That a Wringer should be self-adjusting, duruble, and efficient;
That Thumb-Screws, and Fastenings cause delay and t ouble to regulate and keep in order; That wood soaked in hot water will swell, shrink and split:

That wood bearings for the shaft to run in will wear out;
That the Putnam Wringer, with or without cog-wheels, with not tear the clothes;

That cog-wheel regulators are not essertial;
That the Putnum Wringer has ad the advantages, and not one of the disadva tages above named;
That all who have tested it, pronounce it the best Wringer ever made;

That it will wring anything from a thread to a bed quilt without alteration;

New York, January, 1864.

We have tested Putnam's Clothes Wringer by practical working, and know that it will do. It is cheap; it is simple; it requires no room, whether at work or at rest; a child can operate it; it does its duty thoroughly; it saves time and it saves wear and tear. We earneastly advise all who have much washing to do, with all intelligent persons who have any, to buy this Wringer. It will pay for itself in a year at most.

The Proprietors of the American Artisan respectfully announce that on May 11, 1864, they issued the first number of that journal; and they confidently believe that, after the p iblic have carefully perused and duly digested its varied and valuable contents, it will be unanimously declared to be more instructive and interesting that any other weekly periodical of similar character sublished in either the United States or Eurone. During the next dottes of similar character jublished in either the United Stutes or Europe. During the next twelve months the American Artisan will contain numerous Original Engravings and Descriptions of New Machinery, etc., both American and Foreign—Hisrories of Famous In. entions and Discoveries—Essays on Scientific Subjects—Interesting Lotters for inc Subjects—Interesting Letters from working-men in all parts of the world—Instructions in various Arts and Trades—Reliable Recipes for use in the Field, the Workshop, and the Household—Wonderful Experiments in Chemistry—Hints to Millers and Millwrights—Naws-items for Manufactivers Proteins News-items for Manufacturers — Practical rules for Mechanics and advice to Farmers—Illustrated details of curious and ingenious "Mechanical Movements" and other useful lessons for young Artisans—the Official list from the United States Patent Office-Reports of Law Cases relating to Patents; the whole forming an Encyclopedia of General Information on a variety of topics connected with the Industrial Arts, the progress of Invention, &c.

THE PUBLISHING DEPARTMENT of the American Artisan will be under the general superintendence of Mr. John W. Coombs, who has nad deven years' experience in the management of a similar department in the office of the "Scientific American," in this city. Each number of the American Art san will contain thirty-two columns of instructive and interesting reading matter, in which the progress of the arts and sciences will be recorded in familiar language, divested of dry technicalities and abstruse words and phrases.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT of the American Ar isan will be critically su-pervised by a member of the firm of Brown, cooms & Co., assisted by other gentlemen of theoretical and practical knowledge of the arts and sciences. The columns of the American Artisan will be rendered attractive by articles from the pens of many talented American writers upon scientific and mechanical subjects. jects; and among the more prominent of these contributors may be mentioned Robert Mac-Farlane, who during the last s venteen years filled the responsible position of Senior Editor of the "Scientific American."

THE PATENT DEPARTMENT of the American Artisan will be placed in charge of Mr. Henry T. Brown, who has had more than nineteen years' experience as a Solicitar of Patents, both in this country and Europe, and who has been for many years the principal professional assistant of Messrs Munu & Co., Patent Agents, of this city. In this department will be published regularly the official list of "claims" of all patents the official fist of "claims" of all patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the previous week; this list will be prepared expressly for the American Artisan, and it will appear several days in advance of its publication in any other journal. Impor taut and interesting legal decisions in patent cases, tried in the United States Courts, will be periodically presented in this department, together with illustrated descriptions of many markable inventions recently patented eitner at home or abroad. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
