Ex-Secretary Chase has been speaking in Kentucky. He rested the Proclamation of Emancipation upon the authority of the Constitution, in an argument made at Covington, which was as conclusive as brief:

"An old Roman maxim declares that, 'The safety of the Republic is the supreme law.' There is no law—there can be no law—higher than the safety of the country. Whatever is necessary to insure the safety of the country, is right and fit to be done, and must be done. But we are not obliged to resort to any extra constitutional views, for the Constitution provides for the case. When Congress authorized the raising and organization of armies for the suppression of the rebellion, the President, by its very terms, became Commander-in-chief. The safety of the Republic is committed to him, and it was right,—aye, more, it was his duty to overcome and destroy whatever opposed itself to it. Under the Constitution he had the authority to proclaim freedom to the slaves, and he performed a plain duty when he did so."

Solomon Sturges of Chicago, one of the wealthiest men in the West, died on Friday at the age of 69 years. In the early part of the war he gave $20,000 to equip an organization known as the "Sturges Rifles," and his contributions in aid of the war have exceeded by no man in the country. He leaves nine children to inherit his property, which is estimated by millions. An hour or two before his death when told he must soon die he quickly replied, "No I shan't until Richmond is taken."

Governor Curtin has issued a proclamation, setting apart Thursday, the 24th inst., as a day of Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the mercies of the past year. This is the same day as has been designated by President Lincoln as the National Thanksgiving day.

Orestes A. Brownson, heretofore vehemently opposing Mr. Lincoln, now declares that the choice between the candidates of Baltimore and of Chicago is virtually a choice between Union and Disunion, hence he goes for Mr. Lincoln.

Green, the Malden murderer, is to be hanged on the 13th of January, 1865. A little more than a year will then have elapsed since this double crime was committed, as that took place on the 15th of December, 1863.

Donahue and Ferry, charged with the late gigantic soldier fraud at Baltimore, have been convicted by the Military Commission, of which General Doubleday was president, and sentenced to imprisonment for life.

General Butler has been ordered to New York to remain over Tuesday, to keep down any effort to interfere with the election. He is the right man in the right place.

Morton McMichael, of the Philadelphia North American and his son Major McMichael, addressed a large and enthusiastic union meeting at Pottstown, on Saturday last.

The New York Tribune, in taking a careful review of the political situation of New York, estimates that Lincoln's majority in the State will range from 30,000 to 50,000.

The loyal merchants of Pittsburg have determined to close their stores on the day when we are to elect a President of the United States.

The Richmond Examiner stated that arrangements have been made to exchange immediately ten thousand of our prisoners.

Coal is now accumulating at the mines in Pennsylvania—the supply being greater than the demand.

A GREAT MARCH.—The St. Louis Democrat of the 18th inst. says: The gallant division of General Mower, which has just come into this State, made one of the hardest marches of the war. They left Brownsville, Ark., on the 17th of September, and reached Cape Girardeau, on the 5th of October, a distance of three hundred and fifty miles, in nineteen days. The command had just come off of the expedition under General Smith into Mississippi, and was ordered into Arkansas without rest. Ten days' rations was all they had for the nineteen days' march, and the last two days hundreds of men marched in their bare feet, having worn out everything in the shape of shoes leather. But there was not a murmur in the ranks. All these patriots asked was to get in at old Pap Price's Democratic meeting. And should they be so fortunate as to succeed in this, there will be such a disturbance as will seriously trouble General Sterling, as well as General Tom Price.

A most outrageous riot occurred in Chestnut street, Philadelphia, on Saturday evening last, during a torch-light procession of a Copperhead meeting. One man was killed and a number of ladies injured. The cops made an attack upon the Union Head Quarters and with stones, bricks, &c., almost demolished the front of the building. The police made a number of arrests. Speaking of the occurrence, Forney's Press says "Mr. Samuel B. Day, who had several of his ribs broken, besides receiving other injuries, on Saturday night last, was somewhat better yesterday. He says that he was standing among the spectators on the sidewalk, when bricks and brickbats were thrown from a wagon in the procession. One of the bricks struck him. Mr. Day facetiously observed, yesterday, that he went as a Democrat to look at the procession, but that blow knocked the Democracy out of him."

