MARIETTA, PA:

Saturday Morning, January 6, 1866.

The Legislature adjourned on Wednesday morning, not to meet egain until next Wednesday, and with the tacit understanding that after a two or three days' session they will again adiourn for a brief period. It is confidently expected that by that time Governor Curtin will have returned, fully restored to health. His message, transmitted to the Senate and House of Representatives although brief, gives in very forcible language the reasons which compelled him to absent himself from the Executive Department.

The Reading Railroad Company it is stated, contemplate placing four tracks on their road-two for passengers and two for freight. They have now three tracks over a good portion of the road. The company have recently made valuable purchases of property at Bridgeport, opposite Norristown, at ting large passenger and freight depote, at these points.

The people of several counties in Illinois are using corn for fuel. Corn costs 10 cents per bushel, and seventy bushels make a cord; the cost of a cord is therefore $7. A cord of wood, with the sawing of it, costs $9.50, so that be a blessing if some of the eastern poor could be furnished with food from western woodniles.

A merchant in Pittsburg, by the name of Shaw stands charged with having caused the abduction of his wife and her confinement in a lunatic asylum, on the plea that she was insane and dangerous. By some means he obtained the certificates of two physicians to that effect, and a few days since had the police seize her, and despite the heartrending cries of the helpless woman che was forced into the street cars and burried to the asylum.

Garibaldi has offered his services: to the authorities of Naples to uurse the cholera patients, in the hospitals, but the Syndic of the city would not permit him thus to expose himself to danger. No act of Garibaldi's in the height of meal. He found that his companions his military fame, is nobler than this, at table had each one seized a pigron, Garibaldi offering to nurse the sick of and being disappointed at not getting Naples is grander than Garibaldi enter- one himself, he grabbed the turkey and ng the city in triumph by the side, of Victor Emanuel the king.

The Mexican Republic is not without money, for one day last week the sum of two millions of dollars in silver, coined at El Paso, was deposited in a Washington bank, to the credit of the Jaurez Government. This is not a large sum, it is true, but it is evidence of vitality, quite equal to anything Maximilian can show, and will do something to keep alive the hope that better days are in store for the Republic.

Mary Smith, a colored servant at the Lindell Hotel, St. Louis, has been committed to jail to answer the charge preferred by a slady: boarder, that she, the said Smith, stole "one long braid of black hair of the value of $25, four pairs of crimped rolls of the value of $8, two 50, four pieces of crimped hair of the and worn by the complainant.

FREDERICE DOUGLAS .- Speaking of Bedford Standard says: "Twenty-seven years ago a fugitive from Southern bondtained employment in a foundry, and while blowing the bellows his eyes were fixed on the newspaper slip stuck up before him, from which he was striving to obtain knowledge. After toiling here for a few years, encouraged by a few who recognized in him the capacity of being more than a mere day laborer, he went to other and higher fields of toil. Two evenings ago that fugitive slave lectured before our Lyceum to the largest audience of the season, listened to attentively by an audience composed of the best class of our citizens. The next morning he breakfasted with the gentleman who paid the first nine-pence he carned twenty-seven years previously.

Mr. Southern, of Dubuque, Iowa, lately brought an action against Mr. Overpeck, for seducing his wife, and recovered $7000 damages. This is the way the thing is done in England: instead of challenging the seducer and thus give him an equal chance to take your life as you have to take his, the law is resorted to for damages, and always with success where the seducer has money and the case is made out.

General Early, whom Sheridan thrashed so splendid in the Shenaudoah valley, is now in Havana, en route for Mexico. He writes to the New-York Conshohocken, Pottstown, and other News that he has never asked for a parway stations, with the intention of erec. | don from President Johnson, nor would he accept one, even without restrictions, if it were tendered him. He does not regret his past course, nor would he submit to "the foreign yoke now imposed upon his country." A poor devil and a

ABOUT REBELS &c .- John C. Breckthis well-known colored orator, the New | inridge, Gen. McCausland, Harry Gill, mor, and several other rebels, are now in Toronto. Gen. Joseph E. Johnston age found his way to this city. He ob- and Gen. Sherman recently had a friendly interview at Memphis. Gens. Scott and Longstreet met last week at New Orleans. Maj. Gen. Thomas, who is chief in command of Alabama, Mississippi, &c., was at Montgomery two weeks ago, but the Legislature then in session took no notice of him. While Gen. Thomas was still there, the rebel Gen. Hampton arrived, when a committee of the Legislature waited on him and invited him to take a seat in the Legislature, which he did, the whole body rising, and the Speaker welcoming him! This is reconstruction with a vengeance-l-But some people say it is just as well to let them blow off their steam in this way-it hurts nobody.

