JEFFERSON DAVIS AS A PRISONER.—An army officer who witnessed the operation, that Davis was placed in irons at Fortress Monroe...

The trial of the alleged assassins, at Washington, is still continued, and may not come to an end before the close of the present week.

Instead of a Crown, to possess which he struck at freedom and civilization, Jeff. Davis now wears the iron manacles fitted for a criminal of his grade.

The scoundrel Dr. Blackburn, who tried to import a pestilence into the Northern cities from Bermuda, is now in Montreal.

Government has distributed three hundred horses in one day gratuitously to the people in Virginia to enable them to work their farms.

The spreading of pestilence by infected clothing is not a recent one with the rebels.

The whirligig of time has made some queer changes during the past few years. Five years ago Andrew Johnson voted for John C. Breckenridge for President.

The Secretary of war has ordered that returned prisoners who have endured the hardships of Andersonville, Salisbury, and other rebel prisons, be mustered out as soon as possible.

The trial of Jefferson Davis will take place on or about the 19th of this month. Charles O'Connor, Esq., of New York, will act as his counsel.

General Banks, like General Butler, has been ordered to report at home, in Massachusetts. Cotton operations are said to be the cause of this order.

At the New England Anti-slavery Convention, in Boston, on the 31st, Wendell Phillips advocated national repudiation.

Gen. Wilson has ordered all the Confederate horses, harness, wagons, etc., not required by his cavalry, to be distributed among the poor as a loan from Government.

There is a report that members of the British Parliament will present to General Lee a house in London, with a competency for himself and family.

Negro labor in Virginia has been fixed at $5 per month and board. In harvest $1 per day.

TRIAL OF JEFF. DAVIS.—A Washington correspondent says he has it from high authority that Jeff. Davis will be tried in that city under the indictment reported by the Grand Jury...

Jeff. Davis has been taken from Fortress Monroe and brought up to Washington; but he remains on board the gunboat Connecticut near the Arsenal...

It is said that Commodore Nutt and Miss Minnie Warren are about to be married. The soldiers at the grand review in Washington, if marshaled thirty abreast in solid column, would extend forty-two miles.

Benjamin G. Harris, Representative in Congress from Southern Maryland, who was tried a few weeks ago before a special court martial upon the charge of harboring two paroled soldiers...

Having taken some pains to satisfy ourselves respecting the merits of Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet Organs, we are able to speak very confidently in regard to them...

It is said that the Government has recently become possessed of additional evidence against the Canada rebel agents, Jacob Thompson and Sanders, showing not only their direct implication in conspiracy to murder President Lincoln...

Robert Ould, the rebel commissioner of exchange, has been arrested in Richmond by order of the Government, on the charge of having defrauded Federal prisoners of large amounts of money and supplies entrusted to his care for their use.

John Nicolay, private secretary to the late President Lincoln, was in Washington making arrangements to leave for Paris on the 24th inst., to enter upon his duties as consul at that city.

Major W. M. C. Sherman, paymaster, who recently resigned, did so because the death of his wife's father leaves her a fortune of $400,000. Maj. Sherman is a native of Rhode Island.

The graduating class at West Point have this year started a baby cup to be claimed by the first of them who earns the proud title of father.

In some of the cities of Georgia, from the lack of more convenient currency, the newsboys are selling papers at three eggs a piece.

An Irish couple with twenty-three children, were among a party of emigrants that arrived in New London a few days since.

A few only of the iron-clads will be kept in commission; the others will probably be laid up in the river Delaware.

Recruiting stations for the regular army will be opened soon.

There are 751 lager beer saloons in Cincinnati and suburbs.

Segars at $5 each may be bought on Broadway, New York.

The Springfield, (Mass.), policemen have appeared in a new uniform.

A safe prediction—that gold will never see double again.

Joe Smith, son of the original Mormon, is out against polygamy.

A race between a horse and a camel was the last novelty in California.

On dit, that Thurlow Weed is going to take supreme editorial charge of the New York Times.

One Senor Poyel, a shoemaker by trade, has been recently elected President of Peru.

There is in Portland a soldier alive and well, who has been shot directly through the head.

