Dr. Henry Landis has purchased the handsome three-storied residence and drug ctore building, belonging to Dr. Grove, for $6000, and is permanent. ly located at the "Golden Mortar." Dr. Grove, we understand, is about to locate in Philadelphia. Mr. Theodore Thompson has purchased, at private sale, from Mr. Patterson, the Ann Boggs residence in Market square, for $2,700. Mr. Hiram D. Benjamin has purchased from the Kready estate for $1500, the corner property fronting on Front street and Elbow Lane, and designs putting three or four stores on it. This property has long needed an enterprising owner.

Headley's History of the Rebellion will be issued in March next. This will, unquestionably, be one of the most readable and reliable histories of the schellion. Mr. Headley's reputation as s military writer has long since been esablished-his "Napoleon and his Marshal," or "Washington and his General," either would have established it. The book will be gotten-up in fine style and sold by subscription only, but subscribers will not be obliged to take it unless it corresponds with the description in every particular. The engravings will be of the finest order and engraved expressly for the work. There will also be a German edition. The cost of the book will be $5. See advertisement in another column.

The twentieth anniversary of licnegal Lodge, I. O. of O. F., was celebrated in their hall, in this borough, on Saturday evening last. We under stand there was quite a respectable turnout, consisting of ladies, members and citizens. An address was delivered by P. G. E. D. Rearn, and a letter from P. G. A. B. GROSH read. The address and letter came too late for this week's issue, but will appear in our next.

Capt. Cyrus S. Haldeman, Assistat Adjutant General, has been appointed Major, by brevet, for meritorious services during the war, to date from March last. LANCASTER, DECEMBER 26TH, 1865. COL. F. L. BAKER.

Dear Sir .-I have just received the sad intelligence of the death of my brother Jacob. As he was born in Marietta, and lived gually given to tenants on the first day there for a number of years, this notice of his death may be of some interest to his relatives and friends who still reside there. He left Marietta in the autumn of 1841, and, with the exception of about six months, has been a resident of the States of Kentncky and Missouri, from > that time until the present. He married Miss Ellen Carson, of Lexington, Kentucky, in the autumn of 1847, and removed to Lexington, Missouri, in the spring of 1848, where he has ever since resided, and where he died on the 16th of the present month at "twenty minutes past eleven o'clock A. M., in the forty-fourth year of his

> With the exception of about one year, during the darkest period of the late rebellion, and when postal communication with that peculiarly afflicted portion of the country had been entirely suspended, we kept up a constant correspondence; and therefore I was regularly advised of the experiences and sufferings, of various kinds, which he had undergone, during the last five or six years of his life. He died of consumption, that fell disease. which has proved so fatal to those members of our family who have inherited the constitutional tendencies of my mother But hefore his own death he saw his children and his wife, one after another, all sink prematurely into their graves. by modifications of the same disease, and, add to this, the apparent destruction of his pecuniary prospects upon this earth, by the desolations of war-leaving him alone like a blighted tree at a peried when he should have been in the prime of life, but instead thereof, enfeebled by physical disease and mental depression. His former partner in business, writes me briefly, but promises details in a future communication. "Before he died he was entirely sensibletold his friends he suffered from a pain in his right lung, but did not speak of dying. He appeared like one sleeping, and died without a struggle. Many of his friends attended his funeral, and he was buried in "Macphala Cemetary" by the side of his wife and children."

In matters of religious profession he made no pretensions whatever, but those who seemed to know him best, considered him bonest and conscientious to a fault; for upon these grounds he was constantly standing in the light of his own pecuniary interests. If he was 'rich toward God," the mere sacrifice of worldly wealth will be no hinderance to his progress in the eternal world; and there, in the keeping of Him who causeth his sun to shine, and his rains to descend upon the evil and the good, we mortals must leave him.

Death is always a serious and a sad event, although it is not necessarily a said to have been exhibited than upon terrible one. There are no terms conof former Kriss Kinkle day within the nected with it, except those which we ourselves have written upon the various pages of our "Book of life;" that Book out of which all men will respectively be judged. The great question is, do we think of, and live this truth sufficiently? Do we remember that we are al ways writing something upon its pages -either good or bad? It is in vain that we pretend the leaves are all blank, if no good is written thereon. Eternal activity is the immutable law of a healthy mind, and if its activities are not progressive, then they are retrogressive, for there is no neutral ground upon the moral plane. But there is a use in death, independent of its means as a transit of a "weary heavy/laden soul" to the realms of rest. It is another milestone in the moral and spiritual way of the living, warning them that filler, of this borough, was ron over by they themselves are one more step near-S. S. R.

Only two survivors, of all those who participated in the war of the Revolution, so far as known by the Commissioner of Pensions, remain alive, namely: Wm. HEADLEY'S HISTORY OF THE GREAT REBELLION!

THE late rebellion stands out peculiar and extraordinary in human events; and the magnificent scale upon which the war has been conducted, constitute it one of the grandest and most brilliant chapters of the world's ristory.

