MARIETTA, PA.

Saturday, February 18, 1865.

Hon. A. K. McClure offered a resolution in the State Assembly last week instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the expediency of establishing a new method of drawing jurors, so as to prevent political parties from being unequally represented in the jury box. The resolution was passed. The evil for which this proposition seeks a remedy has grown to one that affects the administration of justice in many counties of the State, and the call for a reform cannot longer go unheeded.

Attention is already being turned to the restoration of the Smithsonian edifice, and as the fund left to that institution by the enlightened Englishman, whose name it bears, is now some $600,000, it is supposed there will not be much delay in that regard. The building, it seems, is not so greatly injured but that it may be restored.

A company of forty-three women recently attempted to flee from the bonds of Mormonism, in Utah, but they were overtaken and carried back to their masters. It is said that the females in Utah are becoming so determined to escape from their degrading bondage, that a crisis in Mormon affairs will necessarily come soon.

Fernando Wood has come out in favor of the vigorous prosecution of the war, since the failure of the Hampton Roads conference. He says he was for peace, but if the rebels will persist in separation, he is now for pushing the war to compel them to submit. So much good, at least, has come out of this farce.

A few days since the President appointed Ex-Gov. Morgan of New York, Secretary of the Treasury, in place of Mr. Fessenden, who goes into the U. S. Senate, again on the 4th of March, but subsequently withdrew the name. No reason, as yet, assigned for this strange act.

A memorial to President Lincoln, recommending the Hon. Thomas M. Howe, of Pittsburg, for the appointment of U. S. Secretary of the Treasury, signed by Governor Curtin, the heads of departments, members of the Legislature, etc., will soon be sent to Washington.

Miss Sager, a member of Saint Matthew's Lutheran Church, of Philadelphia, (the Rev. E. W. Hutter's), has lately departed this life, and left the congregation of which she was a member a fine parsonage, together with another property, valued at $20,000.

The joint resolution of the Pennsylvania Legislature, ratifying the amendment to the constitution passed by Congress, was passed by the Senate on the 3d instant by a vote of 14 yeas and 8 nays; in the House by a strict party vote.

The report about Dr. Gwin being made a duke, &c., was a canard. The story caused much merriment in Havana. Dr. Gwin is in that city, and is going to Europe, having failed in his negotiations with Maximilian.

By a vote of 26 to 10, the U. S. Senate adopted a provision the other day against the exclusion of properly behaved persons from the public conveyances of Washington.

Gen. Grant declared to a member of Congress, that if the country would give him 100,000 fresh men, he could close the war in three months. The draft ought to give 300,000.

The Macon Telegraph, of the 25th ult., says that Lieut. Gen. Pemberton, who has been under ban since his surrender of Vicksburg, has been assigned to active duty.

An organization, called the Fenian Sisterhood—an auxiliary of the Fenian Brotherhood, and with the same objects in view—has been started in New York.

The three-cent notes are expected to reduce church collections, as they sound the same as a half-dime when dropped into the box.

A bill has been introduced in the Legislature to fix the standard weight of potatoes at fifty-six pounds per bushel.

Ex-Governor Thomas Halliday Hicks, of Maryland, died in Washington on Monday last. He was truly a patriot.

General Fry says the draft is to be immediately proceeded with.

ALL FOR LOVE.—A young man named George Pritchard, who has served out his time in the army, has for some time past been paying marked attention to a young widow, who resides on Thirteenth street, between G., and H., Washington. On Friday night week he visited her and proposed. The lady rejected him, and Pritchard endeavored to persuade her to alter her resolution, which she refused to do. Pritchard then put his hand in his pocket, and drawing forth a pistol, remarked, "Then I will show you how a man can die for love," and deliberately putting the pistol to his breast, fired. The ball did not, however, reach the heart, but, striking a rib, glanced off. The would-be suicide was placed under medical treatment. He is in a fair way of recovery.

A Convention of boatmen and persons interested in boating was held at Sunbury on the 1st inst., and continued in session several days. The Convention was well attended from various sections of this State along the line of the canal, and also from Maryland. The object was to devise measures to acquire more perfect unity, or concert of action, in regard to the rates of freight and other interests connected with the boating community. About one hundred delegates were in attendance.

