MARIETTA, PA.

Saturday, October 22, 1864.

FOR PRESIDENT, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ANDREW JOHNSON, OF TENNESSEE.

Union Electoral Ticket.

SENATORIAL.

MORTON McMICHAEL, Philadelphia, THOMAS H. CUNNINGHAM, Beaver Co.

REPRESENTATIVE.

- 1. Robert P. King, 13. Elias W. Hall, 2. Geo. M. Coates, 14. Chas. H. Sarnier, 3. Henry Bunn, 15. John Wister, 4. Wm. H. Kern, 16. D. M. Conaughy, 5. Martin H. Jenks, 17. David W. Woods, 6. Chas. M. Hunt, 18. Isaac Benson, 7. Robert Parke, 19. John Patton, 8. Wm. Taylor, 20. Samuel B. Dick, 9. Jno. A. Hiestand, 21. Everhard Bierer, 10. R. H. Coryell, 22. John P. Penney, 11. Edw. Halliday, 23. Ebezer M. Junkin, 12. Chas. F. Reed, 24. J. W. Blanchard.

We clip from the Freeport (Ill.) Bulletin of the 29th ultimo, the following: "A party of gentlemen, consisting of Messrs. General A. Hiestand Glatz, George Karg, William Fry and John Hiestand, of York, Pa., and Charlie F. Demuth and Ross, of this city, left here on the morning of the 20th with two dogs, in pursuit of Parairie Chickens. They were out Tuesday, and about five hours on Wednesday, and returned in the evening of that day with one hundred and twenty-one chickens. They killed some thirty more, which they lost in the standing corn. In view of the lateness of the shooting season, the scarcity of birds, and using but two dogs, this may be called extraordinary shooting. Indeed it is the largest lot of game bagged by any party this season in this section of country." We never knew before, that General Glatz was a "good shot on the wing," but, for a young man, has made several "crack shots" at political game. Barring his politics, he is a very clever gentleman.

The following are the official majorities received by the Union candidates of this county for their respective offices. Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, 4046. Elias Billingslet, 4123. R. W. Shenk, 4120. Day Wood, 4042. Charles Denues, 4121. Hon. A. L. Hayes, 4199. J. B. Shuman, 4169. Jacob Rohrer, 4194. T. Scott Wood, 4195. F. M. Rauch, 4187. C. Lefever, 4199. D. S. Clarke, 4181.

We find in a letter from the "Forty-Fifth" to the Columbia Spy, dated October 6th, in which we find a list of prisoners taken at the battle of the Weldon railroad; amongst the prisoners we find the following Mariettian: Lieut. John M. Kline, Orderly Sergeant Robert Carroll, jr., privates Eugeant Walters, Tyler Rittenhouse, Charles Met. Iroy.

James Evans, a poor and wealthless, adding one of the oldest died in Lancaster, last night at 11 o'clock, at the age of 80 years. He was afflicted with paralysis, to which he was predisposed. He was for about twenty years Cashier of the Lancaster Bank. Afterwards he was President of that institution for a number of years.

The government has increased the pay heretofore allowed for artificial legs furnished to soldiers. At the present rate of compensation ($75) the several manufacturers who enjoy the patronage of the government can afford to furnish their best limbs without extra charge.

The N. Y. Herald "Little Mac's" special champion, in view of the recent elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, gives up in despair, and says that there is now no doubt of Lincoln's success in November.

Members of the Union League and all friendly to the Union cause will meet on Monday evening next for the purpose of taking preliminary steps for the coming Presidential election.

A New Jersey paper announces that the crop of buckwheat is exceedingly heavy this fall, that the grain is well filled, and that there is a prospect of its purchase at a reasonable price.

Major Pauline Cushman is relating her experience as a Union spy in rebellion, to large audiences, in the Assembly buildings, Philadelphia.

Spangler and Patterson have just received a new lot of Fall and Winter goods. Advertisement in our next.

Ex-Secretary Chase has taken the stump in Kentucky for Lincoln.

As usual, the election excitement is giving birth to a great many political works of various degrees of merit. Among the most entertaining and curious of these is a thick pamphlet by John Smith Dye—published by the author at 32 Beekman street, New York, and called "The Adder's Den, or Secrets of the Great Conspiracy to overthrow Liberty in America." The author gives a complete exposition of the depravity of slavery, and he gives a great many interesting, and curious facts. He asserts that two Presidents—Harrison and Taylor—were secretly assassinated by poison, and that unsuccessful attempts were made to murder three others. The "National Hotel disease" at Washington in 1857 is attributed to arsenic put in the sugar on the tea-table, intended to poison President Buchanan, and it is observed by the writer that the baneful drug was only dropped in the lump sugar intended for tea, while the pulverized sugar meant for coffee was untouched; and this distinction was made because the southerners generally drank coffee, while the northerners—Mr. Buchanan among them—preferred tea. The work contains many other singular statements, some of them supported by documentary evidence, and all calculated to attract public attention to this very singular book.

