MARIETTA, PA: SATURDAY, JULY 2, 1864.

In consequence of a difference of opinion between the President and Secretary of the Treasury Chase, as to the appointment of a sub-treasurer in New Mr. Secretary Chase resigned his place in Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet, and the Presilengthy and heated debate in the Senate, a despatch was received from Gov. Tod declining the position. Thus things stand as we go to press. We understand, however, that there has existed quite a feud in the Cabinet for some time past, between Post Master General Blair and Judge Chase, so much so, indeed, as to cause Mr. Chase to refuse to meet the Cabinet-with Blair-in consultation. This is certainly most unfor posed to the repeal of the commutation tunate. 'We could have spared any other member of the cabinet better than Mr. Chase. We hope, however, to hear better news by this time to-morrow.

The great fact should be sounded throughout the land in thunder tones, that the State of Maryland has by her own deliberate act, declared that Human Slavery no longer exists within her boundaries. This touching Christian measure occurred in the Constitutional Convention of Maryland, now in session at Anospolis, on Friday, June 24th, and is contained in the following new Article engrafted upon the Constitution of an organized expression. I am led to the State, to wit: "Hereafter in this State there shall be neither Slavery nor Involuntary Servitude, except in punishment of crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, and all persous held to service or labor as slaves are hereby declared free."

Our readers will remember the picture of three little children found upon a dead soldier, on the battle field of Gettysburg, by means of which the soldier was identified. Copies were taken of the daguerrotype (in photograph,) to be sold for the benefit of the family. To aid in the good work the Presbyterian offered a prize for a poem on the event. This was set to music, and is sold for the benefit of the family. Thus far about $1,300 have been realized.

Thomas Hyer, the noted pugilist, died on Sunday. Hyer was not a fightthe next encounter was himself beaten. Hyer was subsequently induced, by the insults of the notorious Yankee Sullivan, to enter the ring with him. Though successful, Hyer ever afterwards avoided fighting; but his course of life was not otherwise so commendable. His age was forty-five years.

One has eight, the other nine children. The Nashville Telegraph inquires what Gen. Sherman would do if one were disloyal, and had to be sent South, while the other remained loval.

French papers announce that a convict was lately tracked into the service of a young married couple, where he was officiating as a very pretty lady's maid, and had been doing all the duties of his roll for three months. The horor of the young married lady, and still more of the husband, may be imagined when the police said, "That young woman is the man we want."

One of the wealthiest men of Winsted, Conn., laid the foundation of his fortune upon a shad wagon. From the first load he peddled he realized a profit of $11, and though he can now count $10,000 upon each finger and twenty upon his thumbs, he says he has art, Arnold, Constable & Co., and others, never felt so rich as on the evening when be counted up the proceeds of the load of shad.

The Commanding General at Vicksburg has issued an order requiring all negroes living together as man and wife to be legally married. The rule was a necessity, and as a consequence of it one minister performed the marriage ceremony for fifty-eight couples in a single day.

A Lady in the Providence Journ al advises the ladies to make their dres ses so as to escape the ground one inch instead of trailing two inches, and thus save, by the 1,000,000 of adult females of the loyal States, one dollar each annually, in the first cost of the article. . . .

It is said of that good old man John Quincy Adams, that he never went to his rest at night until he had repeated simple prayer learned in childhood familiar "Now I lay me down to

During the night session a few venings since, Hon. Thaddens Stevens. M. C. from this district offered a substitute to the Enrollment Bill, authorizing the President to call into the military service not exceeding 500.000 men in addition to those already called for, to serve for two years unless sooner discharged, and if not otherwise obtained a draft may be ordered to take place within forty days, or at such time thereafter as the President may direct. Any person who is liable to draft and has been regularly enrolled may purchase exemption from the draft for two years by paying $300. Any drafted person may purchase the like exemption by paying $500. The commutation money thus paid shall go into the treasury for York in place of Mr. Cisco, resigned: the purpose of paying the bounties herein provided. Every soldier voluntarily and regularly enlisting is to receive a dent immediately sent to the Senate for | bounty of $500. If he shall be killed confirmation the name of Ex-Governor or die in the service before the expira-Tod, of Ohio, as his successor. After a | tion of his term of enlistment it shall go to his heirs.

His bill also proposed to accept of 50,000 volunteers for the term of two years, to be composed of men between forty-five and fifty-five years of age, for post and garrison duty, etc, to be called the Old Guard.

