

The Mariettian.

F. L. Baker, Editor.

MARIETTA, PA.

SATURDAY, MAY 28, 1864.

The latest war news, just before going to press is that Lee is rapidly retreating toward Richmond with Grant in hot pursuit; before this reaches our subscribers a decided battle will have been fought.

The great Sabitary Fair commences in Philadelphia on Tuesday the 7th day of June. The prices of admission are officially announced as follows: For the inaugural ceremonies and private view on June 7, $2. Season tickets on and after June 8, to all parts of the Fair, excepting exhibitions for children, $5. Single admissions on and after June 8, 50 cents; children under 13 years, 25 cents. To active members and aids to committees, season tickets, on the requisition of the several committees, $3.

According to the Portland Press, a gentleman in Limington, Me., following the advice of some one in cases of balkiness in horses, seized his horse by the tongue, when the animal suddenly turned back, and the tongue came out by the roots. In another case to cure kicking a rope was passed around the hind leg of the horse and then carried into his mouth. The first time the animal kicked the jaw broke. Both horses were immediately killed.

A proposition has already been made to celebrate the first anniversary of the battle and victory of Gettysburg on the Fourth of July next, on which occasion it is also proposed to lay the corner stone of a grand monument to the memory of the gallant dead. The subject will be finally settled at an early meeting of the State Commissioners having in charge the construction of the National Cemetery.

Careless persons sometimes put Revenue stamps on letters—presuming they will answer as well as postage stamps. This is a mistake. The sender loses the revenue stamp, while the receiver of the letter must pay six cents postage, on the same. Revenue stamps will not pay postage, neither will Postage stamps answer in the place of Revenue stamps. People should remember this.

J. Morrissey, the pugilist, has been sued in New York by a Mexican named Pablo de Arista, to recover twenty-three thousand dollars, which, it is alleged, were lost at the gaming table. Nine thousand dollars of the amount are claimed to have been lost at Saratoga last summer, and the balance at the defendant's house in New York city during the fall.

A soldier of the 1st Pa. Cavalry, in the Potomac army, was a short time since found asleep near Warrenton, Va., having slept 24 hours. He stepped up to his captain and said, "Captain, I die to-morrow at 4 o'clock, and the war will end in June. You have no more for me to do." As the clock struck 4 on the following day he died without a groan.

A curious work on cosmetics, recently published, strongly condemns rouge and pearl powder, but informs the ladies how they may give color to their cheeks without danger. Thus: Take a fragment of bright crimson silk, dip it in strong spirits of wine and rub it over the cheeks till a moderate tint appears. This defies detection and is harmless.

A bill has passed Congress granting a pension of fifty dollars per month to the widows of Major General E. F. Whipple and Brigadier General Hiram G. Berry, from the time of the deaths of these officers and during their widowhood; and the bill for the relief of Mary J. Baker, widow of General E. D. Baker, granting her a pension as above.

On Tuesday last week, while some workmen were engaged in excavating for the new freight depot in Lambertville, N. J., they came upon the remains of an Indian about two feet below the surface, lying under the roots of a stump of an old pear tree. By the remains were found a singularly shaped pipe and arrow head.

A little boy in Chicago was left recently to "take care of the baby" while the mother made a call. Failing to keep quiet, he took a pillow from the cradle, placed it over the child's head, and sat upon it. The mother returned just in time to save the infant from being smothered.

In a late letter John M. Botts said: "From the portico of my house I and my family have seen nine battles fought on my own fields, and just before my own door, between hostile troops, who but yesterday, as it were, boasted of a common history, a common nationality, and a common destiny."

The New York Methodist advanced a step further than the proposition to erect invalid pews in churches for those who cannot sit through the service and suggests that "sleeping pews" would be a great accommodation to those who find it so inconvenient to rest during the sermon while sitting up. They often let their heads fall forward or backwards so suddenly as to alarm or amuse their neighbors, and the motion wakes them up with a jerk that is dangerous to the spinal column and the gravity of the place. A sleeping pew for this class of hearers would be a great comfort to them and a relief to others.

John M. Phillips, a Philadelphian, charged with having committed an outrageous crime, was about to be tried in court at Springfield, Illinois, on Tuesday last. He had been placed in front of the Judge's bench when a brother of the girl fired a revolver at him, wounding him severely. This excited the crowd present, and a rope was brought to hang him. The prisoner was, however, removed to another room, and escaped hanging. A rush was subsequently made for him, the room broken into, and several shots fired at Phillips, one of them taking effect, and he died shortly afterward.