Yet all these incidents are but auxiliary to the chief aim of Mr. Dye's remarkable compilation, which is to show that the South for the last thirty years was bent and determined upon seceding from the North, and that the leaders of the slave power were men who shrunk from no crimes to accomplish their purpose.

No votes should be lost at the coming Presidential election, and it is worth while cautioning all persons receiving votes of soldiers not to unseal the envelopes containing them. The envelopes can easily be distinguished by the words "Soldiers' Vote" printed across the sealed part. The law is very precise on the subject, and requires the envelope containing the vote, when presented at the polls, to be in the same condition as when it left the soldier's hands. A little precaution on this subject will perhaps increase the already overwhelming majority of the people in favor of the re-election of Abraham Lincoln.

Pendleton's district has gone Union by a home majority of 1700. Long's district by a home majority of 2300. Both of these districts formerly were locofoco by 1127 and 131 majority. "Straws show which way the winds blow." Thus, in one single county of Ohio, in which two of the most prominent Copperheads in the country once achieved a joint majority of 1,258, the people have gone for the Union by a majority that should be paralyzing to the Cops.

The people of Alexandria have been thrown into consternation by the arrest of twenty-five or thirty of the most prominent Southern citizens of the city, in accordance with a late military order, and some of them placed in military order, upon the platforms of the Manassas railroad cars as a preventive against firing upon the trains of guerillas. This arrangement is being continued.

Two children of Mrs. Mary Geran, aged respectively two and five years, were smothered to death at Baltimore on Tuesday afternoon. The mother, having to go out, locked the children in a room, and they, having found some lucifer matches, set fire to a bed, and then took shelter under it, where they perished before they could be rescued.

Sixteen thousand dollars in gold were lately discovered hid on the premises of Madame Taylor, a notorious rebel, and the proprietress of a house of ill-fame, in New Orleans. Five thousand dollars in silver were also found there a few days previous. A large portion of the money is said to belong to officers in the rebel army.

A few days since Dr. Johnson Stuart and a host of lesser rebel sympathizers were treated to a free ride upon the Orange and Alexandria Railroad. Their rebel friends have an opportunity to practice their sharpshooting upon a few of their known friends.

The rebels report among their losses at Atlanta 3000 new Enfield rifles, 3,000,000 rounds of cartridges, a large number of saddles, axes, shovels, and various other supplies. Hood is scolded for not removing the property before evacuating.

Gen. Butler, on learning that the rebels were working our negro prisoners of war, clapped one hundred rebel prisoners to work on the Dutch Gap canal, which he is building. Butler is the man to retaliate.

Frauz Muller, who was arrested in New York harbor, for the murder of Briggs, in an English railway carriage and taken back to England for trial, will be tried on the 24th of this month (October).

The Courts in California haven't been able to find an oath that will make a Chinaman tell the truth. Invoking "The Great Spiritual Intelligence" and "Imperial Heaven," is of no sort of use.

General News Items.

Gen. Wilson, who has just arrived in Washington from Sheridan's headquarters at Harrisonburg, represents that the destruction and capture of rebel property by our cavalry, in their late great raid in the vicinity of Staunton, were on a colossal scale, and most complete in their execution. More than one hundred mills were destroyed, the Central railroad was badly cut up, and a herd of twenty-four hundred cattle and sheep was brought back to Harrisonburg. The latter prize compensates for the cattle theft lately made by the rebels on James river.

Lieut. H. W. Sewall, of the U. S. revenue service, has been tried by court-martial, in Baltimore, upon the charge of making false returns of payments thereby defrauding the government out of about $100,000. He was found guilty, and sentenced to imprisonment for life in the Clinton penitentiary, New York. The sentence has been approved, and the prisoner removed to the prison.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has announced that he will, on Sunday evenings, until the Presidential election, preach sermons which some people might call political. He gave notice in advance, that if any did not wish to hear these discourses, they would have opportunity to leave their seats vacant for those who did.

