

The Mariettian.

P. L. Baker, Editor.

MARIETTA, PA.

Saturday, October 14, 1865.

THE OATH OF LOYALTY.—In July, 1863, a law was passed by Congress requiring the following oath of "every person elected or appointed to any office of honor or emolument, civil, military or naval, or any other department of the public service, except the President of the United States," to-wit:

"I solemnly swear that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the United States since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have neither sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever under any authority or pretended authority in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, authority, power or constitution within the United States hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear that to the best of my knowledge and ability I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States, &c."

This is the oath which the members of the last Congress were required and which the members of the new Congress will be required to take. The question recurs, will the two Houses, or either of them, consider the President's amnesty as wiping out all offences connected with the late rebellion? In any event, it would appear that there must be some modification of this oath as a preliminary step to the admission of members from the South, and upon this issue we may expect a lively time upon the very threshold of the new Congress.

AN OUTRAGE BY COLORED TROOPS.—At Bowling Green, Ky., as the sheriff had in his charge two negroes, convicted of the murder of another negro, and was taking them to the Nashville penitentiary, and when they arrived at Bowling Green, and in the act of changing cars, the sheriff was surrounded by a detachment of colored guards, who demanded the release of the prisoners, which being refused, they took them by force, removed their handcuffs and set them at liberty, and with fixed bayonets defied the sheriff and his party, and threatened death to all who opposed them.

OYSTERS TO BE CHEAP.—Parties posted in the matter maintain that oysters this winter should be cheaper than for years before. While the "poor white trash" of Virginia have been fighting to make a king out of Jefferson Davis, the oysters along their coast have enjoyed four years of tranquility, undisturbed by dredges or tongs. As everybody knows the coast of Virginia abounds in oyster beds, which this winter will be dredged for the first time in four years. This ought to make oysters cheap.

THE PENIENS ARE GIVING JOHN BULL A VAST DEAL OF TROUBLE just now. A number of the prisoners had been brought before the police magistrates at Dublin. The Government counsel stated that large sums of money had been received by some of the prisoners from America, and a letter was intercepted in that day's mail containing a large draft for one of them. Some of the correspondence seized shows that the designs of the Peniens were of a most sanguinary character, being the extermination and assassination of the nobility on the breaking out of the revolution.

Detectives have been employed in Canada West, hunting counterfeiters of American coin, and five wealthy farmers have been arrested, who are said to belong to an extensive gang, who have for forty years been manufacturing bogus silver coin, and to which belong many of the first merchants of Sterling. Their dies and a vast deal of their coin was also obtained.

"Dice, the Gypsy Queen," a deformed negroess, that, until recently, had been exhibited throughout the country by circas companies and others, died on Thursday, at 310 Broome street, New York, at the age of forty-five years.

General Kilpatrick and Hon. A. Jack Rogers, an able copperhead of New Jersey, are now stumping the state together, speaking from the same stand alternately.

Ketchum, has through his council, stated that he desired to put in a plea of guilty to the charge of forgery. Jenkins, the Phoenix Bank robber, desires to put in the same plea.

Morton McMichael, of the Philadelphia North American, has been elected mayor of that city by a majority of over five thousand.

Jefferson Davis has been removed under a strong guard, from his casemate prison to quarters assigned him in Carroll Hall.

CONDENSED ALE.—Condensed ale is among the latest discoveries. It is the invention of a citizen of Rochester, N. Y., and he claims by this method the ordinary extract of malt and hops is reduced seven-eighths in quantity, and to the consistency of sugar-house syrup, without throwing off any of the volatile matter or aroma which brewers seek to retain, if possible, not always with success. The heat applied in cooking the extract is steam, and burning of the liquor is entirely avoided, so that, by the peculiar method of brewage and condensation, the ale is allowed to retain all the finer qualities that impart to it the rare spirit that "cheers but not inebriates." The condensed product is put up in ale-casks, and may be shipped to any part of the world unspoiled by heat or climate. This is the greatest advantage which is claimed for it.

