

The Mariettian.

MARIETTA, PA.

Saturday, September 9, 1865.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON AS A TAILOR.—An old tailor at Greenville, Tenn., who used to work with Andrew Johnson, says: "There was a vast difference between Andy and I when we worked on the same bench. I could spell b-a-k-e-r and he could not, but he could 'flax' me on a pair of breeches or a fine coat, and could get a better price for his work than I. He never made a garment that didn't fit, and never had a job returned. He was the best tailor I ever met. When Andy got married he hadn't ten dollars in the world, and his wife was as poor as Naomi's daughters. Her mother said to her before she was married (calling her by name,) 'I can give you all the money there is in the house—fifteen dollars—to help you about going to housekeeping; or I will take the money and give you a 'wedding' which will you prefer?' 'Mother,' said she, 'I will take the wedding, and Andy and I'll work for money—won't we?' appealing to her lover. He assented, and the consequence was that the young couple had not one cent with which to 'set up' for themselves. After they were married she taught him to read, and the world knows the rest."

KENTUCKY STILL IN THE FIELD.—The remnants of conservatism in this forlorn State still remain to illustrate the policy which has dragged her in the dust. The Court of appeals has recently declared that the Act of Congress, authorizing the emission of the Secretary of the Treasury of Legal Tender Notes, is unconstitutional. The disloyal dolts who occupy seats in this Court, would still be at the old trade of "Constitution defining, while regarding the Constitution itself as a rope of sand, which any State has a right at all times to set aside."

A SPECIAL PARDON.—Herschel V. Johnson, of Georgia, the candidate for Vice-President with Douglas in 1860, was pardoned by the President at the intercession of Mrs. Douglas. While perhaps this man, who was not so bitter a rebel as some of them, and did nothing to precipitate the rebellion, may have been entitled to some merciful consideration from the President, we nevertheless decidedly protest against men or women exercising an influence over acts of clemency, which, when granted, may not always be in consonance with the public interests.

Fifty-three years ago, the following notice of President Johnson's father, in the Raleigh, North Carolina, Star, of January 12th, 1812: "Died in this city, on Saturday last, Jacob Johnson, who had, for many years, occupied an humble, but useful station in society. He was city constable, sexton, and porter to the State bank. In his last illness he was visited by the principal inhabitants of the city, by all of whom he was esteemed for his honesty, sobriety, industry, humane and friendly disposition."

Dr. Hughes, of Bedford, Ohio, married a Miss Parsons, a year and a half ago. It was soon found that he had another wife and two children. He was sent to the State Prison, but being pardoned, returned to Bedford. He made several efforts to induce Miss Parsons to live with him, but being refused, one day last week, shot her dead. He says he was prompted to his act by "pure love."

The Cholera has reached Marseille, France, at the latest advices, and by this time must be in Paris, if not in London. In the places last visited by it, the mortality has not been so great as in 1832. If it shall come here at all—and its road has been steadily westward, from north-western India in 1861—we may look for it early next summer, not before.

An interesting trial took place in Ravenna, last week, under the Ohio liquor law. A returned soldier named Green while in a state of intoxication was robbed of $102 by some unknown persons. His wife brought suit for damages against the saloon keeper who sold him the liquor, and obtained a verdict in her favor of $140.

The harvest in Ireland is a very fair average one. Good accounts are given of almost all descriptions of grain. The potato crop never looked better. The favorable prospects will tend to check emigration.

A young woman named Sarah Schwartz jumped from the canal bridge, on Second street, Harrisburg, on Tuesday, and drowned herself. Cause—ruined by a young man who afterwards refused to marry her.

The Doylestown Democrat, owned and edited by Col. Davis, the Copperhead candidate for Auditor General, has an editorial leader in his last Tuesday's issue in defence of the infamous brute Capt. Wertz, who starved and murdered our brave union prisoners at Andersonville. It asserts that the Military Commission before which he is on trial is a usurpation of power, and that the prisoner has not been fairly dealt with.

The working men of South Wheeling, Va., have formed a joint stock company with a capital of twelve thousand dollars, for the purpose of establishing a first class grocery store, from which they are to obtain their family supplies at the lowest cash rates, the profits to be distributed pro rata among the stockholders. The shares are fixed at ten dollars, no person to be allowed to subscribe for more than ten shares.

Ex Governor Tod, of Ohio, recently declared that the Democratic party of Ohio could not be trusted. If it was in power, the national debt would be in danger of repudiation, unless linked with the rebel debt, national securities would decline, and justice would not be done to the soldier, or the soldiers' wives and widows; consequently, it was the duty of every patriot to stand by the Union party.

Morris Ketchum is reported to have said to his creditors: "If I could have my son back, with his good name, and you were all paid in full, I would die content." Such is the last ambition of one of our greatest financiers. A lifetime of activity, an ample fortune its reward; and now all would be given for a son's good name!

A correspondent of the New York World states that an ex-President of the United States dined with John Morrissey, the noted gambler, at Saratoga the other day. The correspondent does not give the name of the ex-President, but we presume it can be no other than its Democratic friend, the Hon. Franklin Pierce.

