CERTIFICATES OF CHARACTER.-It is well known that the rebel agents who lately presumed to talk peace at Niagara are all notorious this ves and default. ers to the Government they are endeavoring to destroy. Sanders stole some $30,000 while acting as Buchanan's Navy Agent at New York. Tucker, while Buchanan's Consul at Liverpool, pocketed about $80,000 belonging to the Government: and Thompson, Buchanan's Secretary of the Interior, engineered the great Indian Bond fraud of $700,000; one fourth of which he kept for his own personal use, dividing the remainder among his fellow thieves in the transaction. A choice and eminently proper set of fellows to represent the chivalrous Confederate States govern-

A GOOD RETORT.-The New York Journal of Commerce, quoting the oftrepeated commonplace that "the rebellion is on its last legs," asks peevishly how many legs the rebellion has got. The Chicago Tribune answers:

"There is a leg in Ohio called Vallandigham, one in Chicago called the Times, two in New York, the Journal of Commerce and World, and one in Cincinnati, the Enquirer, besides two very lame legs at Richmond and Atlanta. The Northern legs are the most serviceable."

The citizens of Chicago are now engaged in raising contributions for the purpose of purchasing a home for Mrs. Mulligan, the wife of Col. Mulligan, who commanded the Irish regiment in Hunter's army, and was killed in the late fight beyond Winchester. Col. Mulligan was highly respected in Chicago, and his death is deeply lamented. The conduct of Mrs. Mulligan who travelled more than a hundred miles in an ambulance, driven by herself, in search of her husband's body, recovered it and brought it back with her, has received the plauworthy of any age of the world.

Mrs. Wm. Evans, of Mercer, C W., aged 35, has had a stomach trouble for several years. Late physicians have attributed it to a snake in the stomach, which has now grown so as to produce a bunch on the outside of the stomach as large as a quart bowl. When the bunch was pressed the snake recoiled into the stomach. When fish or meat is being cooked the serpent rises to the throat and almost produces strangulation. Physicians think that the death of the snake will produce the death of the Bangor, Me., on the 20th instant. She woman.

The legislature convened in special session on Tuesday last. The Governor in his message says very plainly that the convening was for the purpose of taking some action for the defence of members should bear this in mind in entering upon their duties, and not allow nature to creep in and occupy the time which should be spent in deliberating over the special business of the session.

Hon. Edward Everett, who sent a representative recruit to the field two years ago, has forwarded a check to Governor Andrew, of Massachusetts, to expected to recover. provide another. Though our laws make one man as good as another and squetimes better, here is an unobjectionable method by which one man may prove himself equal to several.

The Chambersburg Repository. king of the return of the rebels to ring of the return of the rebels to rinia, says: "General Couch has the der well picketed and the fords all rded, so that a surprise is hardly sible, General Couch will give timely notice should any threatening movement be made in this direction.

A son of Governor Bradford, of Maryland, was thrown from a carriage in Baltimore on Friday, and was dangerously injured.

FALL OF A SOMNAMBULIST .- A few weeks ago, a lad in his fourteenth year. Johnny Rives, son of the late John C. Rives, Esq., arose from his bed in the still hours of the night, and, passing out of his chamber window, fell thirty feet to the ground, without sustaining serious injury. In his descent, he in some manner struck and broke a window of the chamber below his own. The family were thus alarmed, and when some of them descended to him, he was upon his hands and knees, endeavoring to rise, which he immediately did with slight assistance, and then walked up to his chamber again. Dr. Wells: of Bladeusburg, near which place the family resides, and Dr. Lincoln, of Washington, were promptly summoned, and as promptly congratulated an anxious family on the providential escape of the lad from all injury, except some slight scratches and bruises .- Washington Chronicle.

WHAT REBELLION IS DOING .- The Nashville Union says: The colored regiments reviewed last Wednesday were composed of stout, able-bodied, athletic men, in the prime and vigor of life. There was not one among them who, in 1860, would not have brought, as a slave, one thousand dollars on the block. No wonder the Rebels who saw them grated their teeth and muttered curses. They saw million's of dollars' worth of human chattels, redeemed and disenthralled. enlisted in a patriotic service, in striking contrast with their cold-blooded treason."

A successful experiment has reently been made in blowing up a bar n the Mississippi river by means of torpedoes. The report that followed each discharge was not very loud but the water was thrown to a height of about seventy-five feet in immense volumes, and tons of black mud surged up and was carried away by the current. Large numbers of fish were killed by the concussion, and floated to the surface of the water, where they become the spoils of the eager boatmen who were floating around for the purpose of gathering up "unconsidered trifles."

People who have fallen into the not uncommon error of supposing Sumter to be a "heap of ruins" will learn with surprise that, in the opinion of most of our best army and naval commanders, it is stronger now defensively than ever. being in fact as perfect an earthwork as military skill ever devised. The knocking down of a portion of the wall now and then does not weaken it materially.

