MASON & HAMLIN'S CABINET ORGANS.

Musicians are agreed in reference to these instruments that they are unequalled. Mr. Gottschalk, the distinguished pianist, pronounces the Cabinet Organ "truly a charming instrument, worthy of the high praise it has received" and "sure to find its way into every household of taste and refinement which can possibly afford its moderate expense."

"KEEP THEM OUT."—The New York Herald certainly has a very concise way of putting facts. It says:—"There never can be a party successfully constructed at present, unless such men as Vallendigham and Pendleton of Ohio, the Seymours of New York, and Connecticut, the Woods of New York, poor Pierce, and musty old Buchanan are left out of the ring. That may be set down as a fixed fact. This crowd will kill any party."

Judas was an exemplary traitor. After his treason he went out and hung himself. Very few of his tribe have ever imitated his example. Rufin, of South Carolina is an exception. Having lived like Judas, he was willing to die like him, and so blew out his own brains. If a few others would "go and do likewise," it would remove a very difficult question from the area of debate.

Gen. Grant recently attended service at the new Methodist church in Philadelphia, of which Rev. Alfred Cookman is pastor. After the sermon, he quietly beckoned the pastor, and contributed $500 for himself and $100 for his wife, to the new church edifice. The inspiration took, and subscriptions to the amount of $15,000 for the same object were immediately raised.

Governor Fletcher, of Missouri, has issued a proclamation declaring that the new Constitution of Missouri went into operation on July 4th. This is the most radical constitution in existence in the Union. It wholly excludes every person who has in any way assisted the rebellion, from the right of suffrage, or to hold office, for years to come.

General Nostitz, the adjutant of General Blucher at Ligny and Waterloo, will be created a field marshal on the fiftieth anniversary of the battle. The rank is but rarely conferred in the Prussian army, and at this moment is held but by a solitary general—Field Marshal Wrangel, who commanded in the Danish campaign.

The lightning played a singular freak a few evenings ago in the borough of Prospect, Cambria county. It entered the house of Mr. John Boyle, knocked the clock off the mantel, and shattered three of the posts supporting a bed upon which was a child sleeping, but harmed not the child.

Mr. Peterson, proprietor of the house in which President Lincoln died, denies that he has presented any bill for damages, but alleges that divers and sundry persons who visited the premises have carried off spoons and tumblers to be kept as relics.

Mr. Johnson, who is a pure negro, was admitted to the practice of law in the Supreme Court of New York, at Rochester, in June of last year, and has decided to remove to Liberia, to practice his profession.

Some scoundrels who wanted to have revenge on the Landlord Hill of the Mason House, Northampton, for his temperance principles and actions, girded and ruined 115 trees belonging to him a few nights since.

Thomas Sinclair, a clothier in Pittsburg, charged with fraudulent returns, has been fined $3000 and cost by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The costs, it is stated, foot up nearly another $1000.

English sportsmen are beginning to name their race horses after the famous battle fields of our civil war. Among the names of favorites we find those of Chattanooga, Richmond, and Antietam.

A man in Humbertson, Canada West, committed suicide. A few hours before the act he told his wife the devil had offered him $150,000, and he had concluded to accept the offer.

A French bonnet maker, told a customer who complained of the price demanded for a new bonnet, "Consider, madame, it cost me three sleepless nights merely to imagine it."

The Delaware State Senate has refused to concur in the resolution passed by the House of respect to the memory of President Lincoln.

The assessor of the Third Revenue District, Baltimore, has within a day or two detected frauds to the amount of fourteen thousand dollars.

The whole expense at Washington of President Lincoln's funeral was a little over $25,000. That of President Harrison's obsequies was $30,000.

John S. Wallace, a merchant of Chicago, was arrested on Tuesday for using revenue stamps two or three times over on his warehouse receipts. His manner of doing it was to put a stamp on a receipt, and after it had been passed, tear it off and use it again on another receipt. Numbers of receipts were found in his desk with the stamps off, and the stamps in an envelope. In this way he confesses to having saved about $35, which will probably cost him about $35,000, the penalty for each offense being $1,000, with the addition of imprisonment. Wallace offered $5,000 to the officer who arrested him if he would let him off.

