Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Fancy Goods, in 'our advertising columns.' We are personally acquainted with the members of this firm and know, them to be gentlemen of stelling worth and integrity. Their stock of goods, for variety and extent we have scarcely seen paralleled. From the "Mirror of Fashion," March 1: 1865 Messrs. Devaugh & Co.'s Great Sale of Jewelry, etc., opened on the 15th uit; and we venture to sey that no finer display of goods was ever exhibited by any establishment in this city. The ladies thronged their bazaar almost to suffication, although the streets were rendered nearly impassable by the melted sno v and slösh. We predict for them a wonderful succeas. derful succeas.

From the "Ledger," Ecbruary 28, 1865.
Our lady friends should visit the extensive catablishment of Mössra. Devaugh & Co.'s No. 15, Maiden Lane, if they wish to induge themselves with a sight which they will long remember. Such a profusion of elegant Watches, Chains, Rings, Earrings, and, in short, of Jewelry of every name, kind and description, we never before witnessed. Their cilver and plated ware is superb and almost lasts into the shade the other splendid establishments which have long been the boast of our city. It is estimated that their stock is worth not less than one million of dollars.

WALL BRUSHES,

A new article in this market, and far superior to any other in use. A few reasons why:

First.—They are free from twine, which is affected by the lime, and liable to rot, causing the falling out of the bristles.

Second.—The bristles are inserted in the wood, or body of the brush, when green, which when dry, causes them to be held firmly in their place; any subsequent soaking or shrinkage fails to affect them.

Third.—They are made of Bristles exclusive.

Third.—They are made of Bristles exclusive-ly; many kinds being composed, in part, of whalebone. whalebone.