A short time ago, a discharged black soldier returned home to Milford, Del., with "knapsack strapped upon his back," and carrying a gun. He was immediately taken up before a magistrate, relieved of his gun, fined &c., for violating a law which provides that "no negro shall be allowed to own or have possession of a gun." His case was brought to the notice of the military commandant, and by him referred to the commander of the Department. His decision will be one of interest, as it will decide all similar cases involving the question whether a black soldier who in common with the white soldier, is allowed to retain his gun by an order of the War Department, on returning home returned to the "status of a negro" again, or is protected by the general government in the possession of the gun the United States sold to him.

The Fenian Brotherhood in the United States number 350,000; in the British Provinces, 45,000; in Ireland, 200,000; in England, 65,000; of which 35,000 are in the city of London. There are over 5000 soldiers belonging to the fraternity in the British army. The monthly expenses of the body amount to $60,000, and it is stated that a tax of $20 per man on the Fenians in the United States is nearly made up, and that the aggregate assessment will reach $5,000,000. Eight per cent, bonds of the "Irish Republic" are in course of being manufactured, and will soon be in the market. So it is said, but we presume more is said than is really true. The people of this country care but little about this movement, except so far as it may annoy England.

General Robert E. Lee was installed president of Washington College, at Lexington, Virginia, on the 2d inst. The ceremonies were of a very unostentatious character, in compliance with Gen. Lee's request, but contrary to the wishes of many connected with and taking an interest in the college, who desired to have the installation attended with considerable pomp and display. A letter says he was dressed in a plain but elegant "suit of gray." No doubt Lee still has hopes that the "confederacy" will yet become a fact, and hence adheres to the rebel gray.

All the desks of the late Confederate House of Representatives, at which Miles, of South Carolina; Humphrey Marshall, of Kentucky; Henry S. Foote, of Mississippi; Charles W. Russell, of Virginia, and such men sat, were sold at auction, recently, and brought from twenty-five to fifty cents each. They were little black painted tables, of the plainest kind, about eighteen by twenty-four inches on top, and covered with cheap blue cloth.

A few evenings ago, at Akron village, Ohio, Mr. Aaron Thompson, while riding in a buggy with a young lady as a companion, deliberately shot himself. He was intoxicated at the time, and his companion, thinking the firing one of his freaks, drove some distance before discovering the awful truth.

On the tombstone over the graves of a husband and wife, are the following lines:

"Within this grave do lie,
Back to back, my wife and I,
When the last trump the air shall fill,
If she gets up, I'll just lie still."

A letter from Scranton, Pa., says that the strike along the whole Lackawanna Valley is at an end, and that the miners resumed their labors on Wednesday, the 27th inst. It is anticipated that about two thousand tons per month will now be added to the coal supply.

The frame of the pilgrim sloop Sparrow Hawk, says the Boston Evening Traveller of Monday, after lying buried in the sands of Cape Cod 239 years, has been brought to that city in wonderful preservation, and is now on exhibition on the common.

The Postmaster General is now engaged in examining the accounts of those who were postmasters in the States late in rebellion previous to the war, for the purpose of instituting suits against those found to be indebted to the Department.

The latest definition of love is—"A prodigal desire on the part of a young man to pay for some young woman's board."

The World in a Nut-Shell.

A new mode of locomotion has lately been introduced in Nantes. The omnibusses are no longer moved by horses, but by steam, and along the ordinary carriage roads without rails.

Gen. Bristow, commanding at Lynchburg, has been brought to Washington under arrest, charged with stealing $60,000 of Government funds. He was caught with all the money on his person.

It is understood that orders will be issued in a few days to disband the Veteran Reserve Corps. The Regular Army is now sufficiently recruited to take the place of the corps.

No more of the old pattern of 50 cent currency will be issued. A new pattern has been adopted. This course has been caused by extensive counterfeiting.

Robert E. Lee has begun his duties as President of Washington College, at Lexington, Va.

Twelve hundred thousand dollars worth of shoes were manufactured at Lynn, Mass., during the month of August last.

