MARIETTA, PA.

Saturday, August 12, 1865.

Rear Admiral Dahlgren was married in New York, on Wednesday, to Mrs. Goddard, the daughter of the late Hon. Samuel Vinton, of Ohio.

Gen. Grant, it would seem, will after all said and done, make his old home, Galena, Ill., his permanent residence.

That wretched catfish John Bell, has taken the amnesty oath at Nashville; Kennett Rayner, once a leading North-Carolinian, has begged for and received the pardon of the President.

A horse insurance company is the latest successful enterprise in Illinois.

At Berkley, Md., a young colored man, who had been paying attention to an upwilling colored girl, recently asked her for the last time if she would marry him.

Robert R. Lowther, formerly of Armstrong county, and late a colonel in the rebel army, returned to Kittanning last week.

Dr. Colburn, at Leighton, Michigan, some months since, kissed a lady named Bright, whose husband was in the army.

A female in male attire was arrested the other night in the streets of Cincinnati, who proved to be a respectable lady of the city.

Mat. Saxton, the notorious guerrilla leader, is on trial before a military commission in session at Memphis.

It is said that Elder Brigham Young intimated to Speaker Colfax, in a recent interview at Salt Lake City, that he expected a revelation from the Lord that "polygamy should be stopped."

Major Gen. Benjamin Prentiss was arrested at Quincy, Illinois, on Saturday, and fined $5,000 for thrashing a young man who kept company with his daughter against the General's wishes.

General Carl Schurz left Savannah on the 2d of August, and Captain Carter on the same day arrived from Augusta with $3,000 in silver, and $2,000 in gold, said to have been scattered by Jefferson Davis in his flight, near the residence of Howell Cobb.

Sam Houston, it is now proved, was Union to the last. The rebel papers lied about him as about everything else, and the rebel authorities tried to get him to swear fealty to the confederacy, but the old hero scorned them.

Harry Gilmore, the rebel leader, pet of Maryland and high way robber, went straight to Europe from Fort Warren, fearing to go home on account of a warrant for treason being out against him in Maryland.

Mary Harris, lately acquitted of the murder of Burroughs, in Washington city, is about to go to Ireland. A liberal subscription has been raised for her for that purpose.

THE LIFE OF LINCOLN.—It was announced some time ago that the Hon. Robert Dale Owen was about to commence writing the Life of President Lincoln; and we now learn that the task has been commenced, and so laborious is it considered that it will require two years to complete it.

At Oxford, Rock county the other day, a copperhead, formerly postmaster under Jas. Buchanan, who ran away at every call for men and prospect of a draft, returned home, when the neighbors in large force assembled, and gave him notice to leave within twenty-four hours.

A fat cattle epidemic has broken out in Woodstock, Canada. A number of cattle and horses died within a week. In hogs it first shows itself by a swelling of the throat, and terminates fatally in about twelve hours.

The catalogue used on the occasion of President Lincoln's funeral in New York was put up at auction in New York on Thursday. It was divided into a 115 lots, of which only thirty were sold, and although it cost $18,000 originally, it will not now bring $1200 all told.

A horse insurance company is the latest successful enterprise in Illinois. Its officers claim to have established a thorough system of horse thief detection, by having one or more agents and detectives in every county in the State.

Wm. Puffer, of Peterboro, N. H., who is in his eighty-fifth year, goes into the field every morning, and mows all the forenoon, and rakes in the afternoon as steadily as a man in the prime of life.

A London letter says, the Davenports and Fay have been taken possession of by an old East Indian Nabob, who, having plenty of money, has carried them off to a castle in France, where he has nightly seances, in which the spirits give him concerts, drink whisky and play at billiards.

General Howard has issued an order, to the effect that if the planters of Lower Maryland do not cease turning off their old slaves to starve, or neglect to employ them, the government will seize their farms and put freedmen to work upon the lands.

A "mad-stone" for the cure of hydrophobia is in the possession of Leonard Evans, of Linn Co. Iowa. During the past eight years he says it has cured 379 cases. The stone acts as a leech, and when applied to the wound absorbs all the poison.

A professor of music was cowhided in Erie on Tuesday night by an enraged father. The professor being a married man had paid his attentions to the daughter, and thereby brought down upon his devoted head the wrath of the father.

A little child of Henry Burns of Willistown, died a few days ago from the effects of eating matches. A child of Enoch O'ly, same township, died a short time previous from the same cause. Two children lately died in Tredyffrin, also from eating matches.

Mudd, Arnold, O'Laughlin and Spangler were assigned to Fort Jefferson on the Dry Tortugas, on July 25th. Dr. Mudd has been made an assistant surgeon; Arnold a clerk, and Spangler a carpenter. There are now 550 prisoners on the Dry Tortugas.

Milk may be preserved for several weeks in the following simple manner: Four fresh milk into glass bottles, then set the bottles into a kettle of cold water to boiling points, and then cork and seal tight.

A Sisterhood of Fenians was last week organized at New York, when thirty-five daughters of Erin were enrolled under the Fenian banner.

How John Morrissey wears an $1,800 diamond in his shirt bosom is the subject of a Saratoga letter.

The Macon (Geo.) Journal and Messenger has been suppressed, for ridiculing the oath of allegiance.

