PUNISHED FOR DISLOYALTY.—James Simons, seaman, was tried May 2d, 1865, found guilty of using seditious language and evincing disloyalty, in that he expressed satisfaction, both in words and conduct, when the assassination of President Lincoln was announced in his hearing, and was sentenced to be imprisoned for two years in such prison or place of confinement as the Secretary of the Navy may designate; to forfeit all pay now due or which may hereafter become due him during his term of enlistment; to be dishonorably discharged from the Navy, and never again be enlisted or permitted to serve under the Government of the United States. Sentence approved.

William Webster and his son Joseph, who reside, with their families, in the same house, on Flint property, on the turnpike, below Montgomery Square, Montgomery county, last week had a quarrel, which resulted in the death of the father at the hands of the son. It appears that the latter wished to take a horse out of the stable for some purpose, when the father interfered to prevent him, and during the altercation struck him. The son seized an axe, lying near by, and inflicted on the father a most terrible wound, laying open the skull with one blow.

The Governor of Arkansas has written to President Johnson, requesting the revocation of a large number of pardons granted to wealthy rebels of that State on his recommendation. The Governor states that these persons manifested a penitent and loyal spirit until they had received the Executive clemency, since which they have shown as rebellious a disposition as ever, and have fostered disloyalty and embarrassed and opposed measures of government by every means in their power.

The veritable war-horse of the rebel chief, Stonewall Jackson, may now be seen in Newport. It is a noble animal, and makes a fine appearance in the streets, as it doubtless did when leading to the charge against our loyal armies. The steed is the property of George Francis Train, who has a summer cottage on Kay street.

Since the acquittal of Miss Harris, for the killing of Burroughs, at Washington, a number of timorous treasury clerks, having the fear of the woman in black before their eyes, have instructed the messengers in the department to say "Not at home" to every suspicious female desiring an audience with them.

George F. Robinson, the soldier who saved Secretary Seward's life, was married on the 13th inst., at Springfield Maine. He has also been presented with a farm out West, and may now settle down and enjoy himself, with reminiscences of his desperate encounter with Payne to enliven his winter evenings.

A woman horse-whipped her husband in the streets of Warren, R. I., last week. The man meekly submitted to forty or fifty blows, but showed opposition when his son followed up the mother by belabering his dad with an umbrella. It is not stated what offence the whipped man had committed.

In consequence of the heat on the 4th of July, the saloon railroad car in which Queen Victoria rode from Windsor to London, to visit the Queen of the Netherlands, had to be cooled with ice, which was strewn over the roof of the carriage previous to Her Majesty's return to Windsor.

The issue of five cent fractional currency has been stopped by order of Secretary McCullough, and it is expected that the Treasury and Sub-Treasury will be supplied with two or three cent coins to meet the wants of the community in lieu of the paper issue withdrawn.

A young woman lately left her husband of sixty in Michigan, took $500 of his money, went to Syracuse, and picked up with a lover, bought him a new suit of clothes, and pretty soon took the clothes and left him. At last accounts the two men were in company, looking after the woman.

Professor Mahan, of the Corps of instruction at the United States Military Academy, West Point, has arrived in Richmond, and is a guest of Major-General A. H. Terry, at the Jeff. Davis mansion. Prof. Mahan is under orders from the War Department to inspect the fortifications around Richmond.

The census takers have found living in the west part of the village of Plattsburg a French Canadian, who is in the one hundred and sixth year of his age, and his wife is ninety-five years old. They are both of them in the enjoyment of quite good health; have lived together seventy-eight years, and had fourteen children.

A Russian journal, relates that the wife of a peasant in the government of Koursk, recently gave birth to a son, on the following day to a son and a daughter, and three days after to another daughter. The second boy died, and the mother also at the last accouchement; the three other children are still living.

An exchange has a graphic description of a recent tornado, which blew eight oxen over a river 800 yards wide, carried off several dwelling houses, one sub-cellar, and two wells, and performed several other freaks of strength. One old lady went up like a balloon, and was soon after discovered hanging on a telegraph wire two miles and a half off. From this unpleasant predicament she was rescued by her grandson.

The New York Observer, in an able article on church music, by its senior editor, thus speaks of the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organ: "Here we have an organ, sweet, solemn, sonorous and grand; with your eyes shut you cannot distinguish its sound from that of the pipe organ itself. It is so effective and beautiful as to meet the desires of the most refined and fastidious, and is all that is needed in any church of ordinary size."

