

The Mariettian.

MARIETTA, PA :

Saturday Morning, May 5, 1886.

REVENUE STAMPS.—The Supreme Court of Massachusetts has recently passed judgment upon the validity of a deed having no revenue stamps affixed upon it. The Court considered that the absence of the stamp did not invalidate the deed, and questioned whether Congress intended so to frame the Revenue laws. The Court was of opinion that a United States statute undertaking to invalidate an instrument which is valid by the laws of the State would be unconstitutional. The Government could impose a penalty for not affixing the stamp, but could not make the instrument worthless because the stamp was not affixed.

On and after the first of July, all State Bank Notes in circulation will be subject to a tax of ten per cent. This of course will throw all State Notes out of circulation and all the currency of the country will then be National. Many are already beginning to refuse State Notes, particularly those from a distance, and the sooner they are called in the better. With an exclusive national currency, the holders of notes will always be secure against "bursting-up" of Banks, because they are based on National securities, and are redeemed at the currency Department, if a bank closes up.

Col. John H. Taggart, removed from the Philadelphia collectorship, after learning of his official decapitation, made bold to call upon the President and respectfully inquired the reasons for his removal; the President refused to assign any reasons for his action, upon which Col. Taggart courteously remarked that he failed to see in his removal an adherence to his (the President's) late circular in reference to the appointment to office of ex-soldiers and sailors. To this the President deigned no reply, and Col. Taggart left as wise as he came.

The President has recently ordered the removal of a prominent postmaster in Indiana, who refuses to abdicate until his successor has been confirmed by the Senate. That body will probably not do so, and if not done the Johnson appointee will appeal to the United States Court to put him in the place, and the question will then be settled, whether the President possesses the right to remove an office holder and put another in his place without the consent of the Senate, while that body is in session.

Louisa Knapp, an Indian girl, committed suicide at Rockland, Wisconsin, a few days ago, by taking strychnine. She had been taken by a family named Knapp, from a wigwam when only five years old, and brought up as their daughter. She was exceedingly intelligent, but suffered social exclusion on account of the color of her skin. This so preyed upon her sensitive nature that she sought death as an escape from her mortified pride.

According to a decision by the commissioner of internal revenue, the income tax is being assessed at the rates of five per cent, and ten per cent, and the proposed amendments increasing the exemption from $600 to $1,000 will not effect this assessment. Persons will also for this year have to pay taxes on their watches, carriages, and plate, as heretofore.

The statement is whispered about that the Senate, in executive session, discussed some other matters than the military confirmations which were passed upon without opposition. If rumor is to be credited, the majority of the Senate very distinctly announced that no nomination should be confirmed when made to fill a place made vacant by the removal, for opinion sake, of any competent officer who supported the election of Andrew Johnson in the last Presidential canvass. The Senate is bound to sustain the President's earliest and best friends and supporters.

The New York Marine Court has recently decided a case involving the liability of proprietors of baths. A gentleman visited the bath and lost a diamond breast-pin; the bath-keeper denied that he was liable for the pin, and the court sustained his denial, deciding that the liability of innkeepers did not attach to keepers of baths, except in cases of gross negligence, and this was not one, as the gentleman had handed over his other valuables for safe keeping to a person in attendance, but neglected to do so with the lost breast-pin.

Ishmael Day, an old resident of Maryland, has been very properly granted a pension of $400 per year, for shooting on the spot, a rebel marauder who hauled down the American flag from his domicile. His property to the amount of nearly $10,000, was destroyed by the rebels in consequence of this heroic act; and as he is old and destitute, it was deemed but the simplest justice to make the award.

LYON, without which none are genuine.

LET US BE MERCIFUL TO OURSELVES: The physical structure of the strongest human being is vulnerable everywhere. Our bodies are endowed by nature with a certain negative power, which protects them to some extent from unwholesome influences; but this protection is imperfect, and cannot be safely relied on in unhealthy regions, or under circumstances of more than ordinary danger. Therefore, it is wisdom, it is prudence, it is common sense, to provide against such contingencies, by taking an antidote in advance; or, in other words, by fortifying the system with a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most complete protective agent against all the epidemic and endemic maladies that have ever been administered in any country. As a remedy for Dyspepsia, there is no medicine that will compare with it. Whoever suffers the pangs of Indigestion, anywhere on the face of the earth where Hostetter's Bitters can be procured, does so voluntarily; for as surely as "Truth exists, this invaluable tonic and alternative will restore his disordered stomach to a healthy condition. To the Bilious it is also especially recommended, and in cases of confirmed Constipation it affords speedy and permanent relief. In Canada, the West Indies, and Australia, the Bitters rank above all other medicines of the class, and the demand for them in all foreign countries increases every season.

SEYMOUR THATCHER, M. D., of Herman, N. Y., writes as follows:—
"Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry gives universal satisfaction. It seems to cure a cough by loosening and cleansing the lungs, and allaying irritation, thus removing the cause, instead of drying up the cough and leaving the cause behind. I consider the Balsam as good as any, if not the best, Cough medicine with which I am acquainted."
The Rev. JACOB SECHLER, of Hanover, Pa. Well known and much respected among the German population in this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted.
"Dear Sirs:—Having realized in my family the important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hope of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have in my individual case made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. JACOB SECHLER.

BENJAMIN'S
Justly Celebrated Rose Whisky.

ALWAYS ON HAND.
A very superior OLD ROSE WHISKY.
Just received, which is warranted pure and of the best quality. The public is a careful examination of his stock and perceives, which will, he is confident, result in teel keepers and others finding it to their advantage to make their purchases from him.
HAIR ROLLS, the latest fashion—call on at Mrs. ROTH'S Vanity Shop—and see them—all the age now, in the case.