About two o'clock on Friday morning an incendiary attempted to destroy the Spottwood Hotel, one of the handsomest structures in Richmond, by setting on fire a large quantity of rubbish, etc., in the basement, immediately under the billiard-room. The smoke was first discovered by the night clerk, who gave the alarm. But little damage was done.

Instead of buying cattle, the Government is now offering 1750 head for sale.

General Howard estimates that 10,000 freedmen have learned to read and write since the war ended.

The butter dealers in Harrisburg were lectured the other day by the Mayor on their continuation to extort exorbitant prices, and warned that persistence in that course would involve them in difficulty with the authorities.

Thomas Bellig, a respectable resident of Jersey City, was killed by his drunken wife on Friday night.

On Friday night Fred. Douglas, the escaped slave from Baltimore, delivered an address in that city at the Douglas Institute, a new educational establishment for the colored people.

The government of Maximilian has made a grant of 25,000 acres of good land to an American company, hailing from Texas, on condition that an agricultural colony of 1000 persons is formed on the land within a given time.

Catania, a seaport, and one of the finest cities in Sicily, which has been several times desolated by earthquakes and eruptions of Etna, had recently again upwards of 160 houses destroyed by a severe shock of earthquake.

A young lady, connected with the Presbyterian church at the corner of Atlantic and Bond streets, Brooklyn, was locked up in the building from Sunday morning till Monday night, by a mistake of the Sexton "who thought everybody was out." When found she was nearly starved to death.

Spring Brook estate, situated near Holmesburg, and having a front on the Delaware, formerly belonging to Mr. Caleb Cope, and latterly to Mr. George H. Stuart, was sold on Wednesday last to Mr. Edwin Forrest, at the very low figure of $76,000. It is fully worth $100,000, but was sold in 1857, for $70,000. It requires, however, a heavy income to keep it up.

The Agricultural department has just received a large quantity of superior wheat, both white and red from the Mediterranean. It is now ready for distribution.

Herschel V. Johnson has made a written apology to Gen. Geary for the traitorous language which provoked that soldier's reprimand at one of the Washington hotels not long since.

The Presbytery of Newark, N. J., has formally denounced the practice of horse racing, especially in connection with fairs and agricultural exhibitions.

The Chicago Times records the death of W. S. McCormick, of the great firm of McCormick & Co., reapers. He was a native of Virginia.

The Richmond (Va.) Commercial Bulletin has been suppressed by General Terry, for an article grossly reflecting upon the etiquette of the White House and President Johnson's visitors.

The printers of Denver city presented Hon. Schuyler Colfax with a gold composition rule, on his recent visit to that city, he being one of the "craft."

A schoolmistress in St. Louis was fined last week twenty dollars and costs, amounting in all to fifty dollars, for cruelty towards one of her scholars, a little boy. She whipped him until the blood ran down his back.

The managers of the New York places of amusement, with the exception of four minor ones, have held a meeting and resolved to withdraw all patronage from the New York Herald.

The guns, pistols, &c., taken from the citizens of New Orleans, under General Butler's orders, are being returned to their owners.

The treasure captured among Jeff. Davis' effects by Maj. Gen. Wilson's forces, in Georgia, and brought to Washington, by Mr. Twombly, of the Redemption Bureau of the Treasury, has been counted at the cashier's room of the Treasury. It amounts to eighty-seven thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight dollars, in gold, mostly old coinage; eight thousand eight hundred and twenty-two dollars, in silver; one hundred and forty-six pieces of foreign coin, gold and silver, value not yet estimated, and fifty-six bricks of silver, weighing over five pounds each, the estimated value of which is one hundred dollars each; the value of the whole being somewhat over one hundred thousand dollars. Some of this money and bullion is claimed by the Bank of Virginia, the Exchange Bank of Virginia, and the Farmer's Bank of Virginia, as being a portion of their funds carried off at the time of the evacuation of Richmond. No decision has yet been made by the Department on the claims that have been made for it.