The Chattanooga Gazette says the "poor old man," John Bell, has passed through that place en-route for Nashville.—The Louisville Journal says:—We suppose that Mr. Bell will return to Nashville, for he can probably live in less discomfort there than elsewhere. Of course the authorities will not think of molesting him. He will not be sent to any prison, but the whole world will seem to him one vast Fort Warren or Fort Lafayette, from which there can be no escape except through the gate of death.

William Fon Rodd, Esq., of Butztown, Pa., eighty-nine years of age, has lost nine sons during the war. Eight were killed in battle, and one died a prisoner at Salisbury, N. C., eating his own right hand before dying, so great was his hunger. The tenth son is a member of Co. A., 13th Pennsylvania cavalry, and bears the scars of eight wounds received in battle.

Col. Wm. B. Thomas, Collector of the Port at Philadelphia, Edward Wallace, Naval Officer, and E. Reed Myer, Surveyor, have been reappointed.

WOMEN AND MEN.—Very intelligent women, we find by observation, are seldom beautiful. The formation of their features, and particularly their forehead, is more or less masculine. Miss Lander was rather pretty and feminine in the face; but Miss Sedgwick, Miss Pardee, Miss Leslie, and the late Ann Maria and Jane Porter, the contrary. One of the Misses Porter had a forehead as high as that of an intellectual man. We never knew of any very talented man who was admired for his personal beauty. Pope was awful ugly; Dr. Johnson was no better; Mirabeau was the ugliest man in France, and yet he was the greatest favorite with the ladies. Women more frequently prize men for their sterling qualities of the mind, than men do women. Dr. Johnson chose a woman who had scarcely an idea above an oyster. He thought her the loveliest creature in existence, if we may judge by the inscription he left on her tomb.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Post, in a telegram to that journal, dated Saturday, says: "There is reason to believe that the Government will in a short time, make known its policy in regard to the Monroe doctrine and the French occupation of Mexico. Heavy reinforcements of troops, to the number of twenty-five thousand are said to have been put on the road to Sheridan within the past few days. General Grant is reported to have said, in a conversation with the Mexican Minister, a few days ago, 'the French will have to leave Mexico.'"

A townsman of Gale, the rebel who offered a million dollars reward for the murder of President Lincoln, says, that he is a lawyer of some ability, a violent secessionist, a great lover of whisky, who fully lived up to his income, and never possessed more than ten thousand dollars. The advertisement offering the reward is said to have been the ebullition of a drunken frolic, and was considered merely as a silly joke in that vicinity.

Hon. Asa Packer, of Mauch Chunk has set apart the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, to establish and endow a college near Bethlehem, in this State. He has given also fifty-seven acres of land, on which the college buildings will be erected. Judge Packer is now in Europe, but previous to his departure he communicated to Bishop Stevens his intention and will superintending its organization himself.

They have on exhibition in New York "a splendid horse which had the honor of bearing the person of Lieutenant-General Grant at the grand reviews in Washington." Those who were in front of the President's pavilion will testify that if General Grant sat on any horse in those days it must have been a saw-horse, as certainly no animal was visible.

The Boston Transcript says: The estate of the late President, we are authorized and requested to say, will, with the addition of the contributions made in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and New York, amount to one hundred thousand dollars, and that the active labors of those obtaining subscriptions to the Lincoln Fund have now ceased.

USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.

In all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, immediate in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

Those suffering from broken down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once. The Reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect his bodily health, mental powers and happiness. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue.

All the above diseases require the aid of a diuretic. Helmbold's Extract Buchu IS THE GREAT DIURETIC.

HELMBOLD'S

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED Compound Fluid Extract

SARSAPARILLA.

For purifying the blood, removing all diseases arising from excess and impudence in life, chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Seal Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swelling of the Bones, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Tetter, Erysipelas, and all scaly eruptions of the skin, and beautifying the complexion.

NOT A FEW

Of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the Blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal its effect.

HELMBOLD'S Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla.

It cleanses and renovates the Blood, insures the vigor of HEALTH into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the Blood. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever known.

Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

The above Extracts are prepared on purely scientific principles—in Vacuum—and embody the full strength of the ingredients entering into their composition. A ready and conclusive test will be a comparison of their properties with those set forth in the U. S. Dispensary.

HOW TO USE THE REMEDIES. In diseases of the Blood, Humors on the Face, or any and every part of the body, use Extract Sarsaparilla, applying to Pimples and all external Humors or Eruptions, the Improved Rose Wash.

Use the Extract Buchu for all diseases requiring the aid of a Diuretic, except those of the Urinary Organs, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet; in these use the Extract Buchu and Rectify with the Improved Rose Wash.

These extracts have been admitted to use in the United States Army, and also in general use in all the state hospitals and public institutions throughout the last, as well as in private practice, and are considered as invaluable remedies.
