The Focal Mariettian.

Morning, June 2, 1866.

The "Farmers' and Gardeners' remperating next, June 9th. Too much gonot be said in praise of the untiring instion of choice fruits and vegetables. The coming exhibition will, we are asgred, be in keeping with the past, pich is saying considerable. We learn shions gentleman alone—Mr. Henry Echo answers—nothing. M. Eogle-will have over one hundred History of seedling strawberries, some which will "lay in the shade" many balries. As for vegetables and flowers regetables particularly, we know East ponegal will do herself credit—for some of the Garden Farmers near town invite competition. The boquets of flowers of silseason will be repeated. In a word, se predict for the exhibition, a most complete success.

The Columbia Spy of Saturday last says: "A short time ago, Dr. F. Binkle performed an operation on John Welsh, of this place, for depressed fracuse of skull. The seat of injury was the left parietal bone, near the junction sith the frontal. About eight years ago he received a blow upon the head bra brick, the angle of which caused a serious injury, though at the time it was not thought so. Three years after the injury he was seized with epileptic fits. which gradually increased, until they become so violent that each attack within the last year, was so alarming to him and his friends, that life was becoming a borden. After an examination the Dr. espressed an opinion that the only remedy was trepauning the skull, which operation was successfully performed a few weeks since."

gr Quite a "smash-up" occurred on Saturday evening last. Two young men, brothers, named Montgomery, from Zook's fulling mill, near town, were drivisg up Market street, when the horse became frightened at the "Vigilant" fre engine, which was being taken to the engine house by the boys, who made each a hedious poise as would have hightened anything of animal kind. After running several squares the bridle bit was broken, and both men thrown out; strange to say they were not serionly hurt. The buggy was made a complete wreck.

G Henry Small, senior of the firm of it. Small & Sons, doing business at Wrightsville and York, died very suddealy on Friday evening of last week; he was in his usual good health until a few moments before his death, having fallen from his chair, whilst at supper. Mr. Small was a very beavy lumber dealer, and was well known at this place. I Imported Violin ... His disease has been pronounced disease A lot of Violins, each valued at of the beart.

The Clearfield Journal says an atlempt was made to rob the "County National Bank" of that place, a few days since; a dog was poisoned to get iale the banking house yard, where an entrance was effected and a hole in the isle partly bored, but it is supposed day light came to soon for the burglars. The Journal says robberies are getting Wile numerous in that vicinity.

The Reno Times, one of the best Papers on our exchange list, published at Reno, Pa.—the oil regions—has been supended. We are very sorry for this, for the editor, Mr. Page, deserved sucten, lts editorials were ably written, 414 its selections exhibited good taste ad excellent judgement.

The extensive Tobacco firm of F. Bisuns & Co.,—a branch of which is and of our young and obliging friend, A. Fuller Crane, Jr.,how ready to purchase "the weed" a their warehouse, half a square below Punk's Cross Keys Hotel.

The portable steam saw mill of C. Brenner, who is well known in Merietta, in Morris township, Clearfield county, was blown up on the 16th inst. by the explosion of the boiler, and two men, named John Reades and Wm. ^{Sanniman}, killed.

A railroad survey is being made between Wrightsville and the point bile biles above, where the Northern Contral Railroad strikes the Susquehauh river. It is being made by the Colambia and Port Deposit Railroad Com-

After all, what is more grateful to the "inner man," on a hot sultry day, than a glass of cool, sparkling sods water?

Franklin Hipple, of Marietta, had his pocket book containing about of the high-sounding, world-renowned $1:50 stolen at the railroad depot, in Lancaster, on Monday last. The pocket, with the pocket book in it, was cut out of his vest .- Mount Joy Herald.

We clip the above from last Saturday's Herald and feel glad to learn our friend Frank did not loose as much as was represented. The report here was that his loss was fifty dollars; we are glad it has 'dwindled down" some.

By referring to our advertising columns it will be seen that Harry Wolfe has been appointed for the sale of tickets for the "Gift Distribution," which will take place in Lancaster, for the benefit of the Union Steam Fire Engine.
