THE DRAFT.—The excitement consequent upon our recent great successes in the field has caused a singular degree of apathy, on the part of many of our citizens, as regards volunteering. They seem to imagine that the draft will not be enforced, that our Government has no longer any necessity for reinforcing its armies, and, in fact, that the work of suppressing the rebellion has well nigh come to an end.

That it has so, it would of course be useless to deny. Soldiers will, however still be wanted, and the Government must have them.

The losses of actual life in our army, the number of our wounded, entail upon us the necessity of replacing the deficiencies arising from these causes. The country will need men for years after the rebellion has actually been crushed out of existence, to suppress the feverish disquietude which must exist amongst the disbanded and defeated Southerners. A necessity has been created by this war for a strong Government, and to make it strong the country must give it men and means. Let us push on volunteering, if we wish to do away with the necessity of taking drafted men from our midst. Remember that our country needs men, and if it cannot procure them in one way it must take them from amongst us.—Forney's Press.

It is somewhat curious as a historical fact, while it somewhat contradicts the theory so unjustly prevalent of General Grant's careless disregard for human life, that he has been the only one of our generals who has ever induced a rebel army to surrender. This he has done in three instances. The first was the army of Buckner, at Fort Donelson, on the 16th of February, 1862—the second was that under Pemberton, at Vicksburg, on the 4th of July, 1863, and the third that of General Lee, on the 9th of April, 1865.

The campaign under Grant commenced on the 20th, with the departure of Sheridan for an expedition against the Southside. It ended on the 9th of April, after a series of victories, with a victory the most complete, the most glorious of all. In less than two weeks the rebel power, which had been so defiant, so boasting, was shattered, crushed and annihilated. Four years it had defied us as a rock, but it crumbled at last.

Superintendent Latham, of the Grand Trunk Railroad, who tore a United States flag from a train on that road on Monday last, was waited on on Tuesday by an orderly but determined delegation of citizens and made to walk through the city (of Portland, his home) dressed in soldier's uniform, salute the National emblem, make patriotic addresses and have the flag nailed to his own dwelling.

The Franklin (Venango County) Spectator says: "Property on Pitt Hole is going up. The Copland farm sold lately for $300,000; other farms have been sold at figures too small to mention. We hear of two that sold a few days since, for $150,000 and $200,000. Land in that famous region is selling at not less than $1,500 per acre."

The cartel agreed upon at Haxall's Landing, July 22d, 1862, between General Dix, U. S. A., and General D. H. Hill, C. S. A., says a general, commander-in-chief, or an admiral, shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank, or forty-six privates or common seamen.

Mr. Seward's injuries have assumed a serious character. If the danger of erysipelas is passed, medical men fear that owing to his inability to take solid food, he cannot repair the waste of his vitality in time to meet the coming warm weather.

Six homicides occurred in Louisville, in a single day last week, including the killing of a white substitute by a negro soldier, and the fatal shooting of one Thomas McDaniel by Major Farmer, his father-in-law.

The Richmond churches are now all open. Instead of prayers for the President of the Confederate States of America, "For all in authority" has been substituted.

Gardner, the Washington photographer, has made excellent pictures of Libby Prison, Jeff Davis' house and other places of interest.

The York (Pa.) Democrat thinks he aggregates damage through the State by the freshets cannot fall short of $10,000,000.

A whale twenty-five feet long was recently captured off Staten Island.

There are ten thousand Polish refugees in France.

ADVERTISING LODGED LUMBER.—The late flood has lodged vast amounts of lumber on farms along the Susquehanna and its tributaries. The law regulating the disposal of such property directs that if it is not claimed within three months after its lodgement, the same shall be forfeited to the owner or owners of such lands: "Provided, That the said lumber shall have been first advertised for three successive weeks, in the newspaper published nearest to said land; the cost of which to be added to the other charges, and to be paid by the owner, before he shall be entitled to remove the said lumber." This is important to many persons in this vicinity on whose land large quantities of lumber were lodged by the flood.

NATIONAL BANKS.—Owing to the recent action of Congress, the State Banks are rapidly coming under the National system—the best system ever devised. Even in the State of New York and the States of New England where the State banks have become completely interwoven with their State policy, and is consequently hard to induce a change. By the late act banks are allowed to retain their old names; and as a farther impetus a tax of ten per cent. will be laid on the circulation of State banks after July 1, up to which period the conversion can take place.

