

SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1865.

Rev. Mr. Matthias, the newly appointed Methodist clergyman for this place, will preach on Sabbath morning. Rev. Mr. Gregg goes to Philadelphia. Mr. G., has left a host of friends here.

We understand, says the Columbia Sp., that work will be commenced on the Columbia and Port Deposit Railroad next week, at this end of the line.

Peterson's Magazine for April is on our table. A beautiful engraving called the "Young Photographer" opens the book; fashion plate, new style bonnets, dresses, head gear, etc., and a large amount of useful and entertaining reading matter. Price only two dollars. Address C. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.

A man named James Cooney was choked to death on Thursday last, in Bainbridge, by attempting to swallow a piece of meat.

A stable, belonging to Jacob Reddig, and in the tenancy of Jacob Swedes, at Heamstown station, on the Columbia and Reading railroad, was set on fire on Saturday, by a spark from a locomotive, and with its contents, consisting of hay, tobacco, and a valuable cow, entirely consumed. The stable was about one hundred yards from the railroad track.

A patent has lately been issued for a simple and portable stove in which coal oil may be economically used as a fuel. This invention consist in using with a coal oil lamp, of any suitable construction, a draught chimney, and a dam arranged in such a manner that the heat evolved or radiated from the lamp may be advantageously employed for cooking or culinary purposes.—New York Tribune.

We used one of these stoves during part of last summer and find they will answer for light cooking. One of them can be seen at John Spangler's Hardware store.—Ed. Mariettian.

"The Lady's Friend" for April is out. "Grandmother's Story" is the significant title of the handsome and expressive steel engraving of this no.; the story attached to it, by Bella Z. Spencer, explains the significance of the engraving; then we have the usual richly colored double steel Fashion Plate; then a variety of other engravings of the fashions, work table, &c.; then for music, a song, "I Built a Bridge of Fancies." Then the usual amount of literary matter. Price $2.50; 2 copies $4.00; 9 copies $16.00; 21 copies $35.00. Specimen numbers will be sent to those desirous of making up clubs for 15 cts. Wheeler & Wilson's celebrated Sewing Machines are furnished as Premiums. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

Now is the time to send on subscriptions for 1865.

The river is in good running order—quite a number of rafts have arrived and prices said to be "very steep," with a strong inclination on the part of buyers to "hold off." Front street has almost been taken possession of by clothing establishments, as almost every other room from the White Swan hotel to the railroad station has a red shirt flying in the breeze. It was at first thought that the Columbia shute, at the dam, could not be got through, in consequence of the damage done by the flood, but it appears they are now running through.

A meeting of the citizens of this borough will be held in the town hall, this (Saturday) evening at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of deciding further action with regard to furnishing the balance of our quota. Every citizen—old or young—should attend. Capitalists, particularly, are invited, as a favorable opportunity will be offered to subscribe to a very desirable loan, free from taxation, bearing 6 per cent. interest, payable semi-annually, and thus prevent immediate heavy taxation. Let every one be present.

Dr. J. H. Grove and lady arrived at their home, in this borough, on Thursday evening. Dr. Grove has been acting surgeon in the army ever since the breaking out of the rebellion. For the past year he has had charge of an hospital in Louisville, Ky., from which he has just been furloughed for twenty days, to visit his home and arrange his private business. The Doctor looks well, but speaks very disparagingly of much disinterested loyalty in Kentucky; he thinks at heart a large portion sympathize with the rebellion. Mrs. Grove had gone on and joined her husband about New Year's.

A man named James Ott, belonging to the 51st P. V. was drowned at a short distance above Middletown on Sunday last. He is said to have been a citizen of Lancaster county.

Dr. Landis offers hay for sale. See advertisement.

Read the advertisement headed "Patriotic Loan."

DIED.

From the "Lexington [Mo.] Weekly Union" of March 18, 1865.

DIED, in this City, on the 27th of February, 1865, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN RATHVON, aged 15 years.

"On earth, dear one, we'll meet no more,
Thou art forever gone;
Thy sufferings here are over now,
Thy joy in Heaven begun."

Dearest Frank thou hast left us,
And thy loss we deeply feel;
But this God again bereaves us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

The above deceased was the only son of JACOB RATHVON, JR., formerly a citizen of Marietta, Pa., and only surviving brother of S. S. Rathvon, of Lancaster, who, for the last sixteen years, has been a citizen of Lexington, Missouri. From information received through a private source, it appears that little Frank was an intelligent, orderly and amiable boy, "whom no one knew but to love," and that with remarkable resignation he passed through a series of long and painful afflictions. His body reposes in Mother Earth, by the side of his mother and little sister, who had previously passed from the shores of time to the realms of eternity, and, doubtless, his spirit is now associated in untrammelled communion with theirs. We sincerely sympathize with our former fellow-townsmen, in his sad bereavement, and we know that all who knew him here, where he was born and raised, will unite in our sympathies.

Patriotic Loan.

To the citizens of the Borough of Marietta.