A Wheeling family was poisoned on Saturday last by eating biscuits, in the making of which arsenic had been used in mistake for saleratus. The arsenic had been purchased a few days before to kill rats, and had been mislaid. Several members of the family, it is feared, will die.

A Newark gentleman has a monster pear, raised on a standard tree in his garden, weighing two and a half pounds and measuring 1 1/2 inches in circumference and 20 around the length. Several other pears, weighing from a half to over a pound each, grew upon the same tree.

Col. J. P. Sanderson, of the 13th Regular Infantry, and the Provost Marshal General of the Department of Virginia, died at St. Louis, on Friday last. He belonged to Philadelphia, and was for several years editor of the Daily News.

Newburyport, the only city in Massachusetts which has a Democratic Mayor, is the only place where soldiers returning home from the war are not publicly welcomed. The Herald says the municipal authorities have neither "received" the living nor honored the dead.

A reduction has been made in the cost of telegrams in Paris. A message of five centimes (10 cents) and the administration guarantee that it shall be delivered within half an hour from the time it is dispatched.

There are now building for the through broadgauge routes from New York to St. Louis (1,200 miles) one hundred and fifty locomotives, five thousand freight cars, and elegant passenger cars in proportion.

Gen. Rosecrans has ordered that traitors and spies caught in the act of passing the Union lines to the guerillas or to the rebel forces now invading Missouri be shot on the spot.

At a factory in Franklin, Mass., a boiler exploded and carried a young girl up to the ceiling of the room in which she was working without seriously injuring her.

There is a difficulty about the McClellan flag in Bangor. They can't find two copperheads living opposite each other, and hence can't get a permit to run their flag up.

It is stated that 1500 of the rebel prisoners have recently enlisted in the service of the United States. They are to be sent to the Northwest against the Indians.

There is a talk in Paris of establishing a Biblical theatre, where will be played only pieces dramatized from the incidents of the Old Testament.

A mason in Limerick, Ireland, lately hammering a stone, chipped out what he supposed to be a lump of glass. It proved to be a diamond worth $5000.

In one settlement in Minnesota, fifteen out of the sixteen male residents enlisted. The other man staid behind to see them off and cheer.

William Kester, an errand boy, has robbed merchants in Cincinnati, Ohio, of $10,000, by unlocking post-office boxes; $7000 was recovered.

Two pictures, just finished by Fehr, the armless painter, (who pencils with his toes,) are very highly spoken of in France.

A woman in Chicago becoming enraged at her son, while he was eating, struck him, and he choked to death. Geo. A. Fremantle shot his wife and then himself, in Boston, on Saturday last. Cause, jealousy.

Cincinnati, the home of Pendleton, gives a Union majority of 6000.

Diffenbach offers goods low. See his advertisement.

A VILE TRICK.—The timbers of a bridge on the Terra Haute, Alton and St. Louis railroad a few miles west of Shelbyville, were sawed nearly through, with the expectation that the next train, which contained about eight hundred soldiers, (one hundred day men,) would break through, and a wholesale slaughter be the consequence. Some of the boys saw several men about the bridge as they were passing, but supposed they were there merely to gratify their curiosity. The train containing the soldiers, however, passed over safely, but the next, which was a freight broke through, killing the engineer and badly scalding Frank Perry, the fireman. The gallows is too mild a punishment for the miscreants that were guilty of such an outrage.

Gov. Seymour declined to discuss the great question now before the people, with Daniel Dougherty, esq., of Philadelphia, on the ground that it would be in "bad taste" for him to do so! Why? The reason is evident—Gov. Seymour is an Aristocrat, is worth a million dollars, while Dan Dougherty is a Democrat, who worked his way up from a poor boy to a position of honor and fame, but is still a poor man. Hence, the "bad taste!" How do hard-working Democrats like this Aristocratic insult offered them?

The Southampton England papers record the death of Mr. John Bullar, a native of that town, and who lived in it nearly ninety years. For forty years of his life he was engaged in tuition, and educated a great number of the principal persons in the town. His first pupil is living, at nearly seventy years of age. On Mr. Bullar's retirement his pupils presented him with a purse of 500 sovereigns.

The Philadelphia Press has the following: There is a startling rumor in town to the effect that McClellan will not vote for Pendleton, nor Pendleton for McClellan. One is so unequivocally for peace that he cannot support a candidate who receives his pay from the War Department, and the other being "The Soldier's Friend" can scarcely be expected to endorse a man who was in every respect the soldier's enemy.

