

The Mariettian.

MARIETTA, PA. Saturday Morning, June 30, 1866.

News in Brief.

False eyelashes are announced. Charlotte Cashman's mother died in England on the 7th inst. Fitz John Porter now resides in Morristown, N. J. A love of a bonnet made in Paris for a Russian princess cost $1600. To get up the new five cent piece costs about $200,000. The largest room in the world—the room for improvement. A Warrentown (Virginia) paper, calls Congress a "negro debating club." If a man is bread to his business, should not his business be bread to him. A three-headed negro child born in Bedford county, N. C., lived three days. A hen in Hackettstown, N. J., recently hatched a brood of seventy-eight chickens. A negro in Norfolk, Va., being very warm, drank a cup of cold water and fell dead instantly. The Delaware peach crop is pronounced a failure. The young fruit has already fallen off the trees. On Saturday the 2d inst., a man named Nicholas Firsinger, residing at Codorus Foundry, Codorus township, York county, accepted a proposition to drink ten glasses of lager beer in ten minutes if a comrade paid for them. The lager beer was produced and drunk within the time specified, but immediately thereafter he complained of illness, when he was carried into a building attached to the foundry, and left lie until the following morning, when he was found dead. It is said that Gov. Curtin will soon issue a proclamation convening an extra session of the State Legislature at an early day, for the purpose of acting upon the Constitutional amendment proposed by the Reconstruction Committee and adopted by Congress. Gov. Curtin has issued a circular letter to the Governors of other loyal States, requesting similar action on their part, and it is quite probable that the amendment will be ratified by a large number of the States during the summer. Vallandigham proposes to continue on the stump until victory perches on the copperhead banners. If he holds to his purpose, and life is vouchsafed to him, he will excel Methuselah as much in longevity as he now does Ananias in falsity. What a pretty Wandering Jew he will make! Imagine him a hundred or two years hence, making his appearance like another Rip Van Winkle, at political meetings, and in his impudent manner shouting, "I glory in the name of copperhead." It is no longer fashionable "at court" to speak of the late troubles in this country as a rebellion. Mr. Secretary Seward, in his official announcement of the death of General Cass, speaks of his "exalted patriotism at a recent period of political disorder." The Baltimore American expects next to hear the most terrible and groundless rebellion on record spoken of as "an unfortunate family quarrel," or, as Mrs. Partington would express it, "a slight contipation of our internal relations." Col. John W. Forney, at present the most prominent candidate for United States Senator to succeed Cowan, made an eloquent and masterly speech of two hours' duration on Thursday last in the Court House at Lebanon, Pa., which was crowded with ladies and gentlemen. This oration may be regarded as the opening of the campaign in Pennsylvania, and will add much to his intellectual fame. The President reports, by a special message, that the Secretary of State has transmitted a copy of the amendment to each State Governor; but he takes care to state that it was simply a ministerial act, and is not to be construed as an approval of the amendment by the executive. As the President was not asked to approve of it, it was quite unnecessary for him to mention that he disapproved of it. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania decided on the 20th, three to two, that the judge of elections could not refuse a man's vote until he had been tried and convicted of desertion. Justices Read and Agnew thought that the judges of election could determine the whole question. Workmen are employed in making the necessary preparations for the construction of a rope ferry near the site of the old bridge at Harrisburg. The derricks have been erected and the rope stretched across the river. A man in Haynes county, Mississippi, recently had a comfortable nap of fifty-six hours. When he awoke he wanted to know what o'clock it was and complained of an empty breadbasket. The National Village Bank at Bowdoinham, Me., was entered and robbed last week of $75,000 all the money in the bank. No arrests. West Virginia has adopted the State constitutional amendment, denying the right of suffrage to rebels and deserters, by a large majority.