Fellow Citizens.—We congratulate you upon the brightening prospect of a favorable issue, and speedy close of the rebellion. For four years our country has been convulsed and devastated by war, during which, the worst passions of the human heart were developed. Suffering the nearest ties of kindred and creating deadly enmity where friendship before existed. The vicissitudes of the war naturally created conflicting opinions upon the most practicable mode of restoring peace to the country. Much as men may have differed upon the cause of the war, and the measures adopted to crush the rebellion, it behooves us all to acknowledge the divine guidance through this terrible conflict, and also to co-operate heartily in the best means of liquidating the claims that the necessities of the war has created.

Your corporate authorities, our predecessors, have patriotically labored to furnish the men and means required to fill the demands of the National Government, and have thereby incurred a War Debt of nearly Twenty Thousand Dollars, chiefly on loans at a period not exceeding ninety days. We would ask your careful consideration of the facts we present in favor of converting this indebtedness into a loan running from one to five years. It raised by immediate taxation, the tax of this year will be eight times as great as the Borough Tax has heretofore been; thus the citizens whose tax has heretofore been ten dollars will have eighty dollars of Borough Tax to pay before the 15th of May next, but by furnishing money on Borough Bonds this indebtedness can be paid off so gradually that it will scarcely be felt by even the heaviest tax payer.

"The collection of the tax will then be made when the country is at peace, and we will be free from the numerous calls for money that war now creates; the tax will then reach many who now from minority, are exempt from taxation, but who, in the enjoyment of the blessings of peace, should be required to pay a portion of war debt.

The real estate of the Borough is legally held for this debt, and as the ownership thereof is undergoing frequent changes, it is not probable, by creating the proposed loan, that the present owners may ever have much of the debt to pay.

The loan will be issued in Bonds of from $20 to $1000, with coupons attached, bearing 6 per cent. interest, payable semi-annually, which being exempt from all taxes, makes the interest equal to 7 per centum. These bonds are a lien on all the real estate of the Borough.

We have you will therefore see that it is your interest to do so far as you can, in converting this loan into bonds, by subscribing for as much of it as you can afford to.

The Subscription Books are now open at The First National Bank, and will be left there until the Fifteenth day of April, when if the loan is not taken, immediate taxation will have to be resorted to.

Section 2.—That the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Marietta are hereby authorized and required to levy such taxes as may be necessary to meet the payment of all such bonds or indebtedness as shall become due, [which tax shall be independent of those assessed,] in the same manner, include the same subjects of taxation, be accounted for in the same way and collected and disbursed as other borough taxes and moneys are."

BLINDNESS, DEAFNESS and CATARRH treated with the utmost success, by DR. J. ISAACS, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of Leyden, Holland,) No. 519 Pine street, Philadelphia. Testimonials from the most reliable sources in the City and Country can be seen at his office. The medical faculty are invited to accompany their patients, as he has no secrets in his practice. ARTIFICIAL EYES inserted without pain. No charge made for examination. [Jan. 28-ly.]

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent. including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one, to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is paid semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has undoubtedly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

MAGNIFICENT SALE.

Gold and Silver Watches, Jewelry, &c.

ON THE ONE DOLLAR PLAN.

The entire stock of one Gold and Silver Watch Manufacturing, Two Immense Jewelry Establishments, One Silver Plating Ware-house, One Gold Pen and Pencil Maker,

TO BE DISPOSED OF WITH DISPATCH WITHOUT REGARD TO COST!

The Goods are of fashionable styles and most excellent workmanship, and are sacrificed in this manner to relieve the proprietors from embarrassment occasioned by a distracting civil war. It should be prominently stated, also, that they are mostly of and therefore greatly superior to the goods imported from abroad and hawked about as the cheapest ever sold. The simple duty on imported goods and the high premium on Gold (all foreign bills are payable in gold,) amount to more than the entire cost of many of the articles offered by us to the public. To facilitate the sale will be charged for any article on our list, and this sum the purchaser need not pay until he knows what he is to get! This plan accords with the method recently become so popular for disposing of large stocks of jewelry and similar productions.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR

THE PLAN IS SIMPLE!
The name of each article offered for sale, as "Gold Hunting Watch," "Gold Oval-Ban Bracelet," "Pearl Breastpin and Ear-Drops," "Hold Er enameled Ring," "Silver Plated Cake Basket," &c., is written on a card and enclosed in a sealed envelope; these envelopes are then placed in a drawer and well mixed; then as an order is received, with twenty-five cents for return postage and other charges, one of the cards or certificates is taken at random and sent by first mail to the customer, who will see at once what he can get for One Dollar. If he is pleased with his fortune he can forward the money according to directions on the certificate and secure the prize. If the article awarded should be unsuited to the purchaser—for example, a set of Pearl Ear Drops and Breastpin to a young man who could not wear them, and had no one to give them to—we will send any other article on the catalogue of equal price which may be preferred. Or if for any reason, you choose to venture no further, then you can let the matter drop where it is and spend no more. Examine carefully our Catalogue!
