HEADLEY'S HISTORY OF THE GREAT REBELLION! The late rebellion stands out peculiar and extraordinary in human events; and the most magnificent scene which ever has been conducted, constitute it one of the greatest and most brilliant chapters of the world's history.

Mr. Headley, of all writers, is perhaps best qualified to portray the stupendous features of the mighty contest. His previous work, on less momentous themes has placed him in the first position, as a graphic and powerful delineator of war scenes and characters, and the magnitude and grandeur of the present subject, impart to his pen the fire and vigor of a yet more exacted inspiration, and furnish ample scope for the highest exhibition of his peculiar genius for military description.

Under his powerful pen the stirring scenes of the War pass in review with the vividness and distinctness of a present and living reality; while his great talent for condensation enables him to embody everything of importance in a compass just suited to the public want.

No other source can so clear and comprehensive an impression of the grand march of events be obtained, so easily and agreeably as from Mr. Headley's work.

Other histories have been issued before Grant's Report and other official documents were made public to the world, and therefore unreliable. Mr. Headley has delayed the completion of this till those documents so essential to authenticity and correctness could be obtained.

The second volume, completing this work, is now [June 30th, '86] ready. Agents wanted to engage in its sale in every town and county in the United States. Liberal inducements offered. For particulars apply to address, AMERICAN PUBLISHING CO., No. 148 Asylum-st., Hartford, Conn. Seranton & Burr, Agents.

THE REAL VALPAU FEMALE PILLS! [WARRANTED FRENCH.] These Pills, so celebrated many years ago in Paris, for the relief of female irregularities, and afterwards so notorious for their criminal employment in the practice of abortion, are now offered for sale for the first time in America. They have been kept in comparative obscurity from the fact that the originator, DR. VALPAU, is a Physician in Paris, of great and high strict conscientious principles, and should be employed for unlawful purposes. In overcoming female obstructions they seem to be truly omnipotent, bursting open the flood gates from whatever cause may have stopped them; but they are offered to the public only for legitimate uses, and all agents are forbidden to sell them when it is understood that the object is unlawful.

For sale by Dr. F. Hinkle, Marietta; P. A. Pyle, Mountjoy; H. D. Parry and N. Williams, Columbia, and drugists generally. PROSPECTUS OF The Washington Weekly Chronicle.

IN view of the coming elections, new and extensive arrangements have been made to give every greater variety and interest to The Washington Weekly Chronicle.

The necessity of maintaining the fruits of our great victory, and of strengthening those principles upon which alone republicanism can safely rest, will give us extraordinary vitality to approaching political contests. Stationed here at the National Capital, the CHRONICLE possesses peculiar advantages to aid the common cause. Having been conducted almost since the sound of the rebel cannon during all the war, and before fully understanding the intrigues and projects of the traitors, it will not fear to speak out boldly in response to and in reflection of the sentiments of the free millions of America, and will defend them and their interests against all opposition, come from what quarter it may.

Since the meeting of the present Congress of the United States, and the consummation of that thorough policy which has commanded the admiration and gratitude of the people, the CHRONICLE has maintained its position "solitary and alone." Trauded and misrepresented as these majorities have been, the Chronicle as their sincere and fearless defender, has been assailed with equal virulence and its editor has been treated with the approval of the loyal people in all parts of the country. For the first time in the history of the Government, a prosperous weekly newspaper, opposed to human slavery, fully committed to the principles and doctrines of the radical men of the Republic, has been firmly established in the District of Columbia. We are on the threshold of events not less important than those which astounded the civilized world and shook the Republic to its foundation. These will demand extraordinary energy and fidelity on the part of the public leaders, whether in Congress or the press.

The WEEKLY CHRONICLE is beautifully printed in quarto form. During the session of the present Congress, and its progress to be a protracted one, the subjects debated will excite universal interest, and as promises will be frankly and thoroughly examined and discussed in the Chronicle, as in both branches of Congress, this journal cannot fail to be a most correct and popular visitor to all loyal circles. A therefore cheerfully invoke the aid of the friends of the cause in the different States and Territories.

TERMS: One year $3 00 Six months 2 00 Three months 1 00 Any person forming a club of TEN, and remitting twenty dollars, will receive an extra copy every week. No subscription received for less than three months. All subscriptions invariably in advance.
