MARIETTA, PA.

Saturday, May 27, 1865.

A meeting of bankers in Crawford Venango and Lawrence counties was held in Meadville, on Tuesday of last week, at which it was unanimously agreed to receive no more notes of State banks on deposit after the 20th inst., unless at a discount of one per cent—the issue of Pittsburg banks being specially excepted. It is hoped by this course to drive out of circulation all the old bank notes, in the western part of the State and make greenbacks and national currency the sole circulating medium.

Robert E. Lee, educated as a soldier at the public expense, to fight the battles of the Union, but whose sword is yet dripping with the blood of Union men, is now fed, with his entire family, by rations drawn from U. S. Commissary stores at Richmond. If traitors are to be fed by the Government, they should at least be compelled to earn what they eat, and therefore we hope the authorities will soon find some useful employment for these ingrates.

Gen. Solomon Meredith has been removed from his command at Paducah. Prominent Kentuckians demanded this, asserting that General Meredith's policy savors so strongly of rebel sympathy that neither life nor property in that Military District are safe from rebel guerrillas, while Union men are selling their property and leaving the country because they can have no military protection.

The "Democracy" of Pennsylvania are to hold a state Convention on the 21st of June, at Harrisburg. The public interest in political matters will await with some anxiety the announcement of their platform of principles. It is not supposed that, in the light of the revelations of the past month, they will declare the war a failure.

Chief Justice Chase is out in a letter in favor of granting the Southern freedmen "the protection of the ballot," and urges agitation on the subject. He says that the "good President" whom we have lost was very nearly right on this question, and that the Democracy of our new President "is as broad as the Declaration of Independence."

Only eight thousand dollars in specie have yet been discovered among Jeff. Davis' effects, but several boxes have not yet been examined. On the person of Reagan, his Postmaster General, however, there were seized papers showing a large amount of specie shipped for London.

Alexander H. Stephens, the rebel ex-vic-president, who surrendered himself to our cavalry, while at his home near Atlanta, and who is in extremely feeble health, is also a prisoner on board the steamer Clyde, with Jeff. Davis, his wife and four children.

Harold, the companion of Booth, is reported to have made a full confession, containing some very important disclosures. Paine, who attempted to assassinate Seward has also made a confession of his guilt.

George D. Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, is lying very sick at the St. Cloud Hotel, Nashville. Clarence D. Prentice, his son, lately a rebel officer, has taken the oath of allegiance to the Federal Government.

James S. Gardner, a lively youth of 76 winters, and Phoebe A. Rose, a fine old lady of 18 summers, were married at North Kingstown, R. I., on Thursday.

The rebel General Early, it is said, died recently at Lynchburg. Previous accounts had left him there suffering from rheumatism in the stomach.

The family of the late John C. Rives have placed $1000 in the hands of Jay Cooke & Co., as a tribute to the family of President Lincoln.

President Johnson has recently had his life insured for $10,000. His late illness arose from vertigo, to which he has always been subject.

The Nashville Press learns that Gen. Forrest was killed by Capt. Walker, of the rebel army, in revenge for the shooting of his son.

A Chinese thief, having stole a missionary's watch, brought it back to him the next day to learn how to wind it up.

The Supreme Court of Michigan on Saturday decided in favor of Congress to make Treasury notes a legal tender.

Baltimoreans are raising a fund for Gen. Lee. $40,000 has been already secured.

PAINE—A reporter present at the trial of the assassins, describes Paine's appearance as follows:—Paine is a villainous looking man, tall and of huge proportions, neck bare and like a bullock, face smoothly shaven, a shock of black hair over a low forehead, and fierce eyes with small cornea, around which the white is always disagreeably visible. He leans his head straight back against the wall, and when looked at, glares the looker out of countenance. He is the very man that would be selected for any atrocious deed like the murder of the Secretary of State, and a band of pirates would instinctively elect him as their captain. Any one meeting him on the street would turn around with a shudder to look at him, and a stranger meeting him face to face, would remember him for ten years. His appearance is every way very remarkable.

The Providence Journal, in an article on Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet Organs, speaks of these excellent and now celebrated instruments as follows: "For volume and quality of tone; for variety and beauty of effects; for excellence in crescendo and diminuendo; for quickness of response to the touch in rapid staccato and legato passages; for the ease and entire freedom from fatigue with which the bellows is operated; for the stability of every part of the workmanship and for capacity for standing well in tune, the new Cabinet Organs of Messrs. Mason & Hamlin—portable reed instruments, the largest of which are smaller than ordinary piano-fortes—are not only quite equal to the smaller pipe organs of the best makers, but much superior to the generality of those heretofore used in small churches and halls, and for private practice."

