

The Local Mariettian.

MARIETTA CAR HOURS. The several passenger trains will leave the "Upper-Station Depot" as follows: Morning train, East, at 10 minutes before 8; Mail train West, 12:03; Harrisburg Accommodation train, East, at 17 minutes after 5 in the evening; the same train West, at 30 minutes after 5, in the evening.

SATURDAY, MARCH 11 1886.

On our first page will be found a very interesting article on the Military Affairs of the old times in Marietta, from the pen of our valued contributor and former townsman, Capt. SIMON S. RAYMOND. We should like very much to have the continuation spoken of by the Captain, and thus be able to make the record complete. Will some person be kind enough to hunt up the old muster rolls?

At length we are comfortably fixed in our new quarters in "Lindsay's Building," near the Post Office, where we will be in readiness to attend to all wants in the printing way.

Any word or work intended for us, left with Patrick Henry Grady, the obliging clerk at the Post Office, which is only a few steps from our new location, will be promptly delivered and attended to.

The Borough election will take place on Friday next, the 17th, when chief and assistant Burgess, five Councilmen, two School Directors, one Justice of the Peace, two Constables, and officers for the next election. A meeting should be called to settle "good men and true" for the several positions.

Our place has been in "great tribulation" for the past two weeks about the draft. The borough council has contributed $3000 a man and the several committees report $3000 subscribed, which would have enabled us to get out but for the failure of many of the subscribers to "pay up." A committee, however, is now in Lancaster getting recruits as fast as possible and will continue to do so as long as the money holds out. We hope the persons having this matter in charge will furnish us for publication a list of the subscribers and those who subscribed and did not pay; those who were exempt but contributed, in a word, a statement of their doings.

The Clearfield Postman's Journal of the 1st instant, speaking of the number business, says: "We have made some inquiries during the past ten days, regard to the quantity of timber that is likely to be run to market this season, and we find that it will be, from present indications, about two-thirds of that of last year—yet in our opinion, this will be more than enough to supply the demand. In fact, we believe it would be much to the advantage of our lumbermen, if not much over the one-half now made would be taken to market."

Mr. Baker.—Please announce in the Mariettian that the following named pupils of the Male Secondary School are applicants for admission into the High School, and will be examined on Monday evening next, in the following branches:—English Grammar, Orthography, Geography, Reading, Mental and Written Arithmetic. John P. Libhart, John Turner, Charles Mackenzie, Henry Mosay, James Buchanan, H. Bird Cassel, Joseph Larzelere, Elbridge Wisner, Penrose Mutch, Samuel Johnson and Otto Zuch.

THEO. HESTAND, Teacher. Major John F. Trout, Captain E. D. Roath, Lieut. John M. Kline, David Mattis, David Doub, Jacob Kugle, and several other Mariettians who have been flourishing for the past six or eight months in Libby, Sanilibrary, Andersonville and other southern hell holes, have within the past week, returned home. They all look much the "worse of wear" and give horrible accounts of their outrageous treatment while in rebel hands.

An entertainment for the benefit of the Presbyterian Sunday School of this borough, will be given in the Town Hall, on next Thursday and Friday evenings, March 16th and 17th. The exercises will consist of Vocal and Instrumental Music and Tableaux. The exercises will commence at 7 o'clock. Admission, 25 cents. The public is invited to attend.

Mr. File having permanently located near the Upper Railroad Station Hotel, we would recommend his superior workmanship to all who need any blacksmithing. We know he is the best smith our borough has had for years. Read his card in another column.

Godey's Lady Book, for March contains a large number of beautiful and useful illustrations, in addition to much choice literary matter. The book was never more popular with the fair sex than at present, and its circulation never so large.

Captain William L. Bear, who distinguished himself in the Pennsylvania Reserves, goes with Col. Jos. W. Fisher's regiment as Lieut.-Col.

Messrs. Spangler & Rich have just received a fresh lot of spring goods. Their advertisement will appear in our next.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Jeremiah McCracken, a well known citizen of this city, met with a horrible and fatal accident, on Thursday last, under the following circumstances. He had gone to the Depot in company with his brother-in-law, who resides at Marietta, and stepped on the train to bid him good-bye. Meanwhile the train commenced moving, and Mr. C., on getting off, in front of the Fulton House, slipped and fell. His right arm caught on the rail and his body was dragged under the wheels. The head was almost severed from the body, and the arm completely crushed and taken off just below the elbow. Of course he met with instant death.

Mr. McCracken was one of the oldest and most prominent members of the Seegar Maker's Association of this city. He was one of the kindest hearted men we ever knew, and his sudden and horrible death has cast a shudder and gloom over all who knew him. He was a devoted husband and affectionate father. His family consists of a wife and six children, and his wife, we learn, is very ill at the present time. His oldest son, John C. McCracken, who was Orderly Sergeant of the Union Guards, 1st Pennsylvania Reserves, died in the month of August, 1862, from wounds received in the battles before Richmond under General McClellan. Alas, poor Jerry. How sad and horrible his death has been. God help the afflicted family.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

Jerry was, at one time, a resident of Marietta. He married here—a daughter of the late John Foltz, who we learn is in the last stages of consumption and her departure hourly looked for.

The Susquehanna is nearly clear of ice. On Sunday morning last the river rose very rapidly and in a short time everything looked as if the town would be completely inundated—the ice passing off, gave vent to the water and in an incredibly short time all was restored to quiet. Some of the farmers above town suffered in broken down fences—the all fields along the river being completely cleared of them. Messrs. Miller & Messer's saw mill log pond was cleaned out and a large amount of sawed stuff swept away. Their loss will be much the heaviest in this vicinity.

Dr. Charles Leib, formerly of Lancaster, died lately in Arizona.

DIED.

On the 20th of February, THOMAS B. son of John K., and Rosena Fidler, of this borough, aged 7 years. In Lancaster, on the 26th of February, MARTHA M., wife of John Frederick Gibby. On the 7th instant, MARY, widow of the late Peter Mumma, of this borough, aged 66 years. On the 8th instant, ELIZA, wife of William Stiggen, of this borough.
