

HEADLEY'S HISTORY OF THE GREAT REBELLION!

The late rebellion stands out peculiar and extraordinary in human events; and the magnificent scale upon which the war has been conducted, constitute it one of the grandest and most brilliant chapters of the world's history.

Mr. Headley, of all writers, is perhaps best qualified to portray the stupendous features of the mighty contest. His previous works on less momentous themes have placed him in the first position, as a graphic and powerful delineator of war scenes and characters.

Under his powerful pen the stirring scenes of the War pass in review with vividness and distinctness of a present and living reality; while his great talent for condensation enables him to embody everything of importance in a compass just suited to the public want.

Other histories have been issued before Grant's Report and other official documents were submitted to the government, and therefore unreliable. Mr. Headley has delayed the completion of this till those documents so essential to authenticity and correctness could be obtained.

The second volume, completing this work, will be issued in March, 1865. Agents are invited to engage in its sale in every town and county in the United States. Liberal inducements offered. For particulars apply to our address AMERICAN PUBLISHING CO., No. 148 Nassau-st., Hartford, Conn.

CONSUMPTIVES, READ WHAT DR. SCHENCK IS DOING.

DR. J. H. SCHENCK. DEAR SIR:—I feel it a duty I owe to you, and to all who are suffering under the diseases known as Consumption and Liver Complaint, to let them know what great benefits I have received from your Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic in so short a time. By the blessing of God it has cured me thus far.

Dr. Schenck. I will now make my statement to you, as follows:—About eighteen months ago I was attacked with a severe cough, and it settled on my lungs; I could not obtain anything I ate and I suffered with evening fevers and night sweats. I was very much reduced. The whites of my eyes were very yellow; likewise my skin; my appetite all gone, and unable to digest what I did eat; bowels swollen, irregular and costive. I was very low spirited, and had such violent spells of coughing when I lay down at night and when I arose in the morning that they would last one or two hours.

I then would be nearly exhausted, and was entirely unable to get up. I can not describe my wretched suffering as I would wish to do. Every organ in my body was diseased or deranged. Such was my situation at this time, and I was confined to my bed from the last of February, 1852, to June 1852, not able to get up for the most part of the time. I attended the whole of the time. My cough was so very bad that it racked me very much. I at this time raised a large quantity of thick, yellow, offensive matter, sometimes with blood and it was generally accompanied by nausea, and a burning and thick coating tongue. At the time of coughing so badly I would have sharp, shooting pains in my left side and heart, night sweats, and soreness all through my whole chest; had much inward fever, pain in my back and under my ribs and in the small of my back, and at times so severe that it would throw me into spasms. Now my physician gave me up to die. Others I had, and the best of them, but they could do nothing for me, and at that time I was nothing but skin and bone. My last physician came to the part of Missouri. In June last we left there for the East, and in August last we came to New York, and I was so reduced that I could only walk a little with my husband's help.

After I had been here a short time the salt water and seaweed tonic came to my attention, and then I had again to call a physician for aid. We had four of the best physicians of New York on the diseases of the lungs, and doctors of all kinds, but of no avail. They said I was past cure, and that my lungs were too far gone. My husband, however, at this time I was on my feet about the house, not able to do much of anything. In November last I grew worse, and the consumption diarræa set in and lasted about eight weeks. We did not eat and sleep, and I could not grasp at like my former self. My disease consumption and liver complaint—but of no avail.

In January, 1853, I was brought down again on my bed, and was not expected to live. My husband stayed at Dr. Schenck's, and other friends, and they all gave me up to die. At this time every one who saw me did not think I would ever leave my bed a living woman. The first night I was attacked with spasms, and was deranged most of the time. A friend of mine, who had seen me the last of the week, and brought the Sunday Mercury. In it was an account of a great cure performed by Dr. Schenck. She read it to me, and it was so much like my disease that I asked him to go and get a bottle for me. At this time I had given up all hopes of ever getting well again, and made my peace with God, to be ready whenever he called for me.