The New York Herald expresses the opinion that before the end of the coming summer cotton can be purchased anywhere for twenty cents. Making liberal allowance for all that has been shipped off, all that has been worked up in domestic factories, all that has been wasted and all that has been burned by both armies, there are, perhaps, no less than two millions and a half of bales remaining of the last four years' crop in the Southern States, that will be brought into market with the restoration of peace, to meet the wants of the Southern people.

Horace Foster, a loyal citizen of Blount county, Tenn., has recovered damages to the extent of twenty-five thousand dollars. The parties sued were seven in number, and wealthy. The proof was that they instigated the rebels to rob him of his horses, mules, bacon, tobacco, grain, and hay, and then to shoot him through the thigh, and drive him while bleeding through a creek, in water up to his arm-pits. This is making the traitors pay dearly for the whistle.

A horrible scene occurred in St. Louis on the 24th inst. As William J. Harris, tried and sentenced as a guerrilla or bushwhacker, was being executed, the rope broke, and the culprit fell his full length on the ground. The spectators fled panic-stricken, supposing the hanging would have to be repeated. In less than five minutes, however, Harris was pronounced dead by the medical attendant.

A Springfield (Mass.) physician was called to attend upon a soldier's widow through a long and severe attack of pneumonia. He rode six miles for every visit during some of the severest weather of the past winter, and on her recovery presented her with his bill of nearly fifty dollars received in full, in consideration of services rendered to him and his country by her lamented husband.

John W. Sweetzer, a young man, eloped last week from Saco, Me., with the wife of Mr. John Henry Jordan. The truant wife is about 25 years old, good looking, and, it is said, has not lived happily with her husband for several years. Both parties were church members, and have heretofore sustained good characters. When last heard from they were in New York.

A horrible murder is reported near Phillipsburg, Md. A farmer had received one thousand dollars, and in his absence three persons came to the house, murdered his wife and three daughters, and took his money. On his return he met a pedlar who had a pistol, and discovering the murderers, shot two and killed the other with a spade.

Two girls in Brighton, (Eng.) were arrested lately on a charge of stealing cats. They confessed they were hired to do so by a lady at Rottingham, who was making a museum of pussies. She was visited by the police and fifty me-ows of all ages, both sexes, and every variety were found on her premises.

The monument to be erected in Merrimack square, Lowell, to the memory of Ladd and Whitney, the Baltimore martyrs, is nearly completed, and will be dedicated April 19, the anniversary of the massacre, with appropriate exercises.

As much nitrate of soda as can be held between the thumb and finger, it is said, if thrown in a vase of water, will preserve flowers for the space of a fortnight. This may be an interesting fact for the ladies.

Gov. Pierpont has transferred the seat of the State Government of Virginia to Richmond, where he will occupy the house vacated by extra Billy Smith, the Rebel Governor.

A YANKEE AT A RESTAURANT.—An American in Paris went to a restaurant to get his dinner. Unacquainted with the French language, yet unwilling to show his ignorance, he pointed to the first line on the bill of fare, and the polite waiter brought him a fragrant plate of beef soup. This was very well, and when it was despatched he pointed to the second line. The waiter understood him perfectly and brought him a vegetable soup. "Rather more soup than I want," thought he, "but it is a Paris fashion." He duly pointed to the third line, and a plate of tapioca was brought him. Again to the fourth, and was furnished with a bowl of preparation of arrow-root. He tried the fifth line, and was supplied with some gruel kept for invalids. The bystanders now supposed that they saw an unfortunate individual that had lost all his teeth, and our friend determined to get as far from the soup as possible, pointed in despair to the last line of the bill of fare. The intelligent waiter who saw at once what he wanted, politely handed him a bunch of tooth-picks. This was too much; and the American paid his bill and left.

Mr. Warren Leland, of the New York Metropolitan Hotel, gives in the New York Herald an account of a ball in Salt Lake City, which he attended. He says:

"Brigham Young had twenty-three of his wives present, to all of whom I was introduced, and danced with six different ones. The ladies were all cheerful and happy, their religious zeal apparently making them unconscious of the peculiarity of the domestic relation. During the evening, Brigham requested all his wives and daughters, sons-in-law and sons, with their numerous wives and daughters, to occupy seats at one long table in order, as he remarked, that Mr. L., could see what a large and happy family he had. I looked, bowed, and gushed. Brigham is a hale, hearty, gay old gentleman, sixty-four years old, and apparently has many years and a long line of progeny still before him."

