Godeg's Lady's Book for 1867.

The Eashion Magazine of the World.

Literature, Fine Arts and Fashions. The most magnificent steel engravings. Double Fashion-Plates. Wood engravings on every subject that can interest ladies. Crochet knitting, Netting, Embroidery, Articles for the Toilet, for the Parlor, the Boudoir, and the Kitchen. Everything, in fact, to make a complete Lady's Book.

The Ladies Favorite for 37 Years. No Magazine has been able to compete with it! None attempt it.

Godey's Receipts for every department of a household. These alone are worth the price of the book.

Model Cottages (no other Magazine gives them.) with Diagrams.

Drawing Lessons for the young. Another speciality with Godey.

Original Music, worth $3 a year. Other Magazines publish old worn-out Music; but the subscribers to Godey get it before the music stores.

Gardening for Ladies. Another peculiarity with Godey. Fashions from Messrs. A. T. Stewart & Co. of New York, the millionaire merchants, ap-pear in Godey, the only magazine that has them.

Ladies' Bonnets. We give more of them in a year than any other Magazine. In fact, the Lady's Book enables every lady to be her own bonnet maker.

A NOTHER GREAT CURE

IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK, Of a highly respectable citizen, well known to the Mercantile community, by DR. J. H. SCHENCK, THE GREAT LUNG DOCTOR OF PHIL-ADELPHIA.

OFFICE N. Y. AND GALENA LEADCO.,
No. 28 Nassau St., New York, June 1, 1865.
DR. J. H. SCHENCK—Dear Sir:—For over fifteen years I have been troubled with a seinteen years I have been troubled with a severe cough, and usually two or three times a year with more or less hemorrhage, which together, for the last few years, has kept me thin in flesh and too weak to do business of any kind without suffering. In August last I had a very severe hemorrhage, and, according to the judgement of a good New York physician,
I was classed as beyond the reach of medicine and was advised to be prepared, so far as pro perty matters were concerned, to leave at perty matters were concerned, to leave at short notice. The physician (and my good friends) said that the first cold I took must prove fatal. Early in January I took a severe cold, and fortunately was occupying rooms at No. 32 BOND STREET, directly over your office. I think about the 16th of January I procured a bottle of your Pulmonic Syrup and commenced taking it freely. January I procured a bottle of your Pulmonic Syrup and commenced taking it freely. My feet and limbs were very much swollen, and all the symptoms of a speady death seemed to accompany my cold. I sent for my former physician, and stated to him that I was taking your medicine, and after showing them to him, and baving tasted of them Sc., he replied: "You can take them if you, like, they will do you no harm." He said: "You know what I told you last summer, and I say the same now, if you have any business to know what I told you last summer, and I say the same now, if you have any business to close up, do not put it off." He said to other friends that he 'could see no hope for me," and my friends and relations concluded my time had come. At this time I was taking freely of your medicine, but had not seen you. The doctor called a few times, and found me (much to his surprise, he said,) improving, and he could not understand why. My faith was increasing in your medicines, and I had a wish to have you examine my case, and ser what you had to say. When you first came to my room and made the examination, you gave me but little encouragement, but on the contrary, expressed said doubts of my ever heing helped out of my then seeming difficulties. The second time that you called, finding me still gaining, you gave me encouragement, saying, "my symptoms were improvment, saying, "my symptoms were improv-ing; the Pulmonic Syrup, Sea-weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills had acted like a charm." and Mandrake Phils had acted like a charm."
My circulation, my cough, my, appetite, all began to improve, and I could walk about my room a little. You visited me nearly every Tuesday, and found me improving, and told me not to go out of my room until the first day of May. I took no cold while under your treatment, my appetite became first-rate, and you told me to eat everything I wished of a putrificus nature, and to everyie about the you told me to eat everything I wished of a nutritious nature, and to exercise about the room as much as possible. I followed your advice, and to the surprise of my old physician and friends, I seem much better than I have been for several years, and breathe better than I ever expected a person could with one lung, the left being completely dried up. I feel vory grateful to you, and consider your advice and medicines invaluable.