The Commissioners of Internal Revenue has decided, that after the 1st of February, 1865, persons executing receipts for the delivery of any property must affix a two cent stamp to such receipts and cancel the same, otherwise they will be prosecuted for the penalty of $20, incurred under section 158 of the act of June 30, 1864. Receipts for the delivery of coal, wood, &c., will, it appears, require a stamp hereafter.

The Railroad Record recommends that when the war is over the military organization of colored troops be kept up, with pay and rations of soldiers, and their labor directed to the opening of the great lines of railway between the Atlantic and Pacific States. It will be time enough to think about that when the war is over.

In Newburyport, Mass., a few days ago, a little girl carelessly put her mouth on an iron post, and on account of the intense cold and frost her tongue caught to the post, and being terrified she tore it away, leaving half the skin of the tongue on the iron, while the blood ran from her mouth. The accident was painful but will not prove serious.

It was stated on the floor of the Ohio Senate lately, by Senator Gunckel, who obtained the information from the Adjutant General of the State, that on the day previous there had been received at Camp Chase 469 recruits, and of that number 130 had deserted during the forenoon.

The Union prisoners in Georgia have been transferred to Salisbury, North Carolina, to prevent their release by Sherman. Their treatment by the rebels is more inhuman than ever before. The number of deaths is fearful, and on the increase, averaging fifty daily.

We learn from the Pittsburg Gazette, that the population of that city has nearly quadrupled in 24 years. In 1840 polled a vote of 6,538; in 1864, 20,978. Surely, the Smoky City is a place of some note; as is attested by the number of most excellent daily papers published there.

The Lewiston Journal tells of a horrid death in that city. Mrs. Judith Guiney, aged about 60 years, was found dead on the floor of her shop—frozen stiff. Beside her was an empty rum bottle indicating that she fell in a drunken stupor and there froze to death.

Nineteen new national banks were organized during the week ending Saturday, February 4th. Of this number three are in Pennsylvania, viz: The First National Bank of Clearfield, the First National Bank of Clarion, and the Second National Bank of Allegheny.

The German papers announce the resignation by the celebrated chemist Liebig of his chair in the University of Munich. He goes to London to superintend the disinfection and application to agriculture of the sewerage of that city.

Probably the largest salary paid to any church singer in this country, is received by a boy but twelve years old—Master Richard Coker of Trinity Choir, New York. His salary is one thousand dollars per annum.

On Saturday night when one of the freight trains of the Northern Central Railroad reached Goldsboro, one of the brakemen was found standing at his post, with his arm on the brake, and he frozen to death.

Mr. Samuel Noble, of Boston, who had attained the age of ninety-nine years, died on Friday last. He was a native of Durham, N. H., and born August 10, 1765. He was the oldest man in Boston.

In Pennsylvania there are 13,000 public schools, with 16,000 teachers and 700,000 pupils.

GEORGE H. MUNDAY.—The "Hatless Prophet" as he was called, died in Philadelphia, on Tuesday of last week. George was very eccentric. He visited Marietta twice in 1847. He was a picture frame maker in Philadelphia at one time, and had massed quite a competency. He fell into habits of dissipation, and after squandering all he possessed, he suddenly reformed and ran into the opposite extreme of becoming an ardent advocate of temperance. He lectured frequently, generally in the open street. He was, however, often grossly and offensively personal in his harangues. He also published an occasional newspaper which he called "The Voice of the Prophet; or the Pioneer of Truth," which he hawked about the streets. In one of his spirited public demonstrations of what he was pleased to call evils and abuses, he was particularly severe upon the fashion of wearing artificial flowers in bonnets, and throwing off his own hat he declared he would never resume it until the ladies ceased their floral abominations. The ladies did not cease to wear flowers, and, as George was a man of his word he never after wore a hat, but went through storm and sunshine, winter and summer, without any shelter for his head, except such as nature gave him. He did not adhere strictly to his temperance principles in his later life, and at times he would run far into the other extreme.

