NEW YEAR :- Our Borough Carrier-Clayton-will be around on Monday morning after New Year, with his address to his Borough Patrons. We hope he will be kindly received, for he ual-rain or shine.

TO-MORROW .- CHRISTMAS :- This ballowed festival, with all its beautiful memories is at hand. What rejoicings it brings around the fireside at home. Parents and children enter into the spirit of the occasion and congratulate each other on its return. Business is laid uside, while the moral sentiments and social feelings are brought into active exercise under the genial influence of veneration and benevolence. Thanks are offered up for the good gifts enjoyed. "Bad habits" are put off, and new resolves are made for a truer and better life. The poor are remembered, and generous philanthropists look after their physical, intellectual and moral condition-supply their wants-make them comfortable and thus add to their respectability and happiness. On such occasions new plans are laid to provide homes for the friendless-schools for the ragged and aid and comfort for the help-

Presents-as tokens of love and friendship-are on this day exchangedheld and cherished as pleasant remembrances; and it is well for us to perpetuate this memorable HOLY DAY in such a way that it shall prove a life-long blessing to every human being.

this borough, who volunteered in Capt. Jacob Grosh's company in 1812, and who now resides in 'the 'state of Delaware, at the ripe old age, of over threescore-years-and-ten, has sent us, through Col. John W. Clark, [ who is also about to become a resident of the "land of growth and large crops. the Blue Hen's chicken"-having purnased several farms there ] the muster

Gf At a meeting of the Farmer's and Gardener's Society of East Donegal, on Thursday evening the 15th inst., Strawberry culture was made the subject of the evening. " The varieties that do best in this locality and the proper mode of cultivation?"

John Shields said that with his experience the Wilson's Albany was undoubtedly the best for market purposes, but he preferred the Globose Scarlet for family use; found but little difference in the yield of the two varieties. Henry M. Engle thought the Globose Scarlet a valuable pistillate variety, yielding uniformly good crops when planted in proximity with bi-sexual varisties : prefers the fruit of the Triumph de Gand, but has not succeeded in raising as large crops of this variety as of either the Wilson's Albany or Globose Scarlet, but it being a sweeter and firmer berry than either of the latter, is a good and attentive carrier-punct- thought it an excellent market berry, and believed its productiveness might be increased by a more complete fertilization with other perfect or staminate varieties; he has the Russel under cultivation, and although it promises well. has not tested it sufficiently to speak, of its merits; be thinks all varieties need thorough cultivation to do well; should be planted in rows, the soil kept clean, and the runners cut off so as to enable the plants to stool out, and should be well protected in the winter by covering the soil between the rows with straw.

J. Windolph agreed with Mr. Engle mainly; he intends to try the Hovey again ; thinks with proper impregnation and improved cultivation it will prove equal to many of the highly prized new varieties.

J. J. Libhart, has not had any experience with the lately introduced varieties; thinks no variety has as yet been introduced in this locality that equals in productiveness, or attained a higher reputation as a family berry than the Globose Scarlet, and if confined to one variety would select it. B. Spangler does not think the soil of this vicinity requires deep- trenching or much manuring to produce vigorous plants and large crops of fruit ; the soil between the rows needs frequent stirring to furnish a supply of moisture from the tenants to vucate premises leased for atmosphere to the roots, and the space one year or more, ready and for sale between the rows should be of sufficient at this office. Also, black leases or ar-ticles of agreements for tenants and landlords. All of these sell be tilled up if desired. It is absolutely necessary for "notice to quit" to persarved on or before New Year's day, inforder to obtain possession of property on the first male or staminate plants in the rows; regards the Globose Scarlet us a valuable variety but could not recommend

Major John Jones, formerly of it, or any other pistillate variety, for general cultivation ; none but bi-sexual plants will do for those who do not give the subject of sexes any attention. The Wilson's Albany is as yet unsurpassed by any other perfect variety, in general cultivation for healthy vigorous

TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE

The New York Mereury.

The Pride of the Fireside.

TN the prime of a vigorous intellectual manhood, the Phœnix of the weeklies begins its flight for the new year, over the wrecks of its flagging and lifeless contemporaries, with its eye fixed upon the sun, beneath which it owns no rivalry. The war, which has toppled down whatever is shallow and baseless, has written no wrin-kle on the bright agis of our success. Our features for the issue of 1665 shake the pillars of whatever has heretofore been deemed im-perial in serial literature. Both sides of the Atlantic render us tribute. We shall continue the thrilling romances of Miss M. E. Bradon, necromancer of the strong dark passions, to whom we pay more money annually than the entire capital of our imitators, and add to our American staff the champion jester of the cap and bells, Josh Billings, who will commence with the first of January a series of his welland being out hims, out of haven of his well-known inimitable comic papers, written ex-pressly for us, in his irresistably convulsive vcin. Harriet E. Prescott, the most polished and imaginative sketch-writer living; P. T. Barnum, the world famed show-man and an tobiographer: Miss M. A. Earle, Fairfax Bal-four, Dr. J. H. Robinson, and "Ned Buutline," renowned, and versatile novelette-writers, will eko out the sparkling contributions, of such facile poets, fuilletonists, numorists, cri-tues, travelers, paragraphiats, etc., as George Arnold, J. C. Eaton, Millie W. Carpenter, George Alfred Townsend, Julia'S. Ingraham, Edward Willett, George Martial, Joseph, Bar-ber, J. A. Peiten, and others, numerous enough and clever enough to run all the news-papers on the Continent. The vivid pencils of Darley, McLenan, and White, the first draughtsmen of the age, will make the new volume pictorial, and whatever of ingitive or unceric note may appear during
