bracelets. This people are fierce in war but no other tribe can stand against them, though they only fight with short spears.

A soldier, slightly inebriated, the other day went into a news depot to buy a paper, and seeing the Age lying upon the counter, inquired the cost; taking two (all that there were) at the price, he walked coolly back to the stove, and chucked them in, saying, "I'll buy all that you have every night, so long as my money lasts."

A man, named Russell, was crossing the railroad bridge at East Bridgeport, Conn., when a train of cars overtook him, and he jumped into the river. His feet went down into the mud and held him there, with his head just under water, until assistance was rendered.

An iron flag has been placed on the Patent Office at Washington. It is handsomely painted, in waving folds to imitate the national colors, and is said to present a good appearance. These metal flags are made by the patentee, A. Watson, of Washington city.

Gov. Curtin has dispatched his military secretary to Washington, to look after the interests of the State, and the several districts in the matter of quotas, credits and deficits. The recent statements as to the deficiency of Pennsylvania are grossly erroneous.

It is expected that the foreign immigration to this country this year will be over three hundred thousand persons. A proper distribution of these laborers in the localities where most needed will benefit both the country and the laborer.

Gen. James Watson Webb, U. S. Minister to Brazil, an old friend of Louis Napoleon in the days of his exile, has received an autograph letter from the Emperor of France, in which he expresses himself despondingly concerning the Mexican Empire.

The small-pox has become so prevalent in the mining districts of Northumberland county that it was deemed prudent to adjourn court, which met in Sunbury last week. The juries were discharged, and the civil suits continued until next term.

Larz Anderson, of Cincinnati, sends to the East Tennessee refugee fund a bequest of five hundred dollars from the late Nicholas Longworth, and adds thereto a gift of two hundred and fifty dollars on his own account.

Wm. H. Diamond, mail agent on the Hudson River Railroad, has been arrested at Troy for circulating counterfeit postal currency. He had a lot on his person when seized.

The table and chair used by Washington at the time of resigning his commission are to be exhibited among the curiosities at the Maryland State Fair this month.

An effort is being made by parties interested to have the Bank of Northumberland moved to Sunbury. A bill for this purpose has been brought into the House, at Harrisburg.

A bridge will be built over the Niagara river at Buffalo immediately. The cost is estimated at one million dollars, and three millions have been subscribed.

The Susquehanna Tide-water canal was opened for navigation on the 1st instant.

General News Items.

There was quite an excitement in Cincinnati on Friday. A "body-snatcher" was discovered making off with a corpse, when policemen, firemen, soldiers, and civilians took after the offender and chased him nearly an hour before overhauling him.

Philadelphia is endeavoring to get the seat of the Pennsylvania State Government removed from Harrisburg to that city. The Common Council have passed an ordinance pledging a million of dollars for the necessary buildings. The art of making lemonade was patented in Paris in 1660.

Napoleon the third will be sixty-three years old the present month.

A statue of the Empress Eugenie is to be erected in the market-place of Puebla, Mexico.

It is learned from the President's friends that he is entirely averse to giving Generals McClellan or Fremont commands.

All sutlers have been ordered to leave the Army of the Potomac on the 4th day of April. This order is understood by many persons here to mean that a forward movement will be made immediately, but there is no ground for such a belief.

The Washington correspondent of the Norristown Free Press, states that the full-length portrait of ex-President Franklin Pierce has been removed from the rotunda of the Capitol, and cast among the rubbish.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has retired from the Editorial chair of the New York Independent.

Pennsylvania, it is now said, is only 16,000 short of all the calls for troops made by the President.

Several Ohio gentlemen paid a visit to the Hon. C. L. Vallandigham last week, and presented him with a purse of $2,000.

The Boston Post says "hundreds of families are either dispensing with butter entirely, or using it in the smallest possible quantities, on account of its extravagant price."

Two women, sisters, who had at different times eloped with married men from Youngtown, and being deserted went back there to reside, have been tarred and feathered by the female inhabitants of the town.

William M. Watts has sold the Pine Grove Iron Works, situated in Dickinson township, Cumberland county, Pa., to Jay Cooke & Co., for the sum of two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars.

Fifty German recruits arrived in Boston, having been secured in Germany by a Boston agent. It is stated that 1,500 more have been secured to fill Massachusetts' quota.

The Hon. John Banks, formerly a member of Congress, and more recently President Judge of Berks county, died at Reading on the 4th instant.

The Western Pennsylvania Sanitary Fair will open in Pittsburgh on the 7th of June. The building used at Cleveland for the Ohio Sanitary Fair has been purchased for $8,000, and removed to Pittsburgh to be used for a like purpose there.

John Ruskin has become rich, his father dying, and his death proving highly profitable to the son. The old gentleman was in the sherry-wine business, and made much money by it, being a gacious and successful. John can now become twice as eccentric as formerly. Genius requires gold for its support.

Silver has just been discovered in the pineries in Burnett county, Wisconsin. A man chopping wood suddenly turned out from a ledge of rock a "chip" of copper and silver; a further examination revealed a vein of silver ore.

Admiral Dahlgren has given up the hope of recovering the body of his son, and will on Monday leave for Charleston, to resume the command of the South Atlantic Squadron.

The pioneers of Rochester, N. Y., a few days ago, paid their respects to a remarkable character—Alexander Miller, now 104 years of age. He was born in Quebec, March 14, 1760. His father died when he was six months old. His mother went, when he was still an infant, to New York to reside.

The Copperhead women of Ohio say they are determined to make up the sum of fifty thousand dollars for the Vallandigham fund, so that the Ohio traitor can live ignominiously at his ease in Canada of the fifty thousand dollars, five thousand have been paid in!

