ELECTORAL VOTES

For President and Vice President of the United States from 1789 to 1864. The following record gives the names of the candidates for President and Vice President of the United States from the adoption of the Constitution up to the present time, with the electoral vote of each. George Washington was elected the first President of the United States under the Federal Constitution, and was inaugurated on the 30th of April, 1789. John Adams, being the next highest on the list, was elected Vice President. *First Term, 1789-69 Electors. G. Washington, 69 Geo. Clinton, 3 John Adams, 34 S. Huntington, 2 John Jay, 9 John Milton, 2 H. H. Harrison, 6 J. Armstrong, 1 J. Rutledge, 6 Edward Telfair, 1 John Hancock, 4 B. Lincoln, 1 *Second Term, 1793-132 Electors. G. Washington, 132 Geo. Clinton, 50 John Adams, 77 Thos. Jefferson, 4 Aaron Burr, 1 *Third Term, 1797-139 Electors. John Adams, 71 Thos. Pinckney, 59 Thos. Jefferson, 68 Aaron Burr, 30 *Fourth Term, 1801-138 Electors. Thos. Jefferson, 73 John Adams, 65 Aaron Burr, 73 C. C. Pinckney, 64 Fifth Term, 1805-176 Electors. President. Vice President. Thos. Jefferson, 162 Geo. Clinton, 162 C. C. Pinckney, 14 Rufus King, 14 Sixth Term, 1809-175 Electors. James Madison, 122 Geo. Clinton, 113 C. C. Pinckney, 47 Rufus King, 47 Seventh Term, 1813-217 Electors. James Madison, 128 E. Gerry, 131 De Witt Clinton, 89 Jared Ingersoll, 86 Eighth Term, 1817-217 Electors. James Monroe, 183 D. D. Tompkins, 183 Rufus King, 34 Jas. E. Howard, 22 Ninth Term, 1821-235 Electors. James Monroe, 231 D. D. Tompkins, 218 J. Quincy Adams, 1 R. Stockton, 8 Tenth Term, 1825-261 Electors. Andrew Jackson 99 N. Sanford, 30 J. Quincy Adams 44 Nath'l M. Mason, 24 W. H. Crawford, 41 And'w Jackson, 13 Henry Clay, 37 M. Van Buren, 9 J. C. Calhoun, 182 Henry Clay, 2 Eleventh Term, 1829-261 Electors. And'w Jackson, 178 J. C. Calhoun, 171 J. Quincy Adams 83 Richard Rush, 83 William Smith, 7 Twelfth Term, 1833-288 Electors. And'w Jackson, 219 M. Van Buren, 189 Henry Clay, 49 John Sergeant, 49 John Floyd, 11 Wm. Wilkins, 30 William Wirt, 7 Henry Lee, 11 Amos Ellmaker, 7 Thirteenth Term, 1837-294 Electors. M. Van Buren 170 & H. M. Johnson 147 W. H. Harrison 73 Hugh L. White 26 Francis Granger 77 Daniel Webster 14 John Tyler 47 W. F. Mangum 11 Wm. Smith 23 Fourteenth Term, 1841-294 Electors. * * W. H. Harrison R. M. Johnson 48 234 M. Van Buren 60 L. W. Tazewell 11 J. Tyler, V. P. 234 James K. Polk 1 Fifteenth Term, 1845-275 Electors. James K. Polk 170 G. M. Dallas 170 Henry Clay 105 T. Freelinghuysen 105 Sixteenth Term, 1849-290 Electors. * * * Taylor 163 M. Fillmore 163 Lewis Cass 127 Wm. O. Butler 127 Seventeenth Term, 1853-296 Electors. Franklin Pierce 254 W. R. King 254 Winfield Scott 42 W. A. Graham 42 Eighteenth Term, 1858-296 Electors. J. Buchanan 174 J. C. Breckenridge 174 J. C. Fremont 114 M. Fillmore 8 W. L. Dayton 114 A. J. Donaldson 8 Nineteenth Term, 1861-303 Electors. A. Lincoln 180 H. Hamlin 180 J. C. Breckenridge 72 Joseph Lane 72 John Bell 39 Edward Everett 39 S. A. Douglas 12 E. V. Johnson 12 Twentieth Term, 1865-234 Electors. A. Lincoln 213 A. Johnson 213 G. B. McClellan 21 G. H. Pendleton 21 * The elections for the first, second, third and fourth terms, (from 1789 to 1801) were held under the old Constitutional provision, that the candidate having the highest vote should be President, and the one having the next highest vote should be Vice President. Thus it happened that in the tie vote between Jefferson and Burr in 1800, the election went to the House, and after 36 ballots Jefferson was elected President and Burr Vice President. † Neither of the candidates for President obtaining a majority of electoral votes, in 1824, the election went to the House of Representatives, and John Quincy Adams was elected. ‡ Richard M. Johnson, lacking one of a majority of electors in 1836, was chosen by the U. S. Senate. * * Gen. Harrison died about one month after his inauguration, and John Tyler, Vice President, became the President for the balance of the term. * * * Gen. Taylor died on the 9th of July, 1850, and Vice President Fillmore succeeded as President. The above record demonstrates the fact that except during the first and second election of George Washington, and the second election of James Monroe, when no party was organized against either, the triumph of Abraham