Southerners as well as Northerners have learned a great many things during this war. They have learned, for instance, that commercial nations are not necessarily unwarlike; that man may be very successful and eager in making money, and yet make a good soldier; that it is an exceedingly exhausting job for "one Southerner to whip three Yankees;" that cotton is not king, and that slave society is not likely to spread itself over the earth; and though last not least, that negro troops do not run away and howl when they hear a shot.

The grand review days—Tuesday and Wednesday last—at Washington, turned out fine days and fine displays. A number of stands were erected for distinguished visitors. No colored soldiers were in the procession. At least one hundred and fifty thousand men, about sixty thousand horses and seventy or eighty bands were said to be in line on Tuesday. The greatest harmony prevailed—no accident happening to mar the pleasure of the pageant.

"We returned home on Thursday," says an editor, after a trip of six hundred miles in about three and a half days, having, in that time, passed over four States, nine railroads, four oxen and a barouch. Any person who has done more in that time, will please forward his address, and the small balance he owes us."

The Legislature of this State has established the following as the legal holidays: Any day recommended by the Governor or by the President of the United States, as a day of fasting or thanksgiving; the 4th of July; the 25th of December; the 1st of January, and the 22d of February.

A retired merchant of Boston, who had kept his tombstone in an alcove in his chamber for two or three years, was found prostrate on the floor of his room on Thursday morning, with the tombstone fallen upon his head, and so nearly dead that he could not be restored to consciousness.

Many can remember the time when the administration of John Quincy Adams was severely condemned as shamefully extravagant, because it required $13,000,000 per annum to defray the expenses of the Government. Now 17,000,000 are subscribed in a single day to a government loan.

Valentine Perkins, an ossified man, who has been ossifying for forty-one years, died in Ohio, lately. He had been blind for thirty years, and could only move two of his fingers and two of his toes. He had, nevertheless, good health and appetite up to the time of his death.

Gen. William H. Seward, Jr., son of the Secretary of State, has tendered his resignation to the War Department, to take effect on the 1st of June, proximo. Secretary Stanton has signified his acceptance of the same in a handsome note to the young brigadier.

The Empress of the French is about to appear before the world as an authoress, and as a companion book to the 'History of Caesar,' there will shortly be published a 'Life of Mario Antoinette,' by Eugenie, Empress of the French.

The Government has recently obtained possession of a large amount of private correspondence of Jeff. Davis, clearly implicating him in the conspiracy to assassinate Mr. Lincoln.

SEVEN-THIRTIES.—THIRD SERIES.—The great success of the 7-30 Loan must always be looked upon as one of the most powerful evidences of the strength of the United States Government, and of its strong hold upon the confidence and affections of the people. On Saturday May 13th, the subscriptions were over thirty million dollars, and for the week ending on that day, over ninety-eight million dollars, and in the three months that the Loan has been in charge of Mr. Jay Cooke, over five hundred million dollars. These large receipts will enable the Treasury to pay off our armies as they are disbanded, and to rapidly discharge the various obligations that have been incurred during the war. History will show that a great war-debt to individuals has never before been so promptly paid; and we think all will agree that Secretary McCulloch deserves great credit for the ability he has manifested, not only in securing the means, but for the financial skill he has displayed in so directing these vast receipts and disbursements as not for a moment to disturb the equilibrium of commerce, embarrass individuals, or in any way tighten the money market. It is doubtless true that the Secretary of the Treasury might have negotiated the remainder of his loans at six per cent. interest, instead of 7.30, but so much valuable time would necessarily have been lost in popularizing a new loan that the great object of the Government, viz., an immediate supply of money sufficient to pay all the debts incident to the war, would have been defeated; and besides, the difference of interest would not have been equal to three days' expenses. The policy may have looked "penny wise," but the best financial authorities, as well as common sense, pronounced it "pound foolish." As it is—and will be, no soldier will go home without his greenbacks, and the floating debt in the shape of vouchers requisitions, &c., will be wiped out as rapidly as the proper officers can audit and adjust the accounts.

The Second Series of the 7.30 Loan was exhausted on Saturday, May 13th. On Monday, the Secretary of the Treasury authorized Jay Cooke, the general subscription Agent for U. S. Securities, to receive subscriptions for $230,000,000 of a Third Series, which is all that is authorized by Congress, and is without doubt the last loan at this high rate of interest that will be offered by the Government.