A shipload of about seven hundred girls, between sixteen and twenty years of age, sailed from New York, last week, in a government vessel, for Washington territory, on the Pacific, where they propose to settle. They go out under the auspices of the territorial authorities. They are mostly the daughters and other dependents of deceased soldiers from New England. Some females have gone out before, and found profitable employment and pleasant homes there. The males on the Pacific are greatly in excess of females, while the contrary is the case in New England. This enterprise seems to be designed to equalize the sexes in the respective localities.

William L. Yancey, who did as much to precipitate the rebellion as any other man living, in 1860 and 1861, it is now clearly ascertained, came to a violent death in the rebel senate chamber, at the hands of Benjamin Hill, a Senator in the rebel congress, from Georgia. Yancey, from being the most virulent rebel, turned with Foote, to be conservative, whereupon sharp words occurred between Yancey and Hill, the latter giving the former the lie, who, in making an attack upon him, was thrown back with such force as to injure his spine fatally. Yancey lingered several weeks, being almost constantly in convulsions, when he died at his residence in Mississippi.

Maj. Gen. Couch has been nominated by the Copperheads of Massachusetts as a candidate for Governor. If Couch runs as well in Massachusetts as he did in the Cumberland Valley, he will reflect as much credit on treason sympathy in that State as he did disgrace on loyal valor in this Commonwealth. It is maintained that the chief merit of Couch, in the eyes of his eastern copperhead supporters, will be the fact that he abandoned Chambersburg to the fire and fury of the rebels.

Gen. Connor's Powder River Indian Expedition has returned to Fort Laramie. He fought four pitched battles with the red skins, losing 24 killed and two wounded; and inflicting a loss on them from 400 to 500 killed, besides utterly destroying an entire village, and running off 500 head of cattle. Although considerably cowed he considers them only half whipped, and the maintenance of a strong military guard necessary.

Dr. Mudd, one of the convicted assassins of the late President of the United States, attempted to escape from the Dry Tortugas, one day last week, on the steamer Scott, touching there on its way to New York. He was found secreted in a coal bunker, took back to his quarters, and set to wheeling sand. A quartermaster on board the steamer was arrested for assisting in the assassin's escape.

A fresh supply of Coe's Cough Balsam—the great remedy for coughs, colds, whooping cough, croup, and all lung complaints—is received and for sale at our drug stores. Coe's Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy ever discovered that will surely and permanently cure dyspepsia, indigestion, sick-headache, and enable dyspeptics to eat hearty food without fear of distress, can be obtained at all our drug stores.

Mr. A. T. Stewart, the rich dry goods merchant, is building a house in the Fifth Avenue, New York, which is to cost $800,000. In order to clear the site, he tore down the famous mansion which Sarsaparilla Townsend built some ten years previous at a cost of about $200,000. Mr. Stewart is married, but has no children.

A lady came into the Mayor's court at Norfolk, Virginia, and exhibited the claw of a young cat which she had extracted from sausages purchased of a colored man who sells meat, &c., in the market. The Mayor referred the case to the military authorities.

At Concord, Mass., on Monday, while the cashier of the National Bank of that village was at dinner, some sharp thief stole from the bank $300,000 in government bonds and currency.

Men scratch their heads for ideas. Hence speakers are generally bald.

LEARN A TRADE.—The best advice we can possibly give to young folks of either sex is to learn a trade. No matter whether you are rich or poor, learn a trade. You may encounter hardships and difficulties, but learn a trade. Your parents keep you now, but you will have at some future period to keep yourself, should you live, and recollect he or she who has no trade or occupation lives by chance. The best legacy parents can leave their children is a knowledge of how to support themselves honorably. This cannot be done so well without as with a trade. Young people should not neglect this advice. Dr. Franklin says that people who set out to live by their wits often break for want of stock.—Then don't turn up your nose at a trade—at any honorable occupation—but rather be proud of it. Let the boys learn trades, and let the girls learn trades too. There are many ups and downs in life, and one who is rich to-day may be poor to-morrow. Remember this, and learn a trade.