Lincoln just achieved is more complete and overwhelming than that of any other President, Jefferson, Madison and Jackson included. Mrs. Douglas, the widow of Senator Douglas, is living in quiet retirement with her mother, Mrs. Cutts, in the old homestead, near the Capitol building. Her brother, Capt. Cutts, who was wounded in one of the battles in Virginia last summer, has not yet recovered, and is receiving every possible care at her hands. Mrs. Douglas says little about politics, but her sympathies are said to be strongly enlisted in the Federal cause. Mrs. Cutts is as great a rebel as can be found in Washington City, or even in Richmond, and loses no opportunity to express her political sentiments. This will appear a little strange to those who recollect that her husband, at the time of his death, was in the employ of the "Lincoln" Administration, and that he never earned a dollar in his life except in a Government situation. Reverdy Johnson has again yielded to the fiat of the people as proclaimed at the ballot box. In a letter written after the result of the late election in Maryland was known he said: "Delighted to hear the result of yesterday's election. A new era is now dawning on our State. Slavery ended, and she will be, as Washington said she would be in that event, the 'garden spot' of the United States. He said so in a letter to St. John Lincoln in 1796. If it is done also in the whole country (as I think it will be), great as our prosperity has been in the past, and high as has been our name with the nations of the world, both will be immeasurably, almost, enhanced. God grant it may be so." On Thursday a freight engine was left in charge of a young man to put into the upper round house, and he being unacquainted with the mode of stopping its progress permitted it to run in under a full head of steam, and the consequence was that it ran against another engine which had been blocked up for repairs, driving one end clear through the wall of the round-house, piling up brick and mortar in terrible confusion, and battering up the engine considerably. The youth made good his escape by jumping from the engine. - Altoona Tribune. Geo. D. Prentice of the Louisville Journal than whom no man was more bitterly personal in attacking President Lincoln during the late election canvass, has received from the man he grossly abused the great favor of a pass for Richmond to intercede with Jeff. Davis for the life of his son, who is in Hood's army, and under sentence of death for murder. When Roger A. Pryor was brought into our lines, he said that he was in the rebel service because he was poor; that his profession as a lawyer would bring him nothing; that he had seven children, and it was absolutely necessary for their support that he should continue in the service. It will be remembered that Mrs. Rose Greenhow, the female rebel, who has attracted so much attention during the war, was lately drowned. A Richmond paper says that her drowning was caused by her having six hundred pounds sterling, in gold, tied to her person. Hon. Salmon P. Chase was, on Tuesday last, nominated for Chief Justice and immediately confirmed by the United States Senate. Hon. James Speed, of Kentucky, has been appointed Attorney General in place of Judge Bates, resigned. A Soldier's widow, by marrying again forfeits all her pensions from the date of her marriage, and if she again becomes a widow, she cannot resume them. This is according to the Act of Congress, July 1, 1864. John R. Davis of Aconebus, Mass., a member of the Society of Friends, aged about 90 years, voted at the last Presidential election for the first time in his life, giving a full vote for the Union nominees. Harper's Weekly contains a picture of Abraham Lincoln, representing him to be not less than twenty-five feet in length, and slim in proportion. It is entitled "Abraham four years longer." The pirate Semmes went on board his new steamer, the Sea King, at Madeira. Out of the crew of 100 men, 36 refused to sail on the vessel when they learned his errand. A sow, only one year old, belonging to Richmond Hathaway, of Warren, Mass., gave birth recently to twenty-two pigs, all of which are alive and doing well. Dan Voorhees, following the example of Vallandigham, is about to drop politics, remove to New York City, and "resume the practice of the law."

