The Local Mariettian.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1865.

The night school will open on Monday evening next, at the High School Building, free to such of the public as may see fit to attend. Just such a place of resort has been long neded in this community, where the young men, and older ones too, can need their time profitably, in acquiring elements of an English education. The School Board has engaged an ble corps of experienced teachers, who will do everything in their power to Clairst. nake the time profitable to those who tiend this night school- There is quite large number of persons, who are emsloyed in various ways, during the dayime, and cannot spare time, then, but now, have an opportunity to add to heir knowledge such branches of pracical utility, as will enable them to take higher stand in the living world. Forney's Press has been enlarged nd changed to the quarto, or eightage form, which is by far the most onvenient. The Press is, unquestion-My, one of the first papers in the Unied States, and its increasing advertisng patronage-which compelled its enargement-verifies this truth. The rice will remain the same, not withstanjing the enlargement. On the first of ext month the publication office will e removed to the spacious building low being arranged for it, at the corner Th & Chestout.

A most distressing accident ocurred on the Harrisburg and Lancaster ailroad, between Landisville and Dilleralle, on Saturday afternoon last, by the reaking of an axle. Eight persons were instantly killed, and one died an our or two afterwads; several others rere wounded. The accident is said to nave been one of those unavoidable ones which no human foresight could have oreseen.

The able address delivered by Prof. James P. Wickersham, of the State Normal School, Millersville, beore the Nation 1 Teachers' Associaon at Harrisburg on the 18th of Auust last, has been published in pamphetform in Boston. The subject of the diress is " Education as an Element the Reconstruction of the Union.' thas attracted much attention in all parts of the country for its its eloquence ad power, and in its present permanent orm must do much good.

Peterson's Magazine for November is on our table. The steel engravg "Protection" is very fine, whilst e fishion plate is beautiful. The book outsins quite a number of wood engravngs and interesting reading matter. Daly two dollars a year, payable in admce. Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestutst, Philadelphia:

& Miss Harriet Lane, niece of exresident Buchanan, will be married ortly to Henry E. Johnson, a wealthy bucker of Baltimore. Johnson was one the political marters of Fort Warren, a the early part of the war, for running he blockade to Richmond, out of which legal trufic he made a large fortune.

We learn that Robert Carroll, jr. of this borough, has had the appointment of a mail agency on the Goldsboro' and Charlotte (North Carolina) railoal, made vacant by the resignation of Major John F. Trout. Young Carroll ras all through the late war and deserred the appointment.

WII. L. & E. J. Zahm, Jewellers ancaster, have purchased the corner Prosite their present location, for $16,io, and will remove their extensive welry establishment there next spring.

Shultz & Bro., Hatters, opposite lichael's hotel. Lancaster, have purhased that property for ten thousand pollars. Property is looking up in ancaster.

😝 James Buchanan's Book has been Printed, and road by a number of his riends in this State, and is pronounced a very fair literary performance.

Major J. F. Trout has resigned is mail agency and been appointed to clerkship in the Internal Revenue

Jepartment, at Washington. Mr. Shultz's sale of personal efects will take place at his residence, on

WALL BRUSHES,

WALL BRUSHES,
A new article in this market, and far superior to any other in use. A few reasons why:

First.—They are free from twine, which is affected by the lime, and liable to rot, causing the falling out of the bristles.

Second.—The bristles are inserted in the wood, or body of the brush, when green, which when dry, causes them to be held firmly in their place; any subsequent soaking or shrinkage-fails to affect them.

Third.—They are made of Bristles exclusively; many kinds being composed, in part, of whalebone.

Fourth.—They contain more bristles for the size, and are as cheep as the ordinary kind Sold-exclusively by JOHN SPANGLER, AT HIS HARDWARE STORE,
