The Local Marietian.

SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1865.

☞ Rev. John McNair will preach in Zion's church on Sunday morning.

THE BASKET PIC-NIC:—At an early hour on Tuesday morning, could be seen, quite a crowd of both sexes, wending their way to the Atheneum Building, heavily laden with "good things for the inner man," piled in baskets, buckets, ice cream churns and an endless train of cr's, composing the "make up" of the Atheneum Fourth of July Basket Pic-Nic. At 9 o'clock the party embarked at the Picot warehouse wharf, on board of one of the ferry flats (and we will here remark that a more lovely looking group of God's fair creatures never decked a flat-boat) for the York county shore; once on the other side, the party was led a few yards up the hill to a fine flat of ground, where, a few days before, a substantial and large dancing platform, and music stand had been erected; a long table for the viands; seats for the married and single; little hiding places swept out and seats for two only erected, intended for luvyers (and be assured there was a good representation of that class); the old and lurid spring cleaned out, and, indeed, everything that could be thought of to make a hot day pleasant and cool. Scarcely had Keffer, with his five assistants, time to puff and blow, after lugging themselves and Schmied's "big fiddle" up the hill, until some anxious ones longed to hear a "saw on Pussey's entrails." Of the music we need not speak,—enough that some gentlemen of the "olden time," and their dames, could not remain quiet under its charming strains, but set a-part a portion of the platform for their especial use to dance. Upon the arrival of the party at the platform—which, by the way, was large enough to comfortably dance four cotillions—the following committees were appointed to co-operate in bringing about anything that would tend to the general comfort and pleasure of all: Master of Ceremonies, Col. W. H. Eagle, assistants, Samuel Mussleman, F. L. Baker; Finance committee, Henry S. Trout, S. C. Hiestand, John W. Rich, Joseph G. Sultzbach, J. R. Strickler; Police committee, Capt. Chas. R. Grosh, A. Fuller Crane, Dr. Henry Landis, John Spangler, W. H. Sultzbach, Geo. V. Horn; Music committee, Jacob E. Kreybill, A. Hiestand Glatz, C. N. Haldeman, Jos. Strickler, C. Hostetter; Refreshments, all the married persons present. With this arrangement everything "started-in," and indeed ended, to the complete satisfaction of all. The dancing was kept up briskly all day, notwithstanding the intense heat, although the large, high trees all around served to completely shade the platform. At 12, noon, a sumptuous repast of cold meats, tongue, (and Heaven knows there was no scarcity of live tongue) cakes, pies, ice cream, canned fruits, with a little mixing of "whiskey-tea," claret, bourdeaux, home-made currant wine, together with the finest Adam's ale "on draught." At 3 o'clock, cakes and ice cream; 6 tea; 8 cakes and ice cream. About dusk three large "night-hawks" or boat lanterns were lit and hung upon the trees overhanging the platform, but the appearance of a shower, made a hasty "pack-up" necessary. We arrived home without accident of anykind, just as a kind of water-can sprinkling was descending. Thus passed one of the most pleasant National holidays within our recollection.

☞ Butcher Ben. Grove, of Maytown, wants to know the cause of what he considers something truly wonderful, viz: that for once within his recollection of over thirty years, all the tailors, hatters, shoemakers, masons, &c., of Marietta, were sober and at work on the morning of the 5th day of July. We cannot answer Mr. G's. question but John Bell, tailor, does; he says: "By Jabers the town's reformed and long it has needed it!" It was, we understand, —for we spent the fourth in old democratic (oh we beg pardon of the loyal—we meant to have said copperhead) York county—the most quiet and orderly fourth passed within the "recollection of the oldest inhabitant" of our town. Our prayer is, "may it ever be thus."

☞ Mr. Jno. Hiestand, about 25 years ago, a resident of this place, died very suddenly in Lancaster. He was found lying on his back, with his clothes on, across the bed, at a hotel, where he had been stopping a day or two, on Thursday morning last. The landlord says he retired early, in apparent good health. The examining surgeon pronounced the cause of death, apoplexy.

