one hundred dollars for every such offense and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

As therein directed, I also give official notice of the following provisions of an Act approved June 4th, 1866, entitled, "A further supplement to the election laws of this Commonwealth."

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, that in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot or ballots from any person or persons embraced in the provisions of this Act, approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five; and it shall be unlawful for any such person to give or deliver any ballot or ballots.

Section 2. That if any person shall receive or attempt to receive any such unlawful ballot or ballots from any such disqualified voter, he or she so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned for not more than six months, or fined not less than ten dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment of the proper county for not less than sixty days.

Section 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship and disqualified as aforesaid, shall at any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, vote or tender to the officers thereof any ballot or ballots, or attempt to do so, or to vote a ballot or ballots, or attempt to do so, or to vote a ballot or ballots, or attempt to do so, or to vote a ballot or ballots, or attempt to do so, or to vote a ballot or ballots, or attempt to do so...

Section 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade or advise any person or persons deprived of citizenship and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot or ballots to the officers of any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall persuade or advise any such officer to receive any ballot or ballots from any such person, or shall persuade or advise any such officer to receive any ballot or ballots from any such person, or shall persuade or advise any such officer to receive any ballot or ballots from any such person...

Section 5. That it shall be the duty of the Adjutant General of this Commonwealth to provide for the proper officers of the United States, certified copies of all rolls and returns containing official evidence of the fact of the desertion of all persons who were citizens of this Commonwealth, and who were deprived of citizenship, and disqualified by the said act of Congress, of March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and to cause to be recorded, and preserved, in books to be provided and kept for that purpose, in his office, full and complete exemplifications of such rolls and returns, and to cause true copies to be made thereof, and furnished to the clerks of the several courts of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, accurate duplicates, or exemplifications, of such rolls and returns, embracing the names of all such disqualified persons as had their residence within the limits of the counties, respectively, at the time of their being marked or designated deserters; and it shall be the duty of the clerks of the several courts of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth to provide for the making of books to be kept for the purpose, all such copies and exemplifications of such rolls and returns, so furnished, and to allow access thereto, and to furnish certified copies thereof, on request, in like manner, as in the case of other records of such courts.

Section 6. That a certified copy, or extract, of any such record, of the clerk of a court of quarter sessions, of this Commonwealth, shall be prima facie evidence, before any election held, of the fact of desertion, and consequent disability and disqualification as an elector; Provided, That if any person shall willfully use, or present, any false, fraudulent, or forged paper, purporting to be a certified copy or extract, as aforesaid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned for not more than six months, or fined not less than ten dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment of the proper county for not less than sixty days.

Section 7. That it shall be the duty of the judges and inspectors of elections, hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, whenever the name of any person, offering to tender a ballot or ballots, shall be found upon a certified copy or extract furnished from said rolls or records, by a clerk of a court of quarter sessions, marked as a deserter; or whenever any person shall object to the payment of any such person, at any election, by such person, so offering to tender a ballot, to examine such person on oath or affirmation, as to the fact appearing from such certificate, or alleged against him, by the objectors so objecting, and if he deny it, or his reasons therefor: Provided however, That if any of his answers, under such examination are false, such person shall be deemed guilty of a crime of perjury, and upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned for not less than six months or more than two years.

Section 8. That if any person shall be convicted of a crime of perjury, or of any other crime, which renders him ineligible to the office of elector, he shall be ineligible to the office of elector, and shall be imprisoned for not less than six months or more than two years.

Section 9. That if any person shall be convicted of a crime of perjury, or of any other crime, which renders him ineligible to the office of elector, he shall be ineligible to the office of elector, and shall be imprisoned for not less than six months or more than two years.

CHANGE IN THE MODE OF VOTING. As therein directed, I also give official notice of the following provisions of an Act approved March 30, 1866, entitled, "An Act relating to the mode of voting at all elections in the several counties of this Commonwealth."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, that in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot or ballots from any person or persons embraced in the provisions of this Act, approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five; and it shall be unlawful for any such person to give or deliver any ballot or ballots.

SECTION 2. That if any person shall receive or attempt to receive any such unlawful ballot or ballots from any such disqualified voter, he or she so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned for not more than six months, or fined not less than ten dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment of the proper county for not less than sixty days.

SECTION 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship and disqualified as aforesaid, shall at any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, vote or tender to the officers thereof any ballot or ballots, or attempt to do so, or to vote a ballot or ballots, or attempt to do so, or to vote a ballot or ballots, or attempt to do so, or to vote a ballot or ballots, or attempt to do so...

SECTION 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade or advise any person or persons deprived of citizenship and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot or ballots to the officers of any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall persuade or advise any such officer to receive any ballot or ballots from any such person, or shall persuade or advise any such officer to receive any ballot or ballots from any such person...

SECTION 5. That it shall be the duty of the Adjutant General of this Commonwealth to provide for the proper officers of the United States, certified copies of all rolls and returns containing official evidence of the fact of the desertion of all persons who were citizens of this Commonwealth, and who were deprived of citizenship, and disqualified by the said act of Congress, of March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and to cause to be recorded, and preserved, in books to be provided and kept for that purpose, in his office, full and complete exemplifications of such rolls and returns, and to cause true copies to be made thereof, and furnished to the clerks of the several courts of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, accurate duplicates, or exemplifications, of such rolls and returns, embracing the names of all such disqualified persons as had their residence within the limits of the counties, respectively, at the time of their being marked or designated deserters; and it shall be the duty of the clerks of the several courts of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth to provide for the making of books to be kept for the purpose, all such copies and exemplifications of such rolls and returns, so furnished, and to allow access thereto, and to furnish certified copies thereof, on request, in like manner, as in the case of other records of such courts.

SECTION 6. That a certified copy, or extract, of any such record, of the clerk of a court of quarter sessions, of this Commonwealth, shall be prima facie evidence, before any election held, of the fact of desertion, and consequent disability and disqualification as an elector; Provided, That if any person shall willfully use, or present, any false, fraudulent, or forged paper, purporting to be a certified copy or extract, as aforesaid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned for not more than six months, or fined not less than ten dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment of the proper county for not less than sixty days.

SECTION 7. That it shall be the duty of the judges and inspectors of elections, hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, whenever the name of any person, offering to tender a ballot or ballots, shall be found upon a certified copy or extract furnished from said rolls or records, by a clerk of a court of quarter sessions, marked as a deserter; or whenever any person shall object to the payment of any such person, at any election, by such person, so offering to tender a ballot, to examine such person on oath or affirmation, as to the fact appearing from such certificate, or alleged against him, by the objectors so objecting, and if he deny it, or his reasons therefor: Provided however, That if any of his answers, under such examination are false, such person shall be deemed guilty of a crime of perjury, and upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned for not less than six months or more than two years.

SECTION 8. That if any person shall be convicted of a crime of perjury, or of any other crime, which renders him ineligible to the office of elector, he shall be ineligible to the office of elector, and shall be imprisoned for not less than six months or more than two years.

SECTION 9. That if any person shall be convicted of a crime of perjury, or of any other crime, which renders him ineligible to the office of elector, he shall be ineligible to the office of elector, and shall be imprisoned for not less than six months or more than two years.

SECTION 10. That if any person shall be convicted of a crime of perjury, or of any other crime, which renders him ineligible to the office of elector, he shall be ineligible to the office of elector, and shall be imprisoned for not less than six months or more than two years.
