MARIETTA, PA:

Falurday, January 21, 1865.

Hon. Edward Everett died at his residence in Boston, very suddenly, of apoplexy, on Sunday morning last, aged 70 years and 9 months, Mr. Everett was first a minister of the gospel; he was in Congress in 1824 and continued there for ten years ; in 1834 was elected governor and was re-elected for four successive terms; was Minister to England under President Harrison; he de clined the Mission to China in 1843; was appointed Secretary of State on the death of Webster; was sent to the U. S. Senate in 1853 but resigned in 1854, on account of ill health; in '55 and '56 he delivered his celebrated oration on Washington for the purchase of Mount Vernon; at the late Presidential election was at the head of the electoral ticket in Massachusetts. He was, unquestionably, the most finished scholar in the United States.

The general impression in Mexico appears to be that Maximillian's role has so many obstacles in its way that it cannot stan I more than six months. Maximillian has set aside the church party, which was the means by which he went to Mexico, and has exiled two of its principal leaders. He wishes to conciliate the liberals, but in that he will certainly fail, and he will remain without any hold on the Mexican people. His principal trouble is, just now, his want of money, and of credit to borrow

The annual pew renting of Henry Ward Beecher's Plymouth Church, in Brooklyn, took place last week. Mr. Beecher explained that, by the practice here adopted, one-third of the seats paid two-thirds of the income. The first choice was gained by Mr. Clauin, at $400 premium, with $120 for rent. The first 150 pews sold yield, in rent and premiums, $32,000. The whole income is upward of $48,000. The congregation voted to raise the pastor's salary to $12,500. The sexton has $2.

Port Fisher was captured by our forces on the 15th instant, after a most half by. the fleet under Com. Porter. One account states, that 1200 prisoners were captured, another makes the number 2500, this victory will stop blockade running, and is only preliminary to the capture of Wilmington. Truly, the end of the rebellion hastens, and "so mote it be."

An important witness in a case before the Superior Court in session at Northampton, Mass., being absent last week, the sheriff was sent after him. The officer returned and said he had found the man, and wanted to know if the Court insisted on his presence. The answer was yes; but after the officer explained that he was sick with the small-pox, the Court suddenly changed its mind.

On Wednesday the 11th inst. Hon. James Guthrie was elected United States Senator, in place of Lazarus W. Powell whose term expires with the present session of Congress. Mr. Guthrie was chosen on the first ballot, receiving sixty-five votes, to fifty-six for General Jim Lane has been re elected by the Legislature of Kansas, U.S. Senator, for 6 years from the 4th of March next.

General Dan Sickles and staff bave gone to California.

Mr. Jacobs, the exiled Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky, who is now or was lately in Richmond, evidently does not relish life in the confederacy, to which he has given so much aid and comfort.—George D. Prentice, editor of the Louisville Journal, who returned from Richmond on the 2d instant. brought with him a letter to the President from Jacobs, in which he begs to be allowed to return to his home in Kentucky. The President, in the natural goodness of his heart, has granted his request. It is to be hoped that he returns both a wiser and happier man.

More than a year ago, the Hon. R. J. Walker, in his Thanksgiving address in London, made the fullowing remarkable prediction: "And now the Union troops hold Chattanooga, the great impregnable fortress of northwestern Georgia. From Chattanooga, which may be regarded as the great Geographical central pivot point of the rebellion, the armies of the republic will march down through the heart of Georgia and join our troops upon the seaboard of that State, and thus terminate the rebellion."

A fellow calling himself Cobb has been arrested at Detroit, Michigan, by a couple of New York detectives, as being one of the gang who set fire to the New York hotels. He was stopping at one of the first hotels in that place and it is thought was maturing plans to go into the firing business again. Evidence was found on his person to criminate him. He is said to have registered his name in New York as Sidney Staunton. He is a souther-

The Richmond papers ridicule the peace mission of the Blairs, the Examiner calls the senior Blair "an officious busybody in a state of second childhood," and styles the twain "fresh Yankee spies," The Whig declares that the object of the mission is to break up the Confederacy by alienating the state separately, and that the Blairs richly deserve hanging.