On Tuesday last the New York World, Herald and Journal of Commerce—all copperhead journals—published a false proclamation of the President, appointing the 26th instant as a day of national fasting, humiliation, and prayer, announcing that the Virginia campaign had failed, and calling out four hundred thousand men. In this insolent document the President is made to speak of his performance of imperative duty with a heavy heart, and to represent the country as being in immediate danger from the rebel power. It now appears that they were sold—no doubt willingly—and they offer one thousand dollars reward for the perpetrator.

"Black Fanny," the oldest inhabitant of Lebanon, died on last Saturday week, aged something over a century. She was born a slave in this State, but lived to see slavery not only extinct in Pennsylvania, but to hear of its committing felo de se all over the country. She was a consistent Christian woman, and by her upright and consistent life won panegyrics even from those who believe that "the black man has no rights which the white man is bound to respect," and who seem to think the United States Constitution an instrument got up for the express purpose of protecting slavery.

"Lindenwald," the country seat of the late ex-President Van Buren, has recently been sold by the Hon. John Van Buren, its late proprietor, to a broker in New York, for about $36,000. The property consists of three hundred acres of the best quality of farming land. The grounds around the mansion are laid out with taste, and the garden, which is large, contains the choicest of fruit, while an extensive hot house is filled with fruits from every clime.

Three steamers are supplying the rebels with clothing where the White empties into the Arkansas river. A notorious smuggler, rebel and perjurer was caught carrying percussion caps to the rebels, and will be shot at Memphis. Major General Washburne has arrived to command Western Tennessee. Rebel prisoners captured at Pleasant Hill state that Gen. Steele has taken Shreveport.

At Fort Alleghany, Pennsylvania a few days ago, a funeral procession was passing over a bridge to bury a child of Mr. George Moore, when the bridge gave way, and precipitating the mourners into the water, another child belonging to Mr. Moore was drowned, together with three of his brother's children, and one or two other lives were lost.

What an amount of suffering and disease among the volunteers would be prevented by the free use of Holloway's Pills and Ointment. For wounds, sores and scurvy, the ointment is a certain cure, and for bowel complaints, fevers, small pox, &c., the pills are the best medicine in the world. Only 30 cents per box or pot.

Mr. Calob Hodgson, Mayor of Carlisle, (England), being asked for some aid to the tercentenary celebration, refused, saying: "Shakespeare was a clever man, but he might have turned his talents to better advantage."

Sixty hostages, arrested in Fredericksburg, arrived in Washington and were committed to the old Capitol. They are held for the return of our wounded men who were sent to Richmond by the citizens of Fredericksburg after the first battle at the Wilderness.

Miss Josephine L. Stevens, of Lyons, N. Y., a few days ago, after purchasing her wedding dress, was taken suddenly ill and died. She was buried on her intended wedding day, and her wedding dress was used as her shroud.

A Prussian Countess, seventeen years old, shot herself at Baden recently, and was not expected to survive. Cause—a letter from her betrothed, saying she could not marry her at present, and releasing her from her engagement.

General News Items.

In the death of Meyerbeer, which happened at Paris on the 3d of May, the world has lost, in the current sense, its most celebrated composer, for up to his latest year, Meyerbeer was king of the operatic stage. Born in Berlin in 1794, he died 70 years old.

The teachers and students in the Young Ladies Seminary at Monroe, Michigan, to the number of forty, have pledged themselves to purchase no more foreign imported articles of dress or luxury while the war lasts.

The Bury (England) Times says that such is the demand for passage to the United States that no engagement can now be made in any steamer for New York until near the end of April. The fares are rapidly advancing.

Tieman, the Cincinnati billiard player, gives notice that he will play any man in America who will come to Cincinnati for $5,000 and the championship in billiards. Kavanagh offers to play any man in the world for $10,000 and the championship.

The number of printing presses now in operation or ready for use in the Treasury building in Washington is so large, that if placed in a line they would extend a quarter of a mile.

The strange spectacle of a man of color on the floor of the Senate, received with distinguished consideration by the most eminent men of that body, was presented on Tuesday last, in the Haytian minister, Col. Romaine.

It is understood that an arrangement has been entered into between our Government and that of Spain for the purpose of rendering up slave-traders who escape from Cuba to the United States, and from the United States to Cuba.

