MARIETTA, PA.

The Copperhead papers have set up the hue and cry that President Lincoln closed the door to peace by insisting that what action had been taken with regard to slavery should not be disturbed. Un fortunately for the theory that this was all that stood in the way of negotiation, Judah P. Benjamin, the rebel Secretary of State, declared in his speech at Richmond, that "our commissioners sent to confer with the enemy, went with a piece of blank paper. Allied with one word written by our President—'INDEPENDENCE.' That settles the question of the terms on which the rebel leaders would have concluded peace; and, unless the Copperheads are prepared to concede the independence of the rebels, they are shedding crocodile tears over the failure of negotiations.

Four years ago, a Rebel convention, speaking for South Carolina, declared the "Union heretofore existing between that State and the States of North America is dissolved," and that the "States of South Carolina has resumed her position among the nations of the world." Where is the pride of her power to-day? Her capital in possession of a "Yankee" force, her chief commercial city in the hands of the same "Yankees," and presided over for the present by one of the German "Boors" they so much detest, her territory overrun by invading armies, her principal citizens "fugitives from justice,"—how has she fallen from her high estate.

Governor Morton, of Indiana, has been addressing letters to the Governors of all the loyal States, to gather information with respect to the admission or exclusion of negro testimony. From the answers returned it appears, as Governor Morton expresses it, that "Indiana and Illinois are the only free States whose statue-books are dishonored by the retention of a law so repugnant to the spirit of the age and the dictates of common sense." The Illinois Senate has repealed the law excluding negro testimony, and the Indiana Legislature remains alone, therefore, in the retention of the old policy.

Captain Deall, at the breaking out of the war, it is said, owned a large plantation in Jefferson county, Virginia, and worked about 100 slaves. His fortune was then estimated at $1,500,000, and he is, in addition, the heir apparent of Lord Egelyb, of England. He was only thirty-two years of age.

Five of the fleet of vessels on which Collector Draper is loading the cotton captured at Savannah by General Sherman, arrived at Port Royal, S. C., on the 28th ult. There are twelve more vessels of the fleet, and when all had arrived at Port Royal they would sail for New York under convoy of several revenue cutters.

The Baltimore American says a substantial company, to be made up of New York, Washington and Baltimore capitalists, is about being formed for the purpose of establishing a camel line between the Missouri frontier and California, the eastern terminus of the line to be at Omaha city.

Within the past eight months upwards of four hundred newspapers have "died," in consequence of the exorbitant price of printing paper. Add yet the prohibition duty on foreign paper must be continued in order that a few papermakers may become enormously rich.

The Reading Journal states that a drafted man from the upper end of that county last week paid a substitute hailing from Reading, $1,500 in cash, a deed for fifteen acres of good farm land, and an excellent horse. This is the most liberal pay for shouldering a musket that we have heard of.

Col. Benj. M. Anderson, one of the parties implicated in the Chicago conspiracy, shot himself in the stomach on Sunday last, and cannot survive. He said the evidence was so strong against him that he was driven to despair.

Secretary of War, Stanton, sent a dispatch to Governor Fenton, at Albany, on Saturday night, announcing the fall of Columbia, adding that the spring campaign will end the rebellion if recruiting is pushed rapidly on.

One hundred years, nearly, having transpired since American Methodism began, that denomination is taking measures for an impressive celebration of the event.

A private letter from Paris says that George B. McClellan still has his cards printed "Major General, McClellan."

SOLDIERS BURNED ALIVE.—A Tribune correspondent at Wilmington, N. C., is informed by the chaplain of a Connecticut regiment, and had the fact attested by an escaped prisoner, that a number of sick Union prisoners who were lying in a house, and unable to move with the retreating rebel army from Wilmington, were burned to death in the house by the roadside. The house was set on fire, probably, with the intention of driving them out, but being unable to save themselves, they fell victims to the flames. Their charred remains have been seen lying where they perished. Such hellish barbarity will not, we believe, go unpunished by an avenging God.

A NEW RATION FOR SOLDIERS.—The new army ration proposed by Prof. Horsford, of Harvard University, which substitutes roasted wheat for "hard tack," meat sausage in the place of salt beef, pork, &c., and self-raising flour in the place of soft bread, for a marching ration, has been recommended by General Grant to the Secretary of War, and the latter has ordered a half million of the new rations to be prepared and issued for trial. It is said that thirty days of Horsford's rations can be carried with less difficulty than eight of the present rations.

The Senate by a unanimous vote, confirmed the appointment of the Hon. Hugh M. Callough as Secretary of the Treasury. Mr. M'Callough is a citizen of Indiana, where he had long experience as a banker, and since this was commenced he has been occupied in a high and responsible position in the department of which he is now the head.

Andrew Jackson Donelson, the adopted son of Gen. Jackson, a prominent citizen of Tennessee, and in 1836 a candidate for the Vice-Presidency, has come within our lines and taken the amnesty oath. While in rebellion he took no part in either its civil or military affairs. He is permitted to go anywhere within the limits of his State.