A man and his wife living in Belleville, France, have been sentenced to a term of imprisonment and fine for maltreating a little apprentice girl. They had not only half-starved and cruelly beaten her, but had, when she had not been able to get through her work so soon as they expected, tortured her, by burning her face, neck, and arms—sometimes with the flame of a candle, and at others with a hot iron, such as laundresses use for fluting the borders of caps. The prisoners pretended that their only object was to cure the child of her idleness, and that they did not know the iron was so hot.

Madame Eliza B. Jemel died on Sunday morning at her residence, on Washington Heights. Her decease had been long expected. In early life she married a French gentleman named M. Jemel, by whom she had one child. Becoming a widow, her marriage with Aaron Burr, in 1832, first brought her into public notice. A divorce soon followed the alliance with Burr. She has been living since that time at her home on Washington Heights. She many years since resumed the name of her first husband.

The editor of the Milwaukee News has been shown a watch, now the property of Mrs. D. U. Lee, of Horicon, Dodge county, and once the property of the celebrated Major Andre. There are but four figures on the face: 3, 6, 9, and 12, the other divisions being indicated by a little gold star. On the back, inside, are directions for winding, and the following: "Major Andre, 1774," engraved in bold letters.

General Carl Schurz, having resigned his commission, has been sent by the President to travel through the South on a tour of observation as to the working of emancipation, the loyalty of the whites, the condition of the blacks, and the fitness of the several States for immediate restoration to their status prior to secession. He is paid his expenses only, and will probably visit every State lately in revolt, Texas included.

The author of "Ben Bolt" died in Cincinnati the other day.—Boston Post. It is time this item was stopped. "The author of Ben Bolt" is Thomas Dunn English, and he is alive, and resides at Fort Lee, on the Hudson.—N. Y. Sun.

A New England editor who is travelling in Nevada says: "English, French, German, Spanish, Irish, Chinese, Pi Ute, and other languages, are spoken there with much fluency and freedom, but none seem to be so generally understood as—profane language."

A despatch from New York, relative to the burning of Barnum's Museum, says the snakes escaped—some of them into Broadway, and some of them into the World and News offices. The inference is that the latter were of the copperhead species.

A singular murder was committed at Dunganon, C. W., on the 30th ult. Two men became intoxicated, one fell, and the other—said to be an inoffensive man when sober—literally whipped his companion to death to make him get up.

An old gentleman, with a profusion of silvery locks, a few days since paraded Broadway, New York, with his "back hair" done up as a "water-fall" in a silk net, which protruded from beneath his hat.

There is a man at Providence who has been married thirty-four years, and still preserves his wedding suit, having worn it every Sunday since. In all, he has had it on 1,768 days, and it is a good suit yet.

The West Point graduates are to have a three months' leave of absence from the 1st of July. This was the old custom, but has not prevailed during the war.

York county is to have a town clock, costing six hundred dollars, to be placed on the steeple of the new Lutheran Church to be erected in that borough.

John Hull, a boy of seventeen years, died on Sunday in Pittsburg, mainly on account of excessive drinking. A fast youth.

A premium has been offered to all soldiers who have lost their right arm in battle, and have learned to write with the left.

Daniel Webster's widow is spending the summer at New Milford, Conn.

The South in a Nut-Shell. It has been ascertained, on inquiry, that the legal limit of $300,000,000 of national bank circulation is nearly reached, and, therefore, the creation of but comparatively few additional institutions under that system will be authorized. The entire number will probably reach 1,800 banks.

Information received here from prominent citizens in the Southern States gives assurance that the work of "restoration" is progressing more smoothly than was anticipated, and that the unfriendly utterances of some of the editors are not indicative of the pacific spirit of the people.

A mock sympathy has been attempted to be got up for that shé-devil, Mrs. Surratt, by the rebel sympathizing sheets of the North. Atzerott, in his revelations to Rev. W. Gillette, his spiritual adviser, said that she was more to blame for the murder of the President than Booth!

The story that the owner of the house in which Mr. Lincoln died sent a bill into the Treasury Department for $500, for damages to sheets, carpets, etc., is indignantly denied. He was offered pay by a general in the army, but declined any compensation.