REMARKABLE SKATING FEAT.—Professor S. H. Quind, of New York, who has been lecturing in the northwest, arrived at Quincy, Ill., on Monday, January 23, on skates, having skated all the way from St. Paul, Minn. He left St. Paul on the 9th of January, and reached Quincy on the 23d, travelling the whole distance of 850 miles in fourteen days—an average of 60 5/7 miles a day, stopping on the way to deliver lectures. He found the ice smooth and beautiful, and clear of air holes. He had a clean stretch from St. Paul to Quincy, and he bowled down the globe over five degrees of latitude without meeting with an impediment. It is one of the most extraordinary feats on record.

GREENBACK COUNTERFEIT.—The Pittsburg Journal says that a new counterfeit five dollar greenback is in circulation there. It is very poorly executed, the engravings being quite coarse and rough in appearance. The Goddess of Liberty on the left hand end of the note, and the ground work around the figure 5 on the upper right hand corner are very poorly engraved, and present a dim and mixed appearance. The green on the back is of an indifferant shade, and unlike the genuine. The engraving is shorter than that of the genuine by about a quarter of an inch.

S. L. Hyde, a United States detective connected with the provost marshal's office in New Haven, Conn., on Wednesday evening last, on returning home, asked his wife to get him some cartridges, that he might reload his revolver. As she started to comply with his request the hammer of the weapon slipped from his fingers and the pistol went off, the ball entering the heart of Mrs. Hyde. The unfortunate woman sprang forward, exclaiming, "I am killed, kiss me before I die," and in a moment was dead.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune states that General Butler, a few years ago, invested $100,000 in the stock of a manufacturing company of Lowell, which has since paid 50 per cent. dividend annually. The market price of his shares is now upwards of $300,000. It is also stated that the income from his law business was $20,000 annually before he entered the national service.

Gen. Grant testified before the Committee on the Conduct of the War, last Friday, that he had perfected arrangements with the rebel commissioner for a full exchange of prisoners, man for man, and officer for officer; and that from 3000 to 6000 per week would probably be exchanged.

Dr. J. S. Jeffries, a government detective, doing duty from post headquarters at Cincinnati, was betrayed by a rebel deserter last week into the hands of the guerrillas in Bourbon county, Ky., who first murdered and then robbed him.

No wonder New York is unhealthy. A single house in the Fourth Ward is constructed to hold 126 families, and over 1500 people; 27,000 people live in cellars.—Crime and disease necessarily follow such overcrowding.

Fernando Wood, Pendleton and other peace democrats propose to give a dinner to Mr. Sweet, of Maine, the only New England representative who voted against the constitutional amendment, as a mark of their regard to him.

The Government was never so sanguine of the speedy overthrow of the rebellion as at this time. The thorough organization of our armies, and their united movement in every quarter, fore-shadows an early and complete success.

Mrs. Catharine Bergner, wife of Mr. George Bergner, proprietor of the Harrisburg Telegraph, and Postmaster of that city, died on Sunday last.

PEN, PASTE AND SCISSORS.
Hon. R. C. Winthrop, in his remarks before the Massachusetts Historical Society on the death of Mr. Everett, stated that at the time of his death, Mr. E. was engaged in preparing a Life of James L. Pettigru, of South Carolina, and a volume of Washington's private letters.

Holland papers, so the London journals say, claim General Sherman as a native of that country, who emigrated to America after a commercial failure in Amsterdam. It is sufficient to dispose of that claim to say that General Sherman is a lineal descendant of Roger Sherman, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

A number of wealthy and influential citizens of Newark, including the Mayor and several Aldermen, have secured a large coal tract in Pennsylvania, and propose to supply the inhabitants of that city with coal at cost. The price of shares will be $10 each, and each holder will be entitled to one ton of coal at cost for every share.

The New Haven Register says:—"Among a squad of recruits which passed through Springfield on their way front, on Friday, was a Turk, who was beguiled into enlisting by a substitute broker, without knowing what he was doing. The broker had robbed him of all his money, and the poor fellow was entirely disheartened. He was crying bitterly, and had been mourning and weeping for three days."

The fact of President Lincoln and Secretary Seward meeting the representatives of the rebels on ship board in the waters of the Chesapeake to talk over matters of peace, is not without a historical precedent. Napoleon, it will be remembered, once met the Emperor of Russia and the King of Prussia upon a raft moored in the centre of the river Niemen, a little below the town, June 25, 1807, and there signed the treaty of Tilsit, which put an end to a long and bloody war.