Pen, Paste and Scissors. "Uncle Billy Allen," a decrepid veteran, 103 years of age, is noticed among the arrivals at Selma, Alabama. He was General Jackson's body-servant at New Orleans, and is now childlike, lame, and almost blind. Major General Rameur was buried at Lincolntown, N. C., lately. His last words are reported—"Tell my darling wife I die with a firm faith in Christ, and trust to meet her hereafter." His last words to the ambulance driver who took him from the field were—"Tell General Hoke I die a Christian, and have done my duty." Col. John Travis, inventor of the celebrated "Travis gun," and of the "Greek fire" used by Forrest's men, and the most famous pistol-shot in the world, is at present in Montgomery. A large telescope is being manufactured at Springfield, Mass., the tube of which, a splendid piece of mahogany, was formerly one of the pillars to the pulpit in the old church at Northampton, Mass. Accounts on file in the Department at Washington show the singular fact that, since the rebellion began, forty thousand more Southern whites than blacks have received assistance from the Government. It is just twenty-seven years since the telegraph was put into practical test. About 200,000 miles of wire are now in operation throughout the world. Brownson A. Mansfield, of North Haven, Ct., an insane person, last Saturday morning attacked his sleeping wife with an axe, and would have killed her outright had not the ceiling of the chamber been so low that he could not strike a full blow. She may recover. Western Copperhead papers are rapidly going by the board. The Illinois State Register (Bloomington, Ill.), Democrat, Madison, (Wis.), Patriot, Evansville, (Ind.), Times, Peoria, (Ill.), Mail, and Lincoln (Logan county, Ill.) Courier, have all become defunct. The people have no further use for copperheadism. A young girl from Illinois went to St. Louis a few days ago and sold herself for an army substitute. When taken before the examining surgeon, he ordered her to strip, but this not exactly agreeing with her sense of propriety, she ran out of the room and concluded to give up soldiering until they would take her word for being an able-bodied man. The minimum standard of height for recruits for the volunteer service has been fixed by the Secretary of War as five feet, instead of five feet three inches as heretofore established. The Worcester Md., Shield says that about five hundred negro children have been bound to their former masters in that county. While filling the reservoir of the Charlestown, (Mass.) water works a few days since the pump would not operate, and an examination proved that the pipe was completely filled with eels, the next day the trouble occurred again, and on the two occasions over 2,500 pounds of eels were removed. The Louisville Journal says Colonel Farleigh has been reliably informed that horseflesh is sold in that market by mercenary wretches, who cut steaks from the carcasses of the condemned government horses that die daily and are dragged out upon the commons.—Measures have been taken to sift the matter. A Watchmaker, in Spain, has constructed a watch that only needs winding up once a year. The Paris Ladies appear disposed to adopt for winter costume, very short petticoats, very high boots, and plaid stockings. Many so accoutred may be seen on the boulevards. Muller, the rail road car murderer, was hanged at Newgate, on the 14th of November. After denying his guilt to his spiritual guide, Rev. Dr. Cappel, up to one minute of being swung off, he confessed to the crime. The Secretary of State has authorized the publication of intelligence tending to prove that the attempt to burn northern cities, lately initiated at New York, was designed in Richmond. The man giving information was apprised of the intention at Savannah on the 19th of October. A Captain Montgomery of Baltimore, had charge of the affair. In the next house of Representatives thirteen States will be without Democratic representatives, exclusive of the seceded States. Is there not great danger that the Democratic party will become sectional? "Burleigh" New York correspondent of the Boston Journal, says that Gen. McClellan considered the Presidential election decided against him by the October elections, and that he considered himself greatly wronged and put in a false position by the Chicago platform. Fred. Douglas has been lecturing to large audiences in Baltimore. He was formerly a slave in Maryland. The United States steam ship Wyoming is being repaired at the Baltimore naval station.

NEAR RICHMOND.—A special correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from the headquarters of the Army of the James on the 26th, makes the following startling announcement: "A movement is now in progress in this army, which, when fully completed, will destroy Richmond. It only awaits the sanction of the General-in-Chief, who will be here to-morrow, before active operations are commenced. It is not generally known, even among well-informed military men, that the beleaguered capital of rebellion is within gunshot range of our batteries; but such is nevertheless a fact. Guns are now on their way here that will throw shells into Richmond from our batteries in front of the 18th Corps, a distance of seven miles. With these guns in position, and the projectiles prepared which it is intended to use with them, our gunners can destroy Richmond in forty-eight hours. The ball or shell now used would not, of course, answer the purpose, although that would doubtless accomplish the object in course of time. A particular kind of shell has been prepared, and in this really consists the main feature of the proposed plan. With such guns and shells in our possession, it would be folly, nay more, it would be madness akin to sin not to use them. The plan has already met the approval of the general commanding this department, and it only awaits the sanction and approval of Gen. Grant previous to adoption. If adopted it will be at once carried out. Do not be surprised to hear of the total destruction of Richmond before Christmas." Look Out!