MARIETTA, PA:

The State Electoral College met at Harrisburg on Wednesday the 7th instant, and appointed Morton Mc-Michael of the Philadelphia North American, president; John A. Hiestand, of the Lancaster Examiner, as bearer of one of the packages of notes and certificates directed to the President of the U. States Senate, Elias W. Hale, was appointed the bearer of the packages directed to Hon. John Cad-walder, Judge of the United States District Court and Charles H. Shriver, was appointed to deliver the certificates directed to the President of the United States Senate at Washington, D, C., to the Postmaster of the seat of Government of this State. On motion of Hon. John Patton, elector from the Clearfield district, it was unanimously resolved that the pay received by the electors and messengers to Washington, Philadelphia and Harrisburg be appropriated to the Sanitary Commission.

The Hon. James Speed, of Kentucky, recently appointed Attorney-General of the United States, is not on ly a lawyer of eminence, but has long been distinguished among the eminent men of his own State. As early as 1849 he was a leader of the small party which endeavered to make Kentucky a free State. Since then he has been devoted to the practice of his profession. The sincerity of his anti-slavery opinions is shown by his voluntary emancipation of his own slaves about three years ago.

Chief Justice Chase is the author of the phrase, "Congress has no more power to make a slave than to make a king." The sentence is contained in National Liberty (Free Soil) Convention held at Buffalo, in 1856. Mr. Chase wrote most of the resolutions, of this Convention.

A lad of fifteen years old recently captured a shoplifter, of Lewiston, Me. Seeing a man steal a cap and walk off, the boy followed him and presenting an unloaded pistol, threatened to shoot him if he did not return the article. He led the thief back to the store, and made him pay a double price for the cap.

Mrs. McArdle, who killed her husband at Dubuque, Iowa, last winter, it is, is scarcely creditable. and was tried and sentenced to be hung on the 9th of December, has had her sentence commuted to imprisonment for life. She is a woman sixty years of age, and confessed the crime to shield her son, who is believed to be most guilty.

At Troy, N. Y., the other day, one boy tried to lift another by placing his hand under the boy's jaws near the ears. The consequence was that the boy screamed and fell insensible. He cant see out of one eye and has no control over the muscles of his neck. His recovery is doubtful.

The wife of Warren Potter, of Greenfield, Mass., went to sleep on Friday night, the 21st ult., and has not waked since. Physicians who have visited her cannot account for the disease, and are unable to wake her. A little nourishment is forced into her, and her life is prolonged.

Gen. Butler's orders are always characteristic. In an order dismissing Second Lieut. John Clancy, of the Light Artillery, from the service, he says :- "He was in a state of intoxication, which is reported as beastly, but that is evidently a mistake, as beasts do not get drunk."

A crazy man at Wheeling, Va., broke into several ladies' rooms at the hotel, the other night, and shouted for Jeff Davis. Before he was captured he destroyed considerable furniture, and did much damage. The ladies were terribly frightened, and several fainted awav.

The San Jose Mercury says the wife of Jose Castro, of Monterey, has given birth to thirty-six children, all of whom are living together in that country. The first twenty are twins, each pair representatives of either sex. Of the remaining children eleven only were single born.

William Overfield, Esq., at one time a member of the House of Representatives and Senate of this State from Luzerne county, and afterwards a Canal Monroe county, on the 21st ult., at the advanced age of 78 years.

Mr. C. A. Ely, of Georgia, Ohio, in his will, gave a block of buildings to found a library, $5000 in addition for books, and the income of $10,000 every for the library.

THE HERO .- Major General William recumseh Sherman, is the full name of the here who has marched upon Savannah. He was born at Lancaster, Ohio, in 1820; his father, the Hon. Chas. R. Sherman, one of the Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court, and elder brother of Senator Sherman. He was educated in the family of the Hon. Thomas Ewing the distinguished lawyer, whose daughter he married, becoming brother-in-law to the now General Thomas Ewing. At sixteen he entered, and in 1840 graduated from West Point. In 1841 he was stationed at Fort Moultrie, Charles-Salurday, December 17,1864. ton; in 1848 was breveted captain for Mexican services; in 1853 he took charge of the banking house of Lucas, Turner & Co., at San Francisco; and in 1860 was President of the State Military Academy of Louisiana, a position, which he resigned on the first indications of secession, declaring to Governor Moore that "on no earthly account" would he "do any act or think any thought hostile to the Government of the United States." Sherman was the hero of the victory of Shiloh, where, General Rousseau says, "he gave us our first lessons in the field in the face of an enemy; and of all the men I ever saw he was the most untiring, vigilant, and patient." Grant gave him the credit of the victory. Sherman's was lately described as not a remarkable face, "save the nose, which organ was high, thin, and planted with a curve as vehement as the curl of a Malay cutlass. the face and neck were rough and covered with reddish hair, the eye light in color, and animated; but, though restless and bounding like a ball from one object to another, neither piercing nor brilliant; the mouth well closed but common, the ears large, the hands and feet long and thin, the gait a little rolling, but firm and active. In dress and manner there was not the slightest trace of pretension. He spoke rapidly, and

