

The Local Mariettian.

Saturday Morning, March 3, 1886.

The exhibition of the Marietta Academy, on Saturday evening last, was a bumper; the house was literally crammed—quite a number could not get inside the hall door, ourself amongst the number. We have heard a great deal of complaint about the conduct of some of the boys. We would like to know what Constable Emswiler was there for, if not preserve order.

The "Marietta Athenaeum" are now having the rooms formerly occupied by the American Mechanics, in the St. John Building, opposite the Cross Keys, arranged for their association and will soon take possession. The officers for 1886 are as follows: President, W. H. Eagle; Vice President, James Mahaffey; Secretary, Geo. H. Etlla; Treasurer, Amos Bowman; Directors, Samuel Musselman, S. O. Hiestand, H. Landis, M. D. A. Fuller Crane, S. Frank Eagle, J. G. Horner.

A committee of Merchant Tailors from Lancaster, headed by Prof. Simon S. Rathvon, waited on the President one day last week, seeking some redress from what they regard as unequal taxation on manufactured goods. It is said the President received them very courteously, remarking, amongst other things, that he himself had once been a tailor. A Washington paper says that within the past four months the President has replied to no less than fifteen delegations, to all of which he said he had once been poor and was a tailor. By this time this should be an historical fact.

The annual election of directors for the Columbia Insurance Company, was held at the office of the company, on the 5th ult. The board for the present year is composed of the following persons: Samuel Shock, Robt. T. Bryon, N. McDonald, S. O. Slaymaker, Wm. Patton, M. S. Shuman, H. G. Mielich, S. F. Eberlein, Edmund Sperger, Amos S. Green, Geo. Young, Jr., J. W. Steacy and John Fendrich.

Messrs. Henry S. Libhart and Abram Cassel, under the firm name of Libhart & Cassel, have got under way with their ploughing, grooving and rearing mill. They have altered the old brick warehouse, nearly opposite the White Swan hotel—between the canal and the river—and placed their machinery therein, and we learn are now at work.

Rev. Mr. Cromlish will lecture before the open Temperance organization, on Monday evening next. The lecture was postponed on Monday evening last, in consequence of Dr. Jewett's lecture on the same subject, the evening previous.

Mrs. Roth has just received a lot of those "exquisite" hair roots. Call and see her collection of "nice things" for the tender sex. No necessity now for going for anything in her line to the city.

Rev. Mr. Clawges' summer school will commence on Monday next. Mr. C.'s interest in the proper rearing of children and his qualifications as a teacher, should insure him a full school.

Rev. Mr. Clawges will preach a sermon on the "Death of Eli, the High Priest," in the Methodist Church, on tomorrow (Sunday) evening. Parents are specially invited to attend.

If you want a cheap and safe lamp, call at Dr. Hinkle's and examine the different styles of the new patent safety lamp. Call at once and satisfy yourself.

Don Juan Wallings has taken possession of the Perry House. We have no doubt Don Juan will make an obliging landlord. He has fine draught Porter and Stock Ale.

A most terrible explosion took place at Meilley's furnace, Middletown, on Monday last, by which five persons were instantly killed and six or eight dreadfully wounded; loss $50,000.

The Marietta Literary society continues to meet in the High School building, every Thursday evening. The public is invited.

Special attention of merchants and others is invited to card, in this issue, of Howell & Bourke, Manufacturers of Wall papers, etc., etc.

The Hutchinson family gave an excellent concert, in the town hall, on Friday evening, to a large audience.

Dr. Jewett, the great Temperance lecturer, delivered a lecture in the M. E. Church, on Sunday evening last.

Messrs. Bowers & Steacy make their "first bow" to our readers, this week.

Read Mrs. John B. Morris' oard in another column.

The Sasquehanna is entirely clear of ice.

NOTICE.—All persons knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned will please call and settle before the first day of April.

HEADLEY'S
HISTORY OF THE GREAT REBELLION!

THE late rebellion stands out peculiar and extraordinary in human events; and the magnificent scale upon which the war has been conducted, constitute it one of the grandest and most brilliant chapters of the world's history.

Mr. Headley, of all writers, is perhaps best qualified to portray the stupendous features of the mighty contest. His previous works on less momentous themes have placed him in the first position, as a graphic and powerful delineator of war scenes and characters, and the magnitude and grandeur of the present subject, impart to his pen the fire and vigor of a yet more exacted inspiration, and furnish ample scope for the highest exhibition of his peculiar genius for military description.

Under his powerful pen the stirring scenes of the War pass in review with the vividness and distinctness of a present and living reality; while his great talent for condensation enables him to embody everything of importance in a compass just suited to the public want. From no other source can so clear and comprehensive an impression of the grand march of events be obtained, so easily and agreeably as from Mr. Headley's work.

Other histories have been issued before Grant's Report and other official documents were submitted to the government, and therefore unreliable. Mr. Headley has delayed the completion of this till those documents so essential to authenticity and correctness could be obtained.

The second volume, completing this work, will be issued in March, 1886. Agents wanted to engage in its sale in every town and county in the United States. Liberal inducements offered. For particulars apply to our addresses.

GEO. W. WORRALL,
SURGEON DENTIST,
Market Street, adjoining Spangler & Rich's Store, on the second floor.

Where he is now prepared to wait on all who may feel disposed to pay a visit to his office, or to his branches carried on in all the most approved principles of Dental science. All operations on the mouth performed in a skillful and workmanlike manner—on fair principles and on very reasonable terms.

Having determined upon a permanent location at this place, would ask a continuation of the liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, for which he will render every possible satisfaction.
Either administered to proper persons.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Having had occasion for the use of a Dentist, I called on Dr. Worrall, who has succeeded in preparing for me an excellent and serviceable set—upper and lower. They are upon what is called "rubber base," and fit my mouth firmly and comfortably, and are almost as much use to me as were my natural teeth. My mouth having become considerably deformed in consequence of having gone a number of years without any teeth on one side of my jaw, but the Doctor remedied this defect, making the fit complete; whilst the working of the teeth are entirely satisfactory. I would cheerfully recommend any person in want of dental operations, to call on Dr. Worrall, having great confidence in his professional skill.