Junius Brutus Booth is still in the Old Capitol Prison, where he astonishes the inmates by his gymnastic feats.

Booth, Orsini, and Charlotte Corday, all selected April 14th for their assassinations, completed or purposed.

A well-executed one hundred dollar green back has made its appearance. It is quite likely to deceive.

It is said that Commodore Nutt and Miss Minnie Warren are about to be married.

The soldiers at the grand review in Washington, if marshaled thirty abreast in solid column, would extend forty-two miles.

James Gordon Bennett, of the New York Herald, and W. C. Bryant of the Evening Post, are both over seventy years old.

A man in Mariposa, California, has educated a pig to draw a small two-wheeled wagon, which it does with great ease and regularity.

An Indian doctor who had been practising several months at Passumpsic, village, Vermont, in male attire, was arrested and found to be a woman.

Hon. Martin F. Conway, formerly member of Congress from Kansas, has located himself permanently in Richmond, Va., in the practice of the law.

Washington, William III, Anne, George I., George II., George III., George IV., William IV., and President Lincoln, have all died on a Saturday.

There is a boy in an insane asylum at Hartford, hopelessly insane from a knowledge of the suffering and consequent death of his father in the rebel prison at Andersonville.

A cow in Cumberland county gave birth a few days since to a calf with seven legs. In the same county is an animal resembling both a cat and a muskrat.

A young mare in Bedford county, aged four years, has given birth to twin colts twice within the last fifteen months. In four years her progeny has been as great in number as the years of her age.

The canal at Dutch Gap, cut by order of General Butler, allows passage for vessels drawing seven feet of water, and is now regularly used by such steamboats and other craft as do not draw over that depth.

Richmond letters state that members of the English Parliament have offered General Lee a splendid residence in London, and a sum of money, the interest of which would support himself and family for life.

When Chief Justice Chase was at Key West, he was served by an old negro, to whom he promised a carted-visite, and handed him a one-dollar bill. "Ah!" says Sandie, "now I know you, massa; you are 'old greenbacks.'"

Gen. Halleck has issued an order directing clergymen and magistrates to encourage marriages between negroes and to prevent as far as possible the commerce of that people as man and wife where the matrimonial rites have not been solemnized.

The mill where Henry Clay, when a boy, used to ride, with his meal bags, is still standing and performing its old work. It is about three miles north of Ashland, on the Fredericksburg Railroad, and about nineteen miles from Richmond. It escaped all injury from the ravages of war.

Gen. Wilson has ordered the extensive prison stockade and grayard at Andersonville to be enclosed by a fence, and the book containing a list of names and description to be kept for the information of relatives and friends, there being over 14,000 Federal dead at this noted place.

Amos Kennell, who in his old age, amassed a fortune by investing in telegraphic stocks, has devoted the sum of $50,000 to the erection of a Baptist church in Washington city as a memorial to his deceased wife, who was a member of that denomination. Mr. Kennell retired from General Jackson's administration poor, but now, at the age of eighty, enjoys an income of $40,000 a year.

Take a piece of thick green flannel, doubled, or of blanket, make it up in the shape of a pudding bag (A) of sufficient size to cover the water pitcher; let it be lined with glazed muslin or linen to prevent any fuz getting into the water, and covered outside with anything to suit the fancy; put a sufficient quantity of ice in a pitcher of water to keep it covered with this. Ice-water kept in this way, and carried into your chamber at night, furnishes you a cool drink in the morning.

A dreadful accident took place on Saturday night, on the Washington and Philadelphia railroad, about six miles this side of Wilmington. A soldier had stretched himself upon a seat, and finding himself cramped for room, put his feet out of the window, when a passing train took off both legs, about four inches below the knees.

The Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company having given $50,000 for the foundation of a Pennsylvania Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, the State has added $75,000, and this most worthy institution will soon be a fixed fact.

A harmless-looking mattress, on its way out from Canada, was ripped open at St. Albans, Vermont, by the inspector, and found to be crammed full of broadcloth, hosiery, and other dutiable articles.

It is said that discoveries have been made in captured rebel documents implicating prominent Northern men, whose loyalty heretofore has not been questioned.