There is quite a strong opinion in England that Muller did not confess on the gallows, as alleged. A lawyer calls loudly through the columns of one of the resolutions adopted by the Public Opinion for the manuscript prepared by Muller before his execution. It is alleged that this is public property, and that the Aldermen have no right to keep it from the people, as they are ly against the idea that Muller confessed. The parson who alone heard the alleged confession has given two or three different versions of it already. He was laboring under such an excited conviction that Muller was guilty, and vehement superstition that he would go straight to hell if he didn't confess,' that his account, totally unsupported as

The singular epithets of "bears" and "bulls" were first applied to specnlators in stocks on the London Excontract, the one to deliver and the other to take stocks on a future day at a specified price, it is the interest of the delivering party, in the intervening period, to depress stocks, and of the receiving party to raise them. The former is styled a "bear," in allusion to the habit of that animal to pull things down with his paws, and the latter a "bull" from the custom of that beast to throw an object up with his horns.

The term in the U.S. Senate of the Hon. Wm. A. Richardson, (Dem.) of Illinois expires with the present session, and the lately chosen Union Legislature will elect his successor for six yaars ensuing. The Hon. Elihu B. Washburne (who has been longer in the House than any other member), Gov. Richard Yates, Gen. John A. Logan and Gen. John M. Palmer are suggested as candidates for the post.

Jem Mace has written a letter to the editor of Wilkes' Spirit indicating his purpose to visit America on a sparring tour, if he should receive encouragement to do so. He engages to exhibit his belt and cups, seven in number; adds in a postscript that he has lately sparred before the Prince of Wales and the elite of British nobility, and thinks that his engagement in this country would be highly successful.

The Panama Herald says that information has been received in San Francisco lately to the effect that Dr. Gwin, formerly United States Senator from California, has obtained, through the influence of the Emperor Napoleon, and in his interest, a commission from Maximllian as Governor General of the State of Sonora, with authority to induce emigration and settle the country; and power to grant lands.

Among the ingenious contributions to the sailor's fair in Boston, by Commissioner, died at his residence, in the State Prison convicts is a small house, so contrived that upon opening the door a figure of Jeff. Davis, suspenchimney, after which a black man comes up to look at him.

The exhibition of the Kearsarge for the benefit of the National Sailor's Fair, closed at Boston on Thursday of last week. The receipts were $4, 248.

Gen. Sherman has with him, in the Georgia campaign, one of the best scouts in the Southwest-an old man, a native Georgian, and a wealthy slaveholder.

The Parisian ladies have adopted the very pleasant custom of coloring the hair of their dogs to correspond with the color of their dresses.

A Western paper relates that a young man was cowhided and married the same day. He had seduced two young girls, sisters, for which he was punished by the younger, and to get out of the scrape, married the eldest sister.

The Farmington Chronicle speaks of sermon, the subject of which embraced "the personality, history and character of the invisible leader of the hosts of darkness." This may well be said to be "whipping the devil around the stump."

The London papers of November 18th announce the arrival of "General Tom Thumb" and family in that city. They are holding daily levees in a hotel near St. James 'Palace. The Star says: _"The baby is a pretty little girl, with light silken hairs and a vivacious disposition. She will be a year old next month, and it may interest our readers to know that she weighs precisely seven pounds and three quarters.

The ladies of Paris, not content with dyeing their hair red, now dye their lapdogs to match the color of dresses. Green dogs, yellow dogs and sky-blue pups are all the rage.

A little child of Mr. David Fox, of Boyertown, Berks county, accidentally poisoned itself by eating arsenic, which had been mixed up in molasses and placed on the sill for the purpose of destroying flies.

A farmer of Limestone townships Snyder county, had at the late harvest single stock of buckwheat, which yielded "four thousand one hundred and doing. Louis Blanc has written strong- seventy-nine" solid grains. An extraordinary yield from a single grain.

> The Trenton State Gazette, of Saturday says: "It is now pretty generally understood in the inner copperhead circles that Billy Wright has been coaxed and bullied into resigning his position in the United States Senate, and that George B. McClellan is to have the balance of his term. John P. Stockton is to have the long term.

The Hon. Salmon P. Chase, just appointed Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, was born on the change about 1834. When two parties | 13th of January, 1808, and will therefore be fifty-seven years of age on the 13th of January next.

Lord Lyons, the British Minister at Washington, has gone home on account of ill health. A sale of his horses, liquors, &c., took place in that city, a few days since, and brought very high prices.

On Monday last the U.S. Supreme Court room was filled by ladies and gentlemen to see Chief Justice Chase on the bench for the first time; they were disappointed, however, he not having yet been qualified.

By order of the Navy Department the name of the torpedo vessel, heretofore gans and the whole train of disorders brought known as the Stromboli, has been changed to Spuyten Tuyfel, or in good square English, "in spite of the Devil." Of course this is a wicked name; but as it is intended for wicked work, it must be all right.

The Dictator, the great sea-going iron-clad, has recently made several trial trips, and it is said to be all that could be expected of her in every respect. She has sailed for Fortress Monroe, and may be intended for Butler's canal.