An English photographer has lately introduced a novelty in the mode of taking carte-de-visite photographs with the signatures of the sitters appended. This gives but little extra trouble. The sitters simply sign his name on a slip of paper, and finds its fac-simile, diminished in size, transferred to the portraits when they come home.

A man on Cape Cod, who had separated from his wife, married a second with whom he lived a year and a half, and then died. His first wife came forward and took possession of the estate, the second wife sued for pay for services during the time she lived with the deceased, and a jury gave her a verdict for $2 per week.

It is asserted that the trains on the rail road from Richmond have been running to within a few miles of Fredericksburg for several weeks, to transport old iron, rags, &c., from the Wilderness battle grounds. The rebels are exhuming the bodies of the slain, and stripping them for the rags.

Among the pears exhibited at the recent fair of the Horticultural Society of the American Institute was one bushel of Duchesse d'Angouleme, which was sold after the fair for $25. There were 61 pears in the bushel; they, therefore, brought 41 cents apiece.

John Lynch, the new Republican member of Congress from the Portland, Maine, district was born there of Irish parents, and began life as a cart driver, and has worked himself up to the position of an intelligent and wealthy merchant and honored citizen.

A man recently sat down at the supper table of the Wendall House in Cleveland, and, without any ado, ate, in addition to the usual dishes, twenty-seven hard boiled eggs. He arose and walked away unconcernedly, as if he had done nothing wonderful.

Professor Anderson, assisted by his daughter, is about to appear in London, after an absence of seven years. His entertainment will be part dramatic, part legdormain.

Several of the London theatres have been opened for religious worship on Sundays. The effort has been attended, so far, with considerable success.

Jackson Haines, the American Skater, whose departure for Europe was announced not long ago, has issued a challenge to the skaters of England.

The Boston people are boasting that Gen. Sheridan was born in that city, and served his apprenticeship to glory as a newsboy.

Punishment by whipping is on the increase in England. Last year the number of prisoners flogged was 388.

On the 1st of July there were 163 theatres in Germany, 60,000 actors, singers and dancers, and 8,000 chorists.

Gen. Robert O. Schenk has been re-elected to Congress, from Ohio, by 2,000 majority.

FRENCH MURDER.—The Monmouth (N. J.) Democrat publishes the following particulars of a recent horrible murder:

Mr. A. H. Campbell, of this county, who in sojourning at Kingston, New York, sends us the particulars of a murder at that place last week, which for fiendish brutality has seldom been equalled. An Englishman named Allen had formed an improper intimacy with his wife's sister, and the two, in order to get rid of the wife, resolved to burn her up. He accordingly put a straw bed upon a bedstead, and fastened the unhappy woman upon it. They poured over her head and body a quantity of kerosene oil, took a door from its hinges and laid it upon her, and then set fire to her. The flames attracted the attention of neighbors, who, when they came in, found the husband and sister sitting upon the door. They pretended that they were trying to smother the flames. The woman was so badly burned that she lived but a few hours. She was able, however, to make an intelligent statement of the facts before she died. The guilty parties are in jail.

RICHMOND MUST FALL.—We have talked with an officer just from General Grant's army in regard to the probability of the capture of Richmond. He says, and he but repeats the universal opinion of the officers and men, that there is yet to be some very hard fighting in front of Richmond; the enemy are at bay; flanking cannot now be resorted to, but by the persistency of the General and the bravery of the men, Richmond will yet be captured—it is hoped and believed before Congress again assembles in December next.—Boston Traveller.

The most gratifying result of all the recent elections is the triumph of the Constitution in Maryland. Definite returns show that Maryland has adopted her new Constitution by a clear majority of 889 over all votes, and this vote will probably be increased 500 by further returns from the soldiers. More gratifying than any merely partisan or political victory is the great moral result that Maryland is now a free State.

The Ex-Governors of Massachusetts stand thus in the present Presidential contest: For Lincoln—Ex-Gov. Lincoln, Ex-Gov. Everett, Ex-Gov. Clifford, Ex-Gov. Boutwell, Ex-Gov. Washburne, Ex-Gov. Banks. For McClellan—Ex-Gov. Gardner.

The Delawarean says 170,000 baskets of peaches were shipped from Dover depot during the past season. The freight to Philadelphia, at 25 cents a basket, amounted to $17,600. A little over one-fourth of all the peaches carried on the Delaware Railroad were shipped at Dover.

The official footings place Mr. Stevens's majority at 4,037! The average majority for county offices, on the Home vote, 4,200. The soldiers' vote will probably swell it to 5,000!

Vallandigham's home, the city of Dayton, gave 270 Union majority at the late election.