The Eastern newspapers are discussing the question of salaries, and have generally come to the conclusion that the highest salary paid to any one man in New England is that received by the agent of the Salisbury Woolen Mills, at Newburyport—$15,000 a year. The lowest salary in New England is generally believed to be that received by a clergyman, who stated at a recent religious convention in Boston that his pay for last year's preaching consisted of a new hat and a bushel of apples, but now he was more fortunate, as he was getting $25 a year. If you have a Washington clerkship in your eye, it will be salutary to consider some curious figures which present themselves in the Treasury Department. There are nearly 30,000 applications on file for clerkships. About 300 new ones per week are received. There are no vacancies. The force in the Department is being reduced nearly 100 per month. There are in the Department 2,067 males, and 714 females; total, 2,781 clerks of all kinds. A strange anatomical phenomenon, says the Independence Belge, has just been brought to light at Tornay. A post mortem examination of a young non-commissioned officer, who had died in the military hospital, has shown that all the internal organs were reversed—thus the heart was on the right side, and the liver on the left, &c. Despite that peculiarity, he had always enjoyed excellent health, and died ultimately of typhus fever. During a recent thunder storm in Tennessee, a half mile of telegraph wires were melted, and divided over the whole distance into small fragments, irregular in shape, and many of them no larger than a buckshot or a small rifle ball. Fragments were found along the whole distance, and would not, if put together connectedly, make a wire thirty feet in length. The glass insulators were fused and the poles were shattered into fragments. A young man named Maltby was struck by lightning a few days since, in Sherman, Connecticut. The lightning came down through the roof, struck him on the shoulder, and passed down his side, tearing his boot and foot to pieces, and making a small hole in the floor. One side of his body, where the lightning passed, is terribly lacerated and burned. He is suffering much, but hopes are entertained of his recovery. The Detroit Common Council have passed an ordinance making eight hours a lawful day's work in that city. The ordinance, however, regulates the wages by the length of time a laborer works, and enacts that street laborers, working ten hours, shall get $1.65 a day; whilst those working but eight hours shall receive only $1.35. A man with a team working ten hours receives $3.75; when they work but eight hours, $3. The Boston ice companies were recently consolidated, and having the monopoly of the market, the price of ice is raised to an exorbitant figure. So excited are the Bostonians, that they are discussing the project of a company to go in quest of floating icebergs and tow them into Boston harbor. To render the enterprise doubly remunerative, pleasure parties are to be taken out on each trip. A colored woman called old Aunt Biddy Lundy died near Macon lately, 112 years old. She had been in the same family for three generations. She was born in Virginia, and used to describe the march of Cornwallis through that State. She never took a dose of medicine in her life, but drank coffee regularly twice a day, when she could get it. She finally died of pneumonia. Wilkes' Spirit records the sale of another flying trotter, a Massachusetts bay mare, by Ethan Allen out of Pocahontas. The price was $20,000. It is stated that she went a mile in harness in two minutes and twenty-five seconds, and then, after the usual time allowed between mile heats, repeated in two minutes and twenty-eight seconds. On the 9th inst., Milton Keller, living on top of the mountain, five miles west of Frederick, Maryland, was harrowing in a field, when the harrow dragged a loaded shell out of the ground, which it is supposed, had been buried there since 1862. He picked up the shell to examine it, when it exploded, killing him instantly. The beautiful song of "Home, Sweet Home" was first produced on the stage in the opera of "Clari, the Maid of Milan," and was written by John Howard Payne whilst residing in England. The music was furnished by Sir Henry Bishop, who derived the air of "Home, Sweet Home" from an ancient Sicilian melody. A Mormon says fault-finding is so easy, so much like sliding down hill, while doing better is so much like drawing up the sled, that it is not very marvellous there are so many who delight in pointing the way, while there are comparatively so few who travel the better path. They call "false calves" "bob" "veal" in New York.

Special Notices. A Single Box of BRADRETH'S PILLS contain more vegetable extract matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life. Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Bradreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Head, Harbun, Pain in the Breast bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. To CONSUMPTIVES.—The advertiser having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years, with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription, free of charge, with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Coughs, Bronchitis, Colds, and all throat and lung affections. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Parties wishing the prescription, FREE, to return mail, will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings County, New-York. [1y] Cholera, Diarrhoea and Dysentery!—A cure is warranted by Dr. TOBIAS' celebrated Venetian Linctus, if used when first taken by persons of temperate habits. This medicine has been known in the United States over twenty years. Thousands have used it, and found it never failed to cure any complaint for which it was recommended, and all those who first tried it, are now never without it. In the Cholera of 1848, Dr. Tobias attended 40 cases and lost 4, being called in to late to do any good. DIRECTIONS:—Take a teaspoonful in a wine glass of water every half hour for two hours, and rub the abdomen and extremities well with the Linctus. To allay the thirst, take a lump of ice in the month, almost the size of a marble every ten minutes. It is warranted perfectly innocuous to take internally. Sold by all Druggists, price 40 and 50 cents. Depot, 56 Courtland-st., N. Y. [40-1m] TRANSFORMATION.—The superstitious of antiquity are only "fool for laughter" at the present day, and yet this is an age of MIRACLES, accomplished with the aid of science. PROSPECTUS OF THE WASHINGTON Weekly Chronicle. In view of the coming elections, new and more extensive arrangements have been made to give every reader greater variety and interest in the Washington Weekly Chronicle. The necessity of maintaining the fruits of our great victory, and of strengthening the eternal principle upon which alone republican liberty can safely rest, will give extraordinary vitality to approaching political tests. Stationed here at the National Capitol, the CHRONICLE possesses peculiar advantages to aid the common cause. Having been conducted almost wholly by the aid of the rebel cannon during all the years, and the full understanding the intrigues, and the boldness in response to and in reflection of the sentiments of the free millions of America, and will defend them, and their interests, against all opposition, come from what quarter may. Since the meeting of the present Congress of the United States, and the commencement of that through policy which has commanded the admiration and gratitude of the people, the CHRONICLE has maintained its position "solitary and alone." It has represented as these majorities have represented the Chronicle as their sincere and faithful friend; has been sustained with equal violence and injustice. But it has been honored with the approval of the loyal people in all parts of the country. For the first time in all parts of the Government, a prosperous weekly newspaper, proposed to human slavery, fully committed to the policy and doctrines of the radical men of the Republic, has been firmly established in the District of Columbia, on the threshold of events not less important than those which surrounded the Civil war, and shook the Republic to its foundation. These will demand extraordinary energy and fidelity on the part of the public writers, whether in Congress or the press. THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE is beautifully printed in quarto form. During the session of the present Congress, which promises to be a protracted one, the subjects delineated will excite universal interest, and as they will be frankly and thoroughly examined and discussed in the Chronicle, as in both branches of Congress, this journal cannot fail to be a most useful and popular medium of information. Therefore cheerfully invoke the aid of the friends of the cause in the different States and Territories. TERMS: One year $3.00 Six months 1.50 Three months .75 Any person forming a club of ten, and remitting twenty dollars, will receive an extra copy every week. No subscription received for less than three months. All subscribers invariably in advance. J. W. FORNEY, Editor and Proprietor of the Chronicle. All Business Letters should be addressed to D. C.