Mr. Stevens said the time had not come to sweep our entire population by a draft into the army, hence he was opclause, and had endeavored to frame a bill which would be more effectual and less objectionable. He said there are three millions of men on the rolls, and if one-half of them pay $300 each there will be found $450, 000,000 to be expended for bounties. He thought an army of half a million could be made up according to his plan in forty days.

War, with all its sad and earnest of our humanity. War itself establishes a grand brotherhood. This filial feeling is everywhere evident, although failing these observations from the recent or_ ganization in the 5th Corps of a society called the "Ben Schars." The derivation of the name I am unable to give. The object of the organization, as explained to me, is to look out for one another's interest in the march, in the bivouac, and in battle. There are manifold ways of doing this, as, for instance, if one is sick, to see that he lacks no want of attention; if one wants money, to see that he has it; if one is wounded, to look to his immediate care; and, if one is killed in battle, to see, if it is imhe is buried as becomes a soldier, to have a record made of his burial place, and his effects preserved and transmitted to his friends, The benefits arising from such an association are not temporary. When this war is over, through its agency friends and widows and orer by profession, though he twice fought | phaned children can possess themselves McCluskey, who first beat Hyer, and in of the remains of loved ones buried on these far-away battle-fields, and give hem a final resting place in the old church-yard and family burial places at home, to whose weeping willows and scribed privately by friends, and presenwild flowers and waving cypresses their dying thoughts perhaps reverted amidst the crash and carnage of battle, with a longing hope to be buried there at last. Scores are joining the association every The Siamese twins have each a day. Captain George H. Weir is the president of the association .- N. Y. Herald.

Last Sunday afternoon a wife, Catharine Osborne, was murdered by her husband while in the act of the most criminal infidelity with a paramour, named Peter Sherdon. The murderer. John Osborne, when he came to his home Fremont and Sarah streets, discovered the criminals, but without apprising them of his presence, silently and speedily went into the yard, seized an axe, stole in upon them, and struck the two several violent blows. Sherdon escaped with a few cuts, but the first blow the wife received horribly crushed her left jaw, and the other the left side of her head, killing her instantly. Osborne was arrested.

A letter from Paris says: "The formation of the Ladies' Union in the United States against the use of foreign goods has scattered terror and confusion among the European manufacturers. The buyers of the houses of A. T. Stewwhom I have met, say that their occupation is gone; that they have ceased to buy until further orders, but that they do not expect to buy any more so, long as the covenant exists. The number of American buyers in France is very large, and they find themselves all at once out of employment."

The New York Herald says:

"From London we are informed that Gen. G. B. McClellan has a fair chance of being declared heir to the personal fortures of the late Sir John Campbell (Lord Clyde) the great warrior, who, it may be said, won the empire of India to England. The family history of the case shows that the hero of the Potomac army stands already well on the list of heirs presumptive in the case."

Massachusetts. A sergeant had been engaged in the 2d division hospital the day previous in placing upon a number of headboards the names of members of his regiment who had been killed in the late fight or had died in battle, which was to mark their last resting place. There was one board in excess, and, in a sportive vein, he placed with a lead pencil his own name upon it, and the date of his demise, 20th of June, as his term of service had then expired and he was about to leave for home. Yesterday morning, while near the front bidding his companions in other regiments a farewell, he was struck in the breast by a twenty-pounder Parrot and instantly killed. His remains were interred to-day, and the very headboard he had unthinkingly inscribed with his own name was placed over his grave, and, with date, correctly marks for the time

It is stated that the most costly array of precious stones bought in Philadelphia in 1863, were ordered and paid for by a very common laborer of other days, who had suddenly and amply enriched himself by following the army of the Potomac, gathering up the animal food thrown away by the soldiers, and selling it for soap grease. Those feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed prespiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to do well.—
The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appeiite.

Weakness and Debility induced by OVER FATIGUE.

Will soon disappear by the use of these in-valuable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Phils should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humours from the system. This medi-cine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

U.S. 10-40 BOND S

These Bonds are issued under the Act of Con gress of March Sth, 1864, which provides that all Bonds issued under this Act shall be EX-EMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any state or municipal authority. Subscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten months nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually and on all other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year.

Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U. S. Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accruedinterest in coin-for in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are Exempt from Municipal or State Taxation, their value is increased from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate offtax levies in various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay Over Eight Per Cent Interest in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders; as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or seperate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and in-

These bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

It may be useful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold, on the 3d day of March, 1864, was $768,965,-000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,937,126, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasury for the payment of the gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per