One or two of the Rochester papers are asking for young women to work as compositors. Women are employed in several printing offices in Chicago and elsewhere with success.

Christ Church, in Hartford, Conn., has voted ten thousand dollars to buy a set of chimneys for its steeple.

They have in London a home for lost and starving dogs.

At Gloucester, Rhode Island, Mr. Elisha Herenden, aged eighty-three, recently married Mrs. Eleanor Lushere, aged eighty-eight, being his eighth wife.

General Butler has suspended the exchange of prisoners for the present, and the flag of truce boats are prohibited from passing up and down the James River.

A Grand Jury in Chicago, recently, had to suspend business until one of its members recovered from an attack of delirium tremens.

The old Penn. Mansion in Philadelphia has been purchased by the Pennsylvania Historical Society at the price of $30,000.

The slave trade still continues active in the West Indies and Central America. Five cargoes have recently arrived at Remedios, New Grenada.

All the colored troops at Camp William Penn, Philadelphia, have been ordered away, and will leave as soon as transportation can be furnished.

A man has been held for trial in Boston, recently, on a charge of publishing an advertisement of a place where medicine and information might be obtained for illegal purposes.

A mare belonging to S. Whipple, of San Mateo, Cal., gave birth to a colt with a camel's head, on Friday last. Mare and colt both died. She received a fright some months since, from a drove of camels belonging to the Government, while on their way from the lower country. Who shall say that horses are not possessed of imagination?

A beautiful, burying site, comprising between three and four acres, situated on the Arlington estate, has been selected and is now being arranged for the reception of such as die in the Washington hospitals, whose remains may not be taken charge of by their friends. Hereafter they have been buried near the Soldier's Home.

Samuel Medary, editor of the Columbus (Ohio) Crisis, was arrested on Friday last, by the Provost Marshal, and taken to Cincinnati. Medary is a hoary-headed sympathizer with the South, scarcely, if at all, falling behind Vallandigham in his treasonable utterances.

The Pope has contributed, through the hands of the Catholic bishop of Buffalo, five hundred dollars for the relief of our wounded soldiers, accompanying the gift with warm expressions of sympathy for the suffering.

George Peabody, the London banker, sent $500 to the Baltimore Sanitary Fair, and John A. Brown, a Philadelphia banker, also gave $500.

Queen Victoria has nine children, aged respectively 23, 22, 20, 19, 17, 15, 14, 10, and 6. Five girls and four boys. Three are married.

The Sanitary contributions to the war have thus far amounted to $16,000,000. The czar of Russia permits his children to marry foreigners, if they choose to do so.

REBEL MURDERS AND CRUELITIES.

Hundreds of men have actually been hung and shot in upper East Tennessee by Longstreet's thieves and assassins. Men of character are coming in who testify that they are knowing to the facts. Witcher's company of cavalry piloted by Nathaniel Brown of Washington county, took James Bell, the brother of Dr. Bell of Greene county, forced him to lay his head on a chunk in the road, and with stones and clubs beat his brains out. They took some of the blood and brains and rubbed them under his wife's nose, cursing her, and telling her to smell them! They then burned down the house and its contents with it, allowing her and her children to look on at the flames.—Knoxville Whig.

The "Tax Book" of the city of Boston is just out. There were 35 persons who paid a tax of over $5,000 last year; 519 who paid $1,000, and 1,282 who paid $500. Mr. Augustus Hemenway is the richest man in Boston. He is taxed on $275,000 of real estate and $2,000,000 of personal, or a total property of $2,275,000. The next largest tax-payers are Alpheus Hardy and others, as trustees of the Sears estate; James M. Beebe & Company; Boston Gas Light Company; Fifty Associates; and David Sears, (who is taxed upon $891,000 real estate and $300,000 personal, or a total of 1,191,000.

Federal Hill, in Baltimore, is gradually disappearing. The Sun of that city says: "Every heavy rain which prevails in this section of the country contributes to the gradual disappearance of Federal Hill, one of the noblest and most elevated points of observation within the limits of the city. For several weeks past the heavy cliffs of earth, of varied hues and strata, which overhang the northern brow, have been tumbling down from an altitude of at least sixty feet to the street below, and it is now almost completely barricaded. Should the hill keep crumbling away, the fort which surmounts it will have to be abandoned."

