

The Mariettian.

MARIETTA, PA.

Saturday Morning, November 3, 1866.

There were on board of the ill-fated steamer, "Evening Star," at the time of her loss more notorious people than that of any steamer ever lost.

The legislature of Pennsylvania will meet on Tuesday, January 1st, 1867, and on Tuesday, January 15th, both houses of the legislature will elect a United States Senator for six years.

Just after Johnson became President, and it was thought that General Butler would be assigned to command at Richmond, Va., a member of the Virginia Legislature offered a resolution.

The Boston Transcript says that the officers of the Custom House in their researches among the passengers on the China, found a lady with an undue development about the breast.

Gov. Swann has removed the Baltimore Police Commissioners. He says he will call on the President of the United States for assistance, if necessary.

A singular case of thieft and industry is exhibited in the case of a negro in Mobile, Ala., who last week deposited in the Freedmen's Bank $540 in gold.

Rev. Edward H. Hudson, a well known Methodist minister at Palmers, Ill., eloped last week with a widow named McCulloch.

Reports of the falling health of both Napoleon and Bismarck are still industriously circulated throughout Europe.

Judge Pearson, of Dauphin county, has issued a preliminary injunction against the Mayor, Councilmen and Treasurer of Harrisburg.

Maximilian continues to use the Atlantic cable extensively, his last message having been one of 475 words in cypher to the Empress Carlotta.

Sylvanus Cobb, a Universalist clergyman and a very prolific novel writer for Bonner's New York Ledger.

Miss Francis A. Seward, only daughter of Secretary Seward, died a few days since, in Washington, aged 22 years.

Mrs. Dubois, only daughter of Robert Toombs, died at Washington, Georgia, a few days since.

Ex-rebel General Dick Taylor, was on a visit a few days since to Jefferson Davis.

General Sherman's militia majority is now finally fixed at 17,178.

A sexton in Louisville, Ky., on Monday night, discovered two men in the act of removing a dead body from a grave, and fired upon them.

Since the great fire in Portland on the 4th of July last, there have been nearly 700 buildings erected on the burned district.

The gradual wearing away of the Falls of Niagara from year to year has become a subject of constant remark.

Among other wonders of the forthcoming French Exhibition there is to be a gigantic aquarium, the front of which is alone to measure 100 feet.

The official majority for Gen. Geary for Governor of this State, over Mr. Clymer, is 17,853, which is more than was expected before the official summing up was published.

A project is on foot for supplying New York city with gas manufactured at the coal mines in Pennsylvania.

The Cincinnati Commercial is guilty of the following audacious specimen: "Some of the papers head a very sanctimonious account of a Southern parson's visit to the stern statesman."

"Deporting gamblers" is not confined to the United States, for it is announced that recently, at Baden, a match at baccarat took place between an English duke and a Russian prince.

Great quantities of pencils are now made in England of a composition formed of sawdust and small pieces of lead, which are ground to an impalpable powder.

Rev. Theodore Dwight, one of the most distinguished linguists in America, died in Brooklyn on the 16th inst., aged seventy years.

La France, published at Paris, confirms the intelligence as to the alarming mental condition of the Empress of Mexico.

There is a farm in Colorado, 18 miles long by 12 wide, which pastures 3000 head of cattle and 6000 sheep.

A cow exhibited at a recent Illinois agricultural fair, gave, during three weeks in the month of July last, a yield of milk averaging twenty-nine quarts daily.

James Orr, of Springfield, Illinois, has just shipped from Lisbon, St. Lawrence county, N.Y., 5,000 trees of evergreen varieties.

U. S. Senator Wright, of New Jersey, who has been at death's door for months, died on Thursday, aged 75 years.

U. S. Senator Wright, of New Jersey, died on Thursday, aged 75 years.

John Brown's Widow. A letter from Reed Bluff, California, says: "As she is called, the wife of the great John Brown still resides here, pleasantly situated and surrounded with pleasant, comfortable influences."

The New York News says, "It is useless to attempt to overlook the fact that the late, speechifying tour of the President, was the greatest blunder that functionary could possibly have committed."

At the Republican National Convention of 1864, when a proposition was made in the Wisconsin delegation to unite their vote in favor of Andrew Johnson for Vice President.