On Friday last the return of Hon. Henry S. Foote to this country was announced in the New York press. He came to the city among the emigrant passengers on board the Etna. Government has since provided for him, temporarily, a retreat as sequestered as any that could be found in Europe. When General Dix was notified of the ex-rebel Senator's arrival he telegraphed to Washington for instructions. A reply was received that Foote was to be kept in close confinement and sent back to Europe by the next steamer. Accordingly the whilom rebel, protesting and complaining, was yesterday locked up in Ludlow-street jail.

Some nine years ago Mrs. Henry Spencer, of Bethel, Conn., lost her pocket book, containing between $600 and $700 in notes and bills, while shopping in Waterbury, and nothing was ever heard from it until a few days ago, when she received a letter from a Catholic priest in Oil City, Pa., requesting her to describe the lost property, which she did. She was soon after rejoiced to have the same returned, just as it was lost, excepting that a portion of the bills had been changed to greenbacks, of which she did not complain.

If a willingness to take the oath of allegiance be a true test of loyalty, Charleston is very far from being a "hot bed of treason." Thirty-two hundred persons have already held up their right hands, kissed the Bible, and solemnly declared that they would true allegiance bear to the Government of the United States.

Don't pay his rent.—Jeff Davis having refused to pay his rent, Old Abe sent Grant to put him out. Accordingly, on the 1st of April—being All Fool's Day, and Jeff's particular day of all others, Grant put him out. There is some talk of a suit for assault and battery, but we doubt if they will convict Grant.

The American skater, Jackson Haines, at St. Petersburg, gave an exhibition of his prowess on the 24th ult., which drew him 1,500 rubles. One of his most daring feats is to lean backwards, while skating backwards, till his hair touches the ice, and then, without help, recover a perpendicular position.

The Legislature of Illinois having laid a tax at one dollar for the first dog owned by any individual, two dollars for the second, and five dollars for each additional dog, an exchange says the State has "gone to the dogs."

A Nashville paper says that Maj. General Gideon J. Pillow, C. S. Army, was knocking at the door of the Union applying for admission. He has found the last ditch.

John C. Fremont was fined twenty-five dollars, a few days since, for non-attendance as a juror in one of the minor courts of New York city.

The Legislature of Minnesota has passed an amendment to the State Constitution, allowing negroes to vote.

An average of three hundred and fifty dollars a day is paid to Rebel deserters for the muskets they bring in.

We are requested to call attention to an advertisement of Arrandale & Co., European Jewelers' Agents, of New York. The British Whig, of Kingston, C. W., says of them, Nov. 24, 1864:

A short time since an advertisement of Arrandale & Co., 167 Broadway New York, headed Great Gift Distribution, by which the public were informed that a large quantity of Gold and Silver Watches and Ornaments were to be disposed of by Lot, the total cost being only $1, and a prize in return valued from $3 to $50; also holding out great advantages to agents. A lady subscriber to the British Whig became an agent, and by request brought some twenty articles sent as prizes for her agency to this office for inspection, and without hesitation we can state that each and all of the articles were worth treble the amount of cost to the recipients, and some six times.

The New York Albion wrote as follows:

We have just inspected, at the office of Arrandale & Co's. Agency for European Manufacturing Jewelers, a large assortment of fashionable and valuable jewelry, consisting of gold and silver watches, chains, bracelets, ladies' sets, rings, &c., all of the new and most fashionable patterns. We also notice a large quantity of silver plate, consisting of goblets and drinking cups, cruet stands, fruit-baskets, spoons, forks, &c. We understand that the whole of these newly imported articles are to be disposed of on a novel principle, giving great advantages to buyers, and affording extensive employment to agents. Our readers will find all particulars in our advertising columns, and we know the firm in question to be very respectable, and thoroughly worthy of public confidence.

The World in a Nut-Shell.

A proclamation of pardon is said to be preparing in Washington.

