MEW SKIRT FOR 1866!

THIS Invention consists of Duplex (or two) THIS Invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic pure refined steel springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable spring ever used. They seldom bend er break, like the single springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, carriages, railroad care, church pews, arm chairs, for promenade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to oc cupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, com-fort and great convenience of wearing the du-plex elliptic steel spring skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For children, Misses, and young, ladies they ar superier to all others. The hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single steel hoop skirts. The three bottom single steel noop skirts. The three bottom rods on every skirt are also double steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and eegant corded tapes, and are the best quality in every part giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most derirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

The Washington Weekly Chronicle.

N view of the coming elections, new and extensive arrangements have been made to give even greater variety and interest to The Washington Weekly thronicle.

The necessity of maintaining the fruits of our great victory, and of strengthening those eternal principles upon which alone republican liberty car safely rest, will give extraordinary vitality to approaching political contests. Stationed here at the National Capital, the CHRONICLE possesses peculiar advantages to aid the common cause. Having been conducted almost within the sound of the rebel cannon during all the war, and therefore fully understanding the intrigues and projects of the traitors, it will not fear to speak out boldly in response to and in reflection of the sentiments of the free millions of America, sentiments of the free millions of America, and will defend them and their interests and will defend them and their interests against all opposition, come from what quarterit may, Since the meeting of the present Congress of the United States, and the councistion of that thorough policy which has commanded the admiration and graffitude of the people, the Chronicle has maintained its position "solitary and slone." Traduced and misrepresented as these majorities have been misrepresented as these majorities have been. the Chronicle as their sincere and fearless de-fender, has been assailed with equal virulence and injustice. But it has been honored with and injustice. But it has been nonored with the approval of the loyal people in all parts of the country. For the first time in the history of the Government, a prosperous weekly newspaper, opposed to human slavery, fully committed to the policy and doctrines of the radical men of the Republic, has been firmly established in the District of Columbia. We are on the threshold of events not less important than those which astounded the civilized world and shook the Republic to its founda-tion. These will demand extraordinary energy and fidelity on the part of the public leaders, whether in Congress or the press.

The Weekly Chronicle is beautifully printed in quarto form. During the session of the present Congress, which promises to be a protracted one, the subjects debated will exite a protracted one, the subjects debated will excite a protract of the subjects debated will ex cite universal interest, and as they will be frankly and thoroughly examined and dis-cussed in the Chronicle, as in both branches of Congress, this journal cannot fail to be a most useful and popular visitor to all loyal circles. I trerefore cheerfully invoke the aid of the friends of the cause in the different States and

Territories. TERMS: One year Six months Three months

HISTORY OF THE

GREAT REBELLION! ME late rebellion stands out peculiar and extraordinary in human events; and the magnificent scale upon which the war ha peen conducted, constitute it one of the grantest and most brilliant chapters of the world's history.

Mr. Headley, of all writers, is perhaps by qualified to portray the the stupendous features of the mighty contest. His prima works on less momentous themes have placed him in the first position, as a graphic and pre-erful deleniator of war scenes and character, and the magnitude and grandeer of the pre-ent subject, impart to his pen the fire and i-gor of a yet more exacted inspiration, and nish ample scope for the highest exhibition of nish ample scope for the highest exhibition of his peculiar genius for military description. Under his powerful pen the stirring scenes the War pass in review with the vividness and distinctness of a present and living reality; while his great talent for condeuration entitles him to embody everything of inportance in a compass just swited to the public want. From no other source can so clear and omprehensive an impression of the grand math of events he obtained, so easily and sgreebly of events be obtained, so easily and agreeably

Other histories have been issued before Grant's Report and other official documents were submitted to the government, and therefore unreliable. 3.r. Headley has delayed the completion of this till those documents of the completion of the still those documents of the confidence of the confidenc sential to authenticity and correctness could
