

The Mariettian.

MARIETTA, PA.

Saturday Morning, April 7, 1866.

President Johnson has issued a proclamation declaring that the rebellion which heretofore existed in the States of Georgia, South Carolina, Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Mississippi and Florida is at an end, and is henceforth to be so regarded.

The Petersburg (Va.) Express has information direct from Toronto, Canada, that John O. Breckinridge is residing there.

Forney's Press says a club called the "National Johnson Club" has recently been organized at Washington.

Andrew Johnson is President. Bradley T. Johnson, a resident of Baltimore, was in the rebel army.

Cowan, who misrepresents the great State of Pennsylvania in the Senate, has not yet resigned.

Orders have been dispatched by the President, through the Secretary of War, for the release of ex-Senator Yulee, of Florida, now in confinement in one of the forts near Savannah.

By the death of Hon. Solomon Foot, the next Vermont Legislature will have the unusual responsibility of making three elections of United States Senators.

Connecticut, notwithstanding all that Addy Johnson and his copperhead postmaster could do, gave the gallant General Hawley a victory.

The President on Monday issued a proclamation declaring that the war in the Southern States is at an end, and that those States are entitled to all the rights and immunities of the other States.

George Berger, of the Harrisburg Telegraph, has been removed from the post office and General Knipe appointed in his stead.

The Ohio Senate, on Saturday, passed, by a vote of 20 against 9, the bill increasing the legal rate of interest from six to seven per cent.

Gen. Burnside was elected Governor of Rhode Island, on Wednesday last, by a handsome majority.

Hon. Hiestor Olymer, the Senator from Berks county, and Democratic candidate for Governor, has resigned his seat.

Governor Hawley has 850 majority in the vote for Governor of Connecticut.

A man in Springfield, Mass., thought he would play "a good joke on his wife" on the occasion of a masquerade ball.

Monday's Philadelphia Press says: "It was announced in one of the Sunday papers that President Johnson and Secretary Seward would arrive in Philadelphia during the morning, and that rooms had been provided for them at the Continental."

Mr. Sprague, of Rhode Island, is described in a Washington letter as "decidedly the dandy Senator."

John P. Stockton, Copperhead, of New Jersey, had forty votes out of eighty-one, in the joint convention of the Legislature of that State met to elect a U. S. Senator.

A recent attempt was made at Eliza Green, Ind., by a man named Jeremiah Albertson, to poison his wife.

Some of the Yankees are still at their old tricks. In New Brunswick, the authorities recently sought to encourage bear killing.

The body of Lowmiller, the man who murdered a maiden sister, some two years ago, at Level Corner, about Linden, Lycoming county, and it was thought at the time, made his escape out of the country.

The Westboro correspondent of the Worcester Spy writes: "An old lady Mrs. Ruggles, is now living in this town, at the venerable age of ninety-three years."

The statement printed some days ago that there was a plot to assassinate Gov. Brown, of Tennessee, was not, as many believed, a canard.

Recent rains have washed away the thin covering of earth from the bones of 12,000 Confederate dead on the fields of Shiloh and Corinth.

There is a dead lock in the New Jersey Legislature, and at present but little signs are perceptible of the difference being settled.

On Tuesday, Leavenworth, Kansas, held her municipal election. The entire Union ticket was successful.

Madame Juarez, wife of the Mexican President, is in Washington.

A touching incident is related of McKean Buchanan, the actor. He and his daughter were playing at Terre Haute, Ind., last week.

The State officials of Indiana are collecting for preservation in a permanent form, as a part of the history of the war, card photographs of all the officers of all the regiments that have been organized in Indiana during the late rebellion.

It is said that Queen Victoria has taken a great liking for a very good looking but ignoble Scotchman named Brown who was formerly a sort of out-of-door body servant to Prince Albert.

The American Statesman, a New York weekly family journal, has a gift and a blessing for every one.

How refreshing are the April showers, they nourish into life the opening buds, and renew all vegetation.

Barriet Pinckney, aged ninety years, a daughter of Gen. Charles Cotesworth Pinckney, of Revolutionary fame, died last week.

The ice bridge over the Niagara river, at the foot of the American falls, still remains intact.

Christian Berger, who murdered Miss Mary Watts in Germantown, on the 6th of January, and who was condemned to be hung on the 27th of April next, was found dead in his cell in the Philadelphia county prison a few days since.

The decline of prices is at present affecting the value of almost every article, except paper—printing paper.

The banks said to be affected by the failure of Culver, Penn & Co., of New York, are Oil City, Bank of Crawford county, Meadville, Venango Bank, Franklin, and the Petroleum Bank, Titusville.

The mansion of Pierre Soule, at New Orleans, has been restored to him by Gen. Howard.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis is on her way to Canada via Louisville.

The Detroit Post, a new Republican daily, will appear on the 26th inst.

The Shark in a Nut-Shell.

A negro woman of Weston, Lewis county, West Virginia, hatched a chicken by keeping the egg warm in her bosom.

General Lee's Arlington estate belongs to the government, having been purchased at a sale for the non payment of taxes.

David L. Yulee, who left his seat in Congress to go into the rebellion, and who some time since was arrested and consigned to Fort Pulaski, has been released on parole.

Nearly half a million dollars of certificates of indebtedness have been redeemed during the past month.

The young men recently nominated to the West Point Academy are notified to assemble there in June to be examined prior to admission.

During March over a million dollars of fractional currency was cancelled.

Another emeut has taken place between the colored soldiers and the citizens at Savannah, Georgia.

For the week ending March 31st, the redemption division of the Treasury department detected and branded over $300 in counterfeit fractional currency.