Major General Terry is about to receive $25,000 in seven-thirties from his Connecticut friends, and the degree of LL. D. from Union College. Both most worthily bestowed. Honor and elevate patriots—punish and degrade traitors.

Owing to the number of troops being mustered out of service, including bounties and other necessary obligations of the Government, the daily demands at present upon the Treasury are, it is said, to the extent of between four and five millions of dollars.

Wallace Butler, a return confederate, was expelled from the Second Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, on Sunday, for refusing to acknowledge that he had committed a sin in joining the rebels, and repenting of his error.

The national loan seems to be again looking up. Over ten million dollars were subscribed on Saturday. The third and last series is now in the market, and there is every prospect of its being all sold within two weeks.

Reverdy Johnson has arrived in Richmond, as counsel for the properties of the Ballard and Spotswood Hotels, which have been confiscated. Robberies in that city still continue.

Gen. Sherman, in a speech at Columbus, Ohio, on Thursday, announced that he was in favor of Gen. Cox for Governor, and that he did not intend to be a candidate for the Presidency.

The Pittsburg Post says there is a well known resident of that city who is seventy-two years of age, and has a physician's certificate that he has not been sober for forty years.

Robinson, Secretary Seward's nurse, whose brave conduct saved the Secretary's life, has been presented with a farm by Hon. O. B. Mattison, of New York.

General Hooker has issued an official order in New York, announcing that he has assumed command of the Department of the East, relieving General Dix.

The New York Herald maintained sixty-three war correspondents during the rebellion at a cost of over half a million dollars.

A Mr. Smith hung himself in Tioga county, N. Y., the other day, because he was bored with the meddling of other people in his business!

Nineteen Japanese youths have just arrived in Great Britain to be educated. They are dressed in English costume, and all speak a little English.

Montgomery Blair and a delegation of Marylanders called on the President on the 15th, to urge a change in certain offices in Baltimore.

On Monday, at Jordan, New York, a young woman named Emma Tuttle, died from aneurism of the heart, produced by excessive laughter.

The subscriptions to the National Lincoln Monument Fund, at Springfield, Ill., received up to Tuesday, amount to $512,70.

A teetotal firm launched a vessel in Yarmouth last week, and christened it with a bottle of ginger-beer.

The relic hunters at Washington have already attacked the gallows on which the conspirators were hung.

There is a baby in Manchester, Virginia, two years old, that weighs two hundred pounds.

The King of Greece has ordered a monument to be erected to Byron, at Missolonghi.

In boring for oil, in Clearfield, "salt" instead of "oil" was "struck" at seven hundred and sixty feet.

A FEMALE SOLDIER.—The Stevenson, (Alabama) News says: The 7th Ohio cavalry arrived at Bridgeport, Ala., and encamped on the island. Weary and fatigued with travel, many sought the shade of some friendly tree and fell asleep. The patrol in his rounds discovered what appeared to him a singularity in one of the sleepers. Beneath the open shirt bosom of a soldier he discovered a heaving, soft pair of full and voluptuous bosoms. To report the case to the officer of the day was the soldier's duty. Thereupon an arrest and delivery to Lieutenant Scripture, Provost Marshal of Bridgeport. Mrs. Scripture, and the ladies of the other officers and sutlers, furnished suitable female apparel, and with much apparent reluctance she gave up the "bonnie blue" for the "crinoline." Sufficient funds were donated, and she was sent north to the former home of her childhood, Beaver county, Pennsylvania. Her name is Miss Ida Bruce, a fine looking girl of sixteen, black hair and black eyes, intelligent and lady-like in appearance. Her father died in the year before the war. Her mother and Ida, the only child, removed to Atlanta, Ga. Her mother died last summer, and Ida, left an orphan, was anxious to get north to her friends and relatives, but had no way or means to do so. The 7th Ohio, of "Stoegman's raiders" came along. One of the "boys" furnished her a suit of blue and a horse, and passed her off as his cousin. As such, she traveled with them in cog, from Atlanta to Bridgeport, doing soldier's duty, such as standing guard, &c., and it was by "standing guard" the night before that she became overcome with fatigue and sleep that caused the discovery of her sex.