Coffee in San Francisco on the 1st of February was selling below the cost of importation, in consequence of the excessive stock on hand. We may therefore soon expect a considerable fall here, as we notice the arrival of 3000 bags at this port, the first in more than a year.

Peat, as fuel for locomotives, has been tried on one of the New York roads, and was found to answer equally well with coal, with this advantage: That a ton of peat will drive an engine twice as many miles as coal, and can be purchased at about two-thirds the price of coal.

James Clark, alias "Sae Mundy," was convicted by a court martial of being guilty of different murders and of having thrown a train of cars off the track and robbing the passengers, for which he was sentenced to be hung in Louisville, Ky., on the 15th inst.

How Gen. Sherman has verified what he said when he was about leaving Savannah for his onward march, "I will not go within one hundred miles of Charleston, but mark my word, I will compel them to evacuate without firing a gun!"

Gen. Sherman gives it as his opinion that so terrible and relentless has been the despotism of Jeff. Davis, that the people of the South are thoroughly intimidated, and must gain courage before they will dare attempt anything to restore the national power.

A singular animal, resembling a kangaroo or baboon, has been caught on one of the highest peaks of the Sierras. Its voice is strangely like that of a human being.—The animal, when standing on its hind legs, is about three and a half feet high.

The London Times startles its readers with the announcement that Jeff. Davis "has the game in his own hands," and that he can secure independence whenever he wishes it, "with or without the consent of the north!" Positively, "no other paper has the news."

One dollar notes on the Bank of Montgomery County, altered to tens, have made their appearance. No one need be deceived by them if they will remember that the portraits on the one dollar notes are military, while those on the genuine tens are "civil."

A letter from Virginia City, Montana territory, says greenbacks are unknown, gold-dust being entirely the circulating medium. Wages are $6 to $12 a day, board $14 to $20 a week, flour $50 to $60 a barrel, sugar 75 cents a pound, coal oil $12 a gallon, and other things in proportion. Nobody is advised to lead the roughest kind of a rough life.

John D. Fox, in whose house and in connection with whose family modern spirit-rapping had its origin, recently died in Wayne county, New York, aged 76 years. Though his daughters became famous as apostles of the new creed, the father never became a believer in spiritualism, but lived and died in the communion of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Splendid Jewelry almost Given Away.—In our advertising columns today will be found the announcement of Messrs. Newborn & Co., of New York, for the sale of an immense stock of Jewelry, &c., on the novel plan of One Dollar for each article. This is a new firm, and the fact that it is ambitious to build up a good name, makes it probable that customers will be liberally dealt with. It will cost but twenty-five cents to try the experiment any way.

The Bankrupt Bill will doubtless again fall at the present session of Congress. Two or three weeks ago appearance favored its passage; and perhaps at this time, were other business regarded as much more important, disposed of it would become a law. But the fates are again against it, as they have been for the last twenty-five or thirty years, and, as before, it will go by the board, to be resuscitated by the next Congress.

WATCHES AND JEWELRY ON THE ONE DOLLAR PLAN.

The entire stock of one Gold and Silver Watch Manufacturing, Two Immediate Jewelry Establishments, One Silver Plating Warehouse, One Gold and And Pencil Maker, TO BE DISPOSED OF WITH DISPATCH WITHOUT REGARD TO COST! The Goods are of fashionable styles and are manufactured in this manner to relieve the proprietors from embarrassment occasioned by a dragging civil war. It should be prominently stated, also, that they are mostly of AMERICAN MANUFACTURE and therefore greatly superior to the goods imported from abroad and hawked about as the cheapest ever sold. The simple duty of imported goods and the large premium on gold (all foreign bids are payable in gold), amounts to more than the entire cost of many of the articles offered by us to the public. To facilitate the sale

ONLY ONE DOLLAR will be charged for any article on our list, and this sum the purchaser need not pay until he knows what he is to get. This plan is approved with the method recently become so popular for disposing of large stocks of Jewelry and similar productions.

THE PLAN IS SIMPLE! The name of each article offered for sale, as "Gold Hunting Watch," "Gold Oval-Basket," "Pearl Breastpin and Ear-Drops," "Held Emerald Ring," "Silver Plated Basket," &c., is written on a card and enclosed in a sealed envelope; these envelopes are then placed in a drawer and well mixed, then an order is received, with twenty cents for return postage and other charges. One of the cards or certificates is taken at random and sent by first mail to the customer, who will see at once what he can get for one Dollar. If he is pleased with his fortune he can forward the money according to direction on the certificate and secure the article. If he is not pleased he should be allowed to purchase—as for example, a set of Pearl Drops and Breastpin to a young man who could not wear them, and had no one to give them to—we will send any other article on our catalogue of equal price which may be preferred. Or, if, for any reason, you do not venture no further, then you can let the matter drop where it is and spend no more. Examine carefully our Catalogue!