WHEN IS A MAN DRUNK?—A witness in a New York police court, last week, gave his views on this subject in reply to the questions of a counsel in the pending case as follows:—

Lawyer.—Was Mr. Graham drunk?
Witness (metaphysically).—Well, I'll tell you. I don't think he was drunk, because it is pretty hard to tell when a man really is drunk.

L.—Then you have got enlarged ideas on the subject of drunk?

W.—Yes, sir. I call a man sober as long as he can walk straight, and not stagger.

L.—As long as he don't fall into the gutter?

W.—Yes, sir,—and don't catch hold of the grass to keep himself from rolling over.

To make peaches grow without stone, an agriculturist who has tried it with success says:—"Turn the top of the tree down, cut off the ends, stick them into the ground, and fasten so with stakes." In a year or two the tops will take root, and when well rooted, cut the branches connecting the reversed and rooted branches with the tree proper, and this reversed peach tree will produce fine peaches without stones." The same experiment may be tried with plums, cherries, and currants.

A man passing through a gateway in the dark, hit his nose against the post. "I wish that post was in—ll," said he. "Better wish it somewhere else," said a bystander. "You might run against it again!"

To kill ants hit your uncle's wife on the head with a hammer.

Special Notices.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.
Read E. D. E. N. Southworth's Letter.
Prospect College, Georgetown, D. C.,
April 2, 1865.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith:
Gentlemen.—It gives me pleasure to add my testimonial to those of others in favor of your excellent preparation.—Several years of residence on the banks of a Southern river, and of close application to literary work, had so thoroughly exhausted my nervous system and undermined my health, that I had become a martyr to dyspepsia and nervous headache, recurring at short intervals, and defying all known remedies in the Materia Medica. I had come to the conclusion that nothing but a total change of residence and pursuits would restore my health, when a friend recommended Hostetter's Bitters. I procured a bottle as an experiment; it required but one bottle to convince me that I had found at last the right combination of remedies. The relief it afforded me has been complete. It is now some years since I first tried Hostetter's Bitters, and it is but just to say that I have found the preparation all that it claims to be. It is a Standard Family Cordial with us, and even as a stimulant we like it better than anything else; but we use it in all nervous, bilious and dyspeptic cases, from fever down to toothache. If what I have now said will lead any dyspeptic or nervous invalid to a sure remedy, I shall have done some good.

I remain, gentlemen, respectfully yours,
E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH.
To CONSUMPTIVES.—The undersigned having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription, free of charge, with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Colds, Coughs, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings County, New York. [a&c3m]

TERIBLE DISCOVERIES.—SECRETS FOR THE MILLION!—A most valuable and wonderful publication. A work of 400 pages, and 200 colored Engravings. Dr. Hunter's "Vade Mecum," an original and popular treatise on Man and Woman's Physiology, Function, and Sexual disorders of every kind, with never-failing Remedies for their speedy cure. The practice of Dr. Hunter has long been, and still is, unbounded, but at the earnest solicitation of numerous persons, he has been induced to extend his medical usefulness through the medium of his "VADE MECUM." It is a volume that should be in the hands of every family in the land, as a preventive of secret vices, or as a guide for the alleviation of one of the most awful and destructive scourges ever visited mankind. One copy securely enveloped, will be forwarded free of postage to any part of the United States for 50 cents in P. O. stamps. Address, post paid, Dr. Hunter, No. 3 Division Street, New York.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE MARIETTIAN.
Dear Sir:—With your permission I wish to say to the readers of your paper that I will send, by return mail, to all who wish it, a recipe, with full directions for making and using a simple Vegetable Balm that will effectually remove, in ten days, Pimples, Blotches, Tan, Freckles, and all impurities of the skin, leaving the same soft, clear, smooth and beautiful. I will also mail free to those having Bald Heads, or Bare Faces, simple directions and information that will enable them to start a full growth of luxuriant Hair, Whiskers or a Moustache, in less than 30 days. All applications answered by return mail, without charge. Respectfully yours,