There is a band of Gypsies, numbering one hundred, settled near Boston. It is governed by a queen, who was chosen for seven years.

Measures for the reorganization of the Southern Associated Press were taken at a meeting recently held at Montgomery, Alabama.

Fort Leavenworth is to be abandoned as a Government post as soon as the cars on the Pacific Railroad are running to Fort Riley.

A lady who had read of the extensive manufacture of odometers, to tell how far a carriage has run, said she wished some Connecticut genius would invent an instrument to tell how far husbands had been in the evening when they just step down to the post office.

Earl Russell said recently in the British Parliament, that the Fenian movement arose out of the American war, and its chief object was robbery.

A mysterious poster in New York, consisting of a green ball on a white ground, has caused fearful agitation among the English detectives, who imagine that it symbolizes an immediate invasion of Canada.

The failure of Culver, Penn & Co., of New York, caused the suspension of thirteen banks in the Pennsylvania and Ohio oil regions.

A negro who had outraged and murdered a white child, was taken from jail at Paris, Kentucky, on the 27th ult., by the citizens and hanged.

Over twenty first-class residences in Boston, have been purchased by Southerners, who say they come North to invest fortunes made during the war.

The National Republican of Washington will be issued as a morning paper after this week, and will, it is said, be the Administration organ.

Two children have been poisoned in Chicago, by chewing a card photograph.

The Post Office Department at Washington is about to make its own gas. The requisite machinery will cost $1500, but it is expected this amount will be saved in half a year.

Attorney General Speed has decided that Sommes was not included in the parole of rebel officers.

The Nevada Transcript tells of a loafer who has slept in a hearse, where he had lodged every night for six weeks.

There are five thousand homoeopathic doctors throughout the United States, and five homoeopathic colleges.

The Rinderep is pretty bad but who that has to listen to our street organs will compare it to the Grinderep?

To RAILROAD TRAVELERS.—The following "rules of the road" are based upon legal decisions and ought to be universally known.

We call attention to the advertisement of A. H. Rowen & Co., New York, which will be found in our advertising columns.

The Sultzbach Tannery, GEO. W. SULTZBACH, TANNER & LEATHER DEALER, MARIETTA, PA.

Having purchased the remaining stock on hand, and leased the tannery and fixtures of his late father, Henry Sultzbach, deceased, is now prepared to accommodate the customers of the old stand, and the public generally.

Oak Spanish and Slaughter Sole, Valve and Hemlock Leather, CALFSKINS, Kips, Waxed and Grained Upper, SPLITS, HARNESS, BRIDLE & SHOE SKIRTING.

Union Flag Clothing Store! In Crull's old stand, Market-st., Marietta

PETER RODENHAUSER, DEALER IN Men's and Boy's Clothing, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods.

REEVES AMBROSIA FOR THE HAIR.—The Original and Genuine Ambrosia is prepared by J. ALLEN REEVES and is the best hair dressing and preservative now in use.

THE partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm title of Landis & Trout, has this day (March 16) been dissolved by mutual consent.

HOWELL & BOURKE, Manufacturers of Paper Hangings and WINDOW SHADES, Corner of FOURTH and MARKET Streets PHILADELPHIA.

STAMPING. MRS. J. B. MORRIS. Bags leave to announce to the Ladies of Marietta and vicinity, that she has just received a new and handsome lot of

LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST. ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND bushels of Lime for sale, for Whitewater, Building and land.

BEST Quality of Wines and Liquors for medicinal purposes, at D. Landis's.

NEW TOY.—Eggs of Pharaoh's Serpents (fresh laid) at Dr. Landis's.

BOHLEN'S long celebrated GIN, H. D. BENJAMIN.

TRAIL SKIRTS.—Go to Mrs. ROEHS and see them.

LYONS' Periodical Drops, and Clark's Female Laxative.

Great Sale of Watches, Jewelry AND SILVER WARE! One Million Dollars worth to be DISPOSED AT ONE DOLLAR EACH!

Realizing the following List of Articles to be sold for ONE DOLLAR EACH: 20 Gold Hunting Cases, Watches, 200 Gold Watches, various styles, 200 Ladies' Gold Watches.

Having purchased the remaining stock on hand, and leased the tannery and fixtures of his late father, Henry Sultzbach, deceased, is now prepared to accommodate the customers of the old stand.

Union Flag Clothing Store! In Crull's old stand, Market-st., Marietta

PETER RODENHAUSER, DEALER IN Men's and Boy's Clothing, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods.

THE partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm title of Landis & Trout, has this day (March 16) been dissolved by mutual consent.

HOWELL & BOURKE, Manufacturers of Paper Hangings and WINDOW SHADES, Corner of FOURTH and MARKET Streets PHILADELPHIA.

STAMPING. MRS. J. B. MORRIS. Bags leave to announce to the Ladies of Marietta and vicinity, that she has just received a new and handsome lot of

LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST. ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND bushels of Lime for sale, for Whitewater, Building and land.

BEST Quality of Wines and Liquors for medicinal purposes, at D. Landis's.

NEW TOY.—Eggs of Pharaoh's Serpents (fresh laid) at Dr. Landis's.

BOHLEN'S long celebrated GIN, H. D. BENJAMIN.

TRAIL SKIRTS.—Go to Mrs. ROEHS and see them.

LYONS' Periodical Drops, and Clark's Female Laxative.

We are prepared to sell American and Swiss Watches at the lowest cash price.

Corner North-Queen-Street and Centre Square, Lancaster, Pa.

February 17, 1866.