There is no change in the terms or conditions of this Third Series, except that the Government reserves the right of paying interest at six per cent. in gold instead of seven and three-tenths in currency—a right which would presuppose a return to specie payments, and make six per cent. in gold even better than the higher rate in currency—a consummation most devoutly to be wished.

The privilege of converting the notes into 5.20 six per cent. gold bonds at the end of three years, or receiving payment at maturity, at the holder's option, is retained.

The first day of the Third Series opened with a subscription within a fraction of five millions, and the month of June will certainly see the last of the 7.30s out of market. How early in June we cannot predict, but parties who wish to make sure of a portion would do well to be in time.

Full particulars may be found in our advertising columns.

THE ASSASSIN PAINE.—A Washington correspondent says that the person known as Paine has confessed the attempt upon Mr. Seward's life. He says that he had never seen him, that he had nothing against him, and that he attempted to kill him only because he had sworn to do it. The whole affair, he has said, was a gigantic failure—only two (Booth and himself) of the whole number concerned having kept their oaths. If it had succeeded, he says, the actors in it would have never been known. I have been told that it was part of the plan to turn off the gas in the theatre at the instant the pistol was heard, and that the man was found at the controlling stop-cock, to whom that duty had been assigned, but he had failed to hear the signal. Paine refuses to disclose the names of his associates, or to say anything of his own antecedents. It is not believed that he has given his real name, nor is it known as to what part of the country he belongs. He looks young, not over twenty-one or two; is very athletic in his frame; has white soft hands, evidently unused to work, and although utterly unmoved by threats or by harshness, gives indications of sensibility to acts and words of kindness.

Gen. Fremont has purchased the elegant mansion of Gen. James Watson Webb, on the plank road, three miles below Sing Sing, N. Y., and intends to make it his permanent residence.

GOVERNMENT SALE.

Gold, Silver, Watches, Jewelry, &c.

ON THE GOLD BEARING PLAN.

The entire stock of one Gold and Silver Watch Manufactory, Two Immense Jewelry Establishments, One Silver Plating Works-house, One Gold Pen and Pencil Maker,

TO BE DISPOSED OF WITH DISPATCH WITHOUT REGARD TO COST!

The Goods are of fashionable styles and most excellent workmanship, and are sacrificed in this manner to relieve the proprietors from embarrassment occasioned by a distracting civil war. It should be prominently stated, also, that they are mostly of AMERICAN MANUFACTURE and therefore greatly superior to the goods imported from abroad and hawked about as the cheapest ever sold. The simple duty on imported goods and the high premium on Gold (all foreign bills are payable in gold,) amount to more than the entire cost of many of the articles offered by us to the public. To facilitate the sale

ONLY ONE DOLLAR will be charged for any article on our list, and this sum the purchaser need not pay until he knows what he is to get! This plan accords with the method recently become so popular for disposing of large stocks of Jewelry and similar productions.

THE PLAN IS SIMPLE!

The name of each article offered for sale as "Gold Hunting Watch," "Gold Oval-Ban Bracelet," "Pearl Breastpin and Ear-Drop," "Hold Er smelted Ring," "Silver Plated Cake Basket," &c., is written on a card and enclosed in a sealed envelope; these envelopes are then placed in a drawer and well mixed; then as an order is received, with twenty-five cents for return postage and other charges, one of the cards or certificates is taken at random and sent by first mail to the customer, who will see at once what he can get for One Dollar. If he is pleased with his fortune he can forward the money according to directions on the certificate and secure the prize. If the article awarded should be unsuited to the purchaser—as for example, a set of Pearl Ear Drops and Breastpin to a young man who could not wear them, and had no one to give them to—we will send any other article on the catalogue of equal price which may be preferred. Or, if for any reason, you choose to venture no further, then you can let the matter drop where it is and spend no more. Examine carefully our Catalogue!

U. S. 7-30 LOAN!

THIRD SERIES $280 000 000.

By Authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of

TREASURY NOTES, bearing Seven-and-Three-Tenths per cent interest per annum, known as the 7-30 Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 SIX PER CENT. GOLD BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum in their value, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

Table with 2 columns: Denomination and Interest. Rows include $50 note (one cent per day), $100 note (two cents), $500 note (ten cents), $1000 note (20 cents), and $5000 note ($1).

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished on receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying the interest in gold coin at 6 per cent. instead of 7-30ths in currency. Subscribers will receive the interest in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this Third Series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.

This is the only Loan in Market now offered by the Government, and its special advantages make it

The Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now in the market. This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed within two months, when the notes will, undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

SUBSCRIPTION AGENT, Philadelphia.

Subscriptions will be received by