Pittsburg is a queer place. The other day three men went into a lager-beer saloon, and two commenced catching all the flies therein, while the third ate the insects as fast as caught, on a bet that he could eat them quicker than his companions could catch them. They were arrested and fined three dollars each for the fun.

The newest thing out is "plumpers" for hollow-cheeked damsels. The plumper is made of porcelain, pear-shaped in form, flat on one side and bulging out on the other. They fit on the inside of the cheeks, giving a round, plump appearance; hence, doubtless, their name.

It is announced that Secretary McCullough has it in contemplation to sell the whole or a portion of the forty-six million of gold now in the Treasury. This sum is over and above the amount received for the redemption of bonds bearing gold interest.

The brakemen on the Lehigh Valley Railroad were on a strike last week. The cars stopped running for one day. Discharged soldiers enough were soon found to man the brakes, and things were all right next morning.

A few weeks ago a cab driver fell asleep upon the box of his vehicle in Paris, and the horses taking a wrong turn fell into the Seine. The horses and the coachman were drowned.

A young man and a little girl, while attending a camp meeting at Sterrett's Gap, Perry county, a few days ago, were kicked by horses, and both afterwards died from the injuries received.

A Mrs. Nestlerode, of Liberty township, Centre county, has been arrested on suspicion of poisoning her husband, who died recently. She is now confined in the Bellefonte jail.

A man named Ryan, a well known character in Schaghticoke, New York, has been sentenced to the Troy jail for thirty days for talking about a horse trade in church.

Pittsburg is excited. An unknown man has been found with his throat cut from ear to ear, and a Mrs. Grindler has been arrested for poisoning several of her neighbors.

The Washington Chronicle says that the War Department has summoned every witness Wirtz has named for his defence, and that many of them are already there.

The efforts of the Government to arrest the rebel Gen. McCausland, under indictment in Pennsylvania, have not succeeded. He has left for parts unknown.

General Miles, in command of Fortress Monroe, says that Jeff Davis has been and is still suffering with erysipals, and with carbuncles on his legs.

Gideon J. Pillow, Ex-Governor Aiken, Ex-General Nicholson, have not been pardoned by the President.

A young woman in London has committed suicide because a shopman declined to court her.

The creditors of Morris Ketchum Son & Co., held a meeting in New York on Friday last. The assets are estimated at from two and a half to three millions of dollars, and the liabilities at four millions. A plan of settlement was agreed upon. The creditors are to accept sixty per cent. of the amount of their claims. All the property of the firm is to be given in its charge from the assignees, and things are to go on as formerly. Young Ketchum, the forger and defrauder, who, the accounts say, put on a "bold face" when arraigned for the crime, will of course not be prosecuted, but will be restored probably to his business and position; and all will be forgotten.

Robert E. Lee has been tendered and accepted the Presidency of Washington College, a leading Virginia institution of learning. The trustees of Washington College could have done themselves more honor by bestowing their favors on a less prominently obnoxious man, but as the traitors insist that they were not defeated, only overcome by superior numbers, Lee will doubtless busy himself in educating an other band of scamps and ingrates like himself, again in the future, when an imbecile like Buchanan can be placed in power, to assail and if possible destroy the Government.

It is said that the rebel General Forrest cannot return to his plantation and old home on the Mississippi river with safety to himself, unless protected by Federal bayonets. Forrest should be as little obnoxious to his neighbors as any officer of the confederacy, but the facts are as stated. He is at the present time endeavoring to lease his land to a resigned federal officer, because he feels that his life would not be safe a day among his infuriated acquaintances and former associates.

Among the military prisoners confined in the Penitentiary at Richmond, awaiting trial for his crimes, is Dick Turner, known as the infamous and inhuman keeper of Libby Prison. He is confined in a cell 8 by 12, seen by and seeing only the surgeon, who daily visits him to insure his good health, that justice may not be cheated out of her due. The season of reflection afforded Turner has operated very materially upon his system. From the weight of 165 pounds he is reduced to a mere skeleton.

Colonel Jacob M. Campbell, and Lieutenant Colonel John P. Linton, the nominees of the two political parties for Surveyor General are from the same county (Cambria). Both belonged to the same regiment in the service, and both were unsuccessful candidates before their respective district conferences for the nomination for States Senator. We doubt whether two candidates for a State office were ever selected under similar circumstances.

The New York Times Washington despatch says that at a recent political meeting in Charles county, Maryland, a negro, for cheering a speaker who endorsed the Union, was beaten by a large number of citizens, including among them a magistrate named Frederick Dent, Dr. George Mudd, brother of the assassin, and others. Dent, the magistrate, subsequently sent the negro to jail for attempting to defend himself.

Bishop Smyth (Catholic) of Dubuque, the burning of whose stable, carriage, and horses by Copperheads for his patriotic spirit, was noticed in our columns some time since, has, we are glad to learn, had his losses made good by the voluntary contributions of his fellow-citizens. During his recent absence new buildings were put up in the place of those destroyed, and a carriage and horses given him.