Yours, truly,

T. S. SHELDON.

DR. SCHENCK—Dear Sir:—About two years ago I was taken with a very troublesome cough and a pain—in my breast; seven or eight months passed away without my doing anything for myself. Then I applied to a physician, who attended me for about three months without rendering me any service. I also obtained the advice and treatment of a physician in one of our hospaitals, and also, had the advice and treatment of two other physicians, but all to no purpose. During this long space of time I was nearly dead; several times my friends came to see me and wit ness my exit into the spirit-world. I was confined to my bed two months at one time. My breathing was exceedingly short. I gave up several times all hope of getting better; and as regarded getting well, that was entirely out of the question. And to think this day I am well and hearty! I was advised by some of my friends to try Da. Schenck's Medicines. I accordingly bought bottle after bottle, until I reached the ninth; then I found a decided change in my cough for the better. I suffered severely from palpitation of the heart, and two weeks after I commenced taking your medicine this difficulty ceased.

When I first went to Dr. Schenck's office it DR. SCHENCK-Dear Sir : - About two years

this difficulty ceased.

When I first went to Dr. Schenck's office it was with difficulty that I could get up into his reception room, I was so weak and so swelled; reception room, I was so weak and so swelled; my skin was as sallow as though I had the jaundice; I felt dull, heavy, and sleepless. Dr. Schenck, after examining me, said both my lungs were affected, and gave me but little hope; but his medicines, in about two weeks, took right hold of me; it seemed to go right through my whole system. The Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, all took right hold in the right place. The Pills brought away great quantities of bile and slime; the Syrup loosened the matter, in my lungs, which came off very free; the Seaweed Tonic gave me an appetite, and everything slime; the Syrup loosened the matter, in my lungs, which came off very free; the Seaweed Tonic gave me an appetite, and everything seemed to taste good.

To show what great power the medicines have in purifying my system, and to show how bad I was diseased, beside all the bile that passed my bowels, and the great quantities of phlegm and matter I expectorated, I broke out all over in large boils, that would continue to gather and run for about six weeks, and I had at one time over twenty-five boils. I have nothing of the kind now, and feel like another person altogether. I can safely say that I have not enjoyed such health for five years as I do now, and cannot praise you and your medicines enough. May God abundantly bless and preserve you! is the sincere desire of one who has been so wonderfully relieved through your agency; and if any one desires to know with regard to the truthfulness of this report, if they will call upon any of my friends, or upon me, No. 4 Dryden Place, near Thompson street, below Cadwalader, Philadelphia, they will be perfectly satisfied with the validity of the case. Yours, with much respect,

MARY SCHNAIDT.

A NN S. STEPHENS' NEW BOOK!

THE SOLDIER'S ORPHANS. By Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, author or ion and Famine," "The Gold Brick," "The Gold Brick," "Mary ion and Famine," "The Gold Brick," "fie Old Homestead," "Silent Struggles," "Mary Derwert," "Rejected Wife," "The Heir-ess," "The Wife's Secret," Etc.

ress," a 'The Wire's Secret," Etc.

This new book, by Alrs. siephens, has been pronounced by all to be by far the best and most interesting work ever written by here-lt appeared in monthly instalments in "Pstremon's Magazine" during the last year, having been completed in the December no, where it proved to be the most popular, powerful and successful novel that has ever appeared in that Magazine, and it is now pubpeared in that Magazine, and it is now pub-lished complete and unabraged, in one argo duodecimo volume, uniform with the "Gold Brick," "Fashion and Famine," and other models and the complete of the complet Brick," "Fashion and Famine," and other works of Mis. Ann S. Stephens, published by us. It will no doubt prove to be the most popular and successful work that has ever before been written by this talented American authoress.

"Mrs Stephens has justly become a favorite with all American renders of prose fiction, ite with all American readers of prose fiction, ite with all American readers of prose fictors, and the announcement of a new work from her graceful pen is cheerful news to thousands of readers. And there is a rare treat in stors for them, for in "The Soldier's Orphaus," Mrs. Stephens has, if anything, eclipsed all her former efforts. There is less redundant of scene and action, but there is far more untitate excellence, and an elaboration of causes of scene and action, but there is far more artistic excellence, and an elaboration of cuses and effects, attainable only by practised writers. The action of this new novel transpires in Philadelphia, and beyond the limits of the city the authoress does not permit herself to stray. The time selected by Mrs. Stephens is recent, the late war, and she pictures with vivid distinctness the domestic suffering and sacrifices entailed by, and made for, the grand and heroic atruggle for national unity. The plot is one of absorbing interest, the characters are graphic transcripts from real life, strongly individualized, and the contrasts formed by their individual peculiarities, mental and physical, lend a rare charm to this last.

med by their individual peculiarities, mental and physical, lend a rare charm to this last and most finished of Mrs. Stephens' books."