AGRICULTURAL CHEMICAL COMPANY'S Cheap Fertilizers. The Fertilizers prepared by the Agricultural Chemical Company, [a company chartered by the legislature of Pennsylvania with a capital of $250,000,] have been improved in practice and are now more profitable and best, for the Farmer, Gardener and Fruit Grower, of all concentrated manures now offered in any market. The Company's list embraces the following:

PHOSPHATE OF LIME. This Fertilizer is composed of night soil and the fertilizing elements of urine combined, chemically and mechanically with other valuable fertilizing agents and absorbents.

It is reduced to a pulverized condition, ready for immediate use, and without loss of its highly nitrogenous and phosphoric elements.

Its universal application to all crops and soils, and its durability and active qualities, are well known to be all that agriculturists can desire.

CHEMICAL COMPOST. This Fertilizer is largely composed of animal manure, such as man, horse, fish, leather, hair, wool, together with chemicals and inorganic fertilizers, which decompose the mass, and retain the nitrogenous elements.

It is a very valuable fertilizer for field crops generally, and especially for potatoes, fruit and garden purposes.

Its excellent qualities, strength and cheapness, have made it very popular with all who have used it.

COMPOSITE FERTILIZER. This highly adapted for the cultivation of Trees, Fruit-Lawns and Flowers. It will promote a very vigorous and healthy growth of wood-fruit, and largely increase the quantity and perfect the maturity of the fruit.

For the house and household plants and flowers, it will be found an indispensable article to secure their greatest perfection. It will prevent and cure diseased conditions of the peach and grape, and is excellent for grass and lawns.

It is composed of such elements as are adapted to the growth of all kinds of crops, all kinds of soils.

The formula or method of combining its constituent fertilizing ingredients have received the highest approval of eminent chemists and scientific agriculturists.

PHOSPHATE OF LIME. The Agricultural Chemical Company manufacture a Phosphate of Lime in accordance with a new and valuable formula, by which a very superior article is produced, so far as to be affordable at a less price than other manufacturers charge. Practical tests have proved that its value as a fertilizer is equal to the best Phosphate of Lime in the market.

TERMS CASH.—All orders of a Tons or more, will be delivered at the railroad station and the wharves of shipment, free of cartage and other charges. One Dollar per Tons will be charged for cartage will be made on all sales delivered at the works of the Company, on Central Wharf.

See what the most popular and widely circulated periodicals say of our Establishment. From the "Dispatch" of February 23, 1865.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in our advertising columns. We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know them to be gentlemen of sterling worth and integrity. Their stock of goods, for variety and extent, we have scarcely seen paralleled.

From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1, 1865.

Messrs. Devaugh & Co. have a large stock of Jewelry, &c., on hand, and will venture to say that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in this city. The ladies thronged their bazaar almost to suffocation, although the streets were rendered nearly impassable by the number of snow and slush. We predict for them a very successful success.

From the "Ledger," February 28, 1865.

Our lady friends should visit the extensive establishment of Messrs. Devaugh & Co. No. 15, Maiden Lane. If they wish to indulge themselves with a sight which they will never forget, they should visit this establishment. Such a profusion of elegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings, and, in short, of Jewelry of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. The silver and plated ware is superb and almost lasts into the shade the other splendid establishments which have made the boast of our city. It is estimated that their goods are worth not less than one million of dollars.

HOW YOU CAN GET A PRIZE. Send Twenty-Five Cents to us, and as soon as we receive it we will mail you a Certificate showing what you are entitled to. If the article or articles specified, send back the Certificate and Five Dollars and we will forward you the article, no matter how costly it may be. If the article is not what you wish, state when you send the Certificate and dollar, what other article of the same value you prefer and we will send it. If you wish more than one Certificate send us $1 and we will send you for $2, eleven; for $5, thirty; for $10, sixty; for $15, one hundred.

Agents are wanted in the Army and in every place. We have an immense stock of goods to dispose of, and need a large number of Agents. Our terms to Agents are liberal and some even of our Lady Agents are making from $5 to $20 a day.
