Saturday, September 24, 1864.

A NEW TIME-TABLE went into effect on the Reading and Columbia Railroad, on Monday last. The fast line leaves Columbia now at 6 o'clock in the evening and arrives at Reading at 8:40 : and leaves Reading at 1:35 P. M. and at 4 arrives at Columbia. An accommodation train leaves Columbia at 7:40 in the morning and arrives at Reading at 10:05 and leaves Reading in the morning at 5 o'clock and arrives at Columbia at 7:20. The train that leaves Columbia at 7:40 arrives in Philadelphia at 12:50, noon. and in New-York at 4:40 in the afternoon. Trains leave New-York at 9 in the morning and arrive at Columbia at 4 in the afternoon, and leave Philadelphia at 7 in the morning and arrive at Columbia at 4 in the afternoon. This new arrangement will accommodate this section.

Godey's Lady's Book," owing to the enormous increase of printing paper and every article in the printing business-more than 100 per cent-Mr. Godey has been compelled to increase the club subscriptions of the Book. The November number will state the price at which "Godey" can be clubbed for. This is no surprising news to us; we wondered long since how this admirable magazine could be furnished at the old rates.

we we are happy to be able to anvounce that the Borough of Marietta is out of the draft. The Committee, composed of Messrs. John Auxer, Esq., George H. Ettla and C. R. Marks, having succeeded, on Wednesday last, in getting the required number, at the neat round sum of four hundred and fifty dollars each.

Gr A frightful railroad accident occurred on the morning of Tuesday last, near Thompsontown, above Harrisburg, by the fast line running into a coal train lying on the main track. The collision occured about 4 o'clock in the morning. The stoves were upset and two cars burned up. Upwards of thirty persons are supposed to have been burned to death. John Mullison, formerly of Columbia, was the conductor of the train, and was instantly killed. The cause was altogether with the coal train.