Major General Doubleday is trying a contractor at Washington, charged with agreeing to furnish the rebel government with forty millions of dollars worth of goods, the contracts for which, signed by rebel authorities, were found upon his person. The goods were to, have been purchased in the north and run through Nassan.

Army pies are so terribly tough that the soldiers call them leather pies A poor fellow of Grants army, whose m had just been amoutated was he ing carried past a stand the other day where an old lady was selling pies, when he raised himself up in the ambulance and cried out, "say, old lady, are those pies sewed or pegged."

Thursday, July 28th was the 86th birth-day of Commodore Charles Stewdits of all as a devoted wife and heroine art, who has been in the service of his country sixty-seven years. He is a Philadelphian by birth, having been born on the 28th day of July, 1778. Daring his military career he has been in over forty engagements. Among others was that of the bombardment of Tripoli, August 31, 1804. He is still bale-takes a deep interest in the present crisis of the country-has never for a moment despaired of the restoration of the Union-and is as loyal as Abraham Lincoln.

At Craigin's Mills, near Machanics' Falls, in Maine, last week, a man took a mischievous boy and held him over a boiling vat with a threat to throw him in. In struggling the boy did fall in, and was so severely burned that he died on Thursday. The affair is said to have been accidental

A London servant girl lay down on her bed, and her clothes, being distended by two crinolines, were set on fire by a candle which she had placed on a chair. She was fatally burned. The young woman had borrowed one of the crinolines and put it on in addition to her own, to make her dress stand out more effectually.

John Warner, of Cambridge, Vt., who died last year, gave away over $11.000 during the last five years of his life, mostly in small sums, to poor people. A few years ago he burned up notes and mortgages, the collection of which would distress the men against whom they were drawn, to the amount of about $20,000.

The emmigration from Europe, which has arrived at New York since the first of the year is at the rate of 220,000 for the year. But a very small part of this emigration goes into the army, which is a disproof of all the charges made in the British Parliament of American agents enlisting recruits in Ireland. The great bulk of the emigration goes into the agricultural districts.

RELEASED FROM FORT MCHENRY. - Mr. from ForteMcHenry on Wednesday evening. The following were the obligations legiance, gave ten thousand dollars bond to be a loyal citizen and observe the oath, and to have his hair cut to the proper length." The latter part of the order was issued because it was alleged that some time since Mr. Johnson annonnced that he would not cutchis hair until the independence of the South was recognized, and in consequence his hair had become very lengthy and luxuriant. The entire obligations were complied with by Mr. Johnson previous to his release. - Baltimore Sun.

BRUTAL OUTRAGE .- On Monday after noon, Mrs. Henry Paff, residing in Cumru, came to town to get her husband's bounty, who is in Captain Ketrer's Co. E. 46th Regiment. She applied to M. B. Boyer, Esq; and received the bounty; but on her way home, on the Morgantown road, between the Lancaster bridge and Yost's Island, she was waylaid by two brutes in human form, who dragged her into an adjoining field, where they ravished her. . The parties are known to the woman. On Tuesday the police attempted to arrest them, but could not find them. So brutal an occurrence bas not disgraced our county for a long. series of years. - Reading Times.

HORRIBLE SUICIDE -On Tuesday last a respectable farmer named R. J. Carpenter, living near Frederica, Kent county, Del., took his gan, heavily loaded with large shot, and placing it to his head, ordered a small boy to tell his wife that be was going to kill himself. Mrs. C. immediately ran to where he was, and casting herself on her knees, begging What will I and the children do?" he replied: "Do the best you can," and immediately pulled the trigger, the load tearing off the entire skull and scattering the blood and brains over his poor wife, who had fallen with him.

The Washington Star tells why Gov. Letcher's house was burned: "On the arrival of Gen. Hunter's troops at Lexington, the residence of Governor to the hair. Manufactured by J. Special Advantages of this Loan. It is a National Savings, Bank, offering a higher rate of interest than any other, and the best security. Any savings bank which pays its depositors in U. S. Notes, considers that it is paying in the best circulating medium of the country, and it cannot pay in anything beffer, for its own assets are either in government securities or in notes or bonds payable in government paper. It is equally convenient as a temporary or permanent investment. The notes can always be sold for within a fraction of their face and accumulated interest, and are the best security with banks as colaterals for discounts. Convertable into a Six per cent, 5-20 Gold Bond.

In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conversion is now worth about 3 per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-20 Bonds is not less than 9 per cent. premium, and before the war the premium on 6 per cent. U.S. Stocks was over 20 per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent. per annum. Its exemption

From State or Municipal Taxation. But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated, a special Act of Congress exempts all Bonds and Treasury Notes from local taxation. On the average, this exemption is worth about two per cent, per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country.

At is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the government.
