A Christmas Carol.

Carol, brothers, carol, Carol, joyfully; Carol the good tidings, Carol merrily. Carol, brothers, carol, Carol joyfully; Carol the good tidings, Carol merrily. And pray a gladsome Christmas For all good Christain men, Carol, brothers, carol. Christmas day again.

At the merry table, Think of those who've none, The orphan and the widow, Hungry and alone. Bountiful your offerings To the altar bring, Let the poor and needy Christmas carols sing. Chorus: Carol, brothers, carol, &c.

III. Listening angel music, Discord sure must cease-Who dare hate his brother On this day of peace? While the heavens are telling To mankind good will, Only love and kindness Every bosom fill: Chorus: Carol, brothers, &c.

Let our hearts, responding To the Seraph Band, Wish this morning's sunshine Bright in every land,-Word, and deed, and prayer Speed the grateful sound, Telling "Merry Christmas" All the world around ! Chorus: Carol, brothers, &c.

A Very Apt Reply.

A soldier of this city who served with distinction as colonel of a Michigan regiment, was approached yesterday by an officer who supports Johnson, with a suggestion that, as military men, they ought to pay their respects to President Johnson upon his arrival at Toledo. "You may, but I will not," replied the Michigan colonel, "for I have no respect for him." "But," quoth the Johnsonian, "you will go with us, and show your respect for Grant and Farragut, who accompany earth, "Who caused all this woe and him. won't vou?" "My dear sir," replied the Colonel, there was once an old lady who kent a boarding house for laborers. One morning she came across a piece of tainted beef which she purchased cheap, and boiled it for dinner. It 'smelt to heaven' and not a boarder would touch it. That evening she sliced and fried it, but smelt louder and louder, when a boarder, who could stand it no longer, spoke his mind: "Look here, old lady, you may bile it, you may fry it, or you may spile good potatoes by hashin' it with 'em, but that meat stinks, and you can't crowd it down me in any shape." "Now." continued the very positive Colonel, you may take Johnson boiled, fried, stewed or sandwiched between two as good potatoes as Grant and Farragut, and he stinks. You can't crowd him down me at any price." The conversation closed quite abruptly.-Toledo Blade.

THE END OF A QUARREL,-"We could soon finish you up," said some lemons to a bottle of carbonate of soda. "I could soon take the taste out of you." answered the soda. "Let us try our strength," said the lemons. " With all my heart," said the soda; and to work they went, trying with all their might to extinguish each other; fizz-went the lemons; fizz-went the soda; and they went on fizzing till there was noth. ing of either of them left, and only a nauseous puddle showed where the fight had been.

The lawyer who stuck upon his office door, "Gone to dinner; back in ten minutes," might as well have added, "I am killing myself by bolting my food and then trying to digest it over my papers; at forty-five I shall probably be either a broken down invalid or a lunatic: but, in the meantime, I am very much at your service." There is also a ghastly humor about that other story of a host in a New England city, who asked his guest, at a mid-day dinner, if he would mind eating his pie in the street, attempt to vindicate themselves by say - and time kills beauty. as they walked along.

INFLUENCE OF AFFECTION .- There is a stranger is a very doubtful kind of prefman's character or his position is guilty of indiscretion which not only reflects unfavorably upon her good sense, but argues badly for the nature and groundwork of that affection.

Be content to attend to duties as they arise; take them as they are sent by Providence. Every moment brings its own responsibilities; and man's wisdom, in this world of sin, of sorrow and of death, consists in cheerfully using present comforts and diligently attending to present duties. Let the crumbs, the fragments of time, be gathered up, that nothing be lost.

You are a coward if afraid to tell the truth when you should do so. You are a coward if you insult the weak. You are a coward if afraid to do right, if you shrink from defending your opiaion, from maintaining that which you know to be just and good; and you are especially a coward if you know certain things of yourself and care not to own them to yourself.
