Mr. C. was followed by the athought that as freight trains were celebrated "wheel-horse of Tempernce," Charles H. Stratford of Lewistown. At the close of Mr. Stratford's address, the president appointed a committee to go amongst the audience and solicit signers to the temperance pledge: appearance truly frightful. Esq Auxer the committee reported one hundred and thirty signers. Adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock. The period between adjournment and 2 o'clock was made interesting by the fair sex, who were busy everywhere "spreading the cloth" for "the good things." The sight on and about the hill at this time was beautiful -groups of men, women and children could be seen at every turn, clustered on the ground, around a nicely spread white cloth providing, the "inner man" with substantials. Ice cream and refreshment stands were also provided. and indeed everything that pleasure or comfort could suggest. At 2 o'clock the audience was again called together and after music by the band, and the glee club, Mr. Charles Fox, of Canada, was introduced and spoke; after Mr. F. had concluded Mr. Spangler announced the Boys. Look Our !- As the season for fruit advances, farmers and gardeners in this vicinity, are suffering from the dopredations of petty thieves and pilferers, ranks. The line was formed in front of in many cases the children of respectable people whose parents do not dream of the occupation of their offspring. Under the technicalities of the common law, these annoying offenders could generally escape clear of all correquences. At most they could be in danger of a sound thrashing by the angry owner who then became himself liable to prosecution for assault and battery. Now things are changed. Under the act of 1860, the stealing of fruit from the tree tions from Rising Star Section, Cadets or on the ground is a serious offence, and the remedy is simple and prompt. wilful taking and carrying away of fruit, vegetables, plants, vines, shrubs or trees is made a misdemeanor punishable in dering the offender liable to a fine of $50 and imprisonment for thirty days.

> The course of proceeding under this act is plain and easy. A complaint before any Alderman or Justice of the Peace is all that a person has to do. The law will do the rest. This is the criminal remedy. For those who prefer it there is a civil remedy. By another section any person who shall wilfully enter or break down, through or over any orchard, garden, yard or fence, hotbed, or green house, or shall wrongfully club, or cut, stone, break, bark or mutilate any tree, shrub, bush, vine, &c., or walk over, beat down or trample, or in any way injure any grain, grass, vines, vegetables or crops, shall on conviction before any Alderman or Justice of the Peace, or in any court, have indgement against him in any sum not less than $5 or more than $100 with the costs. This fine is to go one-half to the informant and one half to the occupant or owner of the land. In default of payment the offender must go to jail. The law now provides a full and simple remedy against the plunder and damaging of gardens or yards, and it is the fault of the owners if they suffer .- Exchange.

A little white girl, five years of age, while playing near the railroad track in Nashville, Tenn., on the 9th became so helpless through fear of an approaching train that she sauk down upon the track and was cut directly in two. Her mother came up in a few minutes in search of her, and the sight of the mangled remains was the first intimation she had of the dreadful loss, she had sustained. The child's father was killed by the cars near the same spot about two years ago.
