SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1864.

The election on Tuesday last was one of the most quiet and orderly conducted of any within our recollection. At the opening of the polls, at nine o'clock, an immense crowd formed in line in front of the voting window and kept up a constant but peaceful "sticking-in" of ballots until eleven o'clock, when the rush abated.

Table with 2 columns: Date/Event and Number of Votes. Includes entries for October election 1854, Presidential election '56, and Presidential election '60.

The majority for the Union Electoral ticket was 134, being a Union gain of 74 over the October election.

A most distressing and fatal accident occurred at Harrisburg on Tuesday morning last. A young man named Levi Macken, son of the late Henry D. Macken, formerly of this borough, who had just been mustered out of a three year service in an Illinois regiment was on the down passenger train, on his way to see his mother, who resides in this borough, the car being very crowded and was crowded off, the car passing over his body, literally cutting him in two. His remains were brought to this place and buried from the residence of his mother. "The Hundred Days Men" here, turned out and attended his funeral in a body.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting on Monday evening last, in the large barn of that old War Democrat, the venerable Samuel Hopkins. Speeches were made by Dr. Coates, of Philadelphia, Col. Trimble, of Tennessee, Col. William L. Bear, of the Pennsylvania Reserves, and Professor George R. Barr, of Lancaster. It was unquestionably one of the most enthusiastic meetings of the campaign.

The "War Eagle" published by Harvey L. Goodall, formerly of the "Lancaster Inland Daily," says George Ford, formerly of the Lancaster bar, died in Kentucky, lately; that he was practicing law there under an assumed name, and was highly respected. Thus ended the life of the transgressor. He was said to have been strongly Union.

The ladies of the "Patriotic Circle of Marietta" acknowledge the following contributions: from Mrs. J. G. Hoerner, 9 handkerchiefs, 2 shirts, 1 package of lint, roll of muslin and 34 yards of bandages; from Mrs. J. E. Kreybill, roll of linen; from Mrs. E. F. Eagle, dressing gown.

The new rolling mill at Columbia is now in operation. The firm is composed of the following gentlemen: J. G. Hess, C. S. Kaufman, George Bogle, Isaiah E. Richards, Ephraim Hershey, Robert Crane, M. M. Strickler, Philip Gossler.

The Columbia and Reading railroad has purchased a substantial brick building on Union street, near the centre of the town, and converted it into a passenger depot and ticket office.

The Oration given the returned "Hundred Days Men" by the Union League of this borough, came off on Thursday evening at the Town Hall.

We must re-iterate, for the one hundredth time—if not more—that we will not publish anonymous communications. Several are now lying on our desk.

The "Donegal House," in this borough, was sold at private sale, a few days since, to Charles Shilow, for three thousand dollars, which we think very low.

Several Timber Rafts left this port on Thursday morning, for Port Deposit, which closed the Fall run.

Mr. Clark's sale of Woodlawn will take place on Tuesday next. See advertisement in another column.

Mr. Pile, at the upper station, wants a journeyman blacksmith. See advertisement.

On Saturday afternoon last while Jacob K. Goodman and wife were returning home from Lancaster in a dear born wagon, were caught by the engine of a Passenger train and the wagon literally broken up. Mrs. G. was pitched on the cowcatcher and dragged a distance of 200 yards before the train could be stopped. One of her arms was cut off, and one of her legs and one of her feet badly injured. She was taken to the residence of John Hiestand, close by, where she died at 11 o'clock the same evening. Several physicians were in attendance, but could render her no relief. Mr. Goodman fell alongside the railroad track, and was hurt about his head and other parts of his body. The accident happened about mid-way between Dillerville and Landisville. Although the usual signal was given, Mr. G. did not hear it, and the formation of the road obstructing the view, he did not see the train until within fifteen yards of it, when his horse at once put off and ran across the railroad track. The horse broke loose and got off, and was not hurt.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

The Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that subscriptions will be received for Coupon Treasury Notes, payable three years from August 15th, 1864 with semi-annual interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum—principal and interest both to be paid in lawful money.

These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity, into six per cent. gold bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, as the Government may elect. They will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and $5,000, and all subscriptions must be for fifty dollars or some multiple of fifty dollars.

The notes will be transmitted to the owners free of transportation charges as soon after the receipt of the original Certificate of Deposit as they can be prepared.

As the notes draw interest from August 15, persons making deposits subsequent to that date must pay the interest accrued from that date to date of deposit.

Parties depositing twenty-five thousand dollars and upwards for these notes at any one time will be allowed a commission of one quarter of one per cent. which will be paid by the Treasury Department upon the receipt of a bill for the amount, certified to by the officer with whom the deposit was made. No deductions for commissions must be made from the deposits.

Special Advantages of this Loan.

It is a National Savings Bank, offering a higher rate of interest than any other, and the best security. Any savings bank which pays its depositors in U. S. Notes, considers that it is paying best circulating medium of the country, and it cannot pay in anything better, for its own assets are either in government securities or in notes or bonds payable in government paper.

It is equally convenient as a temporary or permanent investment. The notes can always be sold for within a fraction of their face and accumulated interest, and are the best security with banks as collaterals for discounts.

Convertible into a Six per cent, 5-20 Gold Bond.

In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conversion is now worth about 3 per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-20 Bonds is not less than 9 per cent. premium, and before the war the premium on 6 per cent. U. S. Stocks was over 20 per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent. per annum. Its exemption

From State or Municipal Taxation.

But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated, a special Act of Congress exempts all Bonds and Treasury Notes from local taxation. On the average, this exemption is worth about two per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the government. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities, only, is pledged for payment, while the whole property of the country is held to secure the discharge of all the obligations of the United States.

While the government offers the most liberal terms for its loans, it believes that the very strongest appeal will be to the loyalty and patriotism of the people.

Duplicate certificates will be issued for all deposits. The party depositing must endorse upon the original certificate the denomination of notes required, and whether they are to be issued in blank or payable to order. When so endorsed it must be left with the officer receiving the deposit, to be forwarded to the Treasury Department.

Subscriptions will be received by the Treasurer of the United States, at Washington, the several Assistant Treasurers and designated Depositories, and by the First National Bank of Marietta, and by all National Banks which are depositories of public money, and all respectable BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country will give further information and afford every facility to subscribers.