It makes people's mouths water to think of the revenue of some of the English ecclesiastical functionaries.

Dr. Hoy, postmaster at Elyton, Ala., a peaceful, respectable, and intelligent gentleman, and always a staunch Union man, has been compelled by rebels calling themselves "Peace Regulators."

General Jeff C. Davis reports to the Freedmen's Bureau a series of outrages perpetrated in Kentucky upon negroes by men in disguise, known as regulators.

Robert M. Lee, of Philadelphia, who was twice convicted before the United States District Court of fraud and forgery, and each time pardoned by President Johnson, was arrested in Chicago.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher explained his political position in an address in the Brooklyn Academy of Music Monday evening, the 15th very little to the satisfaction of the Democrats.

The Houston Telegraph, Texas, announces that a company has been formed for the manufacture of ice in that city, and that when the machinery gets into operation the price will not be more than three cents a pound.

The telegraph in Switzerland is the property of the State. The charge is uniformly one franc for twenty-five words, or a little less than one cent per word, irrespective of distance.

A young lady in Wisconsin lately had both legs and a collar bone broken by the kicking of a horse who got its foot entangled in her hoops.

Gailford, Hendricks county, Indiana, gave its entire vote, 621, for the Union Republican ticket at the late election.

A street car conductor in New Orleans has been before the courts for ejecting from his car a lady whom he mistook for a mulatto.

Blot is in Chicago, but cannot lecture. His kitchen utensils were sent on the wrong train, and haven't yet found their destination.

American Artisan. The name of a scientific journal published at No. 159 Broadway, New York, by Brown, Goomba & Co., who respectfully announce that it is their aim to make that journal as instructive and interesting as other similar periodicals in the United States or Europe.

Our Western exchanges are apprehensive of a hard winter in that region. According to the notions of these very observant cotemporaries, the phenomenon which usually presage the approach of a hard winter, are becoming more marked.

The Mineral Point Tribune reports a beautiful illustration of the Johnsonian policy of making appointments. Postmaster General Randall has removed from the post office at Benton, Lafayette county, the widow of Mark Richards.

Several election officers have been arrested in Montgomery county for having obeyed the law of the State which declares that the votes of deserters from the military service, shall be rejected.

The six men who recently exploded a barrel of gunpowder under a negro cabin, near Vicksburg, were arrested on Tuesday, on information furnished by their colored servants, by a small squad of military.

Capt. John McKee, a soldier from Indiana, who during the war was shot through the body and lungs, and awarded a full pension of $240 per annum, has refunded one-half his pay for the last year.

It is reported that game is unusually plenty all over the country, and a southern paper ascribes it to the absence in the army for four years of those fond of gunning.

A general officer who has recently returned from a visit to South Carolina, says that he learned while there, that the 29th South Carolina rebel regiment has been reorganized, and that they boast that they had offered their services to the President to sustain any attempt which he might make to suppress Congress.

A colored man was arrested, the other day in New Orleans for having a gold watch. The Tribune says he was from Maine, which was an additional offense in the eyes of the magistrate.

The Boston Recorder has claimed to be the oldest distinctively religious newspaper in the land, and even in the world, but it has been pretty clearly established that the Religions Remembrancer, of Philadelphia is older, by three years, having been started in 1813.

A dispatch from St. Paul says that Ex-Gov. Horatio Seymour, of New York, while on a visit to that city, recently declared himself in favor of the constitutional amendment, and also said that if he lived in the south he would be in favor of negro suffrage.

The Democrats say they want a flag with thirty-six stars on it. Where could they have found it if the eleven stars that were dropping out had not been pinned in their places by Union bayonets? And yet the Democrats objected to the pinning process.

Russia has ordered 6,000,000 of the lately invented Russian matches. The Fire arm Company of "Onondaga" is being introduced as "Onondaga" Russian needles.

A monument to "Corplanter" the Indian chief, was dedicated at Warren, Pa., last week.

A valuable diamond ring was lately found in the stomach of an Ohio river catfish.

It is said Maximilian keeps a bank account in New York.

The citizens of Harrisburg intend shortly to commence the construction of a new bridge over the Susquehanna.

The executive council of the colored men of New Jersey, have begun their suits in that state to test the negro's right to vote.

There is a report that our Government has insisted on the immediate evacuation of Mexico by the French, and that it is prepared to support the Juarez Government.