—We have reason to believe that several individuals are in the field, claiming to be travelling agents of the Lady's Friend, and professing their ability to take subscriptions at less than the regular prices. We have no special and favored agents to get subscriptions either for the Lady's Friend or the Post, and none for whose contracts we are in the least responsible. And the mere fact of offering to take subscriptions at less than the regular prices, should convince every sensible man and woman that the professed agent is an impostor. That men and women will trust their money to individuals of whom they have no knowledge, in preference even to their own acquaintances, in the hope of saving a few cents, is curious indeed. We hear of these travelling agents already in Black Earth, Wisconsin, and in Centre and Susquehanna counties, Pennsylvania. Beware of them. If you join a club, join one in your own neighborhood. You had better send the price of a single subscription direct to us by mail, than lose your money by listening to some plausible rascal, who professes his ability to give you some unfair advantage over others.—Saturday Evening Post. COAL DUST.—There is a company organized in Philadelphia to manufacture fuel out of the dust of coal. They have discovered a process by which the dust is formed, and kept in a solid compact mass, and their experiments prove it to be a very valuable fuel. It burns freely and thoroughly, and gives out as much heat as solid anthracite. The coal dust, we understand, can be purchased at the mines, where there are immense quantities of it hitherto unused, for the small price of forty cents per ton, or one dollar per ton, if sifted, and it is estimated by the very intelligent persons engaged in the enterprise, that a ton of solidified coal dust can be sold at from four to five dollars a ton. SALE OF MONTICELLO.—The Richmond Dispatch says: "Monticello, the former residence of Thomas Jefferson, in Albemarle county, Virginia, was sold at auction, on Thursday, under the sequestration act, for eighty thousand five hundred dollars. Benjamin F. Ficklin was the purchaser. A negro woman and her seven children (all of the latter being under seven years of age) brought twenty-three thousand dollars. A negro man was sold for upwards of seven thousand dollars." The underground railroad system in London is objected to since it has gone into operation, in consequence of the tunnel being so filled with gas that the passengers can scarcely breathe at times. The difficulty which has been experienced from having fire in the tunnel is likely to lead to the use of compressed air as a motive power, which would obviate the above objection, and give a pure atmosphere. In Richmond some cannon intended for General Early, in the Shenandoah Valley, were directed to "Major General Early." Some Union sympathizers there got a marking-pot and wrote over the address "General Philip Sheridan, care of—" much to the indignation of the rebel authorities. A gang of guerrillas have been discovered in Cincinnati, fitting out for an expedition. They were found with arms and equipments in their possession, and were stopping at different hotels. Ten of them have been arrested. George W. Child, book publisher has purchased the Philadelphia Ledger and will, in future, conduct it.

A letter from Berlin says: "Englishmen visiting Berlin and taking refreshment in any of the ordinary restaurants that abound in this city are extremely liable to make a discovery which many would esteem not wholly agreeable. If, for instance, they ask for beef, they stand a great chance of obtaining a dish of horse-flesh. The case actually occurred to the writer a week or two back. The consumption of horse-flesh is increasing every year in Berlin. It has been twice as great in the year just elapsed as in the previous. The official returns show that, from October 1, 1863, to October 1, 1864, there were 1,552 horses killed in the eight horse slaughter-houses in Berlin. The meat is sold at prices varying from 1 to 2½ silver groschens (1½ d. to 3 d.) per lb., which is only half the usual price of beef here. Most of it is disposed of to the keepers of public dining-rooms, cafes, gardens, and beer-houses, and is consumed by the public under the impression that it is beef, which it much resembles in taste." "He is only a printer," was the sneering remark of a leader in the circle of aristocracy—of the codfish quality. Well, who was the Earl of Stanhope? he was only a printer. What is Prince Frederick William, married to the Princess Royal of England? He, too, was only a printer. Who was William Caxton, one of the fathers of literature? He was only a printer. Who are Horace Greeley, George D. Prentice, Charles Dickens, M. Thiers, Douglas Jerrold, Bayard Taylor, George P. Morris, J. Gales, C. Richardson, N. P. Willis, and Senators Dix, Cameron and Niles? They, too, were all printers. What was Benjamin Franklin? A printer. Every one cannot be a printer—brains are necessary. The Washington Chronicle learns that preparations are in progress for the establishment of a National Bank for colored depositors, at Philadelphia. The movement will be accomplished, in all probability, within a short time. The New York Herald gives a list of thirty-six railroad accidents which have occurred in the United States since the 1st of September, and by which 122 persons have been killed and 355 wounded. Of twenty-seven clergymen who voted at the recent election in Princeton, twenty-six voted for Lincoln and Johnson, and only one for McClellan and Pendleton. A German physician of Harrisburg recently removed a tape-worm six feet in length from a lady who resides in Duncannon. A restaurant has been opened in London for fat people, where nothing will be served up but viands which check obesity. Lieut. Gov. Jacobs, of Kentucky, has been sent beyond the Federal lines by order of General Burbridge. Special Notices.