OLDEST MAN IN THE UNITED STATES:—A correspondent of the New York Herald states that a Mr. McCormick, who lives about two miles south of Newburg, N. Y., will be one hundred and fourteen years old this coming 6th of August, having been born in 1751. The old gentleman is now in tolerably good health. His voice is very strong, hearing good, but his eyesight is very poor. His hair is not gray yet. He was married at forty-five, and had fourteen children. He has been very temperate in his life, and has never felt the want of drink as others do. He did not commence to smoke until he was sixty-five years old, never drank tea or coffee, and milk he greatly disliked. He always worked hard, went to bed early and got up early. Any one to see him, would take him to be a man of about seventy. He sleeps well, and seems to enjoy good health, and may live some ten years more.

Harry Leslie has again crossed the rapids at Niagara on a tight-rope. He appeared in woman's garb, night-cap, petticoats, &c., and for about fifteen minutes astonished his audience by enacting, on the main rope, a drunken scene, staggering, reeling, &c., with a perfect recklessness of life or limb. He wound up his fool-hardy exploits by running out on one of the guy-ropes without pole or balance, and throwing himself at full length on his back. This, it was admitted, surpassed any venture some feat ever performed by Blondin.

A man who had been for eleven years the "starter" of the cars of the Brooklyn City Railroad died on Monday. It is related of him that he recently fell asleep in church, and suddenly awaking, as the sermon was about concluded, and imagining himself on duty at the Fulton ferry, he exclaimed in a loud voice, to the consternation of the congregation, "What's the matter with that Fulton-avenue car? Are you going to stay there all day?"

Many persons are anxious to know why the 4th of March was accepted as the presidential inauguration day. The popular theory is that March 4th falls less frequently on Sunday in the inauguration years than any other of the first seven days of March, and that this was first discovered by Dr. Franklin.

A ludicrous incident was observed recently at the Meigs' Wharf Museum, in San Francisco, when the opossum falling sick, the largest and most active of the monkeys took the sufferer in his arms, and went to nursing it in the most comically affectionate manner.

An enterprising photographer set up his camera in the yard of the Washington Arsenal, and took four views of the execution: "The Arrival on the Scaffold," "Reading the Death-warrant," "Adjusting the Ropes," and "The Conspirators Suspended from the Gallows."

HELMBOLD'S Fluid Extract Buchu, And Improved Rose Wash. Will radically exterminate from the system Diseases arising from habits of dissipation, little exercise, little or no change of diet, no convenience or exposure; completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copabia and Mercury, in curing these diseases. USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

In all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long-standing. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, immediate in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron. Those suffering from broken down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once. The Reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect his bodily health, mental powers and happiness. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or insanity may ensue. All the above diseases require the aid of a diuretic.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu IS THE GREAT DIURETIC.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED Compound Fluid Extract

SARSAPARILLA

For purifying the blood, removing all diseases arising from excess and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swelling of the Bones, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Blisters, Pimples on the Face, Tetter, Erysipelas, and all scaly eruptions of the skin, and beautifying the complexion.

NOT A FEW Of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the Blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect

HELMBOLD'S Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla.

It cleanses and renovates the Blood, insures the vigor of HEALTH into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the Blood. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken. Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of the detection as usually made.

The above Extracts are prepared on purely scientific principles—in Vacuo—and embody the full strength of the ingredients entering into their composition. A ready and conclusive test will be a comparison of their properties with those set forth in the U. S. Dispensary.

HOW TO USE THE REMEDIES.

In diseases of the Blood, Humors on the Face, or any and every part of the body, use Extract Sarsaparilla, applying to Pimples and all external Humors or Eruptions, the Improved Rose Wash.

Use the Extract Buchu for all diseases requiring the aid of a Diuretic, except those of the Urinary Organs, such as Gonorrhoea and Gleet; in these use the Extract Buchu and inject with the Improved Rose Wash.

These extracts have been admitted to use in the United States Army, and also in all very general use in all the state hospitals and public institutions throughout the land, as well as in private practice, and are considered as invaluable remedies.