The Richmond Examiner of the 7th, pays the following tribute to the skill of our Yankee sharpshooters: "Conceive a line, of battle beyond a breastwork; each man squatted completely out of sight, firing over his shoulders, while, instead of exposing his head and hands to the advancing confederates, he looks away from the enemy, and narrowly examines the stock of his own gun. Two little mirrors, scientifically placed at the proper angle and attached to the stock, enable the soldier to see the sight on his barrel, and all that comes within range without exposing any part of his precious person."

Several parties have been arrested, and are now on trial before a military commission at Baltimore, upon the charge of preparing large quantities of soldiers' ballots to be used in the New York election. Seven store boxes filled with such ballots, were seized. Some of the defendants are the State agents appointed by Gov. Seymour. The developments made are quite interesting.

In New York on Sunday last a boy four years old, who had suffered greatly from toothache, was taken by his father to a dentist to have the bad teeth extracted. Two of the teeth were drawn without any trouble, but when the dentist proceeded to pull the third the boy was seized with convulsions, became insensible and soon after died. Congestion of the brain, induced by fright and pain, was the cause.

The aggregate Union majority in Pennsylvania, at the October election, is as nearly as can be ascertained in the absence of the official vote, fifteen thousand. Sixteen Union Congressmen, out of the twenty-four, are certainly elected, with an equal chance for two more.—The State Senate will stand nineteen Union to fourteen Opposition; and the House sixty-two Union to thirty-eight Opposition.

Though a Protestant country, the veneration for the emblematic cross is very great in the national religion of Denmark, and most of the churches are hung with pictures of the Crucifixion, and of other religious subjects, while, during the administration of the Sacrament, the robing of the priest is of the Roman Catholic pattern.

Efforts are soon to be made to introduce the culture of the coffee bean into the Connecticut valley—a product that is said to be the best substitute for coffee yet discovered. Marsh Stiles, of New Ashford, in Berkshire county, Mass., has the seed, and it is believed that the article can be as profitably produced as tobacco.

Copperheads grieved about half a mile of the track on which a special train was to run to a Union meeting in New Jersey last week. The grade was ascending, and of course the engine stopped. That is a genuine copperhead trick.

The President has issued a proclamation admitting Nevada into the Union as a State, in accordance with the act of Congress.

A young lady in Canada, West, while playing with her lover, shot him dead with a loaded gun.

Pen, Paste and Scissors.

On Tuesday, the day of the elections in Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, the rebels hung out a huge placard at a point in their outer works before Richmond, inscribed, "Vote for McClellan," and fired a blank charge to call attention to it. It got attention speedily—good Union attention. A concentrated discharge of shotted guns knocked placard, breastwork, McClellan canvassers and all into flinders.

A cavalry soldier died recently at Overton Hospital, who belonged to a Missouri regiment and had been through all the battles of the west. After the death of the veteran it was revealed that the supposed young man was a woman. It seems that she entered the army early in the war, and served her time faithfully until mustered out. During all this time she was able to retain the secret of her sex.

On last Friday morning a heavy storm of wind and rain passed over Mahanoy City, Schuylkill county, causing considerable damage. A new Methodist church, newly erected, was completely wrecked by the violence of the wind, nothing but the front wall remaining. The gable end of the Catholic church was blown down. Fortunately no person was seriously hurt.

The bids for the extension of the State Capitol were opened in Harrisburg on Tuesday. But two or three were presented, and these were from builders in Harrisburg and Philadelphia. Owing to some deficiency in the details of the lowest bid, no definite allotment was made, and the matter for the present is had under advisement.

