The Local Mariettian.

MARIETTA CAR HOURS. The several passenger trains will leave the "Upper-Station Depot" as follows: Morning train, East, at 10 minutes before 8; Mail train West, 12:03; Harrisburg Accommodation train, East, at 17 minutes after 5 in the evening; the same train West, at 39 minutes after 6, in the evening.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1865.

TO-DAY, (SATURDAY FEB'Y 25th) e will commence to remove the materials of the Printing office of "The Mariettian" to "LYNDSAY'S BUILDING," (second floor) on Elbow Lane, mid-way between the Post office corner and the old Stackhouse tavern, now the " Eagle Hotel, where, in future, we will be glad to meet our old friends and the public. The removal of a printing office-taking down and putting up presses, type, forms, stands, &c.-is, by no means, a trifling job; the care and time necessary to do it well and correctly being considerable, so much so, that we will have to forego the publication of a paper on Saturday next, (March 4th). We will not, therefore, issue a paper on the 4th, but our subscribers shall not be the loosers, thereby, for we shall give fifty-two numbers for the year.

There will be no delay in executing all kinds of Job PRINTING.

Rev. H. S. Alexander, of Columbia, will preach in the Presbyterian church to morrow (Sunday) morning and evening.

Col. Joseph W. Fisher's new regiment is now full, by accepting the offer of two companies from Harrisburg, which the Colonel will not do if Lancaster county men can be obtained. He wishes the regiment to be thoroughly a Lancaster County Regiment. Here is an opportunity yet to fight under one of the best officers in the United States service, as his conduct in the Pennsylvania Reserves clearly proved.

Ge The mild weather for the past lew days has melted away the snow and ice that but little apprehension is now felt, should it continue a short time onger without rain, although the river is still tightly packed with ice, but hould a sudden warm rain occur there will be a frightful and destructive fresht on the Susanebanna.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par.