On the 7th of January, 1855, my husband called on Dr. Schenck, 32 Bond Street, New York, and stated to him my case, with a request for him to call and see me, which he did, and examined me with the respirator. When he was about to go I asked him if he could cure me. He said he would try, and he would call on me the next day. He called on me the next day, and he said he would call on me the next day. He called on me the next day, and he said he would call on me the next day.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1866! THE GREAT INVENTION OF THE AGE IN HOOP SKIRTS. J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent Duplex Elliptic (or double) Spring Skirt.

THIS Invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic pure refined steel springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the single springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, carriages, railroads, churches, church pews, arm chairs, for promenade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small space as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress.

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the duplex elliptic skirt spring skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For children, Misses, and young ladies they are superior to all others.

The Peruvian Syrup.

Is a protected solution of the PROTOXIDE OF IRON. A new discovery in medicine which strikes at the root of disease, by supplying the blood with vital principle, or life element—Iron.

This is the secret of the wonderful success attending this remedy in Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Poils, Nervous Debility, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Scalds, Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of state of the system.

Being free from Alcohol in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by any exciting reaction, but are permanent, increasing strength, vigor and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an iron constitution.

DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY. From the venerable archdeacon Scott, D. D., Dunham, Canada, Esq., March 24, 1854. "I am an inveterate Dyspeptic, more than 25 years standing."

"I have been so wonderfully benefited in the three short weeks during which I have used the Peruvian Syrup, that I can scarcely persuade myself of the reality of the change. I am widely known, and but recommended to others that have been so much for me."

A Case of 27 Years' Standing Croup. From Insley Jewett, No. 15 Avon place, Boston. "I have suffered and sometimes severely, for 27 years, from Dyspepsia. I commenced taking the Peruvian Syrup, and found immediate benefit from it. In the course of four or five weeks I was entirely relieved from my sufferings, and have enjoyed uninterrupted health ever since."

An Eminent Divine of Boston says: "I have been using the Peruvian Syrup some time past; it gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy; from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and its results cannot reasonably be attributed to give it a trial."

A pamphlet of 32 pages, containing recollections of some of the most eminent physicians, clergymen, and others, will be sent FREE to any one who sends for it.

Wistal's Balsam of Wild Cherry HAS BEEN USED FOR NEARLY HALF A CENTURY, WITH THE MOST ASTONISHING SUCCESS IN CURING Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Whooping Cough, &c. Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, and every affection of The Throat, Lungs, and Chest.

CONSUMPTION! which carries off more victims than any other disease, and which baffles the skill of the Physicians to a greater extent than any other malady. YIELDS TO THIS REMEDY! when all others prove ineffectual.

AS A MEDICINE, RAPID IN RELIEF, SOOTHING IN EFFECT, AND IN ITS OPERATION, IT IS SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS. While as a preparation, free from noxious ingredients, poisons, or minerals; uniting science, and medical knowledge; containing all that is valuable in the vegetable kingdom for this class of disease, it is, INCOMPARABLE!

and is entitled, merits, and receives the general confidence of the public. SEYMOUR THATCHER, M. D. of Herman, N. Y., writes as follows: "Wistal's Balsam of Wild Cherry is a most universal satisfaction. It seems to be brought about by loosening and clearing the lungs, and allowing irritation, thus removing the cause, instead of trying to cure the disease by leaving the cause behind. I can not say Balsam as good as any, if not the best. I have used it in many cases, and it has done me more good than any other medicine, and I have been benefited by it. JACOB SECHLER, of Hanover, Pa. WILD CHERRY—It affords me the greatest commendation to the public. Some time ago one of my daughters, who had been suffering from a severe cold, was cured by using your excellent Balsam, and before she was the whole of the contents of the bottle. It was a great improvement in her health, and in my individual case made me feel that I was using a most valuable medicine, and I have been benefited by it. JACOB SECHLER, of Hanover, Pa.