Schenectady boasts a novelty in journalism. It has a daily paper with two editors, one Republican and the other Democrat, who each have a page of every day's paper. The second page is for McClellan and the third for Lincoln, and spirited controversies are constantly going on within the limits of a single sheet.

The terror of the desert of Sahara is being removed by the application of science. In 1860 five wells had been opened, bringing fishes to the surface from a depth of 500 feet. Vegetation is springing up around the wells, and the "desert will blossom like the rose."

There is at St. Etienne, in France, a young lady, eighteen years of age, affected with a rare, though not unparalleled, infirmity. She is unable to see while the sun is above the horizon, but sees perfectly well at night and in complete darkness.

Two of the trees in the mammoth grove in California, each measuring thirty feet in diameter, have been named respectively "John Bright" and "Richard Cobden," and tablets with their names placed upon them.

A Yankee, who has a pie factory in New York, turns out 35,000 to 40,000 every week. He occupies four buildings, and has ten horses and wagons engaged in delivering his pies about the city.

An Eastern editor says he is quite in love with a fellow who took a twenty-cent cigar from his mouth to grumble at paying five cents for a daily newspaper.

Efforts are being made to introduce the culture of the coffee bean into the Connecticut valley, a product that is said to be the best substitute for coffee yet discovered.

Cornelius Mullen, convicted of murder for killing his wife last winter at Perth Amboy, New Jersey, has been sentenced to twenty years' confinement in the State Prison.

The Duke of Newcastle died in London on the 17th inst., in his 53d year. He was a man of much ability and enlarged knowledge. He accompanied the Prince of Wales to this country.

Gen. Bragg has been assigned to command at Wilmington, N. C. The Charlottesville Chronicle, in announcing the appointment, exclaims "Goodbye, Wilmington!"

Pittsburg, Pa., has forty-six foundries, consuming forty-six thousand tons of metal annually, and paying a million of dollars in wages.

A boy last week found a $1000 check and restored it to the gentleman that had lost it, receiving 25 cents as a compensation.

Jeremiah H. Ellsworth, of Avon, Me., committed suicide a few days ago because he had made a poor trade in swapping farms.

Some benevolent New Yorkers are engaged in a movement to supply the soldiers with tobacco and pipes.

A McClellan club at Hartford, Connecticut, has very appropriately taken rooms over a copper warehouse.

Mrs. Maria Meek died in Reading, a few days ago, at the advanced age of 103 years 2 months and 8 days!

Appleton, the New York publisher, has in press a life of Ericsson, the world-renowned inventor.

A London physician has been arrested for locking up his wife in a "cell" for two years.

THEIR VIEWS AGREE. WHAT ARE THEY?

I desire to state clearly and distinctly that, having some few days ago had a full conversation with Judge Woodward, I find that our views agree, and I regard his election as Governor of Pennsylvania called for by the interests of the nation.—McClellan.

Judge Woodward's view was that soldiers should not be permitted to vote. Judge Woodward's "view," as avowed at the time, was that the South should be permitted to go peaceably rather than resort to coercion.

Judge Woodward has formally enunciated the "view" that "slavery is an inalienable blessing; there must be a time when slaveholders must fall back upon their natural rights, and employ in defence of their slave property whatever means they possess or can command."

Judge Woodward announced the "view from the bench" that "we must arouse ourselves, and protect the rights of the slaveholders, and add such guarantee to the Constitution as will protect his property."

Judge Woodward proclaimed his "view" that the draft was unconstitutional and oppressive.

And in 1863 he expressed his view to Judge Conyngham, that, "In my judgement the only course is to withdraw all our armies north of Mason and Dixie's line and offer terms to the rebels," thus anticipating the Chicago platform and the "resort to the arts of statesmanship."

George B. wants it "clearly and distinctly" understood that his views agree with those of George W. Pennsylvania will see to it that their fates agree also. She repudiated the latter by an emphatic majority last fall. In common with her sisters, she will consign the "gentleman Georges" to a more overwhelming defeat.—Washington Chronicle.

Special Notices.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.—A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits.