The Merit in a Nut-Shell. Queen Victoria's salary is about two millions per annum.

A brother of Charles Dickens is residing in Chicago. The French Emperor is going to have a black regiment from Africa.

The "waterfall" is going out of fashion at Saratoga. Admiral Stewart has been in the navy sixty-seven years.

Mary Harris, the murderess, is going to live with her parents. Hayti has had eleven revolutions in six years.

Eugenie is said to be laboring under a fit of jealousy provoked by a flax-haired beauty. Some monkeys attacked a man in the Zoological Gardens in Antwerp, England, and nearly bit him to death.

Three cars are now running on the Harrisburg Street Railway and are doing well. The fashion at Newport this season is for ladies to invite the nice young men to ride, the lady driving.

Only seventeen hundred deserters from the draft have availed themselves of President Lincoln's offer of pardon.

A romantic young lady in Waterloo, New York, proposes a monument over the grave of Edgar A. Poe. Rather late.

Nearly twenty thousand dollars have been collected for the statue of Shakespeare, which is to be erected in Central Park, New York.

Experiments are being made in Philadelphia in infiltration, a process by which a live hog may be converted into corned pork in twenty minutes. The animal is killed, his heart removed, and an instrument inserted in its place by which sweet pickle is sent through the main artery into every part of the pig. It is estimated that this process will reduce the price of food fifty per cent.

Parson Brownlow says he agrees with those who are horrified by the execution of Mrs. Surratt. But the terrible thing is not merely that a woman should be hung, but that a woman should do a deed meriting hanging. In his opinion, a she-devil is as much to be dreaded, and as properly subject to punishment as one of the other sex.

The great national arms manufactory at Springfield, Mass., has, like other establishments which flourished during the rebellion, experienced great changes with its suppression. Since the close of the war, of the three thousand men constantly employed there during the last two years of its continuance over two thousand have been discharged.

A startling balloon accident has happened in Ireland. Mr. Coswell's balloon after having ascended from Belfast with ten people in the car, effected a perilous descent, owing to the valve at the top not acting properly. Flight of the aeronauts succeeded in getting out (some of them severely injured) when the balloon again ascended with two gentlemen still in the car, and nothing has since been heard of it.

After the death of Abdermen, caliph of Cordova, the following paper was found in his own handwriting:—"Fifty years have elapsed since I became caliph. I have possessed riches, honors, pleasures, friends; in short, everything that man can desire in this world. I have reckoned up the days in which I could say I was really happy, and they amount to fourteen."

At the wedding of a burghmaster in a village of Upper Austria all the relations of the bride and bridegroom were entertained for three days of uninterrupted festivity. The bill of fare included, among other things consumed on this occasion, forty-eight oxen, forty-six pigs and sheep, sixty seven calves, and several hundred barrels of wine.

A married couple were alone in a railway carriage in England, when a collision occurred. They were uninjured; but to secure damages the husband struck his wife in the face cutting her beautifully. He has instituted a suit against the company for injuries sustained by the railroad accident.

"I say, Pat," said a Yankee, "Why don't you sue that railroad company for damages received. Both your legs broken all to smash; sue them for damages." "Sue them for damages! I have damage enough already; I'll sue them for repairs."

A late captain in the army has opened a school in Chicago for the purpose of instructing gentlemen in the use of the common walking cane as a means of attack and defense by scientific rules—something like those which apply to fencing.

An Irishman in Danbury, who weighs 127 pounds, lately lifted a stone with his teeth that weighed 125 pounds. The Siamese twins, having lost all their property in North Carolina, will soon exhibit themselves. Forty thousand negroes have learned to read and write since the rebellion broke out. A brother of Stonewall Jackson fell over board near Mobile and was drowned.

THE FATHER OF PAYNE.—The Florida Union says that the afflicted father of Payne, the would be murderer of Secretary Seward, has been making a visit to Jacksonville in that State. The Union adds:

The father of Payne called on one day this week. He resides on a plantation three miles from Live Oak Station, on the Pensacola and Georgia Railroad. He lost one son at the battle of Murfreesborough, another returned home maimed for life, "Lewis" was his only hope in his old age. The afflicted father was a Baptist minister, as has been stated. We must necessarily pronounce just the terrible punishment to the son, but we cannot withhold our deepest sympathy for the heart-stricken parent, or esteem him less as a worthy man and citizen.

The old Stayness pear tree at the corner of Thirteenth street and Third avenue, New York, bears fruit this season, as it has done for a long period of time. The recent storms blew down a number of the pears, and only a few remain on the tree; but these are of good appearance, and are larger than pears usually are. It is expected the fruit will be ripe in a few weeks.

The person recently arrested and brought to Washington city, and who, without any apparent reasons was supposed to be John H. Surratt, gives his name as John G. Ryan, of Texas, late captain in the Confederate Navy. It is said he was engaged in the Booth conspiracy. Much and very unnecessary mystery has been attached to this arrest.

Some boys being surprised by the police while bathing at Troy, the other day, one of them made a rush for the shore and put for home. He naturally created a sensation, running as he did four or five blocks through the business part of the city without any clothes on.

A wealthy old gentleman just deceased in Paris left 100,000 francs to a young man who politely gave up his seat to him one night at the crowded opera.
