

The Local Mariettian

Saturday Morning, May 5, 1866.

We observe in a late number of the "Elk Advocate," an article recommending JAMES B. GRAHAM, Esq., of Clearfield, Pa., for Congress.

A most unprovoked and cowardly act was committed in front of the White Swan Hotel, on Friday afternoon last, by a man calling himself Haus, said to be an ex-assistant provost marshal, upon Pilot William Wilson, of McCall's Ferry, who is well known here as very peaceable and unoffending.

The Susquehanna river, at this point, has been "well-up" for the past week, but is now too low for running. Very little lumber arrived during the week, although it is said that there was a very good flood at Lock Haven—the rains must, therefore, be "tied-up" at points all along the river above this place.

As a young man from Lancaster, named August Franke, son of Henry Franke, brewer, was driving across the hill between this place and Columbia, on Sunday evening last, about half-past seven o'clock, he was stopped by two young highwaymen—one taking hold of the horse and the other presenting himself at the buggy, revolvers in hand, and demanded his money or his life.

We learn that A. Hiestand Glatz, senator from the York district, accidentally shot himself in the hand, a few days since; the ball was extracted and the General, at last accounts, was getting along finely.

A German named Frederick Byrley, belonging to this place, whilst assisting a "fittin' party" on the 2d of April, stole a lot of carpet, which he afterwards sold to a family residing in town, who had the carpet cut to fit a room. Policeman Emswiler was put upon the track and found the carpet on the floor and arrested the thief, who is now in jail, awaiting trial.

Mr. Worrall, the Fish-dam Commissioner, in a letter to some Lancasterian, says as soon as the water falls he will visit the successful fishways of Massachusetts and Maine and copy from them for the arrangement of the dams in the Susquehanna. This looks as if something is about to be done.

The Marietta Academy has opened its second session. Mr. Maxwell now occupies the Wickersham residence and Academy building, in Market Square, where he has greater facilities and conveniences for his school, which, we are glad to learn, is very well sustained.

The corner stone of the St. John's Episcopal church of this borough, was laid on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Quite a number of strangers were present. Bishop Vail, of Kansas, Rev. Mr. Mombert, of Lancaster, and other divines assisted in the ceremonies.

The "Open Temperance Organization" will hold another meeting on Monday evening next. Rev. Mr. Clague will address the meeting. The public is cordially invited to attend. To commence at 7 1/2 o'clock.

A new time table went into effect on the Reading and Columbia railroad, on Tuesday last. See the corrected table in another column. It will be observed that a "Sunday Train" commences to-morrow.

County Superintendent David Evans has been re-elected for three years, with an increased salary of from $1,200 to $1,700. Mr. A. O. Newpher, the only opponent, received 15 votes.

The boys and girls are requested to meet this afternoon at two o'clock—instead of last Saturday, as published in our last at Temperance Hall, for the purpose of forming a temperance society.

Messrs. Spangler & Rich have just received a lot of new goods. See their advertisement in another column.

A Harrisburg correspondent, in speaking of the Fish law, for the restoration of the fisheries, says: "this is another great measure of general legislation, which is scarcely yet comprehended by the people, whom it was intended to benefit. As I understand it, this law compels the owners of all dams in the Susquehanna river and its branches and tributaries, so to alter those dams as to allow the passage of fish up said streams. The fishermen know exactly what is meant by a dam obstruction in any stream, and the same fishermen will fully comprehend the effect of removing such obstructions. Thirty years ago the fisheries along the Susquehanna were considered the best in the Middle States. Shad, Perch, Pike, Bass, Salmon, and an endless variety of the commoner species of fish were caught in great abundance. To-day there are very few if any Shad taken above the Columbia dam, while it is only on rare occasions that Perch or Pike are caught anywhere north or west of Columbia, in the Susquehanna or its branches. It is predicted, however, that in a few seasons after the dams have been altered, all these varieties of fish will make their spawning places in the Susquehanna River—and thus will be revived those great fisheries which once created immense revenues for the State, and afforded cheap food for the people."