☞ Dr. George N. Eckert, formerly of the firm of Eckert & Myers, of "Donegal Furnace," at the lower end of Marietta, died at his residence in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, June 28th, aged 63 years. Dr. Eckert filled, during his life, a number of important political positions.

☞ One of Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet Organs can be seen at Harry Wolfe's. Mr. Duffield, agent for Mr. Gould, of Philadelphia, is in town offering for sale Pianos, Melodeons and Organs. *

THE BOUNTY LAW:—The Supreme Court decision on the Bounty Law is announced. Justices Agnew, Strong and Reed sustaining the constitutionality of the law, whilst copperheads Woodward and Thompson dissent. This was not at all unexpected. The bench stood the same on the Legal-tender question. Had the law not been sustained destruction and ruin would have been brought upon thousands of persons who loaned their hard-earned money to sustain their country in her greatest time of need. Justice Agnew, who delivered the opinion of the court, says that beyond all doubt the Legislature possessed the power to enact a law to confer upon these municipalities the authority to borrow money, issue bonds for the same, and levy taxes to pay the interest debt, on the ground that the payment of bounties, relieving persons from compulsory military service, clearly involved the public welfare, and was not merely a transaction for the benefit of an individual. The opinion is long, able, and incontrovertible, and ought forever put to the blush the minority of the court who, upon no question involving the common interests of the country, growing out of the rebellion, that we remember, have given an opinion to sustain the country.—It is fortunate that we have upon the bench of our highest court a majority of loyal men of the highest character, in whose hands all constitutional questions which they may be called upon to decide, may be reposed with perfect confidence.

The Bounty Tax collector of the Borough has had some difficulty not only with copperheads, but pretended loyal men too, in collecting this tax, upon the plea that the Bounty Law was unconstitutional. This decision will, we suppose "knock the wind out of their sails."

☞ It will be remembered that some time since Dr. Hinkle initiated a movement in this place, to get up a fund for a Lincoln monument, or, if sufficient could not be obtained to erect a monument here, to contribute the amount raised to the Washington city monument fund. The letter presented below, from treasurer Riggs, explains the whereabouts of this fund:

U. S. 7-30 LOAN!
THIRD SERIES,
$230 000 000.

By Authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of TREASURY NOTES, bearing Seven-and-Three-Tenths per centum interest per annum, known as the 7-30 Loan.

These Notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into
U. S. 5-20 SIX PER CENT.
GOLD BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum in their value, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a	$50 note
Two cents " " "	$100 "
Ten " " " "	$500 "
20 " " " "	$1000 "
$1 " " " "	$5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished on receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent. instead of 7-3-10ths in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency.

This is the only Loan in Market
now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it

The Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now in the market. This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within two months, when the notes will, undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

SARSAPARILLA,

For purifying the blood, removing all diseases arising from excess and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swelling of the Bones, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Tetter, Erysipelas, and all scaly eruptions of the skin, and beautifying the complexion.

NOT A FEW

Of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the Blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect

HELMBOLD'S
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla.

It cleanses and renovates the Blood, instilsl the vigor of HEALTH into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the Blood. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and new, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.

Two tablespoonsful of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

The above Extracts are prepared on purely scientific principles—in Vacuo—and embody the full strength of the ingredients entering into their composition. A ready and conclusive test will be a comparison of their properties with those set forth in the U. S. Dispensatory.

HOW TO USE THE REMEDIES.

In diseases of the Blood, Humors on the Face, or any and every part of the body, use Extract Sarsaparilla, applying to Pimples and all external Humors or Eruptions, the Improved Rose Wash.

Use the Extract Buchu for all diseases requiring the aid of a Diuretic, except those of the Urinary Organs, such as Gonorrhœa and Gleet; in these use the Extract Buchu and inject with the Improved Rose Wash.

☞ These extracts have been admitted to use in the United States Army, and also are in very general use in all the state hospitals and public institutions throughout the land, as well as in private practice, and are considered as invaluable remedies.