Col. Lynch, one of the Fenians, has been sentenced to be hanged on the 13th of December.

Johnson Winn, convicted of passing counterfeit currency in New York State has been pardoned by the President.

The "Stonewall Cemetery" for rebel soldiers at Winchester, Va., has been dedicated.

A warrant has been issued for the execution of Peter Bots, on Tuesday, the 4th of December.

An attempt was made to assassinate the Emperor of Austria, but the would be murderer was arrested.

Five big snakes escaped from a menagerie, and are gallivanting about Ohio.

Most of the French journals give up Maximilian's cause as lost.

A boy in this State has killed himself by eating acorns.

There are 30,000 lawyers in the United States.

George A. Trenholm, ex-rebel Secretary of the Treasury, has been pardoned by the President.

Lafayette McLane, ex-rebel Major General has been pardoned by the President.

A vagrant who was brought before the Leeds (England) magistrates on the 24th ult., was said to have never been in bed for at least ten years.

Gen. John E. Hartranft, Auditor General of Pennsylvania, has accepted the appointment of colonel in the regular army, tendered him some time ago by the Secretary of War, and left his office at Harrisburg on the 1st of November.

The excitement throughout Canada, in regard to the recent death sentence of the Fenians is increasing, the people as a whole demanding the death of the rascals.

Colonel Lewis D. Campbell, our Minister to Mexico, left Washington on Sunday evening at eight o'clock for his home in Ohio, where he will remain long enough to adjust such of his affairs as need immediate attention before starting for Mexico.

The people of Emporium, Cameron county, are going into ecstasies because some one contemplates establishing a banking house there.

On the Eriebet farm, in Stenelick township, Clermont county, Ohio, within a few days past, four persons named Shumard, died of cholera.

A colored man was arrested, the other day in New Orleans for having a gold watch. The Tribune says he was from Maine, which was an additional offense in the eyes of the magistrate.

The Boston Recorder has claimed to be the oldest distinctively religious newspaper in the land, and even in the world, but it has been pretty clearly established that the Religions Remembrancer, of Philadelphia is older, by three years, having been started in 1813.

Ladies' FANCY FURS! JOHN FAREIRA'S OLD ESTABLISHED Fur Manufactory, No. 718 ARCH Street, above 7th, Philadelphia.

Special Notices.

LYON'S PATENT IRON DOORS. The great male Remedy for Irrigularities. These Doors are a scientifically compounded fluid preparation, and better than any Pills, Powders or Nostrums.

Prepared by Dr. JOHN L. LYON, 185 Chapel Street, New Haven, Conn.; who can be consulted either personally or by mail, (enclosing stamp) concerning all private diseases and female weaknesses.

Dr. TOBIAS' Venetian Liniment. An instantaneous remedy for chronic rheumatism, headache, toothache, cramp, colic, quinsy, sore throat, and pains in any part of the body.

ALCOCK'S PECTORAL PLASTER. Whooping Cough cured. Cayuga, Hinde co., N.Y. A. Alcock & Co. Gentlemen—Please send me another six dozen of your Pectoral Plaster.

ASTHMA CURED. Mr. William May, of Spring-st., New York, writes Jan. 1, 1866, "I have been afflicted with Asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medicine."

To Consumptives.—The advertiser having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years, with a severe lung affection and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

Parties wishing the prescription, FREE, by return mail, will please address REV. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings County, New York.

Deafness, Strabismus and Cataract, treated with the utmost success, by J. ISAACSON, M. D., Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of Leyden, Holland), No. 519 PINE ST., PHILADELPHIA.

EMPIRE SHUTTLE MACHINES are superior to all others for family and manufacturing purposes; contain all the latest improvements; are speedy, noiseless, durable and easy to work.

MARRIAGE AND CELIBACY.—An essay of warning and instruction for young men; also, Diseases and Abuses which prematurely prostrate the Vital Powers, with sure means of relief.

Dr. Velpeau French Pills are a benefit to the female sex, but ladies in a delicate condition should not use them if they desire an increase of family. Sold by Dr. F. Hinkler, Marietta, and by all good druggists.

Dr. Velpeau French Pills are a benefit to the female sex, but ladies in a delicate condition should not use them if they desire an increase of family.