Jeff Davis, it is announced, will be tried before a United States Circuit Court. The particular one has not been designated, but it is believed that it will be convened somewhere in Virginia—probably Norfolk—with Chief Justice Chase as the presiding judge. Indictments for constructive treason have been already brought against Davis by Grand Jurors in the District of Columbia, and at Knoxville.

General Sigel, who now conducts the Wecker, of Baltimore, one of the ablest of our German newspapers, proposes, in order to gratify those white citizens who dread coming in contact with black voters at the polls, that special ballot-boxes should be kept for the latter class, just as has been the practice with regiments of soldiers voting in the field.

The Rev. Dr. Hall, Rector of the Church of the Epiphany in Washington, has just received a call to the Cathedral Church in San Francisco, with a salary of $10,000 payable in gold. He replied that he had not time even to investigate the case, and they must therefore look for another candidate. His present salary is $3,000 in greenbacks.

At a Fenian picnic in Detroit last week Hon. J. J. Rogers of New York, orator for the occasion, said the object of the Fenian Brotherhood in this country is not to go over and help the Irish at home, but to send money to them, and then they would help themselves.

The World in a Nut-Shell.—The wife of the rebel Secretary of the Navy, Mallory, is in Washington imploring for the release of her husband, a prisoner in Fort Pulaski.

The Atlantic Telegraph Company has resolved to lay a new cable in June next, and pick up the old one afterward.

The Great Eastern has arrived at Sheerness. Captain Anderson fully believes in being able to lay the Atlantic cable, and advocates the manufacture of a new cable and proper picking-up appliances, by May, 1866; then to lay a new cable, and afterwards pick up the old one and continue to lay the same.

Washington is still crowded with pardon-seekers, and new ones are daily arriving.

Two negro pickpockets were arrested at Fortress Monroe. They had robbed a gentleman of 1,000 dollars and a lady of her jewelry.

Prince Alfred, second son of Queen Victoria, came of age on Sunday, the 6th ult.

Hon. F. W. Seward, Assistant Secretary of State, has so far recovered that he will be able to resume the duties of his office in a few days.

General Schenck, in a recent speech in Ohio, said: "A rebel is a courageous Copperhead, and a Copperhead a cowardly rebel." That is just it.

The Memphis Bulletin relates the case of a Southern female refugee who had only one faded calico dress that she wore upon her back. A benevolent gentleman had a collection taken up for her, and realized fifteen dollars for her benefit. She at once repaired to a dry-goods store, where she paid thirteen dollars for a lace collar.

The repairs to the West Branch Canal are nearly finished, and it will be ready for navigation early in September.

The Oil Creek Railroad is now known among oil men by the euphonious and expressive title of "Death's Causeway."

Winans' "cigar ship," which has so long been on the stocks at Mr. Hepworth's yard, in the Isle of Dogs, near London, is now nearly ready for launching. It is stated that upward of £100,000 have been expended in her construction, and it is anticipated that she will attain the speed of twenty-five miles an hour.

The women employed in the fancy shops of Paris have requested their masters to relieve them of the necessity of serving in the shops on Sunday.

During October the Government will sell 30 locomotives and 290 cars at Richmond, 50 locomotives and 750 cars at Alexandria, and 6 locomotives and 51 cars at Norfolk and Portsmouth; 2,000 tons of railroad iron will be sold at Alexandria, and 4,000 tons at City Point.

The leaves of the elder, if strewed among corn or other grain, when it is put in the bin, will effectually preserve it from the ravages of the weevil. The juice will also kill bed bugs and maggots. Insects never touch elder bushes. The leaves of elder scattered over cabbage, cucumbers, squashes, and other plants subject to the ravages of insects, effectually shield them. The plum and other fruits may be saved by placing on the branches and among them bunches of leaves.

Maine sent more men to put down the rebellion than Great Britain did to the allied army during the Russian war.

A battered Minie ball was recently extracted from the head of a recovered New Haven soldier, after remaining there 107 days.

Daniel Andreas, postmaster at Glencoe, Mo., who lately committed suicide, left a confession which has just been found. It says he murdered a returned Californian eight years ago, and robbed him of $10,000. He had also murdered two of his own children, and contemplated the murder of his wife. Also, that he has robbed the mails ever since he has been postmaster.

A thief entered the bed-room of William Otis, in Fairfield, Me., one night last week, and stole a pair of pantaloons containing $1400 in one of the pockets.

Major Gen. Hooker is soon to be proposed to St. Louis, for the purpose of leading to the altar in marriage a wealthy and beautiful widow of that city.

A man on trial for murder in Bangor, Me., last week, secured his acquittal by his own simple, frank, and apparently truthful evidence, taken under the new law of that State, allowing all persons accused of crime to be witnesses in their own behalf.

W. O. Paine, of Cypress City, recently shot his wife and mother-in-law because the latter sent for her daughter to nurse her during her illness. Mrs. Paine, who is but 15 years of age, may recover, but her mother is dead. The murderer escaped.
