

The Local Mariettian

MARIETTA CAR HOURS. The several passenger trains will leave the "Upper-Station Depot" as follows: Morning train, East, at ten minutes before 8; Mail train West, 11:55; Way train East, 1:45; Harrisburg Accommodation train, East, 6:39 and the evening train West, at 7:02.

Marietta, Saturday, July 30, 1864.

This number closes the tenth year of "The Mariettian," and we find quite a goodly number of names on our subscription list in arrears for volume ten, and some for four and five years. The high price of paper, ink and printing materials—to say nothing of the labour—makes it imperative that we should be promptly paid or we cannot weather the panic. We hope, therefore, that all knowing themselves indebted for subscription, advertising or job work will forthwith, if not sooner, "call at the captain's office and settle," for we must absolutely have money.

TO AVOID THE DRAFT.—A large meeting was held on Monday evening last, in the Town Hall, which was organized by electing Mr. Barr Spangler, chairman and George H. Little, secretary. The chair stated the object of the meeting to be in response to the late call for more men to strengthen our armies and to devise ways and means whereby our Borough can procure volunteers and avoid the draft. A series of strong resolutions were unanimously passed calling upon the Borough authorities to offer for a large body of volunteers—to create a fund for that purpose, to be paid 15 or 20 cents hence—also requesting the County Commissioners to offer a liberal bounty to volunteers. A committee of five was appointed to canvass the Borough with a petition embodying the above sentiments, and solicit signers, which we learn has been numerously signed. It appears to us that, with the least effort, on our part, the quota of the Borough (38) could very easily be filled with volunteers. Let us see what will be done.

A Soldier's Letter; The President of the Patriotic Circle received, a few days since, the following letter from a thankful soldier. It is verbatim with some trifling corrections in the orthography. It is some satisfaction to the ones connected with this patriotic circle to know that their efforts to render aid and comfort are sometimes rewarded by such grateful acknowledgments as the following. The question is: "Who made the Housewife?" She is a fine picture—that is a fine conclusion—and send it to the Editor; but to the letter:

CITY POINT, Va., July 4th, 1864. MARIETTA.—I thought it would be out of the way to write a few lines to you to thank you for the Housewife which fell to my lot to get from the Christian Commission and which you sent to my charge. It certainly is a great blessing that some young lady would think of the wants of a poor soldier far away from home; when I get it, let me in mind of home, so much so, I felt downhearted every time I look at it. I would like to know the name of the young lady who made it for me. I suppose you would like to know who is writing so familiarly to you, well, he is not very ugly, nor yet very handsome, but if you will send a likeness to him, he will return his. I may think, by the heading of my letter, that I have mistaken the name letter for a lady's name, but I have only taken this way to find out who made the Housewife. The following words may enable you to find out who made it: four pockets and three buttons to put needles and pins in—that is red, white and blue—two of the buttons red and two of blue, with a blue centre; the ribbon is of purple and the back is of muslin, green on one side and light blue on the other; the picture is large heads and plenty of them. This is one thing certain, that whoever made it, there is not one stingy in her body. I must close for this time. I go on duty. Marietta write me. I shall anxiously look for a likeness, direct to William Maxwell, Corporal, Co. F., 25th Cavalry, City Point, Va. Write me down in full and plain that I may refer to. From your well-wisher, W. G. M.

A TOWN STORY.—South Troy is just now agitated by the stories told about a child that talked at birth. It prophesied that a comet was coming in a few weeks and was going to give us a terrible drought, and that in consequence of its disarrangement of atmospheric laws there would be a five years famine. The war was to end next year according to the inspired baby's prophecy. There are numbers who have seen the talking child, and insist upon the truth of these stories.—Troy Whip.

An individual advertising in a paper for a wife the other day, requesting each applicant for the situation to enclose her carte de visite. One of the correspondents closed her reply in these terms: "I do not enclose my carte, for though there is some authority for putting a cart before a horse, I know of none for putting one before an ass."

Proclamation for a Special Election to be Held on Tuesday, August 2d, 1864.

IN the name and by the Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of the said Commonwealth, To FREDERICK SMITH, Esq., Sheriff of the County of Lancaster, Greeting.

WHEREAS, a joint Resolution proposing certain amendments to the Constitution of this Commonwealth, which are as follows, viz.: "There shall be an additional section to the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as follows: Sec. 1. 'Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by authority of the United States, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens under such regulations as they or shall be prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place of election.' There shall be two additional sections to the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as serious eight and nine, as follows: Sec. 8. 'No bill shall be passed by the Legislature containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills.' Sec. 9. 'No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers or privileges, in a case where the authority to grant such powers, or privileges, has been, or may hereafter be conferred upon the courts of this Commonwealth.'" has been agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each House of the Legislature, at two successive sessions of the same:

And whereas, it is provided in the tenth article of said Constitution that any amendments so agreed upon shall be submitted to the people in such manner, and at such time, as three months after being so agreed to by the two Houses, as the Legislature may prescribe; such submission to be in such manner and from that the people may vote for or against each amendment separate and distinctly.

And whereas, by an act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, passed the twenty-third day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, it is provided "that for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the people of this Commonwealth regard to the adoption or rejection of amendments, or either of them, the Governor of this Commonwealth shall issue a writ of election, directed to each and every Sheriff of a Commonwealth commanding them to give notice in the annual meeting, or in two newspapers in each city and county; provided, that so many are published therein as by at least two printed handbills in each election district of every city and county, within the time herein prescribed, that an election will be held in each of the following wards, precincts, and districts therein on the FIRST TUESDAY OF AUGUST in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the people of this Commonwealth, in relation to the amendments, or either of them, which said election shall be opened, held and closed upon the day last aforesaid at the places and within the hours at, and within which, the general election of this Commonwealth are directed to be opened, held and closed."