The military authorities at St. Louis have closed the gambling houses in that city and confiscated their contents.

Ben. Wade, of Ohio, lately excused himself for carrying an umbrella on a sunny day, saying he had heard the Army of the Potomac was in motion, and it always rained within twelve hours after that army made a move.

Among the novelties of the day in England are Quakers with moustaches.

THE OLD RESIDENCE OF WM. PENN.—The quaint old house at the southeast corner of Second street and Norris' alley, below Chestnut street, Philadelphia, has recently been purchased by a progressive citizen. It will shortly be torn down to make room for buildings more in accordance with the spirit of the present age. The old house derives its chief interest as the once residence of William Penn. The house was built for Samuel Carpenter. It was occupied as the city residence of William Penn and family, while in Philadelphia, on his second visit in 1700, and in this house was born his son, John Penn, "the American," the only one of the race ever born in this country. The house is now about one hundred and seventy-five years old, and is the last relic of the Penn family.

Ellen Welch was recently fined five dollars and committed to the Bridewell for ninety days, in Chicago, for drunkenness and vagrancy. The Chicago Journal says she is the niece of Daniel O'Connell, the daughter of his sister, Mary O'Connell, and that she could claim as her father the lord of Kearnay Castle. She eloped with a young officer, and the couple went to Philadelphia, where they resided one year, when her husband died. The widow came to Chicago, married again, lost her husband, got into disreputable company, and went from bad to worse, until she brought up in a police court.

During General Sherman's expedition, a wounded Federal officer crawled into the yard of a secess planter, when the latter took an axe, and with a fiendishness scarcely credible, struck him on the head, killing him instantly. A small party of Federal soldiers coming up shortly after, the negroes shot the planter and placed him in the house, which they burned to the ground.

The 8th Wisconsin Regiment is accompanied by a pet eagle, which shares all its marches and battles. In an engagement he flaps his wings and mingles his voice with the tumult. He has been twice wounded, one shot taking away most of his tail feathers. He is at home on furlough and is attracting a great deal of attention.

The City Clerk of Springfield, Mass., has exhumed from some old rubbish the "Springfield Towne" treasurer's book, containing a record of the receipts and disbursements of the town from January, 1665, to April, 1696. This is the oldest document relating to town affairs that has been preserved.

Paul Morphy, the chess-player, has just returned from Paris to New Orleans. He went to Paris about four years ago as a loyal man, beat all the Europeans at chess, and was flattered and honored immensely. He made his late visit as a rebel, got beaten at chess, and attracted no attention whatever.

Two hundred and fifty rebel prisoners (Louisianians) at Indianapolis have written to Gov. Hahn to say that the school of misfortune has taught them wisdom, and that they desire to take the oath and return to citizenship in Louisiana—especially now that it has become a free state.

In nearly all the New-England States colored persons have voted, under certain restrictions for more than a quarter of a century. In the great State of New-York they also vote, they also did under the old Constitution of Pennsylvania, which was altered in 1837.

An arrangement was made, while Grant was at Fortress Monroe, by which the exchange of prisoners is to proceed, on terms entirely satisfactory to the Government. The rebel Commissioner Ould was at Old Point while Grant was there.

An autograph letter from Lieut. Gen. Grover, accepting an invitation to visit Grover's Theatre, has been sold by Mr. Grover, for one hundred dollars for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission.

A woman has been carrying on a curious confidence game in Milwaukee, Green Bay, &c., Wis. She dressed in male attire, and married young ladies and ran away with their money.

The King of Bavaria died from lockjaw, caused by the scratch of a pin upon his breast while attaching an order to his coat, death ensuing in four days after receiving the wound.

Capt. H. G. Smith, of the 93d N. Y. Regiment, died at Hart's Island, last week, from the effects of the bite of a rat on one of his fingers.

A woman at Green Bay, Wis., cultivated a moustache, married another woman, robbed her of her money, and skedaddled.

A span of Patterson horses has just been sold to a Wall street broker for the snug sum of seven thousand dollars.

New York city has a church for every three thousand inhabitants; a grogery for every one hundred.

The great new iron-clad Dictator, now almost ready for sea at New York, is destined for a voyage to Europe.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters is one of the greatest strengthening preparations extant. It is especially adapted to those who are afflicted with the fever and ague, or any other disease arising from a disordered condition of the digestive organs. For the fever and ague there is perhaps no medicine in the world equal to it, as it enters, purifies and replenishes the blood, which is so important to bring about healthy action in diseases of this nature. The Bitters are now among the most popular, and at the same time, valuable specifics in the medicine world. In recommending it to the public, we are fully conscious of doing them a great service, knowing, as we do, their many excellent qualities, and sure and speedy action in all cases where the disease is caused by irregularity of the digestive organs. A trial will suffice for the most skeptical.

Friends and Relatives of the brave SOLDIERS & SAILORS.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT.

ALL WHO HAVE FRIENDS and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take special care, that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

Coughs and Colds affecting Troops.

Will be speedily relieved and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

Sick Headache and want of Appetite Incident to Soldiers!

Those feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to do well.—The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

Weakness and Debility induced by OVER FATIGUE.

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will cleanse the liver and stomach, and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION!

Sores and Ulcers, Blotches and Swellings can, with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the Ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a LASTING CURE.

For Wounds either occasioned by the Bayonet.

Sabre or the Bullet, Sore or Bruise.

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then cover it with a piece of linen from his knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief.—Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflammation.

Every Soldier's Knapsack and Seaman's Chest should be provided with these invaluable Remedies.

IMPORTANT CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK and LONDON," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions, around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light.—A handsome reward will be given to any one detecting such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or violating the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the civilized world, in pots or boxes, at 3c, 7c, and $1.00 each.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot.