The Commercial Bulletin of Boston says that the best Ethiopian troupe in the country is undoubtedly Weitzel's.

Jay Cooke's advertisements of the new Government loan appear in the Richmond Whig.

A package containing bogus fifty-cent currency bills, representing the amount of $1,000, was seized at Manchester, N. H., last week. It had come from New York by express.

The last rebel issue of the Richmond Whig contains a leading article on the "utter impossibility of conquering the South."

Breckinridge is now asserted to be responsible for the disastrous conflagration at Richmond. Several merchants are said to have implored him in vain to prevent the destruction. The act is one of the most cruel and unwarranted ever perpetrated. No man except a fiend, could have been guilty of it.

Mr. Green, a Union refugee from Richmond, has been appointed postmaster of that city. Mr. Green was a wealthy citizen of Richmond, who refused to take the oath of allegiance to the rebel government at the outbreak of the rebellion, and was consequently banished and his property confiscated.

A contract has been made with influential Germans to bring from Germany two thousand men, who will each take a tract of the Kickapoo Railroad lands in Kansas, and work out its value on the railroad. An agent is now in Germany for the purpose of forwarding the men, and they are expected to arrive in May.

Thirty squares, comprising not less than eight hundred buildings, in the very best and most valuable part of Richmond are laid in ashes by the incendiary Breckinridge, once Vice-President of the United States, then a candidate for President, and at the time of the fiendish act, rebel Secretary of War.

The New York Herald says that "the time has come for Ben Wood to cease making an ass of himself. Let him drop his theories about State sovereignty and behave like a sensible man, or else follow his friend Jeff Davis into Mexico, where lotteries are popular and profitable."

The Maryland Legislature has repealed nearly all the old acts of that State oppressive to the colored population which used to be so cruelly enforced. Among them were the laws "prohibiting meetings of negroes for religious purposes unless conducted by a white person"; "prohibiting trade with free negroes"; and "prohibiting the navigation of vessels by negroes"; and "prohibiting negroes from keeping a dog or a gun without license."

General Anderson, and three hundred other invited guests sailed from New York on Saturday for Fort Sumter to participate in the ceremonies of the 14th inst. The old patriot will, with his own hands raise the same glorious old flag which, on the 14th of April 1861, he was compelled by traitors to tear his country to haul down. Our great country is many times stronger to-day than it was four years ago, when treason was allowed to be openly hatched by the Administration then in power.

Certificates of the various articles are first put in envelopes, sealed up, and mixed; and when ordered, are taken out without regard to choice, and sent by mail, thus giving all a fair chance. On receipt of the certificate, you will see what you are to have, and then it is at your option to send the dollar and take the article or not. Purchasers may thus obtain a Gold Watch, Diamond Ring, or any set of Jewelry on our list for ONE DOLLAR.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu, And Improved Rose Wash

Will radically exterminate from the system Diseases arising from habits of dissipation, of little expense, little or no change of diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copoba and Mercury, in curing these diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

In all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, immediate in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

Those suffering from broken down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The Reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect his bodily health, mental powers and happiness. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue.

All the above diseases require the aid of a diuretic.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu IS THE GREAT DIURETIC.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

For purifying the blood, removing all diseases arising from excess and impropriety in life, chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swelling of the Bones, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Tetters, Erysipelas, and all scaly eruptions of the skin, and beautifying the complexion.

NOT A FEW

Of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the Blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purify it out, none equal the effect Helmbold's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla. It cleanses and renovates the Blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the Blood. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.

Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

The above Extracts are prepared on purely scientific principles—in vacuo—and embody the full strength of the ingredients entering into their composition. A ready and conclusive test will be a comparison of their properties with those set forth in the U. S. Dispensatory.

HOW TO USE THE REMEDIES.

In diseases of the Blood, Humors on the Face, or any and every part of the body, use Extract Sarsaparilla, applying to Pimples and all external Humors or Eruptions, the Improved Rose Wash.

Use the Extract Buchu for all diseases requiring the aid of a Diuretic, except those of the Urinary Organs, such as Gonorrhoea and Gleet; in these use the Extract Buchu and inject with the Improved Rose Wash.

These extracts have been admitted to use in the United States Army, and also in very general use in all the state hospitals and public institutions throughout the land, as well as in private practice, and are considered as invaluable remedies.