The Ohio Legislature has passed a very stringent law against substitute brokers.

The government realizes about $70,000 per month from the hides, tallow, hoofs, &c., of the cattle slaughtered for the Army of the Potomac.

Vice President Hamlin, it is stated, has announced to his friends that he would not accept any position in the new Cabinet, and intends retiring to his farm.

The city of Chicago, through the Common Council, has made a magnificent offer to the State of Illinois, for the removal of the capital to that city. It offers a site and half a million of dollars for the erection of the edifice.

One of the bells which merrily rang in honor of the passage of the anti-slavery amendment, in Fitchburg, Mass., formerly occupied a place in the tower of an Episcopal church in Louisiana, where it ding-donged for the slaveholders.

Four men recently had a fight with axes, revolvers and guns, in Shelby county, Tennessee, wherein one man's head was split open, another's bowels were blown out, and a third, who had fallen over a log, was being backed to pieces when his dog came to his rescue, and dreadfully mangling his assailant, saved his master's life.

Captain Morgan S. Bryan, convicted and sent to Cherry Hill prison for the killing of a colored saloon keeper at Chambersburg, was pardoned by Governor Curtin on Friday last. Bryan was a captain in the 17th Pennsylvania cavalry at the time the murder was committed, and served with distinction in this and the Mexican war.

Major General Rousseau has made application to the War Department for authority to raise a veteran corps of troops, ten thousand in number. The corps is to be armed with the celebrated Spencer rifle, capable of shooting seven times before reloading.

Isaac Funk, the great Illinois farmer, who owned 30,000 acres of the best land in Illinois, and was taxed for nearly $2,000,000, is dead. His wife also died in a few hours after her husband. Mr. Funk's will provides that his vast estates shall remain in his family undivided.

It is stated that a scheme was set on foot by several members of the North Carolina Senate to bring about a meeting of the different governors of States at Raleigh. The matter had met the approval of the Governors, the purpose being understood to be to discuss the question of the crisis and reconstruction; but Gov. Vance, by information to Jeff. Davis, broke up the entire arrangement.

Seven persons escaped from the jails at Elmira, N. Y., last week, through a tunnel, which must have occupied them in its excavation several months. Among the number was Lorenzo C. Stewart, a bounty-jumper, awaiting execution for the murder of two of his guards by poison. The tunnel was probably about twenty feet in length and varied in diameter according as the walls caved in or retained their places as the digging went on.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Prospectus and Report of the Committee set up to West Virginia, to examine and select lands for "The West Virginia National Petroleum Association," (an Oil enterprise on new principles) can be had by addressing the undersigned James Lynd, esq., No. 53 South Sixth street, Philadelphia, or publisher of this paper, or Jos. Webster, No. 50 North Fifth street, Philadelphia,—authorized Agent to receive all subscriptions from this county, to above association.

Subscription price for the present, $1 per share, fully paid up. Subscriptions for 100 shares or less, cash at the time of subscribing, and over this number of shares 3-5th on the whole amount—balance in two separate instalments. Subscribers are notified that the third instalment is now payable.

Report.—The Committee appointed to visit and examine the lands for the Association, made their report at a general meeting of the Association, held at No. 53 South Sixth street, Philadelphia, January 3d, 1865, that they had visited, carefully examined and selected sixteen separate tracts, comprising in all 6,492 acres, at a cost of from $35 to $83 per acre—making an average of $55.13 per acre. These prices are much below those usually paid for Oil Lands in West Virginia, owing to the fact that the committee have personally visited the locations, and purchased from bona fide owners, thus saving the large profit that is generally placed on lands by agents before selling to Companies.

The whole of these lands have been selected by the committee as first-class Oil Territory, having in view an easy access to market, so necessary for their early development.—We believe that no property is better situated or has more reliable indications of an abundance of oil.

Some of these tracts are well improved farms, and all contain fine timber in large quantities. They are situated on what is called "Oil Break," or Great Upheaval, and are well intersected by streams and ravines.

Oil has been found within a short distance of the most of these localities, so that the committee are satisfied from personal examination, that they believe all the tracts now presented will yield oil in paying quantities. The committee would further report that they have arranged to purchase all these tracts in fee-simple, clear of incumbrance.

Yours, Respectfully,