We see from the Richmond papers that Gen. John Morgan lately had a warm if not even a bitter quarrel with the Jeff. Davis administration. John demanded an independent roving commission to lead his men wherever he pleased, and the rebel authorities told him he shouldn't have it. John insisted, and the authorities persisted. John held on, and the authorities held out. John was obstinate, and the authorities were obstinate. At length John left Richmond with great wrath in his heart and a great flea in each ear.

The marble and stone-cutters of Pittsburg propose to offer a handsome monument, which will cost several thousand dollars, as a premium to the county in Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, or Ohio, which shall make the largest gift in money or farm products to the Philadelphia Sanitary Fair. The monument is to be erected within the limits of the successful county, and to be inscribed with the names of the soldiers in that region who have been killed in the war.

A number of gentlemen, headed by Grantz Brown, of Missouri, have issued a call for a convention at Cleveland, Ohio, on the 31st of May, inst., for concert of action in respect to the approaching Presidential election. The call is signed by but few names of note. Ex-Gov. Wm. F. Johnston is one of the signers. The convention is understood to be in the interest of Fremont, and is probably to be held with the design of influencing the Baltimore convention.

Mr. Wm. Knabe, of the firm of Knabe & Co., the extensive piano manufacturers, died on Saturday evening, after a protracted illness, in the sixty-first year of his age. The deceased was born in Germany in 1803, but in early life settled in Baltimore, and by his industry and strict integrity became the architect of his own fortune. His establishment was one of the most extensive of the kind in the United States, giving employment to about three hundred workmen.—Baltimore Sun.

The following are the prices of things at St. John, N. B.:—"Wood per cord, $3; coal per ton, $4; flour per bbl., $5; butter per lb., 18c; beef per lb., 50c; for best cuts. Clothing of all kinds can be bought for half the prices paid here. Board at first-class hotel, for man and wife, $5.50 per week." And yet the St. John's people are coming over to us by the scores.

One by one they are coming back to the fold. Jeremiah Clemens, an eminent son of Alabama, formerly a Senator in Congress, and an enemy of Secession until Treason swept him away, is now in Washington. He is said to be anxious for the return of Alabama to the Union—an event that will soon be accomplished, if Sherman keeps on his thundering march.

A western paper tells this story: A farmer prosecuted his mother, ninety years old, for the cost of her board with him for nineteen years past. She had been living with him, taking care of his children, eight or nine in number, knitting stockings, &c. The judge dismissed the case and reprimanded the hard-hearted son.

To WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—All soldiers who have been discharged by reason of wounds received in any battle, and who have not received the one hundred dollars bounty, can receive the same now at once, by applying either in person or by letter, at the Military and Naval Agency, No. 427 Walnut street, Philadelphia. A full list of all Prizes payable to date can be seen at the office. These and all other claims against the Government promptly collected.

JOSEPH E. DEWITT & CO.

The Chicago Tribune relates that seventeen black men presented themselves for enlistment in the army of the United States, according to the invitation of its authorities, at Lebanon, Ky., on Tuesday last. Certain persons there took them into a room for the alleged purpose of paying them bounties. Having got them in their power, they stripped the black fellows and administered to each of them one hundred red lashes and then turned them loose.

A bill has been reported to the legislature of Massachusetts, providing for a fine of twenty-five dollars upon railroad companies that neglect to carry a certain quantity of good drinking water in their passenger cars.

Truths that defy Contradiction. Read the following facts in relation to Christodoro's Excelsior Hair Dye, and then say if it has any equal in the world:

It neither burns the skin nor hair. It colors every hair alike. Its blacks and browns are Nature's duplicates. It is applied in a few minutes. It leaves a gloss upon the hair. It is more permanent than other dyes. It contains no corrosive ingredient. And lastly, its inventor challenges a trial between this dye and any other in existence, whether of native or foreign origin. Christodoro's Hair Preservative, is invaluable with his dye, as it imparts the utmost softness and the most beautiful gloss and great vitality to the hair. Manufactured by J. CASTRADONO, No. 6 Astor House, New-York. Sold every where, and applied by all Hair Dressers. Price $1, $1.50, and $3 per box, according to size. [Im.]

The History of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of Liver Complaint, Dispepsia, Nervous Debility, and other diseases arising from a disordered stomach or liver, places it at once among the most astonishing discoveries that have taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which bitters are applicable are so universal that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. For sale by Druggists and Dealers; every where. [Im]
