I do this more residily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Br. C. M. Jackson because I was prejudiced; against them for a number, of years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indepted to my friend Robit. Sheemaker, seed, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering frold great and long dedility. The use of these bottles of these bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of a home and abroad. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and new, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bot. tle will show to the sick- that it has virtues.

Surpassing anything they have ever taken.

Two tablespoonsful of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

The above Extracts are prepared on purely scientific principles—in Vacuo—and embody the full strength of the ingredients entering into their composition. A ready and conclusive test will be a comparison of their properties with those set for hein the U. S. Dispensato-