Mr. Headley, of all writers, is perhaps best qualified to portray the the stupendous feat ures of the mighty contest. His previou works on less momentous themes have placed him in the first position, as a graphic and pow-erful deleniator of war scenes and characters, and the magnitude and grandeur of the present subject, impart to his pen the fire and vi-gor of a yet more exacted inspiration, and fur ish ample scope for the highest exhibition of his peculiar genius for military description.
Under his powerful pen the stirring scenes of the War pass in review with the vividness and distinctness of a present and living reality; while his great talent for condensation ena-bles him to embody everything of importance in a compass just suited to the public want From no other source can so clear and com-prehensive an impression of the grand march of events be obtained, so easily and agreeably as from Mr. Headley's work.

Grant's Report and other official document were submitted to the government, and there-fore unreliable. 3:r. Headley has delayed the completion of this till those documents so esential to authenticity and correctness could

These Pills, so celebrated many years ago in Paris, for the relief of female irregularities, and afterwards so notorious for their criminal employment in the practice of abortion, are now offered for sale for the first time in America. They have been kept in comparative ob scurity from the fact that the originator, Dr. VALPAU, is a Physician in Paris, of great wealth and strict conscientious principles, and has withheld them from general use, lest they should be employed for unlawful purposes. In overcoming female obstructions they o be truly omnipitent, bursting open the flood gates from whatever cause may have stopped them; but they are offered to the public only for legitimate uses, and all agents are forbid-den to sell them when it is understood that the object is unlawful. For sale by Dr. F. Hinkle, Marietta; P. A.

Pyle, Mountjoy; H. D. Parry and R. Wil-liams, Columbia, and druggists generally. Ladies can procure a bex, sealed from the eyes of the curious, by enclosing $1 and six postage stamps to O. G. STAPLES, General Agent for us, Watertown, New-York, or to any of the above agents. [no.25-1y

Blue Mass, and other preparations of Mercury, actually produce more suffering and death than the diseases which they profess to cure. And yet this corrosive mineral so denounced by the allopathic doctors, is prescribed by them almost universally in Liver Complaint, Consumption of Lungs, &c.

THE MANDRAKE PILLS are composed entitely of roots and herbs, obtained from the great storehouse of Nature, and their salutary effects will appear as soon as the medicine is brought to the test of a fair experiment. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS do not produce at y nausea or sickness of the stomach; but when given for Dyspepsia, it may be proper to use them in connection with SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC. By this judicious treatment the digestive faculties are speedily restored to their full vigor, and the worst cases of indigestion may be cured. When we reflect that the liver is the largest internal organ of the body, that to it is assigned the important duty of filtering the blood and preparing the bile, that it is subject to many disorders, and that when it is diseased or inactive the whole body suffers sympathet. ically, it is not surprising that a medicine which can restore the healthy operations of the Liver should produce wonderful changes in the general health, and effect cures which may appear to be almost miraculous. Headache of long continuance, severe pains in the side, breast and shoulders, aching of the limbs, a feeling of general weakness and wretchedness, and other alarming and distressing sympto us, indicative of imperfect or disordered action of the liver, are speedily removed by the use of SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.

Costiveness, piles, bitter or sour eructations, and that indescribable feeling of oppression? mental anxiety, languor, lethargy, and depression of spirits, which unfit a man for the management of business and the enjoyment of life, are all relieved by the use of SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.

Dr. Schenck .- Dear ir : I take pleasure in sending you a certificate in addition to many you have already received from suffering humanity. I can scarcely find language sufficiently strong to express my heartfelt gratification of the wonderful cures your MANDRAKE PILLS and SEAWEED TON-IC have effected in the entire cure of one of the most stubborn cases of the affection of the liver. For three years I suffered beyond description; all my friends, as well as myself. came to the conclusion that my time in this life was short. Such was the terrible condition to which I was reduced that life to me had become a burthen; my whole system was in a state of inflammation; I could not eat, I could not sicep; my whole body was filled with pain; swelling would arise in my wrists and ankles, rendering them totally uscless. On several occasions I was attacked with a rush of blood to the head which would fell. rush of blood to the head, which would fell me to the ground, and I would be carried away for dead. I applied to several eminent physicians of our city, who administered all the medicines that they thought would reach ny case, but of no avail.

One of them said he could do no more for me, and advised me, as a last resort, to drink cod liver oil. Not relishing the horrid trash I cod liver oil. Not reliabiling the horrid trash I declined to take it. Accident put your advertisement in my hands. I called on you; you examined me and told me the nature of my disease. You then ordered me she Pills and disease. You then ordered me the Pills and Tonic with an observance of diet, pledging your word that in one week I would find myself another man. I followed your advice, and, as you predicted, an astonishing cure was effected. I continued your Pills and Tonic for some time, and now thank God for his goodness, and your invaluable medicine, I am once more restored to perfect health. am once more restored to perfect health. I most earnestly recommend those who are suffering from affection of the liver to give your Pills and Tonic a isir trial, and a cure will be effected. I have sent many persons to you, and they have all been cured. Any information my fellow-citizens may require will be freely given by the subscriber, at his residence, No. 812 Federal street, between 8 a street and Passyunk road.