> There are some husbands elsewhere than in Indiana, whose tack of acquaintance, with their families would make them fit subjects for such a joke as the following, narrated by the New Al bany; Ledger: One of the merry, wives of Bloomington. Indiana, played a practical joke on her husband, by having the babe, a sweet little infant of six months, done up in a basket and left on the front door steps, with a note informing him that he was the father of the child and must support it. The indignant husband swore roundly that it was not his, but finally saw the joke when he found the cradle empty. He has concluded to cultivate the acquaintance of his family hereafter.

> Mary Sawyer, a young lady of Oldtown, Me., was drowned a few days ago, in a melancholy way. She had been visiting across the river, and started to go home in company with a young man on skates who drew her on a sled, but skated in a hole and drew her after him., He got on the ice and gave his hand to the young lady to help her out, when his glove came off and, she was carried under the ice and drowned.

> A young lady of Westborough, N. H., was married on Thankegiving Day, to a returned soldier, whom she had never seen till within a few days, the courtship having been conducted by letter. On the following morning the young bride donned her cloak and bonnet, and, evading her husband's questions as to her intentions, left for parts unknown.

Is HEALTH WORTH HAVING? If it is, protect it. It is a jewel'as easily lost as Virtue, and in some cases as difficult to recover. Nature, in our climate, and especially at this season, requires to be occasionally reinforced. But everything depends upon the tonic used for this purpose. The medicinal tinctures, all of which are based on common alcohol, are dangerous. Quinine, as everybody finds out who takes much of it, is a slow poison. One. safe protective from all unhealthy atmospheric influences exists, an tone only. This powerful preventive is Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, a compound of the purest stimulant ever manufactured, with the most effective tonics. alteratives, regulators, and depurators that chemistry has yet extracted from the botanical king om. Convalescents, languid and feeble from recent sickness, will find the Bitters an incomparable Restorative, not disagreeable to the taste, and eminently invigorating. No other stimulant produces the same effect as this Stomachie. It does not excite or flutter the nerves, or occasion any undue arterial action; but at once soothes and strengthens the nervous system and the male Remedy for Irregularities .- These Drops are a scientifically compounded fluid preparation, and better than any Pills, Powders or Nostrums. Being liquid, their action is direct and positive, rendering them a reliable, speedy and certain specific for the cure of all obstructions and suppressions of nature. Their popularity is indicated by the fact that over 100,000 bottles are annually sold and consumed by the ladies of the United States, every one of whom speak in the strongest terms of praise of their good merits. They are rapidly taking the place of every other Female Remedy, and are considered by all who know aught of them, as the surest, safest and most infallible preparation in the world, for the cure of all female complaints, the removal of all obstructions of nature, and the promotion of health, regularity and strength. Explicit directions stating when they may be used, and explaining when they should not, nor could not be used without producing effects contrary to nature's chosen laws, will be found care fully folded around each bottle, with the written signature of John L. Lyon, without which none are genuine.

Kings County, New-York. The January thaw is a "capital instituion" for producing colds, coughs and kindred ailments-much worse than severe cold weather, and we advise our readers, particularly those predisposed to any pulmonary weakness, to see to it that they are well shod, and allow no change of clothing. If any one is so unfortunate as to contract a cold, cough, hoarseness or other pulmonary disorder, we know of nothing so efficient as Coe's Cough Balsam. Our advice is, take little and often. To those, who have been living on the fat of the land through the holidays, and have got their stomachs out of order, we would prescribe COE'S Dyspepsia Cure; it has eured some very bad cases of Dyspensia.