We understand that the Reading & Columbia R. R. Co., intend putting a Sunday Train on their road. It is proposed to start it to-morrow. It will connect with the train leaving Reading at 9.50 A. M., for Philadelphia. Persons can make the round trip from Columbia to Philadelphia in one day, allowing about three hours in the latter place. This new train will be a great convenience to our citizens, as well as the people along the line of the road, as persons can go to Litiz, Ephrata or Reading in the morning and return the same evening.—Columbia Spy.

At a late meeting of Susquehanna Lodge, No. 6, I. O. of G. T., the following officers were regularly elected and installed: W. C. T., M. L. Bahn; W. V. T., Elmira Carroll; W. S. J., Clayton Steacy; W. A. S., Sallie Thuma; W. T., Lewis Leader; W. C. J., Stringer; W. F. S., Jacob Windolph; W. M., John J. Carroll; W. D. M., E. H. Cook; W. I. G., Christian Shireman; W. O. G., William Frame; W. R. H. S., Sallie Cochran; W. L. H. S., Lizzie Frailey; W. P. O. T., Phil. M. Kline; L. D., H. H. Johnson.

We learn from Mr. Jacob Grubb, says the Columbia Spy, that the body of his son, Geo. W. Grubb, who was drowned in the Susquehanna some weeks since has been found. He was discovered lodged upon the breast of the dam in the vicinity of Safe Harbor, and was recognized by photographs, letters, &c., found upon his person. He was temporarily buried in the neighborhood where he was found.

The Offices of the Reading & Columbia Rail Road Company were removed on Saturday last, to the buildings owned by them, known as Carpet Hall, foot of Locust street. The different offices are now fixed up, and are complete and comfortable in all their arrangements. The Superintendent's office, General Freight and Ticket office, Treasurer's and Telegraph office are all in the same building.—Columbia Spy.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wolfsberger, a German lady, aged 84 years, residing with her son, at the lower end of town, went to bed on Thursday night, in her usual health, and was found dead in bed, on Friday morning, by the family. Inquire Auzer, deputy coroner, held an inquest—verdict, death from old age.

Emanuel White and Samuel Benson—two colored boys—were arrested for cruelly treating a white boy, on Front street, a few days since. They had a hearing before Squire Auzer, who held Benson to bail, to answer at court and discharged White.

Col. James Worrall, a practical engineer, has been appointed Fish Commissioner. He has been a warm friend of the measure for altering the dams, and we hope he will succeed in again furnishing us with salmon, shad, herring, rock, perch, &c.

A resolution was passed unanimously at the County Convention of School Directors, held in Lancaster, Tuesday, recommending the appointment of Professor James Pyle Wickersham, as State Superintendent of Common Schools.

It appears that the two shaw thieves, arrested here last week, who gave their names as Huntington and Kelly, are old jail birds, named Fordney and Osgrove, and several charges are now pending against them in Lancaster.

Two of Columbia's "Tow-Hill Darkies" got into a row at the upper station, a few days since; one had his thumb nearly bitten off, and a "watch-fob" cut below his eye.

Created quite an excitement amongst the young folks, on Wednesday last—Dan Rice's "Bull-fant."

Mr. S. Patterson Sterrett has been re-appointed Notary Public for this borough.

LADIES TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. THE REAL VALPAU FEMALE PILLS! [WARRANTED FRENCH.] These Pills, so celebrated many years ago in Paris, for the relief of female irregularities, and afterwards so notorious for their criminal employment in the practice of abortion, are now offered for sale for the first time in America. They have been kept in comparative obscurity on the fact that the originator, Dr. VALPAU, is a Physician in Paris, of great wealth and strict conscientious principles, and has withheld them from general use, lest they should be employed for unlawful purposes. In overcoming female obstructions they seem to be truly omnipotent, bursting open the flood gates from whatever cause may have stopped them; but they are offered to the public only for legitimate uses, and all agents are forbidden to sell them when it is understood that the object is unlawful. For sale by Dr. F. Hinkle, Marietta; P. A. Pyle, Mountjoy; H. D. Parry and R. Williams, Columbia, and druggists generally. Ladies can procure a box, sealed from the eyes of the dealers, by enclosing $1 in gold or postage stamps to O. G. STAPLES, General Agent for us, Watertown, New-York, or to any of the above agents. [no.25-ly]
